THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig),
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW
THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW (Evangelical),
AND
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE
☞ These Reprints are not selections; they give the originals in full, and at about one-third the price of the English Editions.
No publications can compare with the leading British Periodicals above named, reprinted by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. In respect to fidelity of research, accuracy of statement, and purity of style, they are without any equal. They keep pace with no less thought, discovery, experiment, and achievement, whether in religion, science, literature, or art. The ablest writers dil their pages with most interesting reviews of history, and with an intelligent narration of the great events of the day.

TERMS FOR 1879, INCLUDING POSTAGE.
Payable Strictly in Advance.

POSTAGE.
This item of expense, now borne by the publishers, is equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent on the cost to subscribers in former years.

CLUBS.
A discount of twenty per cent will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent, to one address, for $12.80, four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $48, and so on.

PREMIUMS.
New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1879 may have, without charge, the numbers for the last quarter of 1878 of such periodicals as they may subscribe for.
Or, instead, new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above periodicals, may have one of any Four Reviews for 1878; subscribers to all five may have two of the "Four Reviews," or one set of Blackwood's Magazine for 1878.
Neither premiums to subscribers nor discount to clubs can be allowed, unless the money is remitted direct to the publishers. No premiums given to Clubs.
To secure premiums it will be necessary to make early application, as the stock available for that purpose is limited.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
—THE—
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while unusually safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form a PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. 14eb20 79

The GREATEST LIVING AUTHORS, such as Prof. Max Muller, Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Jas. A. Froude, Prof. Huxley, R. A. Proctor, Edw. A. Freeman, Prof. Tyndall, Dr. W. B. Carpenter, Frances Power Cobbe, The Duke of Argyll, Wm. Black, Miss Thackeray, Miss Mulock, Geo. MacDonald, Mrs. Oliphant, Jean Ingelow, Mrs Alexander, Thomas Hardy, Matthew Arnold, Henry Kingsley, W. W. Story, Turguenief, Carlyle, Ruskin, Tennyson, Browning, and many others, are represented in the pages of Littell's Living Age.
In 1879, THE LIVING AGE enters upon its thirty-sixth year, admittedly unrivalled and continuously successful. During the year it will furnish to its readers the productions of the most eminent living and deceased and many others; embracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the Leading Foreign Novelists, and an amount
Unapproached by any other Periodical
in the world, of the most valuable Literary and Scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers and Editors, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress.
THE LIVING AGE is a weekly magazine giving more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND
double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Critisisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.
The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the
is sufficiently indicated by the following
OPINIONS.
"In it we find the best productions of the best writers upon all subjects ready to our hand."—Philadelphia Inquirer.
"It is simply indispensable to any one who desires to keep abreast of the thought of the age in any department of science or literature."—Boston Traveller.
"The prince among magazines."—New York Observer.
"It affords the best, the cheapest and most convenient means of keeping abreast with the progress of thought in all its phases."—Philadelphia North American.
"A monthly that comes every week."—The Advance, Chicago.
"It is incomparable in the richness, variety, and sterling worth of its articles."—The Standard, Chicago.
"A pure and perpetual reservoir and fountain of entertainment and instruction."—Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.
"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all the leading productions in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.
"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.
"The choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune.
"It is indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.
"It has no equal in any country. Philadelphia Press.
"Ought to find a place in every American home."—New York Times.
Published weekly at $8.00 a year, free of postage.
EXTRA OFFER FOR 1879.
To all new subscribers for 1879 will be sent gratis the six numbers of 1878, containing, with other valuable matter, the first parts of "SIR GIBBIE," a new serial story of much interest by GEORGE MACDONALD, now appearing in THE LIVING AGE from the author's advance sheets. Other choice new serials by distinguished authors are engaged and will specedily appear.
Club Prices for the best Home and Foreign Literature.
"Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation."—Phila. Evening Bulletin.
For $10.00 THE LIVING AGE and either one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar) will be sent for a year, both postpaid; or for $9.50 THE LIVING AGE and the St. Nicholas, or Appleton's Journal. Address
LITTELL & GAY, Boston.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mercurial Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially but it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has established the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of calomel, croton oil, and kindred drugs. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without distress, or the slightest interruption of the system. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in Region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Distorted feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, thus virtually keeping thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, dropping of the mucus falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick glairy, tenacious, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, congested pulmonary organs, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the membranes of the tubes communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge principally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are soon eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish spots or pimples on the body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" many of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it occasts prompt and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by all druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in regions of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time. In contrast, we think they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE for CATARRH does in every case afford immediate and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, and severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections, the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all it is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of reproducibility unequal for any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the Radical Cure for Catarrh has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sorely afflicted with the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have not found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than 10 years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WEBB, and can cruelly say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties, hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc., THEO. P. BOGERT.

Daily Chronicle.

"The Plague."

The term "plague" is so often used in its general sense, covering all epidemic diseases, that it is seldom thought of as a specific disease, like typhus fever. It is sometimes called "Typhus d'Orient," a name expressive of its place of origin. It is eminently malignant, and it is said by medical authorities to kill "at least two thirds of those it attacks." It has frequently in distant ages swept over the known world, and single epidemics are supposed to have numbered their victims by millions. The plague of the sixth century, which attacked three continents, is said to have killed twice as many people as there are now living in the United States. We are all familiar with the story told by De Foe, of the "great plague" of London, but it was insignificant in comparison with the ravages made by the disease in the cities of the East. The quarantine laws were instituted to prevent the spread of the plague, although now employed for a similar purpose during the prevalence of any epidemic. The improved condition of all the cities of the world has in recent times prevented such wide-spread epidemics as were common a few hundred years ago, but there is still a wholesome dread of the plague throughout Europe, as shown in the dispatches reporting the supposed spread of the disease from Astrakan. A generation has passed away since the last appearance of the plague in Europe; if it should come again, sanitary cordons will doubtless be drawn around the infected districts so as to prevent, if possible, all communication with the outer world. It is of course a difficult matter to establish a complete quarantine, but the large standing armies of Europe can be used to advantage in this service. An eastern war is always liable to spread, if not generate the plague, and it is quite probable that the present pestilence, whether it be typhus fever or the true plague, is due to the movement of Russian troops on the frontier.

Business Failures.

Lack of judgement causes fully fifty per cent. of all business men to fail, earlier or later. A very small proportion of physicians fail to cure from the same cause? At the Grand Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce, through the skill attained by his several specialists, each having devoted years to a special department of medical science, is able to cure a large per cent. of cases hitherto considered incurable. Many physicians, in view of the superior advantages of this model sanitarium, bring there stubborn, obscure, complicated, and surgical cases for examinations, operation, and treatment. Full particulars given in the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages. Price, post-paid, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—Mrs. Hickland, who lived at Grafton street, Halifax, subsisted almost entirely on the alms of charitable societies and kindly disposed persons. A search of her room after her death led to the discovery of $214 in cash. How she got it can scarcely even be surmised.

—At a Methodist conference meeting in New York a man got up and said he had long wished to speak, but his wife wouldn't let him. His wife had died, however, and having his liberty at last, he proposed to exercise it. In about two minutes the entire conference wept over the death of the lady as over the loss of a personal friend.—Buffalo Express.

Portsmouth Chronicle

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1879.

A Queer Congress.

A man who starts out with the deliberate intention of spending more than his income, will soon find himself in debt beyond his ability to pay; and how it is to be any different with a nation we cannot imagine. Congress has deliberately arranged for a deficiency of twenty-seven millions next year—for increasing the public debt to that amount. The taxes on whiskey and tobacco have been reduced, and the consequent loss to the revenue has not been otherwise provided for.

In the United States House of Representatives, last week, Mr. Atkins, of Tennessee, chairman of the appropriations committee, read a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury in relation to the estimates and expenditures of the government. The letter states that the estimates of expenditures for the next fiscal year amount to $284,562,419. The estimated receipts are: From customs, $133,000,000; from internal revenue, $106,000,000; from miscellaneous sources $18,500,000; total, $257,500,000, leaving a deficiency of $27,062,419. Mr. Sherman says this deficiency must be provided for by new legislation, either by additional taxation or by the issue of four per cent bonds, and closes his letter as follows: "As the new taxes cannot be immediately productive, it is recommended that authority be given to raise the amount necessary by the sale of four per cent bonds."

On Saturday, in the House committee on ways and means, Fernando Wood astonished all the other members except inflationist Kelley of Pennsylvania, by adopting Kelley's views, and proposing to allow neither additional taxation nor the sale of bonds, but to compel the use of the coin reserve in the treasury to meet any deficiencies. The effect of this would of course be to imperil the success of resumption, and to again unsettle values and check the reviving industry of the country.

Heredity.

We have received from Messrs. Houghton, Osgood & Co., through Mr. W. G. Myers, another of the publications of Joseph Cook's Boston Monday Lectures. The volume is entitled Heredity, with the preludes upon current events.

A large number of persons are to be found every Monday morning in attendance upon these lectures, and the reports of the same are eagerly read all over the country. Here the admirer of Mr. Cook can range from the Hereditary descent in Ancient Greece to the future of American poetry. While all cannot agree with Mr. Cook, many there are who appreciate his great scholarship, his deep philosophy, his broad intellect, his constant searching after truth, his progressive ideas and his original manner. To keep apace with the age one must read Joseph Cook just as he is obliged to peruse his daily newspaper, not always to credit all he reads, but to know what the world is doing and what a thinker thinks of what is going on about us. The book is uniform in style with the others of the series of the Monday lectures and is sold at the same price, $1.50 per volume.

News and Notes.

Marie Azurine, a trapezist, was fatally injured by falling in a theatre at Detroit, Mich., on Thursday night.

Knight and Jackman, convicted of wrecking a train on the Indianoplis and St. Louis railway, were on Friday sentenced to imprisonment for life.

The steamers between Italy and Egypt have been discontinued on account of the plague. The importation of Egyptian cotton into Italy has been prohibited. Greek vessels with corn have been warned away from Palermo by cannon shot.

A letter from Brazil to the New York Herald gives a frightful picture of the ravages of famine and pestilence raging in that country for more than a year past. It is said to be the greatest calamity in 200 years. Half a million of people have been swept away by starvation and disease. Small-pox and black plague have carried off victims in appalling numbers. Thousands of corpses have been devoured by wild animals, and peasants ate their own offspring. Some places have been depopulated. The picture of woe can scarcely be paralleled in history, except by the black death which desolated Europe in the fourteenth century.

The Miners' Journal, of Pottsville, Pa., publishes a letter of President Gowen of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, explaining the secrets of the organization known as the Knights of Labor, which has been in existence in Schuylkill county over a year. He says a general miners' strike was ordered by the society to take place Feb. 16th in case the men were not paid their wages by that time, but a postponement was ordered until the 20th inst., by which time all will be paid. He gives the name of the committee called "McNulty's gang," appointed and organized for the purpose of burning coal-breakers and other property in case of a strike, and gives other details of the organization. The publication of the letter creates a sensation only second to the exposure of the notorious Molly Maguire society.

The capitalists who put their faith in the Keeley motor still remain firm in their belief that great things will come of it. The annual meeting of the stockholders was held in Philadelphia on Tuesday of last week, in secret session. The attendants appeared to be quite cheerful and confident—as much so as if they had just pocketed a handsome dividend. Among those present were many of the shrewdest manufacturers of New York and Philadelphia, men well versed in mechanical science. One of the stockholders said he held one hundred shares of stock, and added significantly, "and none for sale." He says time will tell the story. Great developments are promised in a few months.

New Hampshire Items.

Mayor Kelley of Manchester has prepared circulars to be signed and served by Marshal Longa, giving liquor dealers two weeks to cease the unlawful traffic. At the expiration of this time he proposes to prosecute all cases to the full extent of the law.

There arrived at Plymouth on Friday evening, from California, 50,000 salmon eggs for the State hatching-house. The eggs came by express, packed in wet moss, the box and contents weighing 170 pounds, making in all 400,000 salmon eggs received this year. This last shipment consists of eggs of the "land-locked" variety of salmon.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGON, D. C., Feb. 12th.

The Senate committee on appropriations have at last agreed that something must be done in the way of encouraging and reviving commerce in the interest of our foreign trade. They have voted almost unaminously to recommend an appropriation of $200,000 in behalf of two mail lines of steamers, one to ply between New York via Norfolk and Brazil, and one between New Orleans via Galveston and Brazil, both to be semi-monthly. The annual payment for the service to each line is not to exceed $150,000. Many democrats who have heretofore opposed this policy, have seen new light and are zealously working for the success of this plan, and there is no doubt of its passing the Senate promptly. In the House it will receive some opposition, but it will be more formal than vital, more apparent than real, the opponents of what are called "subsidies" having learned by experience that some radical measure must be adopted to prevent our direct trade with South America slipping into England's hands, and to save what little sale we have for our wares in the best markets of the world. The friends of the new policy assert that it is sure to be adopted by both Houses within a few days. The New York line is already under way, having been started last summer by Mr. John Roach, aided by the Brazilian Emperor. The steamships for the new line from New Orleans could be ready in six or eight months. Our manufacturers and producers may prepare for better times if this policy succeeds, as it will be sure to extend their sales and improve their prices.

The talk about an extra session has assumed seriousness every day since the democratic caucus took ground in favor of tacking the supervisor and test oath repeal clauses upon the appropriations. But there is a vigorous fire against that policy, and it may be that the extra sessionists will see the error of their ways and relent before the time for the block game arrives. By very hard work, the important or essential work of the session can be finished before the 1st of March.

The investigation of Ex-Sec. Robeson does not appear to have had so grand results as his foes predicted or aimed at, and the worst that they now propose is to censure him. Ever since the examination began, they have said that they would have him indicted, and the result is rather an acknowledgment of error on their part. It is said that many democrats are sick of the matter, denouncing it as a persecution, and will vote to drop it here without even a censure.

The republican Senatorial caucus last night is supposed to have agreed to oppose the effort to repeal the test oath law and the supervisor law, even if such opposition caused the failure of the appropriation bill to which they are attached. The democrats must in that case withdraw their caucus policy or depend upon the President for an extra session. But the probability is that they didn't expect the republicans to show so stiff a neck to their demand for a new Federal policy.

A meeting of colored men was held in this city the other night to arrange for a national conference, and it was agreed to hold it at Nashville, May 6th, next. This is supposed to be in part for the purpose of promoting Senator Windom's plan of migration for the colored communities that complain of oppression or hard times in the south. The wisest and most sagacious colored men have approved his plan and they recommend the Senate to appoint a committee to investigate and report what can be done officially to promote it, as best for white as well as blacks.

KNOX.

Political.

Senator Bruce of Mississippi was called to the chair in the Senate chamber Friday, and presided over the Senate a part of the afternoon, it being the first time in the history of the government that a colored man has occupied the chair.

Gen. Butler made a notable speech in the House on Friday, in which he made strong effort to conciliate the south, and even went so far as to suggest that possibly the time might come when the government would pay pensions to southern soldiers.

Mr. N. K. Sawyer, formerly of the Ellsworth, Me., American, now of the Jacksonville (Florida) Sun furnishes the Portland Advertiser an interesting account of the recent election in the second congressional district of Florida. The proof of Mr. Bisbee's election appears to be complete; the attempted fraud, by which he was to have been defeated, has been exposed in open court; yet the democratic governor of Florida still refuses to give Mr. Bisbee a certificate, and that being the case, the democratic House at Washington will probably exclude him from his seat.

The testimony of Ex-State Senator Campbell, democrat, of Charleston, S. C., before the Teller committee, will not be found in democratic papers. He says he voted the democratic ticket, and then watched proceedings at a certain poll in the city. About 700 men voted, but 2000 votes were returned as having been cast.

The democrats of the United States Senate have declared unanimously that the XIIIth, XIVth and XVth amendments to the Constitution are invalid. The only excuse offered for their action is the ridiculous one that the republicans fooled them in voting for a question whose full meaning they did not comprehend. Why did they try for eleven consecutive hours to avoid a vote on it, then?

The testimony brought out before the Teller committee at Washington, shows that greenbackers are as much under the ban in Mississippi as republicans. General Davis, an old democrat, who never acted with the republican party in his life, testified that he was not allowed to make greenback speeches when running for Congress against the regular democratic nominee. He declares that if the votes had been counted fairly he would have been returned by ten thousand majority. Another greenbacker corroborated this testimony, and gave some details of democratic bulldozing. The testimony of these men will carry weight, as they are native Mississippians, and have no sympathy with the republican party.—New Haven Union, (greenback.)

The brief but fervid stump speeches which Tilden injected into his cross-examination are being copied with expressions of delight by the democratic editors. Of course they omit to quote the subsequent questions which invariably destroyed the eloquence. One of the neatest instances of the way this was done occurred in the latter part of the examination. Mr. Tilden remarked that the "danger of tolerating a wrong on either side is its tendency to grow. One man does a thing because another man does it. This was one of the reasons that impelled me to put my foot down against every approach of this kind." This was a lovely contribution to the high moral fraud literature, till Mr. Hiscock destroyed its symmetry by saying quietly, "Yes; and it is in that same line, upon the assumption that you would have done that, that I desire to make the fact prominent in this case, that the national committee of the democratic party allowed all this correspondence with the South Carolina and Florida statesmen to be in the name of Colonel Pelton, and after it was discovered that he was, at least, receiving propositions, and that he was putting himself in position to be tempted with such propositions, that neither you nor the democratic executive committee removed him from that position." Mr. Tilden did not return to the stump-speaking business again after that stopper was administered.—Tribune.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Alum in the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

We are pleased to learn that Thomas E. Call, Esq., who has been seriously ill, is rapidly convalescing.

Rev. W. F. Harvey, from the west, will preach in the chapel at Faith Home this (Monday) evening at a quarter to eight o'clock.

The schooner Unison, with a cargo of ice for Laighton Bros. & Co., was towed to the Shoals on Saturday by steamer Clara Bateman.

Ezra H. Winchester, Esq., has arrived home from a visit to San Francisco. He left that city a week ago, coming across the continent without stopping by the way.

Rev. C. B. Pitblado of this city lectured in Nashua on Wednesday evening of last week, and at Worcester, Mass., on Thursday evening. Heis announced to lecture in Great Falls on the 20th of March.

The Times of Saturday loaded the schooner Unison with "six hundred tons of ice." As the Unison is of only eighty-seven tons register, the tons of ice must have been very small ones, if she carried six hundred of them at once.

The "First Lord of the Admiralty" who appears next week in H. M. S. Pinafore, spends his summer vacation at Kittery Point, and his Portsmouth friends ought to give him a hearty welcome when he comes on board "off Portsmouth."

The crew of "H. M. S. Pinafore" will drill on the stage at Music hall on the evening of the 24th inst., and not on the 24th as was announced in the CHRONICLE of Saturday morning. There are not ninety-four days in February this year.

The schooner Elizabeth M. Smith, Capt. Raymond, which left Railroad wharf for Boston last week, stopped at Star island to take on board the blocking used by the new owners of the island in removing the various cottages and placing them upon a line with the Oceanic. The buildings present an attractive appearance, and the long piazza, like that at Appledore, will be one of the places out to sea upon which to enjoy a "constitutional."

THE VICINITY.

The printers association of Dover are to have a grand masquerade and ball on Thursday evening.

Elizabeth Harris broke one of her arms by a fall on Sonnet street, Dover, and entered against the city a claim for $1000 as damages. Last week the Dover city government appointed a committee with power to settle the claim, which was effected by the payment of $370, of which the woman received $301.11, the balance of $68.89 being costs and fees.

A Rye correspondent of the Exeter News-Letter has seen a record of deaths in that town since 1803, from which it appears that 1507 deaths took place from 1803 to 1879. Of the deaths, 777 were females and 730 males. The largest number dying in any one year was forty-two, in 1803; the smallest number, eight, in 1874. Five persons were killed by lightning, nine were drowned, and four committed suicide during that time.

A lodge of good Templars, to be known as Dauntless Lodge, has been organized at South Eliot, with the following officers: Willis Freeman, W. C. T.; Mrs. Freeman, V. C. T.; Mrs. Remick, R. H. S.; Miss M. A. Knight, L. H. S.; Rev. Mr. Freeman, C. L. T.; Oren H. Staples, Secretary; George E. Ireland, Chaplain; Miss J. Adams, Financial Secretary; Ferris Rogers, Treasurer; Clarence Paul, O. G.; Miss Lizzie Spinney, I. G.

The Dover Democrat says: "Now for the new road to Eliot. The Maine legislature has granted the charter for the bridge over the river between Maine and New Hampshire, in spite of all opposition. That part of the road across the river it is proposed to build by stock subscriptions, and make it a toll bridge. It won't cost a great deal, and with the amount of travel between Dover, Eliot and York beach, it will pay good dividends. The highway is an easy one to build through its entire length, and the distance is very short. Now if somebody will get up a petition to our aldermen it is very probable that the portion of it within the limits of Dover will be very soon laid out and built. We want the trade of Eliot and York, and can have it if we built this short piece of road. We have heard that nothing will be asked for the right of way."

Information was received from Newmarket last week to the effect that by the direction of the State fish commissioners notice had been given that the law against taking bass and smelts in Great bay and its tributaries, in any manner other than with a single hook and line, would be enforced on and after the 15th inst. This action causes great excitement among the fishermen in that vicinity, as about three hundred of them earn their living during the winter catching the fish.

Some of our readers will recollect that the clapper of the bell of the academy was taken in the night, a year since, and that no trace of it could be found. As the clapper had belonged to the original bell, that was destroyed at the time of the fire, and was the only thing that remained which had been connected with the old building, its loss was much regretted. On Tuesday a package was received by the editors of the Exonian by express, that was found to contain the long lost clapper. It was at once placed in position, and the tone of the bell is much improved since it speaks with its own tongue.—Exeter News-Letter.

In the supreme court at Dover last week the following sentences were imposed upon parties who pleaded guilty or nolo contendere: William G. Hall, for stealing a horse in Barrington, four years in State prison; Darius G. Hanscom, for stealing a horse, carriage, harness, etc., from W. R. Brown in Dover, five years in State prison; Peter Gibson, of Great Falls, for stealing a wolf-skin robe, two years in State prison; Etta Parker, for stealing a dress, sacque, etc., from Mrs. O'Connor of Great Falls, two years in State prison; Augustus Cowan of Dover, for receiving and concealing stolen goods and money, four years in State prison; Henry Barrows, alias Andrew S. Brown, for stealing gold chains from C. E. Bacon of Dover, two years in State prison; Charles Jackson, of Rochester, for stealing a horse, carriage, harness, etc., four years in State prison.

RUNAWAYS.

On Saturday forenoon a horse belonging in Kittery, being frightened by the cars, started on a run down Market street from its north end, ran into and capsized another team, cleared himself from the vehicle to which he was harnessed, and kept on across Market square into High street, where he was caught with a part of one shaft still hanging to him. The animal was unhurt.

At half-past ten o'clock in the evening another horse, belonging to one of the livery stables, went down Congress street and across Market square into Daniel street at a lively rate, but on getting sight of the water at the foot of Daniel street, which he barely escaped plunging into, he turned about and was caught without having done any harm.

PRESENTATION.

Miss Francis N. Shackford, who for many years taught in the Haven school, has resigned her position as teacher, the resignation taking effect on Saturday last. Miss Shackford has always been a diligent and painstaking teacher, fully merting the confidence reposed in her by the parents of her pupils and by the committee; and although she maintained strict discipline, she yet ruled the scholars with a spirit of kindness which no doubt contributed largely to her success as an instructor. Through her retirement the school loses an excellent teacher, and the children a dear friend. On Saturday Miss Shackford was presented by her associate teachers in the Haven school with an elegant copy of the Family Library of British Poetry, Mr. R. Hamilton Perkins, principal of the school, making the presentation in words few but well chosen and full of feeling, Miss Shackford responding. Many good wishes will follow her wherever she may go.

MR. WAITE'S MEETINGS.

Mr. Arthur A. Waite last week held a series of interesting revival meetings in the Advent church, the house being crowed every evening, and many persons unable to get in. On Wednesday and Saturday afternoons he gave temperance lectures to the children, greatly delighting and interesting the little people with his words and his "chalk talk."

On Saturday evening he delivered a temperance lecture in the Methodist church, which was filled to overflowing, many being unable to gain admission. The lecturer, who is an earnest speaker, in the beginning used the blackboard, drawing (and explaining to the audience, and the children especially,) figures representing the wine used at communion and the fermented wine which would intoxicate. He urged that charity is one of the fundamental principles of temperance, and that it should prevail more commonly than it does; that when one falls he should be helped and encouraged to rise again, rather than spurned. The discourse was interspersed with many pleasing illustrative anecdotes, and so interested were those present that although the building was crowded nobody left until the lecture was ended.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week Mr. Waite will deliver a temperance lecture in Music hall, admission being free; and next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock he will again address the people on the same subject in the same place.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

On Sunday evening between nine and ten o'clock, Mr. Michael Curtis, who several years ago lost a leg by a railroad accident and has since used two crutches, left the Workingmen's Institute Reading Room, where he had spent the evening, and walked with a friend to the corner of Langdon and McDonough streets, where they parted, Mr. Curtis going toward his home, which is on McDonough street near Cornwall. He reached the house, when in front of which he was seen to slip and fall heavily, and probably struck the corner of the doorstep, as he died almost instantly, a gash an inch and a half deep being cut over his eye, penetrating the brain. The unfortunate man was perfectly sober at the time of the accident. His age was about forty years.

Naval Matters.

Among the names mentioned in naval circles in connection with the command of this navy yard, are Commodores John C Beaumont, Donald McN. Fairfax, formerly captain of the yard, and William G. Temple, formerly ordnance officer there.

Carpenter Henry R. Philbrick, U. S. N., has recently returned to his home in Kittery from a three years cruise in the Marion.

The U. S. S. Ticonderoga arrived at Sierra Leone on the 27th of January.

How Prominent Democrats Talk.

The Worcester, Mass., Gazette says it remained for some of the democrats in Washington to recall public attention to the fact that after the Baltimore transaction in which Pelton and Smith Weed figured, and which all the witnesses agree was known to Mr. Tilden,—in fact, after all the electoral colleges had met and cast their votes, and all the crooked transactions possible in that direction were over,—after all this, and while the question of abiding by the vote of the Electoral Commission was under discussion in Washington, Mr. Pelton suddenly appeared there with a troop of followers, occupied a suite of rooms at one of the hotels, was in communication constantly with Tilden in New York, and also with the leading democrats, and was understood to represent Mr. Tilden and undoubtedly did. Pelton urged resistance to the verdict of the Electoral Commission, arranged political alliances and undoubtedly made himself very obnoxious to Mr. Hewitt of New York and other respectable men of the party who saw something more in the question than the personal success of Mr. Tilden. The unkind democratic congressmen who are now discussing the cipher despatch developments say that Mr. Tilden ought not to have sent Nephew Pelton to Washington as his accredited ambassador, when Pelton had so recently been detected in an attempt at bribery which no honorable democrat would tolerate, and was only stopped indeed at the last moment, when the bribe was to be passed over to the venal electors through the hands of Smith Weed. Prominent democrats in Washington not only say these unkind things of Mr. Tilden, but they say them with a good deal of bitterness.

—The other day a young swell fell asleep while spending an evening with some friends, and they, for a joke, shaved off one side of his moustache, and laughed at him about it when he awoke. He has been in the most distressing consternation ever since, because he cannot discover which side it was.

—An old servant enters the shop of an apothecary, and presents him a prescription in which is ordered a potion containing two decigrammes of morphine. The apothecary's assistant weighs the dangerous ingredient with the greatest care. "What a shame!" said the old woman to him, with a shove at his elbow. "Come, don't be so stingy, it is for an orphan."—French Paper.

A Real Life Romance.

The other day in Boston a bluff business man of fifty and a slight little woman of forty-eight, met during a rain storm on a narrow sidewalk. Both were in a hurry, a collision followed, and the woman slipped to the sidewalk. In picking her up, the man recognized her as an old flame. Thirty years before, when she was a Lowell factory girl, and he a poor medical student at Harvard, they had loved each other. In 1849 he went to California, and forgot the girl he left behind him. He prospered in business, became rich and married. Later his wife and children died, and in his loneliness he remembered the Lowell factory girl. A dream told him she was in distress. He hurried east to find her, but looked in vain till they accidentally met. She was a widow, with two children, and in destitute circumstances, but that is over now.

A Source of Much Bodily Evil.

If the habit of body becomes irregular, much evil is inflicted on the system. The stomach becomes dyspeptic, bilious symptoms develop themselves, the circulation is contaminated, and the nerves share in the general disorder. It is of the utmost importance that the bowels should be thoroughly and speedily regulated when they grow derelict. The corrective agent best adapted to this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a wholesome, non-griping vegetable laxative, worth all the rasping cathartics invented since the time of Paracelsus. People who have been in the habit of using blue pill, calomel, and other drugs and cheap nostrums for constipation, should abandon such hurtful and useless medicines, and substitute for them this pleasant and gentle aperient which not only produces the purgative effect naturally, but also strengthens while it regulates the bowels, stomach and liver. It moreover cures and prevents intermittent and remittent fevers, gout, rheumatism, debility and urinary troubles.

A Life Saved for Fifty Cents! Fact, for he had a terrible racking cough way down on the lungs and one bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup cured it, (not dried it up) and removed the cause, and lo, a well man, all for fifty cents.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. ttelb25

Your Cough can be relieved immediately by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The President (of one of our banks,) says: "that Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg's reaches the right spot every time."

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents.

Free Mason Annals.

N. D. Sperry, lecturering on "The History of Masonry in New England," in the Masonic Temple at New Haven recently, said that Masonry was first introduced to this country in 1733, when Lord Viscount Montague, Grand Master of England, made Henry Price of Boston Grand Master of America, with authority to appoint other grand officers and institute subordinate lodges wherever in the country he might see fit. Under these auspices the first Masonic lodges in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia came into existence. The first of the Scottish rite in this country was in November, 1762, in Boston. In December 1769, a communication was received from the Worshipful Grand Master of the Scottish Masons of Boston and 100 miles about. Between this period and 1701 this Grand Lodge granted charters for subordinate lodges in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Vermont and New York. The first Scottish Lodge in Connecticut was instituted at Colchester and was called Wooster No. 76. Upon the demise of this lodge Wooster Lodge of New Haven took its name and number. Between 1800 and 1816 the Scottish and English rites became united.

—As the board of aldermen were inspecting the Brook street district, on Wednesday last, the back containing his honor the mayor and two aldermen drove up to one of the deserted houses in the district, and the occupants alighted in front of a house upon which was painted, "Imported Liquors, Ales, &c., for sale within," when the mayor exclaimed, "Hallos, this place closed?" "Yes," says the son of Erin driving the hack, touching his hat, "but I can take your honors to a place round the corner, where they sell it on the sly."—Providence Journal.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are enclosed in a foundation of re-k ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania R-llroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following that a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S Drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 142 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether has lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'I (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for constipation. Sold by Druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon performance of cures. I know, while others claim positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, single! it can be the climax of crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, I can say that with it all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations, that I hesitate not to offer to pay the price of the ailments for which I recommend it, if it fail to cure and will make A POSITIVE GUARANTEE to this effect (for conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats fully of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Rheumatism, Gout, and Kindred Diseases are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, strengthening, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish spots or pimples on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, coated tongue, chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and bowels costive, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it gives perfect and radical cure.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood, on general principles.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulder, "Bilious Attacks," Sick Headache, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and indurated. In glass bottles their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, acid. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping of the nostrils, one or both passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, mucous secretions, sometimes voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total destruction of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, bronchial tubes, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The Injector for this remedy may be omitted, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. The use of the former or other treatment yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried RIGHT UP and COMPLETELY ATTACK all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently collect, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affection, that the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been accepted of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any med I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

Revival in the Dry Goods Trade.

The Boston Journal of Saturday gives the following cheering account of an apparent start ahead in the dry goods trade:

From present indications there is a prosperous future in store for the manufacturers of all kinds of cotton fabrics, the demand for which has been so great as to lead to an advance of at least five per cent within the past three days. There has been no such demand for dry goods during the past five years as there is today, and the leading lines are sold far beyond the production. The success of American cottons abroad and the growth of population at home has had the effect to clear the market of all the surplus which has been accumulating during these years of depression. Jobbers have bought sparingly for the past year, and the country never was so bare of cotton goods as it is to-day. Dealers are firm in the conviction that bottom has been reached, that the tide has turned, and business has reached a solid basis. There have been large sales of plain cottons the past week to several of the leading western dry goods dealers, while the sales of calicos and prints to Canada and the provinces have been double the amount ever before had at this season of the year. As a rule, commission houses have advanced their selling prices half a cent a yard on brown cottons, and one large house has sold a thousand bales ahead of Continental "C's," orders being taken for future delivery only on the condition that prices made shall be the current one at that time. The same will apply to Nashua "browns," Boot mills and Atlantic goods, while Nanukeags have advanced fully one cent a yard, with orders far ahead of the production. All kinds of bleached goods, including the Langdon, Androscoggin, Cabots and Wamsuttas have advanced fully half a cent a yard. Androscoggin goods, which have sold as low as seven cents, now command eight cents and over. Colored goods, denims, ticks and fancy goods of all kinds sympathize with plain cottons, and after having been a drug in the market for years are now moving actively. Whatever speculation may result from this the mills will be benefitted exclusively.

A Source of Much Bodily Evil.

If the habit of body becomes irregular, much evil is inflicted on the system. The stomach becomes dyspeptic, bilious symptoms develop themselves, the circulation is contaminated, and the nerves share in the general disorder. It is of the utmost importance that the bowels should be thoroughly and speedily regulated when they grow derelict. The corrective agent best adapted to this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a wholesome, non-griping vegetable laxative, worth all the rasping cathartics invented since the time of Paracelsus. People who have been in the habit of using blue pill, calomel, and other drugs and cheap nostrums for constipation, should abandon such hurtful and useless medicines, and substitute for them this pleasant and gentle aperient which not only produces the purgative effect naturally, but also strengthens while it regulates the bowels, stomach and liver. It moreover cures and prevents intermittent and remittent fevers, gout, rheumatism, debility and urinary troubles.

Relieve your Cough before it reaches your lungs by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

A Life Saved for Fifty Cents! Fact, for he had a terrible racking cough way down on the lungs and one bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup cured it, (not dried it up) and removed the cause, and is, a well man, all for fifty cents.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. trch25

Your Cough can be relieved immediately by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The President (of one of our banks,) says: "that Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg's reaches the right spot every time."

Wonderful Changes

have occured in this country during the last three or four years, but none more wonderful than the Revolutions in Color, produced among the Heads of the People, by

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

The history of the success of great discoveries affords no parallel to the triumphs over competition and prejudice, accomplished by this powerful yet harmless vegetable agent, which instantaneously changes any obnoxious color of the hair into a black or brown as magnificent as any that heaven ever bestowed upon the head of man or woman. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No 32 William St., New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. tmch15

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. cod&wtno

Portsmouth Chronicle

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1879.

A Cast-off Chinese Law Adopted by America.

The United States Senate passed the Chinese bill Saturday, by a vote of thirty-nine to twenty-six, most of the vote in its favor coming from the democrats, and most of the votes against it being republican, though Blaine, Booth, Cameron of Pennsylvania, Jones of Nevada, Sharon, Sargent and one or two other republican senators voted with the demagogues, and Butler of South Carolina, Davis of West Virginia, Kernan, McCreery and Merrimon voted against the bill.

The bill provides that no vessel shall bring to the United States exceeding fifteen Chinese passengers on any one voyage; that a fine of $100 and imprisonment for six months be imposed on the captain of a vessel for each Chinese passenger exceeding fifteen; that the master of a vessel shall report promptly on arrival to the collector a separate list of all Chinese passengers, duly sworn to, under penalty of the same forfeitures as are provided for the neglect to report a manifest of cargo; that the above penalties shall be a lien upon the vessel; that this bill does not conflict with the law forbidding the importation of coolies or of females for immoral purposes; that this act does not apply to any Chinese officials, or to persons rescued from shipwreck, or to vessels seeking a harbor, or to persons seeking a temporary residence for educational purposes, who bring certificates from the Chinese government for that purpose; that this act take effect July 1, 1879, and the President immediately notify the government of China of the abrogation of the fifth and sixth articles of the additional articles of the Burlingame treaty.

A more contemptible yielding to the demands of ignorance and demagogism than is exhibited in the passage of this law, never disgraced American legislation. The law is opposed to the entire spirit of the declaration of independence; it is a flagrant violation of a solemn treaty with a nation that has observed its share of the obligations—such a violation as the demagogues would not have dared venture on with one of the great nations of Europe; it is the adoption of the Chinese policy of exclusion, which the United States assisted other nations in forcing China to give up; and all this is done at the dictation of a lot of such worthless stuff as can be led by the profane blatherskite Kearney and fellows of his kind and mental calibre.

We can remember when just the same outcry was made by the native Americans against the importation of Irish laborers, that the Irish are now making against the importation of Chinese. The "pauper labor of Europe" would ruin the country, take the bread from the mouths of the American workingman's children, and reduce the native to the level of the European serf; Popery would become omnipotent, the American rulers would be chosen by the Vatican, and St. Bartholomew massacres would be common affairs. But the Irish continued to come, in numbers compared to which the influx of Chinamen is not worth mentioning; railroads were built by their labor, which could not have been done by the employment of the higher-priced American labor; they became citizens, and ruled—and now rule—the chief city of the Union; yet the American workingman still managed to live, his throat was not cut every week nor did the Pope issue bulls directing him how to vote, and his wages steadily increased. It was found out that an Irishman was not always a bad man, and that an ardent Catholic was not necessarily an enemy of republican institutions; and also, that the Irishman could accept high wages as readily as anybody.

The clamor against the admission of the Irish long ago ceased; and now these same Irish are clamoring against the Chinese—and the American Congress listens to their clamor and bows to their dictation.

Lively "Appropriators."

The House on Monday suspended the rules and passed the bill appropriating $26,800,000 to pay the arrears of pensions The bill was reported from the appropriations committee, and had the sanction of the ways and means committee. All the negative votes—over sixty—were cast by democrats. Only one northern democrat voted against the bill—Mr. Warner, of Connecticut.

The river and harbor bill, covering $5,800,000, was passed under suspension of the rules and without debate, by a vote of 173 to 73.

The deficiency appropriation bill was next reported, and was passed without even being read. It appropriates $2,500,000, making over $35,000,000 appropriated on Monday without discussion.

The European Pestilence.

Surgeon General Woodworth writes to the congressional committee on epidemics, calling attention to the prevalence of the plague in Europe. He says Europe has become alarmed, and commerce with Russia is interdicted except under strict quarantine rules. But in spite of the expenditure of money and the strict military arm of the government, the measures of prevention appear to have been too long delayed, and the plague is rapidly spreading. Should the plague appear in the countries of Europe with which the United States have commercial intercourse there will be great danger of the disease reaching our shores. In fact, the danger exists at present through ships from the Caspian and Black seas. The latest arrival in New York from the Black sea was in December last. Considerable danger may be apprehended from the introduction of infected clothing into this country, brought by Russian emigrants, especially the Mennonites from southern Russia, large numbers of whom ship at Liverpool. The board of yellow fever experts were unanimous in opinion that United States medical officers of health should be stationed at Liverpool and at some point in the Mediterranean, and that they should be subject to orders to visit the places of the outbreak of infectious epidemic disease, so that definite, reliable and prompt information may be given to the health authorities of our seaports. Twelve thousand dollars per year would maintain two such medical officers abroad, and pay their travelling expenses; and it would be an investment worthy of a great commercial nation.

News and Notes.

County Treasurer Conklin of Oswego, N. Y., proves to be a defaulter in $133-810.

In February, 1876, the issue of fractional currency was stopped, and there was $45,000,000 of it outstanding. It was estimated that about $8,000,000 would never be presented for redemption, having been lost or destroyed. It now appears that there is still outstanding about $16,-000,000 of fractional paper currency, of which amount about $2,000,000 is in three cent and five cent notes. Probably there will ultimately be redeemed only $4,000,-000 of this, leaving $12,000,000 profit to the government.

Advices from Alaska, dated the 10th inst., report an alarming condition of affairs at Sitka, the Indians having threatened the annihilation of the whites. The citizens were armed awaiting their attack. Two native murderers have been brought to Oregon, and the Indians threaten to kill two white men in retaliation for the two prisoners. The collector of Alaska has telegraphed to Secretary Sherman for protection.

At Madisonville, Ohio, Saturday night, Rev. Peter Waite, colored, was shot and killed by Andrew Endry, also colored. The latter is in the employ of Charles Jewett, a farmer, and had been left in charge of the house. Waite, approaching in the dark to see a servant girl, was hailed by Endry, but refused to answer, and moving around in a suspicious manner was shot, dying in an hour.

An old lady named Mrs. Laundry, living near Port Henry, Vt., started to go on the ice to that village the other day, got into a crack whence she was unable to extricate herself, and was frozen in, dying before aid reached her.

Ira Cook of Northampton, Mass., aged sixty-seven years, missing since Thursday, was found on Saturday hanging by one leg caught between the pickets of a high wooden fence surrounding the State hospital grounds. In crossing the grounds for a short cut home he had to climb the fence, when he caught his leg and died by rush of blood to the head. In his frantic efforts to release himself he cut his ankle nearly off, and marred the fence and pawed snow away where he could reach it. The snow also melted where his head touched it.

Nathan Murphy, the sixteen-year-old boy of West Hartford, Conn., who recently committed suicide, is said to have been made insane by reading the current Phair and Gravelin literature.

Dr. George H. Gray of Denison, Tex., who distinguished himself by his professional services at Holly Springs during the yellow fever epidemic, committed suicide Saturday night by shooting himself through the head. No cause is assigned.

The wife of Brignoli, the tenor, formerly Miss McCullough, a few days ago obtained a divorce from him.

Fred W. Vanderbilt, son of William H. Vanderbilt and heir to $2,000,000 from his grandfather's estate, is announced in the papers as having been married December 17th. He is twenty-five years old, and the marriage was unknown to his parents. The bride was formerly Miss Louisa Holmes Anthony, and is the divorced wife of Daniel Torrance, a cousin of the new husband.

In a drunken brawl in Providence, Saturday night, an attack was made on Charles H. Coombs, whose pistol was four times discharged, wounding William Curry, John McGirl and Coombs himself. None of the injuries threaten serious results.

John Hope, son of "Jemmy Hope," the notorious thief and burglar, is held for trial in New York, on a charge of being one of the robbers of the Manhattan bank, $25,000 bail being demanded.

Meriden, Conn., has just finished taking a census, and the newspapers of the town are boasting that its result will show a gain of between 6000 and 7000 over the census of 1870, which gave a population of 10,494.

A remarkable case of poisoning occurred in the family of Mr. W. Cox of Worcester, Mass., on Thursday of last week. The family, which consists of six persons, had chicken soup for their dinner, and after eating they were all taken with vomiting. A physician was called, and he pronounced it poison from the chicken, stating that the freezing and thawing of fowl impregnates it with poisonous gasses, and renders it totally unfit for food. One of the children, four years of age, died Saturday from the effects. The rest of the family are out of danger.

In Somerville, Me., Friday, Ephraim Hysler and wife left their home in the forenoon to do some trading, leaving their three children, aged respectively four years, two and one half years, and eight months, alone at home. By some means the house took fire, and before aid arrived the building with all its contents was destroyed. The three little children were burned to death.

The President has signed the bill to allow women to practice law before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Ensign Frederick Tyler is detached from the receiving ship Wabash at Boston, and ordered to the Marion.

Political.

Senators Rollins and Wadleigh did not vote on the Chinese bill, being paired on that question with Chaffee and Barnum, the two latter being in favor of the bill, and the New Hampshire Senators opposed to it—as they should be.

Senator Manning C. Butler, of South Carolina, voted against the un-democratic Chinese bill—the vote of a statesman. Senator Blaine voted in favor of the Chinese bill—the vote of a demagogue.

New Hampshire Items.

By an incendiary fire, Sunday, a barn belonging to the city of Nashua was destroyed, with many tools. Loss $500; insured.

The Stark mills at Manchester have received an order for 2500 bales of export goods, equalling 2,000,000 yards and amounting to $160,000. It will take until June 10th to complete the order.

Jehiel White of Swanzey was found, Saturday night, dead in the woods, where he had been chopping a tree, which fell on him. He was about sixty years old. He leaves a widow.

Henry A. Cross has recovered a verdict of $500 against the Northern railroad as damages for an assault committed upon him in ejecting him from the cars in which he was lawfully travelling. He alleged that he purchased a ticket which entitled him to travel from White River Junction to Concord, and that while so travelling, and after he had retired to a berth in the sleeping car, he was assaulted by agents and servants of the defendant, and by them was forcibly ejected from the cars in the night time and left at a station other than that to which he was entitled to be carried.

A Good Move.

A bill introduced in the Senate of Rhode Island requires all ballots in national, State and town elections to be of clear white paper, and that they must be enclosed in envelopes before being voted. Some such provision as this, rendering identification of the ballot thrown by any particular person an impossibility, either at the time of voting or afterward, would entirely do away with the buying of votes; and in no other way can this crime be made a matter solely of history.

A National Quarantine Board.

Congress proposes the establishment of a national board of health, to consist of seven members at $10 per day and expenses, the surgeons-general of the army and navy to be members without extra pay. The duty of this board will be the prevention of the introduction of infectious diseases into the country; in other words, the country is at last to have what has always been required, a national supervision of all quarantine regulations.

—"He made too free with it when he was here before," was the way a mild-mannered Atlanta (Ga.) man met the suggestion that Gen. Sherman should be "given the freedom of the city."

—"Continual dropping will wear away a stone." It is different with a brick. A chap who started for home last night with "a brick in his hat," dropped numerously on the way, but when he reached his residence the "brick" was still there, a trifle larger than when he first started, if anything.—Norristown Herald.

—A young man in Boston received a bequest of $25,000. He had been poor, and the sudden acquisition of wealth rather turned his head. He began to spend the money in reckless dissipation, in spite of the efforts of his father to restrain him, and kept on until only $11,000 was left. The father begged that this remainder might be given to him for safe keeping, and the son being ill from long drunkenness and very penitent, readily complied. The father put $10,950 into a pocket in his shirt, and started off to spend the other $50 in a frolic. That night he spent on a bench in a bar-room, and in the morning every cent of the money was gone.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so far further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Avoid the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 5c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110-

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Mr. Thomas R. Martin has been elected assistant superintendent of the Portsmouth Gas Co., by the directors. Glad of it.

Rev. Dr. A. A. Minor, of Boston, will preach in the Universalist church in this city on Sunday forenoon next, and in the evening will deliver a temperance lecture in Music hall.

Robinson Crusoe and his man Friday will appear at Music hall next Friday evening. James N. Maffitt, E. N. Tarr, Clara Fisher, Harry Josephs and other popular performers are of the company. The performance will conclude with a grand harlequinade, with Maffitt of course as clown.

John E. Morrison, who last week attempted to walk four hundred miles in one hundred and thirty hours, in Franklin hall, succeeded in getting over three hundred and fifty miles. Early in the week he lamed one of his knees by a fall, and was greatly delayed by it all the rest of the time.

Alfred F. Howard, Esq., has gone to Utica, N. Y., to resist before the register in bankruptcy the claim of Mr. Moulton, of the late firm of Davis, Moulton & Co., to be indemnified out of Mr. J. C. Carr's estate by reason of Carr's bond to hold Moulton harmless as a co-partner from all debts of the new bankrupt firm.

The crew of the steamer James Sampson, on her early Monday morning trip picked up a wherry which was capsized in the river, and took off George Grace and another man who were clinging to the boat's bottom. The castaways were glad enough to be rescued, as they were thoroughly drenched and found the water uncomfortably cold.

The propriety and necessity of the national government taking control of all quaratine measures, as now proposed by Congress, is shown by the queer state of affairs on this river, where there are two distinct sets of health authorites, Kittery and Portsmouth each having their own. The Kittery officials may refuse to an infected ship permission to come up the river on the Kittery side, while the Portsmouth officials may grant it for this side; and vice versa. Thus one side of the river may be vigorously quarantined against an infected foreign port, while the other side is free to import from the same place all the goods and pestilence it wants. A national quarantine law is the only thing that will do away with this absurdity.

Holders of called United States bonds are referred to the advertisement of Messrs. Geo. Wm. Ballou & Co., whose extensive business in Boston and New York affords them every facility to supply investors with safe securities. This house recently placed an issue of a million of dollars in Cincinnati bonds successfully upon the eastern money market. The new four per cent loan of the city of Boston dragged upon the street until Ballou & Co. took it up, and to-day the Boston fours sell at a half of one per cent above par, or higher than the United States bonds of same rate of interest. Persons holding called bonds, living at a distance from Boston, can send their securities by express or other mode to this firm, and rely upon a prompt return of the proceeds or such new investment as they may wish to order. The office of the firm in Boston is at No. 72 Devonshire street, between State street and the post office.

THE VICINITY.

The smoke house attached to Joseph Weymouth's slaughter house in Saco was burned on Saturday, with about 100 hams, valued at $157.

It is rumored that the New York store proposes to establish a branch grocery in Kittery, in the building now occupied for a similar purpose by Mr. Albert Hill.

The funeral of John C. Mason, at Kittery on Sunday, was attended by his brethren of Riverside Lodge of Odd Fellows. The services were conducted by Rev. E. M. Grant of this city, assisted by Rev. Mr. Bowdish of Kittery.

Andrew L. Durgin of Kittery is to attempt to walk twenty-five miles in five hours on Thursday, in Trefethen's hall in that town, commencing at six o'clock. On Friday at one o'clock Henry Joslyn of this city will try and accomplish fifty miles in nine hours, in the same hall.

The shoe factory at Kennebunk is now being run three nights each week to enable the company to fulfill its orders. The factory is now turning out forty sixty-pair cases each day, giving employment to about three hundred hands, and paying out $2000 each week for wages.

Mr. Charles W. Cottle, of the firm of Cottle & Son, stable keepers of Kittery, is in Montreal buying a carload of the Canadian horses of which so many are used in this vicinity for pleasure driving, teaming and farm work. He will probably be back by the end of this week, and will bring a good lot of horses when he does come, for he knows well what a good horse is.

On Sunday the dead body of a man was picked up on Gerrish's island by Mr. Hanson Spurling of Newcastle and a boy in his company, and taken to Kittery Point and delivered up to the authorities. It is supposed to be the body of a man who fell overboard off the mainboom of a Nova Scotia schooner lying in Preble's cove the previous Tuesday, and was drowned. The vessel next morning went to sea, and the sailor's dead body it is said was subsequently seen lying on the bottom by the men of another schooner, the master of which simply moved his vessel, and made no attempt to recover the body.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Feb. 17; Batchelder, J.

After a week of absolute neglect, the police court on Monday morning showed a genuine revival of business.

James Fleming, Robert Keyes and Henry Robinson were up for drunkenness. These gentlemen compose a peripatetic minstrel troupe, travelling from place to place by such conveyance as their means for the time may allow, and performing to bar-room audiences as a general thing. They performed to several such audiences in this city Saturday evening; their spirits rose, and they finally found themselves in the lockup. Assessed $9.90 each, fine and costs. The troupe has travelled to Brentwood.

George Atkins, who keeps the Franklin house, was up on two complaints for violating the municipal law prohibiting the sale of liquor on Sunday. On one charge he was adjudged guilty, and ordered to pay $18.44 fine and costs, which he did. On the second complaint he was discharged.

Julia Quinlan was also convicted of Sunday selling. She pleaded for a light fine on account of her being a widow, with several small children. Assessed $15.76, which she paid.

Several other parties were under arrest Sunday night, for drunkenness, but the charges against them were not brought up, as they gave evidence against the parties who sold them the rum, Atkins and Mrs. Quinlan.

THE SOUTH POND.

A job half done is oft-times far worse than if never begun, and this is just the case with the south pond at the present time. When the tide goes out, the entire accumulation of filth of our hundred-years-gathering is exposed to the sun. This may not be so very bad during freezing weather, but no one need hesitate in prophesying the consequences with the thermometer up to eighty in the shade! While congress is considering a national quarantine law, our city authorities neglect to remove a pest immediately under their eyes. The board of aldermen set apart a day to visit a pig-sty still farther off, but pass by the great nuisance of our city, and are silent. Is there anything to awaken them to a sense of their duty in this matter, or are we to run a risk ten-fold greater than the risk of the yellow fever from the south? Now is the time to remove this putrid matter, for after warmer weather sets in it will be too late. Our city fathers would undoubtedly prosecute a man for dragging a night-soil cart through our streets after the first day of April, but the present indications are that they will most magnanimously permit this pestilence-breeding bad to remain all summer. K.

THE RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE.

We are much gratified to learn that the trustees of our State normal school have elected as its new principal, Prof. Henry P. Warren, late superintendent of schools of Dover. A better selection could not have been made. Mr. Warren is a graduate of Yale, a man of noble character and high attainments; a man of energy and tact; and with all, he is a school man, familiar with the wants of our New Hampshire schools and teachers, and an earnest supporter of normal school education. Under his management our school will be purely normal, and the academies of the State will have no occasion for jealousy. Mr. Warren has undertaken the work with the full determination to make it a success, and he should have the co-operation and aid of every friend of popular education in the State. With such a man at the head the legislature cannot fail to make the necessary appropriation for the liberal support of our only normal school. O.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Feb. 17th.

The posting of a notice by the selectmen for all persons who have any demands against the town to bring them in by the 18th inst., is about the only indication that the annual town meeting in March will soon be along. To be spared the heretofore (in February and March) usual activity in political matters for several weeks before election, is something so strange that it takes time to get accustomed to it.

It used to be a maxim among those who aspired to any office in the gift of the town, that to succeed it was necessary that the year's supply of wood should all be "cut and piled" by the aspirants before the second Tuesday in March. Perhaps under the new dispensation of things this matter may not be deemed of so much importance, although for some reason or other correspondents of an Exeter paper have thought it worthy enough of mention to notice good-looking wood piles in different parts of the town, all cut, split and piled. If the owners of these piles don't each get an office, it won't be for lack of ability in handling those prime agencies for assisting a good digestion and developing the muscle, viz.: saws and axes.

The sleigh ride to Exeter came off on Tuesday evening of last week. It was not a favorable evening for sleigh riding, consequently not so many went as would have gone had it been pleasant. That they had a good time after getting there is the unanimous verdict of them all; but coming home in the rain didn't seem so good, and so a part of the company tarried in Exeter until morning. The Exeter papers mentioned the visitors from Rye in very complimentary terms,—as well they might, for notwithstanding reports have been printed not complimentary to Rye and its citizens, it needs only for our neighbors to see and become acquainted with us, to show how slight a foundation such malicious rumors had for a basis.

Mr. Jed E. Lord, a popular reader and humorist, is announced to entertain our citizens at the town hall on Thursday evening, 20th inst. As the tickets are but twenty cents each, he ought to have a full house.

A union temperance meeting at the Christian church was addressed by Rev. W. H. Sigston, on the evening of Sunday, 16th inst.

The Congregational society are still without a pastor, but arrangements have been made to have a supply every Sunday for the present, so that the church will not be closed. Mr. Edgar L. Morse preached yesterday. He is a member of the senior class at Andover theological seminary, and graduates in June. The members of the Congregational church have had the privilege for several Sundays of listening to carefully prepared sermons, and have undoubtedly been well repaid for their attendance at the sanctuary on those occasions.

Mrs. Washington, the aged colored woman whose recent death has been widely noticed, lived in this town in her younger days with Mr. Benjamin Jenness at Breakfast hill, where Mr. Amos S. Jenness now lives. It is related that on one occasion she had a party of her colored friends out from Portsmouth to visit her, and they had a "high old time" at the residence of a Mr. Edmunds, who at that time lived on what is now called Lang's hill, and from that time forth, for several years, the locality was called "Nigger hill." This hill, by the way, is the highest point of land in Rye, with perhaps one exception, and the view from it northerly and westerly is exceedingly fine, taking in the line of the blue hills from Deerfield to Strafford, and on a clear morning Mt. Washington is distinctly seen. NAT.

THAT "SPOOK."

NEWINGTON, Feb. 17th.

Having read in the Portsmouth papers an account of the recent appearance of a strange object in our midst, thought to be a tramp in the garb of a ghost, frightening the timid school children and causing alarm and uneasiness among the parents, and being somewhat at leisure, we have taken pains to investigate the matter, and find, to the relief of the aforesaid children and parents, that this "spook" is none other than our genial and respected friend, Capt. E. O. Garland of Boston, who has been sojourning here the past three months, devoting much of his time to hunting down, with his faithful "bloods" and never-failing rifle, the wily foxes and numerous rabbits that abound here. He was met by two little girls as he was returning from one of his successful "tramps" a few days since, dressed from top to toe in a hunter's suit of snowy white linen; his appearance, so sudden and strange, startled them, causing them to run for dear life,—hence the story of a ghost. We will add that the adoption of this style of apparel is the secret of the captain's unparalleled success as a fox-hunter. T. N. N.

—A Washington bride wore a wreath of carnations, instead of orange blossoms at her wedding the other day.

—Mother (to daughter who has just given alms to a poor tramp)—"Now, what in the world did you do that for? Suppose he should buy rum with it?" Poor tramp (overhearing and making a low curtsey)—"But I promise I will not, my dear madame; I prefer gin."

Photographic Sedition in Paris.

By the way, Paris is at this season more than ever full of photographs of the empress, who was almost smothered in violets on her late fete. We see portraits of the prince imperial everywhere. This royal young Pip of "Great Expectations" must spend most of his valuable time in posing. Like Maud Branscombe and Mrs. Langtry, he is exhaling the dewy bloom of his youth in the lofty and unwholesome atelier of the photographer among cameras and chemicals. He grows more and more like his father, having, unhappily, the late emperor's least desirable features—the dull, unfathomable eyes and the big nose. I saw the other day a large photograph from some painting, representing a gallant young man, in military attire, entering the great court of the Louvre on horseback, followed by guards and gentlemen cavaliers, and saluted by lines of soldiers. "Who is this?" I asked of the print-seller. "That, Madame, is the Emperor Napoleon IV. entering the Louvre in triumph," was the cool reply. Other picture dealers openly sell the photograph of the Count de Chambord, a handsome man, not unlike the Prince of Wales, as that of "The King—Henry V." This, of course, is rank sedition, but the government, wiser than of old, declines to quarrel with either the Imperialists or Legitimists on so small a matter. It amuses them and does not harm the republic.—Grace Greenwood.

—A bridal couple from Arkansas has made quite a sensation in Joplin, Mo., the bride being six feet high and very slim and the bridegroom six feet seven inches, and almost as slender as his wife.

—A certain resident of North Adams recently buried his wife, a woman of unusual size, and a few days after the sad event a neighbor attempted a little in the consolatory line by remarking: "Well, Mr. ——, you have met with a heavy loss." "Yes," replied the mourner with a sigh, "she weighed most four hundred pounds!"

Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while employing safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the road is only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the ABLEST LIVING WRITERS,
is sufficiently indicated by the following
OPINIONS.
"In it we find the best productions of the best writers upon all subjects ready to our hand."—Philadelphia Ledger.
"It is simply indispensable to any one who desires to keep abreast of the thought of the age in any department of science or literature."—Boston Journal.
"The prince among magazines."—New York Observer.
"It affords the best, the cheapest and most convenient means of keeping abreast with the progress of thought in all its phases."—Philadelphia North American.
"A monthly volume comes every week."—The Advance, Chicago.
"It is incomparable in the richness, variety, and sterling worth of its articles."—The Standard, Chicago.
"A pure and perpetual reservoir and fountain of entertainment and instruction."—Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.
"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.
"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Albany State Journal.
"The choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune.
"It is indispensable to every one who desires a thorough acquaintance with all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.
"It has no equal in any country. Philadelphia Press.
"Ought to find a place in every American home."—New York Times.
Published weekly at $8.00 a year, free of postage.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds in three weeks, and the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a lady, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your medicine has reduced her weight from 190 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. '11 (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I have never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have with unfailing success used it in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, and I put it out as the ultimate or crowning gem of medical science. On it I stand as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly. I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician and as a gentleman on the fact that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations in a single instance, and that no much benefit may of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and will render a POSITIVE GUARANTEE (for conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularity, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single end or purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely on those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ecze Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, thick coat of coating upon the tongue, bad breath, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and bowels sometimes costive, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" all or most of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Scrofula, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the ancient faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, regulative, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance by the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulder, Side, Back and Limbs, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to the Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Also does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharges falling into throat, offensive breath, impaired sense, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eye, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, acrimonious tears, pain, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of hearing, taste, and smell, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be smelled, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of treatment yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easy understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections, the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

CATARRHAL AFFECTIONS,

Such as Sore, Weak, Inflamed, Red, and Watery Eyes, Ulceration and Inflammation of the Ears, Ringing Noises in the Head, Sore Throat, Elongation of the Uvula and Swelled Tonsils, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Dizziness, Clouded Memory, Loss of Nervous Force, Suspicion of Aphia,—are all carefully and scientifically treated with this remedy according to directions which accompany each bottle, or will be mailed to any address on receipt of stamp.

Each package contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Longevity.

The fact that the late Richard Henry Dana was regarded as an invalid until he reach fifty, and yet outlived all his contemporaries, is not so uncommon as it appears. The opinion that it is usually the healthful, robust men who attain longevity, while it is prevalent, is not correct. Many of our citizens now over seventy, and likely to last much longer, are not and never have been vigorous of body. They have been, on the contrary, delicate from childhood, and keep themselves in active life by prudence and the excellent care they take of themselves. Peter Cooper is a conspicuous example. He was puny at his birth, and has continued more or less feeble ever since. Nevertheless, he has engaged in various enterprises; has created from nothing a large fortune; has been a most generous benefactor to his native city; and will have completed on the 12th inst. his eighty-eighth year. The persons who go to their graves at forty and fifty, have frequently had any amount of physical stamina, and have depended on it so entirely as to neglect all hygienic laws, and disregard anything like discretion. There is a certain arrogance of health which rxins health by excess of confidence. Men of this sort are persuaded they can do and endure anything and everything, and acting on their persuation they break down suddenly and unexpectedly and slip out of existence. The semi-invalid or valetudinarian, on the other hand, seldom incurs any risk. He guards himself at every point; he sees where danger is and sedulously avoids it. His condition has grown into unchanged and unchangable habit. Ease of circumstance also contributes greatly to longevity, where a man either has simple tastes or judicious in his notions; poverty is rarely good for anybody; for it entails not only absence of comfort, but constant friction and endless worry. Other things being equal, the rich living survive the indigent.—N. Y. Times.

Business Failures.

Lack of judgement causes fifty per cent. of all business men to fail, earlier or later. Do not an equal proportion of physicians fail to cure from the same cause? At the Grand Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce, through the skill attained by his several specialists, each having devoted years to a special department of medical science, is able to cure a large per cent. of cases hitherto considered incurable. Many physicians, in view of the superior advantages of this model sanitarium, bring there stubborn, obscure, complicated, and surgical cases for examinations, operation, and treatment. Full particulars given in the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages. Price, post-paid, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—The Princess Louise has introduced in Canada her mother, the Queen's, custom of sending a gratuity of $15 to every mother blessed with triplets. Mrs. McNulty, of Montreal, has just been honored in this way.

Portsmouth Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1879.

Sauce for the Goose is not Sauce for the Gander.

It is not so veey long ago that the American people waxed righteously indignant ever the pretensions put forth by the British government that the British Parliament had power to modify a treaty between that country and the United States, without consulting our government in the matter. Hardly a newspapor in the States but flared up at this insolent assumption that a mere act of Parliament could abrogate or alter a solemnly ratified treaty, and President Grant was almost unanimously supported when he notified her majesty's government that until the ground taken by the latter was receded from the United States would wholly suspend the action of the treaty; and it was freely proclaimed that if England insisted on her view of the' matter, no treaty with her could be regarded as of any value whatever.

But what was insolent assumption in British legislators is "statesmanship" in American Congressmen. This country has in force a treaty with China—a treaty, too, not of China's seeking, but forced upon her by this country, in combination with others; it is not even pretended that the Chinese government has not faithfully observed its treaty obligations; and yet it is held that a mere act of Congress is all that is required to set aside a portion of the treaty—in other words, that an act of Congress is abundant justification for the violation of the national pledges. It is certain no such pretensions would have been put forth to any first class power—England or France, for instance —and that this action of Congress is as cowardly as it is arrogant and dishonorable; and if the treaty with China is thus recklessly violated, we shall have notified all other nations that we regard our national honor as a trifle, and the national pledge as something to be honored only so long as we may consider it advantageous, when peoples that cannot help themselves are concerned.

News and Notes.

The Senate on Monday confirmed M. Parry Kennard as assistant United States treasurer at Boston.

Mrs. A. M. Boggin, living on the gashouse patch in Lewiston, Me., was found dead and frozen in her chamber, Monday forenoon. An empty whiskey bottle was found in the same room.

Mr. Alexander Bates and wife and Miss Leonora J. Simpson, all of Bowdoinham Ridge, Me., have been arrested on a charge of attempting to poison Mrs. Sarah Bates and her daughter, of Bowdoinham, by sending letters to them containing poisonous powders, with instructions to take the same, signing the names of parties of medical reputation. They were brought before a trial justice and pleaded not guilty. Some four years ago Mr. Alexander Bates was divorced from Mrs. Sarah Bates, the woman he is charged with attempting to poison.

A team was required to transport from the bank to the Putnam Machine Works in Fitchburg, Mass., the $11,000 in gold which that establishment used to pay its help last week.

Mrs. Brignoli was granted an absolute divorce from her husband, the great tenor, for cruelty, neglect and adultery. She resumes her maiden name, Miss McCullough.

A Newburyport man exhibited a brown Leghorn rooster that cost $75 in Italy, at the recent fowl show in Newburyport, and the judges awarded him the third prize.

William Burbank of Pawtucket, R. I., was recently pardoned out of State prison because he was supposed to be dying with consumption, and now he is getting well.

One night recently at Andover, Mass., a woman gave birth to triplets, and one hour after, in the same house, her daughter followed with twins.

New Hampshire Items.

The house and stable of S. W. Stevens, at Kingston, and the house of Rev. W. A. Patten, were burned Tuesday; loss $4000; partly insured.

Seven "common sellers" of liquor were on Tuesday fined $300 and costs each, in the supreme court at Manchester, the fine to be paid within three days or the parties to board it out in jail at $1 per day. Two others were sentenced to pay $100 and costs, for second offences.

Alanson Haskell of Hanover, aged eighty years, was stricken with a paralytic shock soon after his return from church on Sunday, and his recovery is doubtful, as he is continually failing. He has been janitor of Dartmouth college for forty years, and will be remembered by graduates of half a century. He was industrious, upright and universally respected.

The Wolfeborough News says a citizen of Ossipee bought some liquor in that town a few days since, and after drinking some of it, called on a family near by and offered the husband some of the fiery liquid. Being a reformed man, the liquor was refused, and the drunken brute then wanted the wife to drink. She at first refused, but finally made a pretence to do so, really throwing the liquor into the sink. This enraged the man, and he drew a pistol and fired at the woman several times, she dodging about to escape being hit. Through the efforts of the rum seller and the payment of twenty-five dollars, no legal proceedings were taken against the man.

Boston City Bonds.

There are two classes of investors always seeking an opportunity to loan money. One of these considers a high rate of interest the greatest recommendation of an investment; the other looks first at the quality of the security, unwilling to take the risk of any loss. The latter class are steadily increasing, while at the same time the class of investments they prefer are decreasing, as few new loans of this character are now put upon the market, and the old ones are being paid off constantly. As a consequence there is a lively competition for this class of securities whenever they are offered, and they are always taken up rapidly. The new loan of the city of Boston is a security of this description. Boston bonds have always ranked among the best in the country. The valuation of the city is $686,000,000, and its public property alone is valued $37,651,427, while the net debt is only $26,100,000. But the real security of Boston bonds is the character of the people, and that has been demonstrated by a long history. Boston has always fulfilled its promises, no matter at what cost, and the certainty that our people will always be true to themselves gives every bond bearing the seal of this city a high value. The new four per cent recently issued loan is a limited one, and having been taken by Messrs. Chas. A. Sweet & Co., and Geo. Wm. Ballou & Co., is offered to investors by them. It is specially desirable for savings banks and for investments of that class.—Boston Coml. Bulletin.

What $200 Did in Wall Street.

Aug. 16th, 1878, R. S. Webb, Phila., Pa., wrote Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y.; "Dear sir: Yours containing remittance for $1,113.25, as profit on my 200 shares, is received. Accept my thanks, for I am very well satisfied. As you request, you may use this letter. I would recommend every one who feel disposed to speculate to send for your circular." This is but one instance out of thousands, by which the new Combination System of operating in stocks enables people with larger or smaller capital to make similar profits. By this excellent plan, the orders of thousands of customers from city and country are pooled into one immense sum and co-operated as a mighty individual account. Each member of the combination secures all the advantages of the largest capital united with experienced skill. Profits divided monthly; $10 invested returns $50, or 5 per cent. on the stock, $75 will make $450, and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success," and explains everything, so that anyone can operate profitably. All kinds of Stocks and bonds wanted. New Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y. City.

Pleasant to take, is what most people like and this is found in Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup and yet it does the work every time.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so far in another and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Almost all of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. (10.

THE CITY.

The schooner Grace Choate arrived at this port on Monday afternoon from the eastward, with 150,000 frozen herring.

The river and harbor appropriation bill, as it passed the House, includes the appropriation of $10,000 for this harbor, $5000 for the Merrimack river, and $2000 for Kennebunk river.

There is neither wheeling nor sleighing in the surrounding country now, the mealy snow of Monday night having so disposed itself as to about equally divide the roads into drifts and bare spots.

The partition walls in the halls of the Kearsarge house are being removed. The walls are of solid brick, and the removal is a job of no small magnitude. When completed, a more spacious set of halls and more comfortable stair-cases will be the result.

A despatch from St. John, N. B., says that Michael Wiley, a seaman on the schooner Dom Pedro, "fell from the main boom off Portsmouth" on a voyage from Boston to St. John, and was drowned. This was probably the man whose body was picked up at Gerrish's island on Sunday.

Thom Williamson, Jr., U. S. N., arrived at the Rockingham house on Saturday morning, as the register shows. This young gentleman is a son of Chief Engineer Williamson, of the navy, and though he has as yet had but a very limited experience in worldly matters, it is evident that he very well knows how to select a good hotel.

The last entertainment in the Rockingham Course will be given on Wednesday evening, the 26th inst., when Theodore Tilton, one of the most brilliant speakers of the day, will deliver a lecture entitled "Heart's-Ease: a plain talk on the hard times." Reserved seat tickets at fifty cents each can be procured at Preston's on and after Monday, the 24th inst.

Two boys, Edward Cavanah and Geo. F. Johnson, aged respectively thirteen and fourteen years, belonging in Dover, were picked up by our police Tuesday evening. They had about ten dollars between them. On questioning them, they admitted that they worked in one of the factories in that place, and had received their pay and run away. The Johnson boy has lost all but one finger, on one of his hands, which he says he lost in the mill. Marshal Entwistle will telegraph to their parents this morning, to ascertain the facts in the case.

Mr. Joseph Raynes, a well-known jeweller of Lowell, Mass., who has been in that business there since 1831, died Monday morning, after nearly four months illness. He was a native of York, Me., having been born on Raynes' Neck, as it is called. He was a brother of the late George Raynes, Esq., of this city, and was with the late Ira Haseltoe when he kept a jewelry store on the corner of Daniel and Market streets, fifty years or more ago. Mr. Raynes was successful in business, and though he would never accept a nomination for any office, he exercised considerable influence politically; he was a whig up to the dissolution of that party, and since then he has acted with the republicans. Though he possessed such marked peculiarities as to border on the eccentric, yet he was a pleasant companion, and deservedly popular in social circles. He was a frequent visitor to this city and York, and was here for several months last summer. He leaves a widow and two married sons.

Harper's Magazine for March is now ready for delivery to subscribers, and for sale, at W. G. Myers' bookstore in Congress block. It is needless to say that the number is a good one—for all the numbers of this magazine are good—so we will merely remark that it is up to the average of Harper's, and contains eighty-five illustrations. The first paper, "Present tendencies of American art," has twenty illustrations, all reproductions of recent pictures by American artists. "A few sea-birds" has nine beautiful illustrations, and is a very interesting article. "The coast survey" is extremely readable; with numerous happily selected illustrations, it explains the method of work pursuded by this department, and gives sketches of the four superintendents, with their portraits, and amusing anecdotes. And besides these, there are other illustrated articles, scientific, mechanical and historical; short stories, sketches, poems, editor's departments, etc., as full, varied and valuable as usual.

A number of candidates from Portland received degrees in the Royal Arcanum lodge of this city, Tuesday evening, with the ultimate object, it is said, of instituting a lodge in Portland.

Tickets to the entertainment at Music hall on Friday evening are selling at fifty cents for reserved seats, and thirty-five cents for the gallery—cheap enough, certainly, when such performers as Clara Fisher, Flora Lee, Maffit, Tarr and Josephs are to appear in burlesque and pantomime. See advertisement.

The Times says: "The governor of Siberia has visited Admiral Shufeldt on board the Ticonderoga at Sierra Leone." We don't believe it; who is the governor of Siberia, anyway, and what's he doing on the coast of Africa? Come to think of it, though, he may have gone down there to get out of the way of the plague.

An advertisement in another column announces the appearance of the Boston Museum Co. at Music hall in "H. M. S. Pinafore," on Monday evening of next week, with the same cast and costumes with which it was first produced in this country, and the Museum orchestra. Preceding the comic opera, the comedietta "The maid with the milking pail" will be given.

On Tuesday morning an elderly man named Silas Parker, a disabled war veteran and an inmate of the soldiers' home in Maine, was in this city on his way to Groton, Vt., on a leave of absence for sixty days. At the Eastern depot he was overcome, and—in company with four rum-bottles, two empty and two partly full, which he had with him—was taken to the police station and cared for. The old soldier was harmless and helpless, but happy.

George Anderson—not the George Anderson who was sent to the city farm on Tuesday for drunkenness, but "Comanche George Anderson, scout, of Texas," who sold much "Tulula" beet-seed at a dollar for six seeds, and many people very cheaply, in this city some months ago—was arrested in Salem on Monday. The Salem Gazette has the following, which shows Anderson's game there was the same as he practised here: "Anderson has been putting up beet seed in packages containing six seeds each, and disposing of them, under the name of tulula seed, at from twenty-five cents to $1 per package. When taken to the station he denied that he had any such seed about him, but upon being searched a large number of packages of tulula seed were found upon him. He is a man of about thirty-eight years, and dresses himself in the Texas Jack style." He was to be arraigned for obtaining money under false pretences.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. George N. Procter of Exeter sends to Boston a thousand gallons of milk daily, of which he receives three hundred and fifty gallons at Exeter depot.

Capt. Frank P. Cram, of Hampton Falls, on Tuesday received a telegram from Winchester, Mass., announcing the death there of his sister, a teacher in one of the Boston schools and an accomplished and most estimable lady.

Mr. Nicholas Varney, a respected citizen of Dover, died very suddenly on Monday morning of rheumatism of the heart. He was around on Sunday in his usual health, and during the previous week served as one of the grand jurors in the supreme court. He was about fifty-eight years old.

John B. Page is the fish warden for the vicinity of Newmarket, and it was he who last week gave public notice to the fishermen that by direction of the State fish commissioners he would, after the 15th inst., enforce the law against catching bass, striped bass and smelts in any other way than by angling with a single hook and line, with bait, artificial fly or spoon.

A "sacred concert" was given in Dover on Sunday evening, and the Democrat calls the performers a "lot of platform hoodlums" and "mushroom and pig-weed Yankee Doodles" "as green as goslings and awkward as ostriches," and pronounces the "sacred" concert itself a "very vulgar fraud" and "ridiculous piece of humbuggery." From this we infer that the editor was not pleased with the entertainment.

Mr. Frank Wingate, formerly of Exeter but more recently of Great Falls, was recently tendered a complimentary supper by some of his friends, he being about to depart for a residence in Texas. The supper was given at the American house in Dover, and music was furnished by Woodman's band. During the evening Mr. Wingate was presented with a handsome medal.

At Northampton, Mass., James M. & E. Judson Hunter of Boston, and one Mackenney, their agent, accused of swindling Austin S. Waite of Williamsburg in regard to the sale of mowing-machine grinders, have been bound over to the June criminal court in $1000 each. It is said that these are the parties who "worked" York county, Me., recently, on the "mowing-machine grinder agency" lay, and made a good thing out of it at the expense of the indiscreet farmers who could be induced to sign the "agreements" presented for that purpose.

Deputy Sheriffs Marr and Stuart, of Saco, made a "seizure" at the place of Louis Cross on Monday. The officers went into the cellar, and after searching about for a while came to a jar of butter. Opening it and removing the cloth, one of the officers found it apparently full of packed butter, which he thought best to probe with his knife as the jar did not appear to be so heavy as it ought. He was about to thrust his knife into the butter when he observed a small ring in the middle. Taking hold of this he lifted out a cover, and disclosed a jar half full of whiskey! The butter was in a neat tin of about half an inch in depth, nicely fitted into the jar, and resting on legs reaching to the bottom of the vessel.

THE RAILROAD CHANGES.

The spring arrangement on the Eastern railroad differs but little from that of the winter, except that an extra train is run each day and at most convenient hours, leaving Boston for this city at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and this city for Boston at three o'clock in the afternoon. The Pullman train leaves this city for Boston at 4:10 o'clock A. M., fifteen minutes earlier than formerly, and arrives in Boston at 6:30, a half-hour ahead of the old time table. The afternoon train to Boston which formerly left at 5:48 o'clock, now leaves at 5:30.

These changes in the running time of trains necessitate changes in the times of closing the mails. The mails for "Boston, south and west," and "Boston, way," which formerly closed at 5:15 P. M., now close at 2:30 P. M.; a supplementary mail, "Boston, south and west," closes at 4:50, and is dispatched over the Boston & Maine railroad via Newmarket Junction,—but this is a sort of an accommodation mail, liable to detention at the junction in case the trains fail to connect, and correspondence which it is important to have reach Boston promptly had better be entrusted to the mail closing at 2:30 P. M., and sent over the Eastern railroad.

SUPREME COURT.

TUESDAY, Feb. 18; Foster, J.

Case No. 147, Darius Towle, of Kingston, vs. Benjamin F. Rowe, admr. of Benj. D. Silley, was concluded, the jury rendering a verdict of $1806.76 for the plaintiff. Hatch for pltf.; Wiggin and Fernald for deft. This case had occupied the court from its coming in on Monday.

Wm. R. Bunker, of Epping, vs. Frank H. Hervey, of Exeter, was commenced. Action to recover for alleged fraud in sale of personal property. Towle and Frink for pltf.; Marston and Eastman for deft. The jurors not engaged in this case were excused until Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Case next in order is No. 175, Michael Benson vs. Mary E. Tilton. Stickney and Hatch for pltf.; Marston and Eastman for deft.

Judge Foster is hastening the business of the term all that is possible, and cases are being disposed of with unusual promptness.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Feb. 18th.

On Tuesday evening of last week a surprise party of forty persons visited Mrs. Abby Jenness at the Four Corners, and were hospitably entertained with an excellent supper. Singing and conversation made the time pass quickly. A little girl of four years, daughter of Mr. Adams E. Drake, sang "Santa Claus" very prettily.

At the Congregational church, Sunday, Mr. Morse, a student from Andover, Mass., preached; at the Christian church, Rev. Mr. Sexton of Scotland; at the Advent chapel, Rev. Mr. Cole of Plymouth, Mass. Sunday evening Mr. Sexton held a gospel temperance meeting at the Christian church, being assisted by Rev. Mr. Morse and Mr. Jones; Mr. Sexton's address was an able one, and the choir sang some appropriate selections. Mr. Cole preached at the Advent chapel in the evening, and will hold meetings every evening this week.

Mr. Sexton lectures in the town hall this evening. Prof. Jed E. Lord, of Providence, R. I., will give readings at the same place Thursday evening.

On Monday Mr. James Brown's sleigh was turned over by a snow bank; his horse ran away, and the sleigh was smashed.

The latest sensation here is the disappearance of a young girl, who left her home for parts unknown one evening.

Your able correspondent "Nat" reports a "suspected" earthquake or airquake in Rye, but I cannot find anybody else who heard it.

It has been stated that Mr. Joseph Philbrick is ninety-two years old; but he informs me that he will be ninety-one in May next. He is so far recovered from his recent sickness as to be able to cut wood at the door. SCRIBE.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, Feb. 18; Batchelder, J.

George Anderson was charged with having been drunk; worse than that, the charge was proved. Mr. Anderson was ordered to pay $9.90, fine and costs; not having the cash, he will work it out on the city farm, where he has already done some similar service.

Knabe Pianos in London.

Mention has been made of the fact that the Baltimore piano manufacturing firm of William Knabe & Co., have established an agency in London, for the purpose of introducing their instruments into Great Britain and making them as popular in the old country as they are on this side of the Atlantic. The enterprise has been very successful. A great many of the Knabe pianos have been shipped to London, and their reception by leading musical artists there has been flattering in the highest degree. Sir Julius Benedict, Brinsley Richards, Sidney Smith, Wilhelm Gans, and others as well known, after critical tests, have honored the Knabe pianos with the most appreciative testimonials. In fact, the Knabe Baltimore-made pianos seem to have completely captivated the London musical public. The London Post of January 13th in its criticism of the St. James' Hall concert, says: "Madame Frickenhaus obtained quite a triumph with the Knabe piano. The instrument, which has great charm and fullness of tone, lent itself admirably to the performance, which for vigor of expression and delicacy of color has not often been surpassed here. The audience was carried away by a sympathy with the music, which mere brilliancy of manipulation does not always succeed in inspiring." The London Telegraph of the same date speaks of "the great power and adaptability for large concert rooms of the American grand piano made by Knabe," and the Advertiser, referring to the piano used in the same concert, says it was "a specimen of American manufacture much better than usually encountered." This from such sources is praise, indeed. From the success they have met with already Messrs. Knabe & Co. have reason to expect continuous orders in the future from this metropolis and great musical emporium of the world.—Baltimore American.

Mr. Edouado de Anguera, well known in Portsmouth as a skillful piano tuner, is travelling through New England as agent for the Knabe pianos, and is now in this city, where he hopes to place a number of them.

Nerve Inquietude and Its Remedy.

Restless nerves, at least those that are constantly so, are weak ones as well. The true way to tranquilize them thoroughly is to strengthen them. It may be, nay, it very often is necessary to have recourse to a sedative or even an opiate, in dangerous cases of nervous inquietude, but the continued use of such unnatural palliatives is greatly to be deprecated. Though not, in a restricted sense, a specific for nervousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is eminently calculated to allay and eventually overcome it, a fact which the recorded experience of many goes to substantiate. This inestimable tonic, by promoting digestion, assimilation and secretion, touches the three keynotes upon which the harmony of all the bodily organs depends, and the result is that fresh stores of vitality are diffused through the system, of which the nerves receive their due apportionment, and grow tranquil as they gather strength.

That Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg's is prepared by a regular practicing physician who has used it for fifteen years. Its great sale is but a just tribute to it.

Good for a Quarter of a Century.

When the Legislature of Louisiana in 1868 pledged the faith of the State to the preservation of the franchises of the Louisiana State Lottery, it builded better than it knew, for the supreme law of the land, as decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, has pronounced the dictum that a contract made must be adhered to, and the franchises of the Louisiana State Lottery, with its vast capital of over a million of dollars, must remain for fifteen years yet, until the expiration of the original term.

Highly Concentrated, in order to do the work effectual, is the Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. ttch26

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents.

Your Lungs are affected! Use Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Whither are We Drifting!

F. B. Sanborn, secretary of the social science association, makes some startling statements in his annual report. He says 300 ignorant and uneducated persons are practicing medicine in Boston—and that the signs of thirty-four of them were on the doors of houses of ill-repute; half of the vinegar now sold is rank poison; cayenne pepper is adulterated with red lead, mustard with chromate of lead, curry powder with red lead, vinegar with sulphuric acid, arsenic and corrosive sublimate. One of our Boston chemists analyzed twelve packages of pickles, put up by twelve different wholesale dealers, and found copper in ten of them. Another chemist analyzed sixteen packages of pickles, and found copper in all of them.

Many of our flavoring oils, syrups, jellies and preserved fruits, contain poison. The adulterations of tea are too numerous to mention. Coffee is not only adulterated, but a patent has been taken out for moulding chicory into the form of coffee berries, and clay is now moulded, and perhaps flavored with essence, to represent coffee. Several mills in New England are now engaged in grinding white stone into fine powder for purposes of adulteration. At some of these mills they grind three grades—soda grade, sugar grade and flour grade. It sells for about half a cent a pound. Flour has been adulterated with plaster of Paris, bone dust, sand, clay, chalk and other articles.

Certainly hundreds, and probably thousands, of barrels of "terra alba," or white earth, are sold in our cities every year to be mixed with sugar in confectionery and other white substances. This tends to produce stone, kidney complaints and various diseases of the stomach. A Boston chemist tells me that he has found seventy-five per cent of "terra alba" in what was sold as cream of tartar, used for cooking. Much of our confectionery contains thirty-three per cent or more of "terra alba." The coloring matter of confectionery frequently contains lead, mercury, arsenic and copper.

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig),
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative),
THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW (Evangelical),
AND
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE

☞ These Reprints are not selections; they give the originals in full, and at about one-third the price of the English Editions.

No publications can compare with the leading British Periodicals, bone-named, reprinted by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. In respect to fidelity of research, accuracy of statement, and purity of style, they are without any equal. They keep pace with our era in thought, discovery, experiment, and achievement, whether in religion, science, literature, or art. The ablest writers fill their pages with most interesting reviews of history, and with an intelligent narration of the great events of the day.

TERMS FOR 1879, INCLUDING POSTAGE,

Payable Strictly in Advance.

For any one Review	$4 00	per annum.
For any two Reviews	7 00	"
or any three Reviews	10 00	"
For all four Reviews	12 00	"
For Blackwood's Magazine	4 00	"
For Blackwood and one Review	7 00	"
" " " two Reviews	10 00	"
" " " three "	13 00	"
" " " four "	15 00	"

POSTAGE.

This item of expense, now borne by the publishers, is equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent on the cost to subscribers in former years.

CLUBS.

A discount of twenty per cent will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent, to one address, for $12 80, four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $48, and so on.

PREMIUMS.

New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1879 may have, without charge, the numbers for the last quarter of 1878 of such periodicals as they may subscribe for.

Or, instead, new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above period cals, may have one of the "Four Reviews" for 1878, and to any five may have two of the "Four Reviews," or one set of Blackwood's Magazine for 1878.

Neither premiums to subscribers nor discount to clubs can be allowed, unless the money is remitted direct to the publishers. No premiums given to Clubs.

To secure premiums it will be necessary to make early applications, as the stock available for that purpose is limited.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of or with MARCELLUS BUFFORD, at the City Clerk's office will receive prompt attention.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are ballasted in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while unusually safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

"The prince among magazines."—New York Observer.

"It affords the best, the cheapest and most convenient means of keeping abreast with the progress of thought in all its phases."—Philadelphia North American.

"A monthly that comes every week."—The Advance, Chicago.

"It is incomparable in the richness, variety, and sterling worth of its articles."—The Standard, Chicago.

"A pure and perpetual reservoir and fountain of current intent and instruction."—Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"The choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune.

"It is indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

"It has no equal in any country. -Philadelphia Press.

"Omit to find a place in every American home."—New York Times.

Published weekly at $8.00 a year, free of postage.

EXTRA OFFER FOR 1879.

To all new subscribers for 1879 will be sent gratis the six numbers of 1878, containing, with other valuable matter, the first parts of "SIR GIBBIE," a new serial story of much interest by GEORGE MACDONALD, now appearing in THE LIVING AGE from the author's advance sheets. Other choice new serials by distinguished authors are engaged and will speedily appear.

Club Prices for the best Home and Foreign Literature.

"Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation."—Phila. Evening Bulletin.

For $10.50 THE LIVING AGE and either one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar) will be sent for a year, both postpaid; or for $9.50 THE LIVING AGE and the St. Nicholas, or Appleton's Journal. Address

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Your bottle have reduced my weight from 189 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOBBITTS & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who uses Allan's Anti-Fat. 'If the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for constipation. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet of testimony sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon my personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases peculiar to the organism of woman, tingled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, not one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single lovelid lady who uses it for any of the diseases for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Inconsistency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness.

So not cited this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents. BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER. BOSTON, January 1, 1879. 3tawtjan180

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mercurial Rheumatism, and all diseases of the liver, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, and Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Tissue Rash, Itch, Scaly Eruptions, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tumor on the Neck, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and bowels costive, you need a gentle but thorough Liver, or "Biliousness," in many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and permanent cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it stands unrivaled, and many cases pronounced by eminent physicians incurable, yield to the use of this medicine, when all other means fail. While it cures the severest Coughs, it invigorates the system and purifies the blood. Sold by all Druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No more of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of drugs which injure by their ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Dimness of Sight, Sick Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. And does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, coughing up, or spitting of mucus, all the passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, loss of or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be used, if the patient prefers it, in the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which such medicine can be carried HIGH UP and THOROUGHLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores are always frequently found, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most unquestionable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its wonderful power of Catarrhal affection is that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the so combining evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I can indeed do no less than give a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the numerous advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to present with a trial bottle of Mr. HENRY WELLS', and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGON, D. C., Feb. 17th.

The event of Saturday was the passage of the anti-Chinese immigration bill in the Senate by the emphatic vote of thirty-nine to twenty-seven. The result was a surprise, to many both as to the majority and the non-partisanship of the vote. Eighteen republicans voted to follow the lead of Mr. Blaine in favor of the bill, and ten democrats voted against it. No vote during the session has more nearly split the two parties in twain than this. The able presentation of the case for the bill by Mr. Blaine had much to do with this. He took the high ground that no people who entirely disregarded and demoralized the sacred family fireside relations as the Chinese do can be safely planted in a republic which is based upon the purity of social connections and the refinement engendered thereby. The impure and undomestic habits of the Chinese are proverbial, and Mr. Blaine eloquently denounced the race as incapable of improvement, having resisted the attentions of the sanitary agent and the Christian missionary alike. When this controversy was started in the House, it was the boast of the democrats that its passage would demonstrate that the democrats alone were courageous enough to protect the Pacific coast from the Chinese invasion, and therefore they counted upon possessing all the Pacific coast States "solid" in future elections. But the game seems after all to have been a drawn game politically, and the result will not affect parties at all, probably.

The House has for several days been engaged on the legislative and executive appropriation bill, which is not yet completed. It will, however, be patched up in committee of the whole and passed in a few days. Many points will probably be antagonized by the Senate, but if the democrats do not insist upon the threat to repeal the election supervisors law, it is not likely that the Senate will antagonize the measure beyond a point where a conference committee can come to a satisfactory compromise.

Mr. Windom, chairman of the Senate appropriation committee gives notice that the post-office appropriation bill must occupy the time regularly until its completion, which will be several days. Several changes will be made in the amounts appropriated by the House bill, and perhaps the Brazilian mail steamship bill will be engrafted upon it as the most proper and the quickest way to settle an important question involving the commercial prosperity of the nation.

The probabilities of an extra session have saved Tilden and the New York gang of political desperadoes who sought to bribe his way into the White House, from a great deal of disagreeable attention of which they had been the recipients had not this latter sensation diverted it into another channel. The Bourbon managers have also been relieved in a measure of the defence and apologies they felt it incumbent on them to make in behalf of their late Presidential candidate, and which men having a strict regard for the truth would have found a very formidable job under the unpromising circumstances, however great the resources of their ingenuity in making black appear white and vice versa. I may dismiss Mr. Tilden by saying that his denials are almost universally regarded here as aggravating the original offence that few now doubt he was guilty of; and his charges of corruption against the men that the coparceners were unable to buy, based on nothing better than the word of the corruptionists themselves, make him appear as meanly malicious as his whole public course proclaims him recklessly unscrupulous and indifferent as to the means used to compass his ambitious schemes in public estimation.

Many projects are presented in the shape of bills providing ways and means to prevent the importation of yellow fever and other contagious and epidemic diseases, but it is probable that all will be embodied in a sort of national quarantine measure, modified somewhat to meet the State rights views of certain statesmen, who wouldn't have the greatest pests cured by unconstitutional means. The most plausible objection to a national quarantine is that it presents obstacles to commerce. This objection will be largely if not wholly obviated by the probable adoption of the proposed plan for freezing out the germs of the disease by means of refrigerating ships at quarantine, involving very slight delay and no loss of perishable cargoes.

Great efforts are being made by the opponents of the Geneva award bill as it passed the House, to defeat action in the Senate; but it is likely to be taken up immediately after the passage of the postoffice appropriation bill. Its passage is doubtful however, as it is said the lawyers of the Senate view the bill as a dangerous defiance to the obligations of the treaty which gave us the $15,500,000 award.

KNOX.

Portsmouth Chronicle

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1879.

Crafty John Chinaman.

Mr. Walker of Virginia who spent some years in China, says he believes the Chinese Embassy, while apparently opposed to the anti-immigration bill, have been secretly urging its passage. He says the Pekin government is scarcely aware of the existence of a Chinese element in this country, and its people in America are never thought of in the consideration of State affairs. Ever since the invasion of Pekin by the allied European forces the Chinese have steadily opposed concession to foreigners. Instead of troubling themselves about the introduction of Chinese into the United States, they have been striving to devise means to exclude American "foreign devils" from China. Mr. Walker says he was in Pekin about the time the Burlingame treaty was under discussion there, and it was with the greatest reluctance that it was accepted. If the President fails to veto the bill, and it becomes a law, it will give the Chinese the lever in their dealings with foreigners for which they have been seeking for twenty years. China, with its splendid arsenals and trained military, will soon be in a position to defy European interference. In the meanwhile Americans will be placed at a disadvantage with other traders. A market which might annually take $100,000,000 worth of American products may be closed, the Pacific Mail steamship company will be obliged to abandon its Asiatic branch, and San Francisco itself will be the greatest sufferer.

Good For Connecticut.

In the Connecticut House of Representatives, on the 18th inst., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the proposed law now pending in the Congress of the United States, restricting Chinese immigration, is in flagrant violation of a sacred and honorable treaty, and is wholly inconsistent with the principles and traditions of our republic and with the broad principles of human freedom, and it is our earnest hope that its provisions may never disgrace our national statutes.

News and Notes.

The ship Lake Erie, which arrived at Portland recently, reports that she fell in with a large barque, derelict, one hundred miles from Bermuda, and boarded her. Her rudder was gone, sails torn to ribbons, and four feet of water in her hold; a temporary rudder, which her crew had evidently been unable to ship, was on the deck; she was in ballast. Her cabin was very finely furnished, but there was nothing to tell the name of the vessel, which was nearly new. The crew of the Lake Erie spread tar over the barque's deck, and set her on fire.

A Miss Reynolds is now trying in Boston to walk three thousand quarter-miles in three thousand quarter hours. Of what advantage it will be to have her accomplish the task has not been made public.

A young man named Williams, a resident of Bangor, Me., has been engaged in systematic burglaries of late. He has been arrested and a large lot of stolen goods recovered.

Moses Pierce of Norwich, Conn., has sent $50 to Rev. C. L. Malcolm of Newport, to be used towards the fund which the latter is raising to secure a home for Rev. Calvin Fairbank, who was imprisoned seventeen years in Kentucky for aiding to escape several slaves, one of whom was Hon. Mr. Hayden of Boston.

A difficulty occurred at Johnsonville, Miss., on the 18th inst., between Col. Holman, Dr. Loury, Dr. Walker and Mr. Arnold. The fight commenced by Holman shooting Loury in the side. Arnold then shot Holman, wounding him, then shot Walker, killing him instantly, and was shot by Holman. Arnold and Loury have since died. Holman has been arrested.

A girl fourteen years old, named Lepote, has eloped from Stanstead, Quebec, with a married man named French, who is said to have a wife in Boston.

At Fulton, Mo., on the 18th inst., as Miss Georgie Wilbur, a clerk in the post-office, was sorting the mail at noon, a man entered the office, locked the door, criminally assaulted the girl, and made good his escape.

The wife of Mr. Frederic DeBary was garroted in a crowded street in New York some days ago, while walking in company with another lady, by a fashionably dressed young man who tore out of one of her ears a diamond earring valued at over $1200, and badly injured her other ear in trying to tear out the other jewel. Though chased by the bystanders as soon as they recovered from their astonishment at the audacity of the assault, the highwayman escaped for the time, but was arrested on the night of the 18th inst. His name is David Pender, alias "David, the Kid," a well-known burglar and thief. When he was arrested he attempted to shoot the officer, but was prevented. He was identified beyond a doubt as the thief.

George W. Dupre, the State printer of Louisiana, has been indicted for perjury.

A train on the Selma, Rome & Dalton railroad of Alabama went through a rotton bridge near Selma, on the 18th inst. One white man and four negroes were instantly killed, the superintendent of the road and the conductor of the train fatally injured, and about thirty other persons more or less severely hurt.

Judge McKennan, in the United States Circuit Court, appointed Oliver Ames of Massachusetts receiver, to take charge of the $2,000,000 note now in litigation in Boston, given by the Union Pacific railroad company to the Credit Mobilier.

The late John D. Coffin of Buxton, York county, Me., is said to have actually starved himself to death. He became insane on account of loss of property, and for thirty-nine days previous to his death his attendants declare that he had scarcely taken a particle of food or nourishment of any kind except water. He refused to eat, and nothing could induce him to do it until he wasted away and finally starved to death. He leaves a widow and three children.

Machinery hall, the second biggest of the Centennial buildings at Philadelphia, has been sold at auction for $24,000. It cost $634,867, and contained 1,600,000 pounds of wrought and cast-iron, 4,000,000 feet of lumber, 700,000 feet of tin roofing and 120,000 square feet of glass. A car-builder gets the bargain.

Dr. Thomas S. Lambert, ex-president of the defunct Popular life insurance company, and Mr. Case, president of the Security life insurance company, both convicted of perjury some time since, have been granted new trials by the court of appeals of New York.

The court-martial of Capt. Blair of the Fifteenth United States Infantry, for bigamy, terminated in New York on the 18th inst., by Blair's entering a plea of guilty, which will be made the verdict of the court and sent to Washington. Blair is the man who married Mrs. Granger, the beautiful widow of Gen. Gordon Granger, while his deserted wife and family were living in Scotland.

New Hampshire Items.

Bailey Dame, a prominent citizen of Whitefield, aged seventy years, fell dead in the street Tuesday. Death was caused by an affection of the brain.

The salmon eggs which arrived at Plymouth recently were unpacked in good conditition. They were not from California, as at first reported, but came from Grand Lake, Me.

Political.

Hon. Zach. Chandler was on the 18th inst. elected United States Senator from Michigan, he having 88 votes to 22 for O. M. Barnes, democrat, and 18 for Henry Chamberlain, greenbacker.

For a hundred years Uncle Sam has been standing in the open gateway of his vast domain, shouting to the poor and ignorant and oppressed of every country and clime, "Come over here and find a home," and there is something inconsistant, cowardly and ridiculous in his slamming the gate and hiding behind it because he finds among the crowd of emigrants that have accepted his invitation a few rat-eating Chinamen. Again, with this doctrine once established, who is to say to whom it shall applied? Every foreigner that lands on our shores, if he is a laboring man, becomes a competitor with our native-born workmen in the labor market, and helps to reduce wages; and, if the Chinaman is to be shut out for doing this, why not the Irishman and the Frenchman? John is a hard man, but he is not worse than Dennis Kearney, the Mollie Maguires and thousands of others who have been spewed into America from the slums of European and British cities. If John must go, why not Dennis? If the Mongolian must be debarred, why not the Celt? It may be well to secure a modification of our treaty with China; it is undoubtedly wise to hold out no inducements to the Chinese to come, but building a statute wall against them is cowardly, wrong and sure to prove unprofitable. Starving them out by refusing to employ or patronize them is much more sensible. Mirror.

—Sympathetic old lady (giving money to solemn-looking tramp): "Is it your inability to get work, my good man, that causes your dejected air?" S. L. T. (preparing to light out): "No, mem; it is my liability to get suthin' to do that keeps me all the time pensive and cast down."

Nerve Inquietude and Its Remedy.

Restless nerves, at least those that are constantly so, are weak ones as well. The true way to tranquilize them thoroughly is to strengthen them. It may be, nay, it very often is necessary to have recourse to a sedative or even an opiate, in dangerous cases of nervous inquietude, but the continued use of such unnatural palliatives is greatly to be deprecated. Though not, in a restricted sense, a specific for nervousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is eminently calculated to allay and eventually overcome it, a fact which the recorded experience of many goes to substantiate. This inestimable tonic, by promoting digestion, assimilation and secretion, touches the three keynotes upon which the harmony of all the bodily organs depends, and the result is that fresh stores of vitality are diffused through the system, of which the nerves receive their due apportionment, and grow tranquil as they gather strength.

Highly Concentrated, in order to do the work effectual, is the Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tieb25

Pleasant to take, is what most people like and this is found in Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup and yet it does the work every time.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so far in another and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

THE CITY.

Tickets for "H. M. S. Pinafore" are now ready at Preston's.

Mr. Isaiah Wilson is dangerously ill, and on Wednesday there was but little hope of his recovery.

The schooner T. J. Trafton, having repaired at Boston at a cost of about $1200, has sailed for Baltimore.

Reserved seat tickets for the concert in aid of the Children's Home will be for sale at Preston's on Saturday.

Mr. Jed. E. Lord, the popular reader and humorist, will gives an entertainment in the Christian church on Friday evening; admission twenty cents. Mr. Lord appeared in a Lyceum course in this city some years ago, and gave about the best entertainment in the course.

The walking match between Edward S. Hidden of Newburyport and Charles G. Locke of this city, in Franklin hall on the evening of the 18th inst., drew a large audience. The distance walked in four hours is said to have been 21 7-26 miles, the match being called a draw and all outside bets declared off.

By invitation of Olive Branch Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, of Dover, a delegation from Damon Lodge, No. 9, of this city, will visit Dover on Wednesday evening, the 26th inst., to work the amplified third rank, Damon Lodge being the only one in the State that works that degree strictly according to the ritual.

Mr. "Comanche George Anderson" has been sent to the house of correction for two months, by the municipal court of Salem, Mass., for obtaining money under false pretences. The many persons in this city and vicinity who purchased "tulula" (tulula is Texan for "beet" or "beat") seed of him some months ago will regret to hear this.

To-morrow evening, at Music hall, Miss Clara Fisher, Maffitt, the unequalled clown, E. S. Tarr, Flora Lee and Harry Josephs, supported by a good company, will present the burlesque and pantomime "Robinson Crusoe," with Clara Fisher in the title role. The burlesque will be followed by a "harlequinade," with Maffitt as clown, N. D. Jones as pantaloon, H. S. Sanford as harlequin and Miss Lee as columbine. Popular prices—reserved seats 50 cents; gallery 35 cents.

Music hall was crowded on Wednesday afternoon, every seat and all the standing room being filled, the larger portion of the audience being young people; probably not less than 1600 persons were in the building. Mr. Waite, who has a happy way of supplementing his words with "chalk talk," interested the people with sketches illustrating the difference between a pure heart and an impure one; he then introduced a series of paintings, done by himself, entitled "From the cradle to the grave." The interest of the audience was held to the end. Many persons were in attendance from surrounding towns, and they were well repaid for their time and trouble in coming so far. Mr. Waite's labors in the temperance cause we believe will result in much good.

THE VICINITY.

Russ B. Walker, of Boston, is having a nice pleasure yacht built by the Ward Brothers of Kennebunkport. Mr. Walker makes his summer home at Fortune's rocks, and this yacht is for his summer pleasuring.

An overheated furnace in Folsom & Faunce's jewelry store in Great Falls, at about twelve o'clock on the night of Tuesday, the 18th inst., set fire to the store, damaging the stock about $4000; fully insured. The stock of Henry Veseloff, tailor, next door, was damaged by smoke about $500; fully insured. S. S. Chick's stock of dry goods was damaged by smoke about $500; insured.

THE BRIDGE.

KITTERY, ME., Feb. 18th.

Mr. Editor: We are patiently awaiting the decision of the court relative to the reduction of tolls on Portsmouth bridge. This is a subject which all of the citizens of the neighbering towns take an interest in, and it should be pushed. Your neighboring city of Dover is trying to divert some of the trade from Portsmouth by building a bridge to Eliot; a charter has been granted by the present Maine legislature. When the legislatures of the two States granted the railroad company the privilege to build their bridge, they should have been made to pay something for the privilege; but they have swallowed up the Portsmouth Bridge Co., and the travelling public are made to pay for keeping both bridges in order, about $8000 being the average annual receipts for the past few years, that being about sufficient to keep the public and railroad bridges in repair. The travelling public ask for a fair rate of tolls; nowhere else are such high tolls exacted from the public. The bridge company should also be compelled to keep the bridge properly lighted, and to keep a light on the pile-driver when it is on the roadway; and also to set some signal by which travellers should be notified when trains are expected, so that one great and real danger in crossing the bridge with teams could be avoided. Let the travelling public be heard, and if the courts will do nothing, then try legislation.

BON-BON.

THE RIVERSIDE BAND.

During the past year this little society has done efficient service in helping to Sunday and day school children that are not connected with any parish. The band has also assisted people to get work in various ways, after careful investigation by the officers and committee. The officers are chosen from the various churches, and meet every alternate Wednesday the girls from the families of the very poor, and teach them sewing, etc. In the year just past some three hundred articles of clothing have been distributed by the committee, generally among those not helped at all by other charities. Friends in the city have been very kind in giving articles of wearing apparel in the past; and now that the spring time is near, and as the work for the spring will be all that the workers can well provide for, the committee will be very glad to receive any further donations that friends may desire to make in the line of clothing. Information regarding this mission will be freely given by the president, Miss Fannie Mathes, or at the Mission Rooms.

COM.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

In the case of Henry vs. the Francestown Soapstone Co., on the application for a rehearing, Judge Clark has given an opinion as follows:

Applications for new trials upon the discovery of new evidence have been of frequent occurrence. They are largely within the discretion of the Courts; but that discretion is governed by principles well settled:

1st, the evidence must be new to the applicant, and he must have exercised due diligence in discovering it before the former trial.

2d, It must be material. Some of the cases say emphatically material; such as if unanswered in point of fact, "must either clearly entitle the party to a reversal of the decree, or raise a case of so much nicety and difficulty as to be a fit subject of judgment in the cause." Others say, of a decisive character, and such as to show injustice has been done. And others, such as in the opinion of the Court would probably produce a different verdict. And it must be set forth so fully that the Court may see whether it is of "such character that it would, unimpaired or uncontradicted, alter the result;" but it is not necessary it should be conclusive.

3d, It must not be merely cumulative; or to impeach or contradict a witness; but must go to some new point or fact.

The authorities on these several points are numerous and generally uniform,—among them are:

Jenkins v Eldridge—3d Story	299
Aiken v Bemis 3d Woodbury and Minot	348
1 Johns Cases	492
2d Caines Cases	155
2d Washington C. C.	411
Ames v Howard 1st Summer	482
Baker and wife v Whiting et als 1st Story	218
Reeves v Keystone Bridge Co. { 9th Official Gazette }	885
Dennett v Dennett 44 N. H.	531
State v Carr 21st N. H.	166

In this last case the authorities are numerously cited.

Subjecting the evidence now offered for a new trial in this case, to the test of these well-established rules, the question is, does it answer their requirements. If it does, there should, I think, be a new trial; if not, a new trial should be refused.

In Platt v. Monroe, 34 Bart. 291, it was held "that in modern practice new trials are liberally granted in furtherance of justice." Still if the newly discovered evidence would not, in the opinion of the Court, change the result, or if the person seeking such new trial, had been guilty of negligence in discovering it, it should be refused.

The newly-discovered evidence in this case is the sale of two stoves by Porter Dodge, the patentee; one to John H. Patch December 1854, and one to Henry Huntoon February 5th, 1855. These stoves were of soapstone in cast iron frames, and it is claimed were substantially like the article afterwards patented. Now the fact that Porter Dodge had sold such a stove to Patch or Huntoon was not a new fact, considered by itself. It existed at the time of the former trial. But it was not known to the petitioners, and when the fact was discovered it was new to them. And it is sufficient on that point to warrant the granting of a new trial, that the evidence was not known at the time of the former trial, and there was no want of diligence in procuring it. Nash v. Wetmore, 33 Bart. 155.

The affidavit of Mr. Sawyer shows this evidence was not known to the counsel for the respondents, who had charge of the defence, nor to the respondents themselves, at the time of the trial. It also discloses due diligence in procuring testimony. I have carefully read the testimony produced at the hearing and contained in the record, to see if there was anything therein, which should have put the respondents upon enquiry as to this particular evidence, but I find nothing. The next enquiry is, whether the new evidence is merely cumulative, or only tending to contradict, or discredit a witness used on the former hearing.

There is evidence in the record of the sale of stoves by Porter Dodge, and in so far as the new evidence proves the sale of another stove, it may be said to be cumulative—that is, it adds the sale of one stove to other sales. But it goes to a new and distinct fact, that is, another sale, of another stove, at another time—and at a time which is material—and in this respect it is not cumulative. Nor is it merely contradictory of a former witness—it goes beyond and outside of any former testimony.

The only remaining question is, is the new evidence material, and so important, direct and positive—that it probably may or will change the result of the former hearing—not conclusive—but affording a strong presumption or belief, that it may do so?

There can be no doubt that it is material. "It goes to the very gist of the claim of the plaintiff"—whether it be decisive of it, must be left to the consideration of the Judge who shall rehear the cause. It shows, or strongly tends to show, if uncontradicted, or its force is in no way impaired, a sale by Porter Dodge, the original patentee, of the patented article for public use, without restriction, condition or reserve—and not for trial, or perfecting of his invention more than two years before his application for a patent. The sale was of a stove, it would seem, after the invention was perfected. Such sale and use by the purchaser, of the patented article, with the knowledge and consent or approval of the inventor, would warrant the court in finding the patent void.

American Leather Co. v Tool Company, 1 Holmes	503-501
Egbert v Lippman et al, 11th Official Gaz.,	823
Henry v Tool Co., 14th Official Gazette	555-559
Bell v Daniels, 1st Fisher,	373

In the Fruit Jar Co. vs. Wright, 4th Otto, 94, Mr. Justice Swayne says: "A single sale or use by the patentee (of the invention) may be fatal to the patent."

In Pitts vs. Hall, 2d Blatch'd, 235, Mr. Justice Nelson said: The patentee may forfeit his right to the invention if he constructs it and vends it to others to use.

The same doctrine is held in McMillan et al. vs. Barclay et al., 5th Fisher, 291.

See Agawam Co. vs. Jordan, 7th Wal., 607, and McClary et al. vs. Kingsland et al., 1st Howard, 202.

Considering the new evidence as it now stands, it seems to me sufficiently material, direct and cogent, to require me to order a new trial.

The sale of a stove to Patch was in Dec. 1854. The sale to Huntoon was Feb. 5th, 1855. Huntoon fixes this date by an entry in his account or memorandum book. He does not say he made the entry on that date, nor was it necessary the entry should have been made on that precise day, if the witness is enabled by the entry to say that Dodge sold him on that day.

The sale being on the 5th day of February, 1855, and the filing of the application for a patent being on the 14th day of February, 1857, the sale was more than two years before the application for a patent.

I cannot hold the filing of the model in the Patent Office to be an application for a patent. It may be done preparatory to filing an application or an indirect notice that an application will be made, or for some purpose, but it is not the application itself.

Porter Dodge may have desired a patent when he filed his model, or he may have intended to apply for one, but he did not file his application until Feb. 14th, 1857.

Upon the former hearing of this case Judge Shepley held, 9th Official Gazette, 408, "the time of his filing this rejected application was to be considered the date of his application for a patent, although to save a forfeiture he said it might be just to give him the benefit of the informal application, when he filed his model"—but he did not so hold, or decide.

Leave is granted to the applicants, upon payment of costs, to file an amended answer, to admit the newly-discovered evidence, and it is ordered that a new hearing be had; and that further proceeding be stayed until such new hearing and a decision thereon, and the decree be affirmed, annulled or reversed as justice and equity may require.

The parties will probably now proceed to take further testimony. J. L. Livermore for pltf.; Browne, Holmes & Browne for the company.

—Speaking of long runs, Agnes Robertson (Mrs. Boucicault) said the other day: "For four years we played nothing but 'The Colleen Bawn,' and it became almost unsupportable. To illustrate how mechanical it all grew, I need only say that, if there was any sudden change in the cast, I forgot my lines utterly at the first sound of the strange voice."

—The Chicago Times thinks the rows of theatre seats should be placed farther apart; it is unpleasant to have a fellow's nose tickled throughout the performance by the latest style of bonnet worn by the lady of fashion who sits in the next row in front of him. This plan of reform would also prevent the lady of fashion from having her bonnet crushed by the fellow's struggle in taking off his overcoat.

—Now there abideth these things, which every man can do better than any one else: Poke a fire. Put on his own hat. Edit a newspaper. Tell a story, after another man has begun it. Examine a railway time table.—Burlington Hawkeye.

—The Utica Herald is responsible for the following rat and clam story: "A New Berliner bought two dozen clams last week, took them home, and spread meal on them. The next morning he found that thirty-two rats, in search of meal, had been caught by tails and toes by twenty-three clams. The unoccupied clam must have bossed the job. One clam had three rats."

—Scores of New York belles would have sent Bachelor Tilden a valentine, but they didn't know how to get the letter carrier to carry it any further than to the door of No. 15 Gramercy Park. And of course, if they had been left that way, he never would have seen them or heard a word about them. He never sees a letter that is sent to his house. At least, hardly ever.—Boston Traveller.

—A travelling philosopher remarks that "the pretence that the cutaneous covering of the back half of the human form, extending from the heels upward to the base of the brain is non-sensitive, and that friction from car-seats, sleeper-berths and steamboat bunks can be steadily and uniformly applied to it with impunity, is wickedly untrue in assumption and productive in practice of untold anguish and misery."

—The latest statistics show that the debts of the States of the Union amount in the aggregate to $345,197,000. Massachusetts takes the lead, and is followed in a descending scale by Alabama, Virginia, North Carolina, New York, Tennessee, Pennsylvania and Louisiana, each of which owes more than $20,000,000. West Virginia, Missouri, Georgia and Arkansas owe materially less, although the amount is over $10,000,000 each, while all the other States fall below the latter figures. Many municipal debts exceed the State debts.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost, has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and all in merited reward that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. 16eb20 79

W. Story, Turgenieff, Carlyle, Ruskin, Tennyson, Browning, and many others, are represented in the pages of Littell's Living Age.

In 1879, THE LIVING AGE enters upon its thirty-sixth year, admittedly unrivalled and continuously successful. During the year it will furnish to its readers the productions of the most eminent authors, all-or-almost and many others; embracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the Leading Foreign Novelists, and an amount
Unapproached by any other Periodical
in the world, of the most valuable Literary and Scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the foremost Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers and Editors, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress.
THE LIVING AGE is a weekly magazine giving more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND
double-column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.
The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the ABLEST WRITERS,
is sufficiently indicated by the following
OPINIONS.
"In it we find the best productions of the best writers upon all subjects really to our hand."—Philadelphia Inquirer.
"It is simply indispensable to any one who desires to keep abreast of the thought of the age in any department of science or literature."—Boston Journal.
"The prince among magazines."—New York Observer.
"It affords the best, the cheapest and most convenient means of keeping abreast with the progress of thought in all its phases."—Philadelphia Press.
"A monthly that comes every week."—The Advance, Chicago.
"It is incomparable in the richness, variety, and sterling worth of its articles."—The Standard, Chicago.
"A pure and perpetual reservoir and fountain of entertainment and instruction."—Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.
"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.
"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.
"The choicest literature of the day."—New York Tribune.
"It is indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.
"It has no equal in any country. Philadelphia Press.
"Ought to find a place in every American home."—New York Times.
Published weekly at $8.00 a year, free of postage.
EXTRA OFFER FOR 1879.
To all new subscribers for 1879 will be sent gratis the six numbers of 1878, containing, with other valuable matter, the first parts of "SIR GILBERT," a new serial story of much interest by GEORGE MACDONALD, now appearing in THE LIVING AGE from the author's advance sheets. Other choice new serials by distinguished authors are engaged and will speedily appear.
Club Prices for the best Home and Foreign Literature.
"Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation."—Phila. Evening Bulletin.
For $10.50 THE LIVING AGE and either one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar) will be sent for a year, both postpaid; or for $9.50 THE LIVING AGE and The St. Nicholas, or Appleton's Journal. Address

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the fat in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writes: "A patient from Providence, R. I., says "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 190 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Roanoke, Va., says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The Anti-Fat is for sale by druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. DOWNING & PLUMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'In the Anti-Fat I find the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I have lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' The Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, stirring the torpid liver into a joyful remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, implied it out as the effect—the crowning goal of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and certain remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, be of kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I buy and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Menstrual Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "panacea," but it admirably fulfils a single class of diseases, the most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats intimately of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those offspring.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, Blotch, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mercurial Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-Rheum, Fever-Sores, or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects great and real cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest blood purifier of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, rosin, and bulky inert matter. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated Feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping the sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, throat hawking, filling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucus, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or by syringe applied by the use of DR. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented that liquid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. DR. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, too much does give such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affection as the confidence it at once feels in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to depart a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the various advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could be induced to preserve with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.,

THEO. P. BOGERT.

Brilliant Gas-Lighting.

The brilliant effects produced by the various electric lights now in the market have stirred up the gas companies abroad and they are begining to turn the tables upon the electric light companies by rivaling their displays. In London, for example, the road from Waterloo bridge to the Southwestern railway station has been brilliantly illuminated by gas—at least one of the burners being equal to 200 candles. The cost, of course, is considerable, but falls, it is said, below that of the Jablochkoff "candles" on the viaduct for an equal amount of light—thus leaving the steam engine and the dynamo-electric machine, including the expenses of working them, out of the question. Similar experiments are about to be tried in other parts of London, from Waterloo place to Regent-Circus in Piccadilly. The ordinary lamps will be fitted with burners of eighty candle-power, and besides, the glass of the lamps will be of such a nature and be so arranged as to throw the light where it is wanted, instead of wasting it on the clouds. A new gas, according to a paragraph in the Liverpool Post, is under examination by Trinity House, the British lighthouse board. It is declared to be not only cheaper than ordinary gas, but far more effective. It is capable of so much concentration that the quantity contained in a small buoy has supplied a light burning for twenty-eight days with sufficient brilliancy to show the position of the buoy to passing ships.

Business Failures.

Lack of judgement causes fully fifty per cent. of all business men to fail, earlier or later. Do not an equal proportion of physicians fail to cure from the same cause? At the Grand Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce, through the skill attained by his several specialists, each having devoted years to a special department of medical science, is able to cure a large per cent. of cases hitherto considered incurable. Many physicians, in view of the superior advantages of this model sanitarium, bring there stubborn, obscure, complicated, and surgical cases for examination, operation, and treatment. Full particulars given in the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages. Price, post-paid, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—Drilling her class in poetry, the teacher quoted from the familiar lines of Tennyson: "You must wake and call me early, call me early, mother dear." "Now," she asked, "why did the girl want to be called early?" "Don't know," replied Tommy, "unless it was because that was her name."

Circumstances Alter Cases—Very Much.

In the letter of our Washington correspondent "Knox," under date of Feb. 17th, he gives a queer illustration of how very greatly circumstances can alter cases.

In the first paragraph of his letter, speaking of the passage by the Senate of the House bill providing for the open and shameless violation of our treaty obligations with China, he says: "The able presentation of the case for the bill by Mr. Blaine had much to do with this. He took the high ground that no people" like the Chinese can be "safely planted in a republic" like ours, and therefore advocated the anti-Chinese-immigration bill. No account is made of the facts that the Chinese are no worse now than they were when the treaty was made, and that the Chinese government has faithfully fulfilled all its treaty obligations.

In the last paragraph of his letter, speaking of the Geneva award bill as it passed the House, he says: "Its passage [by the Senate] is doubtful, however, as it is said the lawyers of the Senate view the bill as a dangerous defiance to the obligations of the treaty which gave us the $15,500,000 award."

It is highly moral to openly violate treaty obligations, when the treaty is with a peaceable nation that has no navy; when a nation is not only pugnacious but has a big navy, a "defiance to the obligations" of a treaty—even though the obligations may be only implied, and possibly not in existence—becomes "dangerous" and therefore immoral and not to be thought of. This is statesmanship as it exists at Washington.

Relative Proportion of English and American Trade with China.

From a letter to the London Weekly Times, dated Shanghai, China, Dec. 14th, 1878, I take the following tables showing the per cent of trade between the two nations and China:

England.....	77.91	76.71	76.36	73.88	71.23	74.29
United States....	4.45	5.10	4.55	4.54	2.42	1.49

Proportion of Chinese coasting-trade:

	1872	1873	1874	1875	1876	1877
England.....	33.56	37.29	40.25	46.39	49.65	45.73
United States...	56.61	52.76	45.03	34.49	35.61	5.90

In 1877 the American Steamship Company of Shanghai transferred all their vessels to the Chinese flag, thus accounting for the low per cent of 1877.

	1876	1877
English river trade.....	56.57	62.11
American "	25.04	11.38

Imported into China of piece goods (cotton):

In 1877, 11,578,000 pieces, value tls 2,900,000
United States, 612,000 pieces, value tls 1,500,000

The remainder from England. Report is that English light weight sized cottons control the market, and that heavy weight cotton goods from the United States are sold at a loss, and that the English do not fear American competition in China; that English iron steamers bring nearly all of the tea and goods of China from China to the Atlantic ports of the United States through the Suez canal. This report, coming through the London Times, is correct and deserves consideration. If we are losing trade with China, as this report states, surely it must be a very poor time to break a treaty with a great nation, inert perhaps, but a great nation before England and France had a name.

Yours, S.

News and Notes.

Two old fools, Thomas Carey of the New York Cotton Exchange, aged sixty-four years, and John Y. Marsh of New Haven, aged sixty-three, on the 19th inst. began a four days walk in Music hall, New Haven.

The price of railroads is down to hard pan—five dollars apiece. The Eastern Shore railroad in Delaware was sold at that price on the 19th inst., the first mortgage bondholders being the purchasers, the road being subject to a lien of $400,000.

Sixteen tramps took possession of the engine house of the Fort Wayne, Jackson & Saginaw railroad at Jackson, Mich., drove out the employes, and announced their intention to have work or die. The police captured the whole gang.

The vessel found derelict at sea and burned, by the schooner (not ship) Erie, was the Norwegian barque Jason. She had evidently been abandoned a long time.

John Flynn, a professional thief, has been arrested for complicity in the robbery of a diamond ear-ring from Mrs. De Bary in New York, and another man implicated will likely be captured. Pender, the actual thief, confesses his crime, but says that Flynn and this other man engaged him to do the job.

Arthur H. Greenwood, Moses L. Meeker and William S. Horne, having been convicted of conspiracy in buying liquor on Sunday so that they might prosecute the keeper of a bar-room in Passaic City, N. J., have been sentenced to pay $25 and costs. Mr. Greenwood is an ex-Methodist clergyman.

At Bowdoinham, Me., Mary L. Bates and Lavinia J. Stinson are held for appearance at the supreme court on a charge of attempting to poison Mrs. Sarah B. Bates. Alexander Bates, the divorced husband of Sarah B. Bates, was discharged from custody.

The shore fishery of Newburyport is better than ever known before. The catch is of large codfish, similar to those on the Grand Banks, and in abundance. On Monday, the 16th inst., one schooner landed 40,000 pounds, and since the middle of November she has taken nearly a half million pounds.

The British gunboat Osprey has started for Sitka, Alaska, to protect the whites. The United States revenue steamer Oliver Wolcott has been ordered to proceed from Port Townsend, Oregon, to Sitka, with all possible speed.

Mrs. Hooper, who shot her paramour, "Oofty Goofit," in New York some days ago, and was arrested for the offence after being almost beaten to death by him, has been discharged on a writ of habeas corpus. Both of them were drunk at the time of the fight.

Newburyport is now having an emigration fever, exceeding anything of the kind since the California emigration of 1849. Chiefly it tends to Colorado, where quite a number of persons and families have settled in the year past, and at least fifty other persons are now making preparations. Some, also, are shortly to leave for Oregon, the city of Portland having its first settlers from Newburyport."

New Hampshire Items.

Miles Wilson of Nashua, largely enjoying the confidence of that community, was arrested Tuesday evening, the 18th inst. He had a protracted examination Wednesday, occupying the attention of the court nearly the entire day, and resulting in his being bound over in $1500 for his appearance at the May term of the supreme court. The keys of different stores and vestries were found in his possession. He is charged with three burglaries. He was not bailed, and has gone to jail.

Bean and Littlefield, two liquor spotters, were assaulted and knocked down in Manchester, at the adjournment of the court on the 18th inst., by a mob of liquor sellers and their friends. The assaulted men drew revolvers, and the mob gallantly cleared out.

Messrs. Booth and Smith, the temperance revivalists, began work in Meredith on Monday evening of this week, a large audience having assembled to meet them. Many were induced to sign the pledge among them being several hard drinkers. Tuesday evening the town hall was well filled, and an encouraging number of signatures was obtained.

Political.

The average democrat who reads Tilden's testimony in regard to the cipher despatches, is in very much the same state of mind as was the man who after hearing a sermon in support of the doctrine of universal salvation, went home muttering to himself, "I would give five dollars if was true."

Word comes from Washington that the Presidential aspirants who voted for the bill to stop at once Chinese immigration are already frightened at their work, and that the attitude of the Chinese legation at Washington leaves no doubt of the Emperor retaliating on American commerce. The President has not yet signed the bill.

If Tilden tells the truth about the ciphers, he was a fool in '76. If he lies about them he was a knave.

Naval Matters.

A despatch from Lisbon, Portugal, Feb. 19th, says: "U. S. frigate Constitution was brought in here with her rudder damaged, in tow of two tugs, one of which claims $3000 for salvage."

A despatch from Washington, Feb. 19th, says "the United States ship Supply arrived off Madeira, Jan. 27th, twenty-five days from Havre. On the night of Jan. 12th, she collided with the English barque Diadem, from Swansea, Wales, without serious damage to either vessel. The Supply was expected to leave Madeira for home Jan. 30th." [The Diadem sank the night she was run down; master and crew saved.]

The Zodiacal Light.

Any careful observer of the western sky about one hour after sunset will see a very soft, faint column of light rising from the horizon, and easily distinguished from the twilight glow. It is shaped like a cone, extends upward about forty degrees, following nearly the sun's path in the heavens, though its course is bent slightly to the south. It more nearly resembles a cloud-like mass than anything else, bearing a striking similarity to the Milky Way, while such is its extreme tenuity, that stars are easily seen through the intervening haze. This bit of fleecy brightness is known as the Zodiacal Light, and is peculiarly brilliant at this season of the year, the most favorable opportunity for its observation extending from the present time to the middle of March. The best period for the exhibition will be the clear evenings of the present week, for the new moon of the 20th will soon be large enough to obscure the mysterious light of the celestial visitant.

"What is the Zodiacal Light?" is a problem that has vexed astronomers ever since they detected the pale glow of golden light lingering after sunset in winter or spring, and heralding the sunrise as coparting with the dawn in the summer or autumn. This beautiful phenomenon is as often seen before daybreak as after twilight. It extends out on each side of the sun like two cones placed base to base, and lies nearly in the plane of the ecliptic. In our latitude, the light can only be seen in the portions of the year before mentioned, the thickness of the atmosphere obscuring it at other seasons. Near the equator, where the ecliptic rises high above the horizon, it can be seen almost equally well all the year round. It grows fainter as it recedes from the sun, until at a distance of ninety degrees it fades gradually from the view. In a very clear atmosphere, between the tropics, it has been traced all the way across the heavens from east to west, forming a complete ring.

This glowing archway across the skies is one of the astronomical puzzles that men of science are jealously trying to pull to pieces. Thus far their efforts have been unsuccessful, and the unpracticed observer who looks with simple wonder and admiration upon the elliptical glow in the evening sky knows almost as much of its constitution and mission in the divine economy as the wisest astronomer in the land.—Providence Journal.

Taking the Responsibility.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal relates the following:

I was on board a Sound steamboat in a snow-storm one night before Thanksgiving. The president of the company, the treasurer and two directors were on board. All at once there was a rattling of the chains, and it was evident that the anchor was down. The officials rushed up to the captain's office and exclaimed:

"What does this mean, Captain Williams?"

"It means that I have anchored the boat."

"But to-morrow is Thanksgiving; we must get home anyhow. The old Commonwealth has weathered worse gales than this."

The captain sat down at the table and wrote a positive order from the president, treasurer and directors to raise the anchor and proceed, against his own judgment. "Sign that order, gentlemen, and I will proceed."

Of course not one of them would sign.

"That's the way it is," said Williams: "not a man of you would take the responsibility. You want me to violate my own judgment, and if anything happens you will turn on me and say:—'You are a sailor and we are not.'"

And the old boat did not budge until morning.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Dodge's Report announce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb. Cream of Tartar over 20. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston, and only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

There are at present twenty prisoners confined in the county jail in this city.

Mr. Charles S. Dodge of this city was chosen secretary of the State temperance convention at Manchester on the 19th inst., and Mr. James Janvrin as one of a committee to make arrangements for a mass convention at Concord some time before the first of April.

Portsmouth Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will celebrate the 5th anniversary of its organization on Thursday evening, March 6th, by a harvest feast and social and literary exercises, to which all members and their families, and Patrons generally, are cordially invited. Supper will be attended to at seven o'clock.

The schooner Rebecca Florence, Higgins, which sailed from this port at two o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, the 14th inst., with 2550 barrels of apples shipped by Messrs. Yeaton and Hayes, arrived at Philadelphia and commenced to discharge her cargo on Thursday, the 20th—an excellent run for this time of the year.

Wm. Russell Foster, Esq., who has been appointed by the judge of probate administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Washington, has been to Boston and seen the bible containing the records of her family, from which it appears that she was born in Dracut, Mass., and was ninety-two years of age at the time of her death. Her brother, Silas Foster, is eighty-nine years old, and was born in Chelmsford, Mass.

A first-class burlesque and pantomime entertainment will be that of this evening at Music hall, when "Robinson Crusoe" will be presented by the best burlesque company travelling, including James S. Maffitt, E. S. Tarr, Clara Fisher, Flora Lee and other favorite performers, and an excellent supporting company. There is any amount of fun in the piece, and the actors know how to make it tell. Popular prices—50 and 35 cents. See advertisement.

Tickets for the benefit concert in aid of the Children's Home are being largely taken. And they should be, for the charity mentioned is a most deserving one, and the concert will be something very far above the common. Miss Wendell as a charming vocalist, and Miss Caldwell as a finished reader, are well known here; Mr. Tracey, the pianist, is heralded as a remarkable performer, and brings his own piano; and Miss Lillian Chandler, the youthful violinist, plays with the skill of an experienced professional, and wins generous applause wherever she appears. Music hall should be crowded.

Wednesday evening Mr. Waite conducted a revival meeting in the Methodist church, which was filled to overflowing, as it had been each previous evening during the week, and we are informed that the doors had to be locked—not a judicious proceeding, by the way, with a house crowded with people—to keep out some hundred or more persons who wished to get in after the church was more than filled. As at the meetings in the Advent church the previous week, much interest prevailed, and many individuals arose for prayers. On Thursday evening, despite the bad walking and heavy storm, a good-sized congregation attended.

Those persons who are sure that nobody pays any attention to what the papers say would have had reason to question the infallibility of their judgment had they been in Dr. Preston's store on Thursday, and seen the scores of people who came in to secure seats for the performance in Music hall Monday evening; the procession commenced at a very early hour, and included many persons from the outskirts of the city, notwithstanding the driving snow-storm,—and all on account of a two-line item in the CHRONICLE that morning, stating that "Tickets for 'H. M. S. Pinafore' are now ready at Preston's," when in fact they were not ready until the evening of that day. The number of intending purchasers of tickets who called during the day showed plainly enough that a large proportion of the people do read the papers, and indicated what kind of an audience might be looked for on Monday evening. When the sale did commence, in the evening, the rush was so great that each person arriving was given a numbered ticket, and had to wait for his regular turn—like standing "Line O!" at a mining-town post-office in California, in the days of '49. Several hundred tickets were taken in less than an hour.

The Nursery, "for youngest readers," is at hand for March, with numerous pretty pictures and short stories suitable for children, and a song, "The little cavalier," set to music. John L. Shorey, publisher, No. 36 Bromfield street, Boston; $1.50 per year; single copy, fifteen cents. Thirty years ago such wood-cut illustrations as appear in this excellent little monthly would have been considered marvels of art in the highest priced magazine.

The Bath, Me., Times pays a handsome and well-merited compliment to Col. J. Horace Kent, who was specially detailed by the government to look into the Prince pension frauds. Had the matters been less skillfully handled and worked up the irregularities might have continued for a much longer time. Sheriff Kent was formerly chief of the New England division of the secret service, so the government knew just where to look for a skillful detective. And he has received from the chief of the service at Washington a letter containing the following appreciative expressions: "I thank you for the thoroughly efficient manner in which you worked up the Prince case, and rejoice at the results so speedily attained."

THE VICINITY.

James Johnston, James Watkins, Cornelius O'Leary and Timothy Tewhill, all of Exeter, were naturalized by the supreme court on Tuesday, the 18th inst.

In the supreme court at Dover the case of the Dover national bank vs. Smith & Marden, to recover the value of a note, was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The verdict was for the full amount claimed, with interest, in all amounting to $1118.

Thomas Ryan, of Dover, on the 15th inst. pleaded nolo contendere before the supreme court to a charge of breaking into Strong & Burt's shoe factory, and was sentenced to State prison for one year and a day. Whitehouse and Pine, the two fellows who went from Great Falls to Milton in a pung, broke into and robbed a flour store, and then stole a sleigh to carry their booty off in, the pung having broken down, pleaded nolo contendere to the charges brought against them; sentence suspended.

Isaiah Cook was arraigned before Justice Shackford at Newmarket, on a complaint charging him with intent to defraud, and was bound over in the sum of $300 to appear at the April court, in default of which he went to jail at Exeter. It appears that on the 15th inst. he sent an order to Gowen & Higgins, butchers, at Lawrence, Mass., for four quarters of beef, signing the name of Charles Churchill. The beef was sent, obtained and receipted for by Cook, and sold. Gowen & Higgins know Churchill, who belongs in Brookfield, and sent the meat, supposing everything all right. Cook is a butcher, sharp, of good address, respectably connected, and belongs in this city, where some years since he became mixed up in the Peirce's island cattle stealing affair, but jumped bail and left for other parts. He has been stopping in Newmarket for about six weeks.

The barque Hawthorne, Mason master, built at Kennebunk in 1867, bound from Singapore to Boston, was totally wrecked on or near the South shoals on the night of Feb. 11th. The vessel struck one shoal at a quarter past eleven o'clock, beat over it, struck another shoal fifteen minutes later, and hung there, pounding heavily. At daylight next day the barque was breaking up, and the crew of fourteen persons took to the two boats, no land being in sight. At two o'clock on the morning of the 13th the small boat filled, and two seamen were drowned; and a few hours later another man died from exposure. On the afternoon of the 13th the survivors were picked up by the schooner Grace Cushing, of and from Portland bound for the West Indies, and two days later were transferred to a barque bound to New York. The Hawthorne registered 795 tons, and was owned in Boston.

ISAIAH WILSON.

At about noon on Thursday, Mr. Isaiah Wilson, for many years a prominent business man of this city, died at his residence on Hanover street. Mr. Wilson was born at Kittery Point, but came to this city when quite young, learned the joiner's trade with Samuel Shackford, and has since resided here with the exception of two years, when he lived in Boston. He was selected from among the inboard shipjoiners by the late George Raynes as foreman, and went to New York, where he perfected himself in architecture. He finished the cabins of a large number of vessels, and after the building of the clipper ship "Sea Serpent" was especially noticed, together with the other master workmen, by Messrs. Grinnell, Minturn & Co., of New York, and appropriately rewarded; he continued in business as an inboard joiner until the decline of ship-building; when he turned his attention to house-building. He was a superior workman, and a number of the finest buildings in the city were erected by him; for a few years past he has kept a large hardware store on Congress street. He has served the city in various positions of trust—in the legislature, for several terms in the board of aldermen, and for the past two years in the board of assessors. As chairman of an aldermanic committee he superintended the building of the Hanover street reservoir, and the altering and beautifying of the once barn-like-looking city building. He became a member of the Mechanics' Association in 1845, and was its president in 1872 and '73. He was a man of decided convictions, a shrewd and energetic business man, and a worker; and such men can never be spared from any community.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

Mr. Keniston asked permission to encumber Congress street in front of the Kearsarge house, for the purpose of making repairs.

City marshal informed the board that the police force were in need of new belts, billies and handcuffs. Referred to committee on police with power.

City clerk requested that his account of the receipts and expenditures of the city for the past year be examined by the proper committee preparatory to being printed. Referred to the supervisory committee on accounts.

Voted that George Bilbrack and Marcellus Eldredge be notified by the city clerk that the city is ready to sell any of the lots of land at the city farm marked for sale.

Voted that the committee on printing be empowered to have printed 1000 copies of the city accounts.

Alderman Norton, from the committee on mill-pond nuisances, presented plans and specifications for the building of a bridge and flood-gates at the south mill-pond, which were accepted. An amendment was offered to postpone the subject for one week for the purpose of submitting other plans, on which the yeas and nays were called; the vote being a tie, the mayor voted in the negative. It was then voted to go into a committee of the whole for the purpose of examining the plans.

Voted that the plan offered by Alderman Norton be adopted.

Voted that the committee on abatement of mill-pond nuisances be empowered to advertise for bids for building a bridge and doing other work according to the plans and specifications to be delivered to the chairman of the same committee on or before Thursday afternoon, March 6th, at three o'clock.

SUPREME COURT.

In case Wm. R. Bunker of Epping vs. Frank H. Hervey of Exeter, an action to recover for alleged fraud, deceit and misrepresentation in the sale, in the year 1875, of fixtures, stock in trade, etc., of a restaurant now in possession of the plaintiff, the evidence closed at noon on Wednesday, and the court adjourned to three o'clock P. M., for the arguments. Frink and Towle for plaintiff; Marston and Eastman for the defendant. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

Court adjourned Wednesday evening until nine o'clock this morning, when the case of Michael Benson vs. Mary E. Tilton will come up, the case being expected to occupy three days.

CHEAP GOODS.

How the many nice-looking articles of tin-ware, etc., which are sold at the "five-cent" and "ten-cent" counters of some of the dry-goods stores, can be put on the market so cheaply, even if they are "tinned" with lead, is a mystery. The articles appear to be good; and while it will not do to suspect that the manufacturers steal their stock and then cheat their workmen out of their pay, it is hard to see how they can make any profit if they conduct their business in any other way, and still dispose of their productions so cheaply as to enable the dry-goods men to sell tin-ware cheaper than it can possibly be sold with profit from the peddler's carts.

The regular dealers in such articles as are shown on the "five-cent counters" are naturally displeased with the movement, and one day last week considerable merriment was occasioned by the appearance on the street of three peddlers' carts, decorated with flags, and labels to the effect that "O'Brien" was "not to be beaten," driving about town in procession, with the veritable O'Brien blowing a horn from the driver's seat of the leading team, and offering to sell any article in either cart for four cents, or two for seven cents. But Mr. O'Brien's vengeance or opposition, whichever he may have intended it for, was ill-directed; to have turned the tables on the dry-goods men he should have procured vast quantities of preternaturally cheap calicoes and cloths, and have peddled them out at lower prices than the regular dealers could sell their goods for; and he probably soon saw the point, for his caravan did not appear the second day.

It is a weakness of humanity to want to buy things that are cheap, or that appear to be cheap, even if they are not actually needed; and since the advent of the "five-cent counter" many a dollar has been laid out in tin-ware and iron spoons and such gear, that under ordinary circumstances would have remained in the pocketbook. We were somewhat amused on Friday to see an industrious mechanic, who some time ago joined the greenback party in the belief that something needed doing to "better the condition of the working man" and cause a rise in wages and an increase in the demand for labor—we were amused to see our greenback friend with his arms full of five-cent and ten-cent purchases, and to hear him boast of the rare bargains offered, forgetful of the fact that the very cheapness which he so approved of as a purchaser, meant ill-paid labor somewhere for somebody. For that is just what it amounts to when any article is sold below a fair cost; coal at five dollars a ton in Portsmouth means starvation wages for the miner and railroad hand in Pennsylvania; extra-cheap boots and shoes mean hard times for the working shoemaker; and cotton cloth sold at the price per pound of raw cotton means long hours and little pay for the mill operative. But the coal miner wants cheap shoes and shirtings, the mill operative and the shoemaker want cheap coal; and our greenback friend, who thinks a change of parties is needed in order to secure higher wages for men of his trade, wants cheap tin-ware. Cheap goods, and abundant employment at high wages, do not go together.

P. S. We wrote the foregoing, and had it put in type, on Tuesday of this week. That evening we went into Marston's store on Market street and bought a dozen nice linen handkerchiefs at ten cents apiece. Encourage the laboring man.

Highly Concentrated, in order to do the work effectual, is the Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg.

That Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg's is prepared by a regular practicing physician who has used it for fifteen years. Its great sale is but a just tribute to it.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tieb25

Comparative Matrimony.

Statistics go set many preconceived ideas on the subject of marriage being addicted to, or shrinking from, the bonds of wedlock. It is generally supposed, for instance, that there are fewer marriages in France and more in Germany than in any other countries, but this does not prove to be the case. France is one of the "most married" of foreign lands, high up in the list, and beyond England and Wales. In America there are said to be over eight thousand marriages in every ten thousand of the population; in Hungary, six thousand four hundred and seventy-five; and France comes next with five thousand five hundred and sixty-five.

England follows, in conjunction with Wales, and in every ten thousand of the population there are five thousand three hundred and ninety-eight marriages. Austria is well up with five thousand two hundred and seventy-one, and just passes Italy with five thousand two hundred and seven. Hamlet's declaration that there should be no more marriages in Denmark is not obeyed, as on the contrary, in the above proportion, there are five thousand one hundred and ninety one; and then comes Germany, whose reputation for domesticity will be injured by the calculation that it can only show five thousand one hundred and seven.

Norway is still less connubial, and follows with five thousand and sixty-five. After this we pass out of the list of over five thousand and reach Sweden, where the numbers are four thousand nine hundred and fifty-two. The Netherlands come near, with four thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, and still lower in the list is Scotland with its four thousand six hundred and seventy-eight. Belgium is better or worse, as it may be considered, with four thousand six hundred and thirty-four, Switzerland with four thousand five hundred and eighty-two, and last of all comes Ireland with four thousand three hundred and thirteen. America thus is the most married of the list.—Home Journal.

The New Stock Speculations.

The new combination on much so of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have inaugurated, is attracting unusual attention in financial circles, by reason of its remarkable success. B. F. Comstock, of Providence, invested nine times, and made over $5,000 in two months, by using from $50 to $500 capital. By this system, orders from thousands of customers, in various sums, are pooled into one immense capital, and operated as a mighty whole, thus giving to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and shrewd skill. Profits are divided every 30 days. Any amount from $10 to $75,000 can be used in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combination on which equal proportionate success. $10 will make $75 profit in the month. $290 will return $1,600, or 8 per cent. on the stock, and so on as the market varies. The new circular gives "two unerring rules for success," and shows how any one can operate profitably. Mailed free. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

—The St. Gothard tunnel is the longest tunnel in the world, the length, bored from both sides, reaching a total of 13,481 yards. Very nearly 3000 yards remain to be excavated, and if the work goes on as rapidly this year as it went on last, it may be finished in a twelve-month.

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can hold out equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on solid oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, inance sing the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is a veritable truth that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 192 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks. A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced my twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. HOWARD & FITZPATRICK, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. "If the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a powerful remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases indicated to the organism of woman, slighted it not as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficacious remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to state my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint, that I invite the expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the diseases for which it is recommended, fairly and will it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has wrought cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Burning-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not claim this medicine to cure cancer, but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.00. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those cases.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery clears all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial Affections, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Pain in the Shoulders, Itch, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Lung Scrofula, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and physicians generally pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it heals the lungs and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chaff, crude and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Clouded feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets we say that great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the entire economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thus preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, heat, dullness, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, exhaustion, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, offensive breath, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged glands, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of treatment yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried into the nasal passages and applied to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections as to confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly be proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief as the ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

Black-Sand Jack.

In the "booming" days of Placerville, then more commonly known as "Hangtown," during the years of 1850 and 1851, there was an immense canvas building, devoted to all the wickedness and cussedness that could be originated or imported from any land. Twenty or thirty gambling-tables were kept constantly running —music, rum, and the necessary glitter. Near the centre of the large room was a long sheet-iron box-stove—for in those early days there was no cast-iron about—around which were common benches for the habitues to sit on and warm themselves during the cold winter evenings. One dark and rainy night, when the room was packed full, a man dressed entirely in buckskin came in. He was well-known—known, too, as a brave, fearless back-woodsman. He always carried his rifle and powder-horn, and moved and looked like a revolving arsenal. But this evening—an unusual thing for him—he appeared to be drunk. His clear, strong voice would occasionally rise above the murmured din and clink of coin, so that even the sitters around the stove seemed inclined to give him all the room he wanted. At length in a loud voice, he called for a drink, which was given him; and then as loudly said: "Boys! I have lived long enough." From his powder-horn he poured a lot of powder into his hand, saying, "That is all right," and touched it off. The dull pull and whirl of smoke filled the air, and it seemed as if every eye was turned toward him. Then, apparently becoming furious over some imagined trouble, he tore the large powder-horn from his side, advanced to the box-stove filled with blazing wood, and threw it in, crying in a loud and stentorian voice: "Now! let every man wait!" But there was no waiting—through the windows, out of the doors, even through the side of the house, over the tables, players, gamblers, looker-on, all stampeded! There was never such a wreck of a house before! But, as no explosion took place, those who had left large sums of money gradually crept back—for everywhere gold was scattered, and of course much was found that never went on the tables again. The back-woodsman meantime had quietly stepped out of the backway, mounted his horse, and rode away in the gloom. And it was well he did so, for the gamblers hunted him for a week afterward. But eventually everybody laughed at the joke, and he became known as "Black-Sand Jack"—for of course his powder-horn was filled with sand except the little he had turned into his own hand as an experiment—but that little experiment bewildered the boys. —San Francisco Golden Era.

The American Antiquarian.

Published by Brooks, Schinkel & Co., Cleveland, O. Edited by Rev. Stephen D. Peet, Unionville, Ohio. Terms: $3 per annum, in advance. Illustrated.

This really valuable magazine has now reached its third number, and begins the year much enlarged and improved. It is devoted to special studies in early American history, archæology and ethnology, but it contains many things which cannot fail to interest any intelligent person. The field of study which it occupies is very important, and one which has never been thoroughly explored, and for this reason we are glad that the magazine has been started. The antiquities of America are very interesting, and these with the various races which have existed here are certainly worthy of the attention of scholars. The Antiquarian seems to have taken rank among the first scientific journals of the country, and already numbers among its associate editors and contributors some of the most prominent of our scholars and authors. The department of correspondence also has drawn out a number of new writers, and will probably be an important feature in the magazine, as by it the free interchange of views among archæologists will be secured. The following is the table of contents for this number:

The Prehistoric Architecture of America, by E. A. Barber; the Phonetic Elements in American Languages, by Dr. R. J. Farquharson; the Original Text of a Kalmath Myth, with comments, by A. S. Gatschet; the Engraved Stone found at Grave Creek Mound, by Prof. M. C. Read; the Traces of Bible Facts found in the Traditions of all Lands, by Rev. Stephen D. Peet; correspondence, editorial notes, and book reviews.

The magazine is well printed and amply illustrated, and we take pleasure in commending it to our readers.

News and Notes.

Daniel Robinson, treasurer of the Troy & Boston railroad, has been jointly indicted with D. Thomas Vail, president of the Merchants & Mechanics' bank of Troy, N. Y., for conspiracy to defraud the creditors of said bank.

By an explosion at the Katahdin (Me.) iron works, Wednesday afternoon, 19th inst., a man named John Walker, of Lagrange, was instantly killed; Matthew Ryan of Boston was shockingly burned, and died the same night. The explosion was caused by the gas from charcoal igniting. The damage to property is slight.

John Hunter shot E. M. Robinson off his horse, killing him almost instantly, in Crawford county, Georgia. Cause, family troubles.

The Rhode Island Senate has unanimously passed a resolution protesting against the passage in Congress of the law restricting Chinese immigration.

There is now living on Middle street, Portland, according to the Argus, a Mrs. Thomas Burns, who is 113 years of age, lacking two months. She was married in 1784, at the age of eighteen. Her maiden name was Susan Bailey, and she was born in Woolwich. She is nearly blind, but her mental faculties are remarkably well preserved.

Japanese advices say that wheat grown in that country from American seed is magnificent, averaging a far finer yield than the same wheat at home, or the Japanese wheat grown from native seed.

Since the first of January, Secretary Sherman has called in about 200 millions of the six per cent bonds, which have been refunded at four per cent. This makes a saving of four millions a year in interest. At this rate, the entire issue of six per cents will be retired during the next six months, and this result, as appears by a letter from the secretary, is confidently expected at Washington.

Highway robbers Pender and Flynn, who snatched a diamond ring from the ear of Mrs. DeBary on Fifth avenue, New York, were arraigned in Jefferson market court in New York on Thursday. Pender made a clean breast of the affair, implicating Flynn as the instigator. Both were committed, for want of $10,000 bail each.

New Hampshire Items.

The Legal Suasion club of Manchester expect to receive $2000 as their half of fines in liquor cases, imposed at the recent term of the supreme court. This will replenish their lean treasury, and be of material service in future operations against liquor dealers.

Samuel Phillips Fiske of Claremont, lately deceased, has in his will bequeathed $4000 additional to a former gift of $5000 to the Fiske free library of Claremont.

The town hall at Meredith was jammed on Wednesday with a throng of people who assembled to hear the temperance revivalists, Messrs. Booth and Smith. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested, at one time culminating in a united rush of nearly 200 people to the table where the pledge was being signed, among them many who are known to be hard drinkers; many of the prominent citizens are among the warmest supporters of the movement.

Political.

The "democratic reform House" on Thursday unseated Representative Bisbee of Florida, who was elected by the voters of his district, and gave the seat to the democratic candidate, Finley, who was defeated at the polls. The vote was a strictly party one, except that two democrats, Turney of Pennsylvania and Carter H. Harrison of Illinois, refused to be whipped in by caucus rule, and voted with the republicans in favor of keeping in the seat the man chosen to fill it by the people.

Mr. Blaine has a remarkable faculty for inspiring confidence in the most unexpected quarters. Last summer Salon Chase congratulated him on his vote for a fresh issue of greenbacks, and now Dennis Kearney is surprised and delighted at his vote declaring that "the Chinese must go."—Portland Advertiser.

Tilden says Pelton's crime was an "inchoate offence." That is, he only contemplated murder, without the means, power or courage to commit it.—Richmond State (dem.)

From Mr. Tilden's testimony, as given in the Herald, he seems to have been the worst posted man in the United States as to the grounds of his own claim to the Presidency.—Richmond Whig. (dem.)

Marble will be happy to have his memory refreshed as to that Florida episode in his life he had forgotten all about. He seems to have got rid of a good deal of money for merely personal expenses.—New York Express (dem.)

Nicotine in Her Smack.

I wonder how any woman who has ever kissed a clean man can go through the pretense even of kissing a tobacco-chewer. Did you ever see any one suffer the penalty? This is how she does it. There is a preliminary shudder, and then she sets her teeth hard, holds her breath, makes a little pigeon clip at the foul lips of the grinning beast, and then, pale with horror, flies to the kitchen, where if you follow her, you will find her disinfecting with soap and water. Many of the blessed little hypocrites pretend that they like the smell of a cigar, but even hypocrisy is powerless to force from a woman the confession of a fondness for hanging like the bee on the flower to a tobacco-worm's lips.—Mrs. Garrison.

—The border troubles are said to be nothing in comparison with boudoir troubles.

Nerve Inquietude and Its Remedy.

Restless nerves, at least those that are constantly so, are weak ones as well. The true way to tranquillize them thoroughly is to strengthen them. It may be, nay, it very often is necessary to have recourse to a sedative or even an opiate, in dangerous cases of nervous inquietude, but the continued use of such unnatural palliatives is greatly to be deprecated. Though not, in a restricted sense, a specific for nervousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is eminently calculated to allay and eventually overcome it, a fact which the recorded experience of many goes to substantiate. This inestimable tonic, by promoting digestion, assimilation and secretion, touches the three keynotes upon which the harmony of all the bodily organs depends, and the result is that fresh stores of vitality are diffused through the system, of which the nerves receive their due apportionment, and grow tranquil as they gather strength.

Highly Concentrated, in order to do the work effectual, is the Cough and Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg.

That Cough and Lung syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg's is prepared by a regular practicing physician who has used it for fifteen years. Its great sale is but a just tribute to it.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tfeb25

Pleasant to take, is what most people like and this is found in Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup and yet it does the work every time.

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 25 cents.

Your Lungs are affected! Use Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Wonderful Changes

have occured in this country during the last three or four years, but none more wonderful than the Revolutions in Color, produced among the Heads of the People, by

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

The history of the success of great discoveries affords no parallel to the triumphs over competition and prejudice, accomplished by this powerful yet harmless vegetable agent, which instantaneously changes any obnoxious color of the hair into a black or brown as magnificent as any that heaven ever bestowed upon the head of man or woman. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No 53 William St., New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. tmch15

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D., Bible House, New York City. eod&wtuo

—A woman in a Kansas Pacific railroad car sat facing a man, who with one eye at least seemed to be staringly fixedly at her. She became indignant, and said, "Why do you look at me so, sir?" He said that he was not aware of having done so, but she insisted. "I beg your pardon, madam, but it's this eye, is it not?" lifting his finger to his left optic. "Yes sir, it's that eye." "Well, madam, that eye won't do you any harm. It's a glass eye, madam—only a glass eye. I hope you'll excuse it. But, upon my soul, I'm not surprised that even a glass eye should feel interested in so pretty a woman!"

—The old gentleman went into the parlor the other night, at the witch-hour of 11:45, and found the room unlighted and his daughter and a dear friend occupying a tete-a-tete in the corner by the window. "Evangeline," the old man said, sternly, "this is scandalous." "Yes, papa," she answered sweetly, "it is candle-less because times are so hard, and lights cost so much, that Ferdinand and I said we should try and get along with the starlight." And papa turned about, in speechless amazement, and tried to walk out of the room through a panel in the wall paper.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Alum or the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 1c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

THE CITY.

To-day being a public holiday, no paper will be issued from this office on Monday.

Post-office hours to-day, from 8 to 10 o'clock A. M., and 5 to 6 P. M. Box-office open all day.

On Friday evening there was another large congregation to hear Mr. Waite, though the church was not crowded; and about thirty-five persons went forward for prayers.

The show at Music hall, Friday evening, drew a good audience, and created considerable fun. "Robinson Crusoe" is simply a burlesque, as it was advertised to be; there was some very good horizontal bar exercise; and the pantomime, with Maffitt as clown, was laughable enough.

The Hutchings Association connected with the Universalist society, at the late annual meeting elected Rev. Eugene M. Grant president—for a third term—Miss Flora Whitcomb vice president, George Tilton secretary, James F Senter treasurer, and a board of directors numbering eighteen. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $132 on the right side of the association's accounts.

There has been a remarkable accumulation of wealth in the Jenness family, of which the late Mrs. Betsey Whitehouse was a member. John Jenness died in Boston in 1867, leaving an estate worth $1,000,000. Richard Jenness of this city died in 1872, and left $500,000, and Peter Jenness of this city, who died in 1865, possessed $300,000. John, Richard and Peter Jenness were brothers of Mrs. Whitehouse.

An automatic damper is being tested in the cars on the Eastern railroad; it closes of itself when the train is in rapid motion—at which time the draught of the ordinary stove is strongest and the most heat sent out, while the least heat is needed on account of the car doors generally being kept closed—and opens when the train stops. It is spoken of as a valuable contrivance, as it keeps the temperature of the cars much more nearly uniform than before it was applied.

Here it is only about two weeks more to the second Tuesday of March, and no caucuses have yet been held, no arrangements made for getting home voters, no anything done; even the newspapers have not published any warnings to look out for the infamous tricks of the opposition, and altogether it is the stillest of all the still-hunt campaigns that New Hampshire ever enjoyed. It may be all right, but it seems mighty lonesome not to be engaged in some kind of a political fight throughout February and the first weeks of March.

"Comanche George" confessed, after his conviction in Salem, Mass., this week, to taking some three hundred dollars for twenty cents' worth of beet seeds in that city, as he cut the seeds in pieces and sold them six for a dollar. He has made some $2500 the past year in this line, and at the time of his arrest was intending to commence business at Lynn in a few days. He has spent all his ill-gotten money in dissipation, and has gone to the house of correction at Ipswich to serve his sentence; and is likely, on his release, to be arrested again by some of his victims.

Next Wednesday evening Theodore Tilton will close the Rockingham Course with a lecture on "Heart's-Ease." One who has heard this theme discussed by the lecturer says "it is replete with classical allusions, apt scriptural and poetical quotations, and curious statistical facts. The sublimest passages of the lecture were those in which the speaker paid glowing tribute to the value of the scriptures of divine truth as a guiding star of the highest state of civilization in all ages of the world. 'Heart's-Ease' contains no finical nor sentimental nonsense, but is full of sublime thought from beginning to end. We feel we are the gainer by having heard it."

THE VICINITY.

Orlando L. Durgin will this (Saturday) evening at six o'clock commence his pedestrian feat in Trefetethen's hall at Kittery.

The York County Mutual insurance company held its annual meeting in Saco on Wednesday, the 19th inst., when the following officers were elected: Benjamin F. Pease of Cornish, president; Charles E. Sawyer of Saco, secretary; William H. Deering of Saco, treasurer.

The check-list of Exeter has been revised by the supervisors of election, and posted together with the warrant for town meeting. The check-list contains 878 names.

For some reason, nobody knows what, the impression has been made upon the minds of some people that the hoodlum jamboree in city hall, last Sunday night, was the performance of the Dover cornet band. It is a great mistake. The band is not in that line of high jinks; not at all. On the contrary, whenever that organization of musicians advertise a sacred concert it will be just exactly that and nothing else, and it will be a good one, too. This we say with entire confidence that it is true.—Dover Democrat

A dramatic and musical entertainment was given in Exeter town hall on Wednesday evening of this week, by the young folks of the Unitarian society of the town, was attended by a large audience of Exeter's best people. "The dead shot" and "The two Puddifoots" were finely presented, and there was some very good singing by a glee club of eight young men, Miss Anita Dumas singing "Little Buttercup" from "H. M. S. Pinafore." The entertainment pleased the audience greatly, and netted $60 for the society.

A special meeting of marsh-owners and others interested in the removal of the tide-mill in Hampton, was held on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 12th, and it was voted to pay the sum of $1500 for the mill property, which is said to be much above its actual value. Grinding has ceased, and within thirty days the building is to be removed. There is only one remaining grist mill in the town, and that is wholly inadequate to meet the requirements of the people, owing to an insufficient supply of water.

The schooner Torpedo, M. C. Wilson master, fifty-five tons register, of and from Lubec, Me., bound to Boston with 10,000 boxes of herring consigned to Griffin & Thompson, went ashore on Rye ledge during the gale and snowstorm of Thursday, at about three o'clock in the afternoon, and became a total wreck. The crew were taken off by the life saving station men, and some of the boxes of herring were picked up on the beach. The vessel was over thirty years old, valued at $600, and not insured. The cargo was insured.

Rye, with only about one thousand inhabitants, can muster (says the News-Letter correspondent) nine blacksmiths, three butchers, one cooper, one carriage trimmer, one clergyman, three dressmakers, one doctor, sixteen fishermen, one harness maker, one lawyer, six masons, four music teachers, four painters, two printers (amateur), six shoemakers, two surveyors, seven school teachers, seventeen telegraph operators, five teamsters, and about two hundred farmers. There are three churches, four schoolhouses, a town hall, four hotels, twenty-two private boarding houses, five grocery stores, two saw mills, two grist mills, one planing and shingle mill, four cider mills, two post offices, a temperance club, a brass band, a glee club, a life-saving station, and a submarine telegraph office.

Mrs. Lydia Garland of Bartlett, Me., died on the 17th inst., aged ninety-two years, three months and four days. The Biddeford Times says: "She was a great-grand-daughter of Christine Otis, who when the town of Dover, N. H., was taken by the Indians, on the night of the 27th of June, 1688, was with her mother carried captive to Canada; but who afterwards, when the prisoners were exchanged, returned and married Capt. Thomas Barker, and bore a large family of children. Mrs. Garland, whose maiden name was Hayes, married Eben Garland of Bartlett, where she has lived for over seventy years, until what proved to be the last sickness. She retained her faculties almost unimpaired. Within a year she had made a visit to Rochester, N. H., where she has two daughters living. Last autumn she could walk a couple of miles without showing any more fatigue than most women of fifty."

In the case Webber vs. Chadbourne, both of Great Falls, tried before the supreme court in Dover on Wednesday of this week, a verdict was given for plaintiff, damages being assessed at $26.32. The defendant was tax-collector of Somersworth, and arrested and imprisoned the plaintiff for refusal or neglect to pay his taxes. The suit was brought to recover damages for that arrested and imprisonment. It appeared in evidence that a part (seventeen cents) of the tax against the plaintiff Webber was illegal, the illegality resulting from the fact that the selectmen of Somersworth put into th total tax list of the town about $200 more than the town voted to raise by taxation, and more than the five per cent authorized by law above the sum voted by the town. Dividing this extra sum equitably among the tax-payers, it made Webber's proportion seventeen cents. The judge instructed the jury that the plaintiff was entitled to recover a nominal sum for the arrest by the collector, on the ground that a part of the tax was illegal. He claimed $3000.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Work in the department of steam engineering at the navy yard was on Friday evening suspended until Wednesday of next week, on account of lack of funds.

Joseph Neal of this city has been removed from the position of dockmaster at the navy yard, and Daniel Perry of Kittery appointed in his place. Mr. Neal had held the position within a few months of eighteen years.

William A. Fernald of Kittery has been re-appointed quarterman carpenter, the position from which he was removed a short time since.

THE TEMPERANCE REVIVAL.

The special committee appointed by the Reform club to make arrangements for the proposed visit of Messrs. Booth and Smith to our city in the interests of temperance,—for one week, beginning Sunday evening, March 9th, with a grand rally at Music hall,—earnestly solicit contributions towards defraying expenses connected with their visit. Messrs. Booth and Smith come highly commended by the clergy of Concord and other places where they have labored, as successful and efficient advocates of temperance. Any member of the following committee will be glad to receive contributions:

James Janvrin, John S. Treat, James W. Marden, George W. Randall, Joseph French, Amos L. Foster, Frank G. Thurston, William A. Loyne.

"PINAFORE."

About 400 tickets to "H. M. S. Pinafore" had been sold up to last evening, and a very large audience will greet the Boston Museum Co. at Music hall Monday evening. There are plenty of desirable chairs yet untaken, but early applications for tickets are advisable. It will be the show of the season. See advertisement.

THE CHARITY CONCERT.

The concert in aid of the Children's Home, Tuesday evening, is certain to be largely patronized, as a very large number of tickets have been sold already, and many more no doubt will be, as they ought.

The Children's Home was commenced Jan. 22d, 1877, and the whole number of children received up to the present time is thirty-seven; number in Home during past year, thirty-two; number at present, nineteen; three have been provided with good homes in private families. Amount received during the past year, $1705.75; expended, $1698.46. About one-half the amount received was for board, paid by the parents or guardians of the children. People generally are invited to inspect the Home for themselves, at any time. There is nothing sectarian about the institution, children of every denomination being received, and those of no denomination at all.

THE DOVER PRINTERS' BALL.

The masquerade and fancy dress ball of the Printers' Association of Dover, in Dover city hall on Thursday evening, was in every way one of the most successful affairs in that line given in that city for a long while. The attendance was very large, the floor of the extensive hall being too small to accomodate the throng of dancers, while the galleries were crowded with lady lookers-on. The costumes were rich and handsome, there being only a couple of comic ones—an elephant and a butcher, both of them being good. A young chap from Sawyers, disguised as a lady, was a very popular partner with the young fellows, who were completely deceived; and even after the unmasking the Sawyers fair dame made a very passable-loking girl. Reinewald & Taylor's orchestra furnished the music, so of course that was all that could be asked; the best of order prevailed throughout—also of course, as it was the printers who had charge of the affair; the unmasking was ordered at a judiciously early hour; and the fun was kept up until about half-past two o'clock. Quite a number of young people went up from this city to attend the ball, and all agree that they were well repaid for their trouble.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

The eastward bound Pullman train over the Eastern railroad, consisting of two engines and eight passenger cars, left the track at Hampton Falls on Friday evening. No person was hurt. A wrecking train went to the scene of the accident from Salem, and a relief train left this city at 11:40 for the purpose of bringing in the passengers, arriving back at two o'clock Saturday morning, the passengers having been detained five hours by the accident. From a gentleman on the train we learn that all the cars went off, and one car and one engine were damaged; the passengers were well shaken up and a good deal exercised in their minds before the train came to a stop, but our informant did not learn of any other harm being done.

Big Snake Story.

Mr. J. H. Beeson, the well-known Central Branch contractor, gave the Patriot a pleasant call this morning, and from him we learn the particulars of the most remarkable snake story we have heard.

In the extension of the Central Branch road from Beloit to Cawker City, the line passes through the town of Glen Elder. A short distance from Glen Elder, on the Solomon river, is a steep and rocky bluff, about fifty-five feet but high, a large portion of which had to be blasted away to make room for a road bed. A few days ago, while the excavation was in progress, a blast of nitro-glycerine caps and giant powder tore off an unusually large part of the bluff, and down the declivity there came writhing and rolling a bunch of snakes, which Mr. Beeson assures us was almost as large as a barrel. They were of different varieties, rattlesnakes predominating, with racers, adders, garters, etc. When first disturbed from their warm bed they were active and dangerous, but coming out into the severe cold they were soon comparatively dull and were killed by men without much trouble, or covered up in the dump by earth and stone.

But this is a very small portion of the story. Every day and every blast, since the first batch appeared, has brought another huge bundle of reptiles. Every hour a moving, writhing lump comes rolling down the hills, only to separate at the foot, and what escaps the laborer's pick and shovel crawl off to get covered up in the dump. Thousands of them have been unearthed and killed, and every blast brings thousands more, far rivaling in number the famous snake den of Concordia.

Not a single case of snake-bite has yet occurred, notwithstanding it is many times almost impossible to avoid stepping on them.

Mr. Beeson says there are no unusual monsters among them, the great majority being as large round as a man's wrist and about three or three and a half feet long. He also says that farmers for five miles around tell him that this is the regular winter den of these venomous creatures, and that during the fall the snakes in that country, which are discovered, are headed in the direction of the bluffs, and the only way they can be turned from their course is to kill them. It is said to be one of the most remarkable sights ever looked upon, and hundreds from the surrounding country visit the quarries to see the snakes.—Atkinson (Kan.) Patriot.

A Valentine Story.

A Bridgeport, Conn., young man doesn't think much of St. Valentine's Day. A resident had been annoyed during the night by the repeated ringing of his door bell, and finally lay in wait and soon bagged a young man, who explained his presence by saying he had a valentine for one of the young ladies. He endeavored to induce the gentleman to take the valentine, but the latter walked the young man in and delivered him safely in the parlor, where the young lady sat with a couple of lady friends. She opened the valentine, which proved to be of an unusually hideous character, while the young man stood by, feeling that an earthquake would be a delightful experience just then. The three ladies then joined in and gave the young man their individual and collective opinion of him, after which he was allowed to depart.

—Progress of Science: By the use of the microphone you can hear the rope walk, the butter fly, the gum drop, or the fall of the year.

—A man down east has a young Newfoundland dog named "Ben Butler." The pup went to a neighbor's the other day, and stole a spoon.

—Bar-keeper to tramp:—"Get out of this, or I'll give you the grand bounce." Tramp to bar-keeper:—"Make it cherry bounce, and I'll go ye."

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.
TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 5 to 9 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Your medicine has reduced her twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. "I (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, slipped it out as the climax of crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician and as conducting as I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE (for conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. It do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACHESMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 162 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGGETT & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing it." Messrs. FOWLE & PLUMMER, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write that THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT Gentlemen.—The following from a lady in Toledo, Ohio, used Allan's Anti-Fat. "If the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, clearing the complexion, and is a specific for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent free. Address

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.

To designate this remedy, this unequaled specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while attending to positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, made it out as the chief and crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are some of the diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and which it will invariably never fail to cure: Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Depondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exhibit this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single set of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman, and I am disappointed, and will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, in plain sealed envelope, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case, without instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affection, the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. Henry Weed, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGON, D. C., Feb. 22d.

The "final wave" of 1874 swept a sufficient number of Ex-Confederates and their sympathizers from other sections into the House to give them its control, and many of them still act on the construction which they placed on that accidental transfer of power, in the first heat of their exultation. It was interpreted as giving those lately in arms against the nation, and those who secretly plotted to aid them, the widest latitude of abuse of their loyal predecessors and contemporaries in Congress. It was not deemed essential that the spitefully malicious reports of their investigating committees should have any basis of fact, so that they were sufficiently abusive of republican officials to bring them up to the reform standard. Whitthorne's report on ex-Sec'y Robeson was a type of one style affected. When so overloaded with the reform spirit that it was continually struggling for utterance, it was competent to make the report in advance, as in case of Glover's letter to the President, written under the inspiration of his designation as chairman of a general mud-raking committee, in which position he gained such imperishable renown by the aid of flap-doodle Wilcox, and confirmed his party's right to the title of reform by the number of democratic thieves and speculators he landed from his drag-net.

One Finley, a democratic member, was ambitious to aid the work of purification which his party has in hand. He was accordingly entrusted with the work of overhauling the methods of Mr. Defrees as public printer. His zeal led him to take the same short-cut to results as that trod by the distinguished Missourian above-named. He accordingly delivered himself in the House recently of the impressions received while nosing about Mr. Defrees' establishment. They were to the last degree prejudicial to that gentleman's character for honesty and business capacity. But he seems decidedly to have aroused the wrong passenger. Hear Defrees in his "open letter" to the Hon. Finley:

The charges made are lies, and assuming you to have sense enough to understand the testimony taken before your committee, you knew them to be lies when you authorized their publication. The ghost been republished by the committee on public expenditures, a majority of whom are gentlemen of character, of your own political faith. You will please observe that I use the word lies as the most appropriate in the English language for the present occasion.

The letter concludes as follows:

Your assertion that the system of bookkeeping in this office cannot be understood is doubtless true, as far as you are concerned, as it could not be expected that your limited knowledge of that science, acquired in adding up the chalk marks on the reverse side of the door of a whiskey shop, would enable you to comprehend it. I assert, and can show to any man having sufficient capacity to understand the subject, that the books of this office are as well kept as in any department of the government. * * * * Take the advice of one who has a proper appreciation of your capacity—confine your future labors to the pettifogging of dog cases before justices of the peace of outlying town-ships. You know nothing about printing and binding, and when a man attempts to speak on a subject of which he is as ignorant as a Hottentot, he is sure to accomplish the feat of Dogberry in writing himself down an unmitigated ass."

Every supplementary "explanation" of Gen. Barlow before the Potter Committee, of his extraordinary conduct in secretly counseling with the democratic managers and covertly striving to influence the Florida returning board to give the State to Tilden, while acting as leading republican counsel pending the official declaration of that State's vote, has sunk him deeper into the mire of rank inconsistency, not to say treachery. His relations to the republicans of that State and the nation at large were those of counsel to client. He voluntarily assumed them, and his testimony did not need the reinforcement drawn from Mr. Chandler to prove his betrayal of that confidential trust. In his anxiety to make a reputation as a non-partisan or something else, he seems to have become strangely oblivious of his duty as an honorable man.

All the testimony before the Potter committee since its return from New York goes to confirm the general belief entertained here from the first, that all details of the plan to reach the White House through the debauchery of election officers were too characteristic of the methods of the boss reformer in all of his career open to the public, to be explained away as coincidences.

A Senate committee has reported in favor of granting the relief prayed for by Capt. Eads, in his work on the Mississippi jetties. The work is of incalculable value to commerce, and as the work is nearly completed, and Capt. Eads has not yet received $2,000,000 of the more than $5,000,000 government contracted to pay him, his request for an advance payment of a portion of the money due him will probably be granted.

The pressure comes harder and harder upon the President to veto the anti-Chinese bill, and it is extremely doubtful what he will do. The latest "influence" brought to bear is the Methodist church, which is supposed to have a controlling force in his faith, political and otherwise.

It looks now as though the railroad-telegraph clause of the House bill, or something akin to it, would be adopted by the Senate, and the Western Union Telegraph people and the New York Associated Press agents are in a state of trepidation. A very bitter feeling has been developed towards those institutions, as the vote in the House indicated; and this extends to the Senate, it is believed. The Telegraph Co., is working hard and paying a great deal of money to save itself the vexations anticipated from the success of the measure, but I think in vain, unless the lack of time should stifle the purpose of the majority towards them.

KNOX.

Portsmouth Chronicle

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1879.

Frightful Explosion.

A terrific explosion took place in Stockton, Cal., on Saturday, when a boiler blew up in the midst of a crowd of more than two hundred people assembled to witness the trial of a new propeller pump run by a threshing engine. The body of the engine was blown a distance of 150 feet, through the crowd, carrying death and destruction in its path. The dead lay prostrate in every direction, some having been carried from fifty to a hundred feet by the force of the explosion. The heads of some were blown to pieces, and others were thrown to the ground with such violence as to break every bone in their bodies. Fifteen person were instantly killed, and twenty-six wounded; many of the latter will die.

Naval Affairs.

Commodore William G. Temple has reported his return home from special duty on the South Atlantic station, and has been placed on waiting orders.

Paymaster M. B. Cushing is detached from the Marion, and placed on waiting orders.

Boatswain Francis Butland is ordered to the store ship Onward.

Under the joint resolution of Congress passed Feb. 5th, for the relief of B. B. Taylor and others, the following are probably the officers that will have the right to appear before the board to be organized: Commo. Geo. H. Cooper; Captains R. L. Law, Milton Haxtun, R. F. R. Lewis, Henry Wilson, J. S. Skerrett and F. H. Baker; Commanders E. Thompson, O. F. Stanton, B. B. Taylor, Henry Erben and E. P. McCrea. The majority of the officers whose cases were examined by the Rowan board, under joint resolution of July 1st, 1870, have been restored to their original positions.

The Powhatan sailed from St. Thomas for St. Croix on the 15th inst.

Rear Admiral John C. Howell hoisted his flag on the Trenton, Feb. 5th, and took command of the United States naval force on the European station. The Trenton was at Ville Franche, France. The Quinnebaug was daily expected there from Gibraltar.

Commander A. R. Yates took command of the Alliance at Smyrna, Turkey, Jan. 31st, relieving Commander T. F. Kane.

—Almost all people are generous to a fault, if the fault happens to be their own.

—A farmer from Springfield, Iowa, went to Cedar Rapids, got into a state of ebullient insobriety and sold his $250 horse for $62, which, however, made no difference, for on the road home he was robbed of the money.

—The greater part of the Bowdoin College students attend the Congregational church at Brunswick. They sit in the galleries at either side of the church, the seniors and sophomores on the one side and the freshmen and juniors on the other. The story is told that, on a certain Sunday last winter, the pulpit was occupied by a minister from the west, who was telling of the worsings of the crusade movement in that section of the country. He was a good speaker and everybody listened attentively. Among other things he mentioned that the movement had reduced the price of whiskey twenty cents on a gallon. This piece of information was greeted with loud applause from the gallery! The joke was so good that the rest of the congregation joined the students in a laugh, which at length subsided and the sermon went on.

WHEAT MEAL!

—OR—

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured throughout the country forty years ago on dietetic reform, is the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from this it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb. Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

New York Weekly Herald.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular newspaper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the Daily Herald, and is arranged in handy departments. The

Foreign News

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of American News

are given the Telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

The Weekly Herald

Political News

The Farm Department

of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising Cattle, Poultry, Grains, Trees, Vegetables, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well-edited department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home,

giving recipes for practical dishes, hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Every item of cooking or economy suggested in this department is practically tested by experts before publication. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents on the very latest fashions. The Home Department of the Weekly Herald will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper. The interests of

Skilled Labor

are looked after, and everything relating to mechanics and labor-saving is carefully recorded. There is a page devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandise, &c., &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially reported prices and conditions of

The Produce Market.

Sporting News at home and abroad, together with a Story every week, a Sermon by some eminent divine, Literary, Musical, Dramatic, Personal and Sea Notes. There is no paper in the world which contains so much news matter every week as the Weekly Herald, which is sent, postage free, for One Dollar. You can subscribe at any time.

THE CITY.

The police are to wear numbers on their caps, instead of letters as heretofore.

The newly-organized Music Hall Quartette have engagements to sing in York and Greenland at early dates.

Forty-five thousand pounds of fish were landed at this port on Monday; prices have greatly advanced everywhere, on account of Lent.

Mr. J. Albert Walker, of the firm of Walker & Co., coal dealers, and Mr. Albert C. Sides, clerk in the post-office, are inspecting the sights in Washington.

The fishing schooner Can't Come It, Capt. Samuel Robinson, lost five trawls from the fishing grounds on Saturday—no doubt stolen—and a mighty mean theft, too.

The reform club, through their committee, have engaged Music hall for eight evenings for the series of temperance meetings to be conducted by Messrs. Booth and Smith, commencing March 9th.

The ship Orient, now at New Orleans, has been sold for $24,000. The Orient registers 1561 tons, and was built in 1852 by the late George Raynes, for himself, Spofford & Tileston of New York, and others. A portion of the ship was until recently owned by the Raynes estate.

T. F. Stackpole, of the Popular Store, had another walking advertisement on the streets Monday, in the shape of John K. A. Hanson, Esq., whose manly form was encased in a brilliant suit—red cap and breeches, white leggings, and blue reefing jacket with big brass buttons. But art cannot improve nature, in John's case.

The schooner Cocheco, Seawards master, with 2131 barrels of apples shipped by Messrs. Yeaton and Hayes, sailed from this port for Baltimore on Monday. The schooner William A. Morrill, which has been laid up at Pies wharf during the winter, has been chartered by the same parties to take 1050 barrels of apples to Baltimore.

On Saturday night Mr. A. A. Waite had another crowded audience in the Methodist church; Music hall was jammed full on Sunday afternoon to hear him speak on the subject of temperance, and in the evening the Methodist church was once more filled to overflowing. Rev. Dr. A. A. Miner, of Boston, delivered an able and interesting temperance lecture in Music hall on Sunday evening, the hall being again packed.

The largest paying audience that has yet appeared in Music hall greeted the Boston Museum company Monday evening, to see "H. M. S. Pinafore." This comic opera is ludicrously amusing from its absurdity, which can hardly be surpassed; and it was well received, as it deserved, for about the only hitch to its smooth running was the hoarseness of "Sweet little Buttercup," who took her part very acceptably notwithstanding.

Charles Warren Hackett, a native of Belmont in this State, but for some years a practising physician at Maplewood, Mass., on Monday, in the U. S. Circuit Court, claimed of the Eastern railroad $40,000 damages for injuries received Oct. 15th, 1877, by being thrown upon a stove while a train was rounding a curve, he being without a seat. His back was injured so that his lower limbs are paralyzed. Stillman B. Allen, Esq., opened the case for Mr. Hackett; John H. George and Daniel Richardson appear for the railroad.

It is said that the recent swindling game of Isaiah Cook, by which he fraudiently procured meat from butchers of Lawrence, Mass., is not the only dishonest operation he has been engaged in since he had to clear out from this city on account of stealing cattle from Peirce's Island, some ten or twelve years ago. At that time Cook was under $1000 bonds to appear, but jumped his bail, his brother, the late Samuel Cook, being obliged to pay the thousand dollars, $900 of which was paid to the Messrs. Peirce for their cattle. It is alleged that he has played several confidence games of late, working under the aliases of Samuel Jones of St. Louis, Charles Churchill of Worcester, Mass., and Charles Joy of Newmarket; and it is reported that some years ago he "beat" the Travellers' Accident insurance company, and that last month he bought two accident tickets in New York, shortly after pretending that he sprained his ankle in getting off the cars in Boston, and making a claim against this same company for $30 per week. Several Boston merchants are also sufferers by his frauds.

Tony Denier's pantomime troupe will appear at Music hall in "Humpty Dumpty," with George H. Adams (Grimaldi) as Humpty Dumpty, on the 3d of March.

As all money on hand on the first day of April is to be taxed, we advise every one indebted to this paper to pay up, and thereby save the amount of the tax on so much as is due us. This advice being judicious, should be promptly acted on.

The country roads in this vicinity were badly blocked by the storm of Wednesday night and Thursday, and some places were wholly impassable from snowdrifts, Thursday afternoon and Friday forenoon, until broken out by teams and shovellers.

Between four and five o'clock, Saturday morning, a man who has been attending the revival meetings and become considerably excited thereby, passed through several streets loudly shouting "Glory to God." "I'm saved," and similar expressions, waking and startling the sleepers. He was taken in charge by the police, and conducted to his home; he was all right in a few hours. It is reported that several young girls have been wrought up to such a pitch of nervous excitement by attending the meetings, that their parents have been obliged to prohibit their further attendance.

The snows of last week have spoiled the skating on the north millpond, but there is fine skating on the rink. On Monday forenoon a respectable citizen of goodly avoirdupois, who had not for twenty-five years previously had on a pair of skates, tried his hand—or rather his feet—at it, and the vigorous firmness and easy dignity with which he occasionally sat down on the ice excited the admiration of all beholders. At the time he learned to skate the grooved skates were universally used, and the new-fangled (to-him) smooth-bottomed affairs were at first rather discouraging, from their perverse inclination to go out sidewise or backward in opposition to the wearer's wishes. But he went out for exercise, and got it; and he proposes to go out some more as soon as an unaccountable stiffness of his lower limbs wears off.

The art of dancing the minuet, quadrille, polka, and a series of beautiful figures called the "fairy dance," is being very successfully taught an afternoon class of juveniles in Congress hall this winter, by Mrs. G. F. Monroe, an accomplished lady who has met with great favor in Massachusetts, and wherever she has introduced her peculiar method of teaching. Many of our citizens (especially the ladies) are familiar with Mrs. Monroe's ability at imparting instruction to the little ones, as her classes are attended every Saturday afternoon by a large number of spectators who watch with great interest the graceful movements of these children, some of whom are so small as to have hardly outgrown their cradles. Mrs. Munroe will give a public exhibition of her class on Saturday afternoon next, in Congress hall, when they will perform the beautiful fairy dance, the graceful minuet, the lanciers, polka quadrille, etc.

There was very nearly a triple collision and smash-up of teams on Saturday afternoon, when a span of horses drawing a single sleigh containing two young men was driven at a good rate of speed down Congress street, and when near the corner of Chestnut street turned slightly to the right to allow a team going in the opposite direction to pass, just as a third team, carrying a gentleman and lady, came briskly down Chestnut street and turned toward Vaughan. For a moment the lookers-on fully expected to see the three teams tumbled into a heap, but the young fellow driving the span hauled his horses sharply to the left into Vaughan street, right across the track of the team which was going up Congress, at the imminent risk of a capsize and a collision, the sleigh going on one runner for a number of yards, and being smartly grazed by the other sleigh as it passed. Just how the snarl of three teams was cleared so quickly and without any damage being done, the spectators of the incident do not clearly understand.

Messrs. Booth and Smith, the gospel temperance workers who are to commence a six days' campaign in this city by a meeting at Music hall on the evening of Sunday, March 9th, have stirred things up wonderfully in the interior of the State. At Lake Village they closed a week's labor with a grand mass meeting from which hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admittance; over two-thirds of the population of the town signed the pledge, including five rumsellers, one of whom one evening rolled the barrels from his cellars, knocked in the heads, and let the rum flow into the gutters. At Meredith, whither the temperance workers went from Lake Village, over five hundred persons—including some of the hardest drinkers in the town, many "moderate drinkers," and the keeper of the most noted drinking saloon in the place—signed the pledge during the first three days of their stay.

The grand concert in aid of the Children's Home takes place in Music hall this evening. The entertainment will be a superior one, the charity which is to be benefitted is in all respects worthy of generous aid, and the price of tickets is only thirty-five cents each. Buy tickets for the concert, and go; but tickets anyway, whether you go to the concert or not.

THE VICINITY.

Albert Junkins, of York, was picked up on Friday near York Corner, insensible from the extreme cold. A yoke of oxen he had been using were lying close by, unable to go any farther.

On Thursday evening of this week Miss Edith Wendell and a glee club consisting of Messrs. L. F. Butler, Newell, Hayes and Tilton, will close the course of entertainments at South Eliot with a concert.

The materials saved from the wreck of the schooner Torpedo, at Rye beach, consisting of sails, rigging, anchors and chains, spars, and about two thousand boxes of smoked herring, were sold by auction on Monday at the beach, for the benefit of whom it might concern.

Joslyn, who started to walk fifty miles in nine hours at Trefethen's hall, Kittery, on Friday, was obliged to withdraw on the twenty-eighth mile, owing to a sprained ankle. Durgin, who started on a tramp of twenty-five miles in four hours at the same place on Saturday, accomplished the undertaking, having six minutes to spare.

Capt. Abiatha W. Leavitt was nominated as a candidate for mayor of Saco by the greenbackers on Saturday. Mayor Oliver C. Clark was renominated by the republicans. The democrats will hold a caucus this week, and will probably nominate Samuel L. Lord, the candidate of last year. The election occurs March 10th. Last year, with only two parties, Mayor Clark was elected by fourteen majority. The election this year will be hotly contested, and probably there will be no choice for mayor.

The Exeter Gazette says that about twenty young ladies of that town have formed a cooking club, and meet at their different homes to show their skill in this direction. Each member is given some article to cook, and she brings the same to the next meeting, when all enjoy a pleasant tea-party and test the merits of the cooking. Our New York correspondent, Lucy Carter, in her last fashion letter gave an account of the plan on which the "cooking clubs" of the metropolis are conducted, and said they are very popular "in society," the young married belles in particular being pleased to show off their skill as cooks. This Exeter club seems to be more practical than those of New York, for persons in ordinary life, and we should not be surprised if such clubs became quite common.

AARON MUDGE.

Mr. Aaron Mudge died on Monday forenoon at the residence of his son, Mr. George A. Mudge, after an illness of several years.

Mr. Mudge was born in this city, in May, 1807, and has always made it his home; in his early business life he was in partnership with his brother, Samuel B. Mudge, in the boot and shoe trade, and after his brother's death for some years conducted the business for himself. Later he became associated in business with Hill & Carr, where he remained for twenty-five years or more. About four years ago a paralytic shock incapacitated him for active business, and he then retired on a competence secured by thrift and economy.

He was a charter member of Piscataqua Lodge of Odd Fellows; was present and assisted at the time the lodge was contituted; and was the first member entitled to benefits, having been confined with a rheumatic fever. Since that time he has never drawn benefits until recently, when some of his old associates in the lodge insisted on the propriety of their being paid even if not applied for.

He joined the Mechanics' Association in 1840, and at the time of his death was one of the oldest members of that organization.

His funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from the Universalist church, of which he has for many years been an attendant.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Washington's birthday was observed in this city by the ringing of the bells in the morning, at noon and at night; many of the stores were closed in the afternoon, and some did not open at all. A national salute was fired from the navy yard at noon.

In 1832—forty-seven years ago—Washington's centennial was celebrated in this city with considerable ceremony. In the forenoon there was a procession about town and a gathering in the North church, where Washington's farewell to the army was read and an oration delivered. Capt. Robert Neal was chief marshal of the day. In the afternoon there was a big meeting in Jefferson hall, which was addressed by Mr. John S. Cutts of Kittery, an eccentric man who had been invited by a delegation of "the boys" to come over as the orator of the afternoon. Mr. Cutts, though eccentric in the extreme, was by no means a fool; and after having been interrupted scores of times by the noisily hilarious crowd, he informed them that "One hundred years ago George Washington was born; and if he was in this hall and on this platform today, he would be heartily ashamed of his audience!" Mr. Cutts had a magnificent voice, of immense volume, but he would occasionally badly misplace a big word, and it was this which caused his auditors to act in such a manner as to call forth the rebuke. Some of the most dignified and respected of our older citizens of to-day, then young fellows—and possibly a little bit "harum-scarum"—have a vivid remembrance of their lark on that afternoon almost half a century ago.

POLICE COURT.

John Lynch, for drunkenness, was assessed $9.90, fine and costs, which he paid.

Two young men, arraigned for brawl and tumult early Sunday morning, were adjudged guilty of "brawling," sentence being suspended during the good behavior of the parties.

THEODORE TILTON'S LECTURE.

To-morrow evening the Rockingham Course of entertainments closes with a lecture by Theodore Tilton, one of the most brilliant lecturers of the day; his acknowledged ability in this direction has drawn large audiences in nearly every important city between the Atlantic and Pacific, and we presume this city will not be an exception. Single tickets—reserved seats 50cts.; gallery 25cts. See advertisement.

Of Mr. Tilton's lecture, "Heart's-Ease," the Springfield Republican says: "Mr. Tilton's address was really a high moral lesson throughout. Eloquence, analysis, analogy, imagery, description, deduction—all were there, and their effect was unmistakable. As he warmed with his subject Mr. Tilton rose to that fervid, splendid oratory that seems as essentially his own as the air itself. It reminded his hearers of old of the days when his voice was a clarion call against slavery, and his gray hairs now seemed the emphasis of time on the ardent nature that spoke then."

HAMMOND. In Eliot, Feb. 7th, Emma L. Hammond, only child of Pierpont and Rebecca Hammond, aged 22 years and 10 months. The deceased was beautiful, affectionate and lovely, a universal favorite among her acquaintances, and the brightness and joy of the home now darkened by her loss. She was a constant attendant at church prayer meeting and Sabbath school, and exemplary in every respect and in all the relations of life. She wasted patiently under the influence of the destroyer—consumption—and our community is seldom moved with as deep a sympathy as by her death. D. S. M.

New Hampshire Items.

Charles W. Cook, whose evidence went far in securing the conviction of Joseph B. Buzzell for the murder of Susan A. Hanson at Brookfield, is out with affidavits in which he says all his former testimony was a lie—that Buzzell did not hire him to shoot the woman, that he had nothing to do with shooting her, and that the detective, Cohen, made up the yarn he told and terrified him into swearing to it.

The Senate has confirmed Hon. Ossian Ray as United States attorney for the district of New Hampshire.

Col. John H. Pearson of Concord has filed with the clerk of the supreme court for the county of Merrimack a bill in equity against the Concord, the Northern, the Concord & Claremont, the Sugar River, the Contoocook, the Boston, Concord & Montreal, the Nashua & Lowell and the Boston & Lowell railroads, praying the court to overhaul and upset things generally, and preferring serious charges against the present management of the Concord railroad.

While Asa Morrill Warren of Plymouth was hauling wood Saturday, his leg got caught between a post and a chain, and was badly broken.

Fifteen hundred men are at work in the woods about Pittsburg, and 40,000,000 feet of lumber will be put in the Connecticut river above North Stratford this season, while 25,000,000 feet more will probably come down the Androscoggin.

Reuben Barnes, a farmer of Merrimack, drove into Manchester on Saturday with a team stolen from George W. Wilkins of the latter place. Mr. Barnes says he bought the horse on Friday of a young man for $40, and promised to return the sleigh, robes and harness to Mr. Wilkins, from whom the seller of the horse said they had been borrowed.

Business Failures.

Lack of judgement causes fully fifty per cent. of all business men to fail, earlier or later. Do not an equal proportion of physicians fail to cure from the same cause? At the Grand Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce, through the skill attained by his several specialties, each having devoted years to a special department of medical science, is able to cure a large per cent. of cases hitherto considered incurable. Many physicians, in view of the superior advantages of this model sanitarium, bring there stubborn, obscure, complicated, and surgical cases for examinations, operation, and treatment. Full particulars given in the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages. Price, post-paid, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Nerve Inquietude and Its Remedy.

Restless nerves, at least those that are constantly so, are weak on a as well. The true way to tranquilize them thoroughly is to strengthen them. It may be, nay, it very often is necessary to have recourse to a sedative or even an opiate, in dangerous cases of nervous inquietude, but the continued use of such unnatural palliatives is greatly to be deprecated. Though not, in a restricted sense, a specific for nervousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is eminently calculated to allay and eventually overcome it, a fact which the recorded experience of many goes to substantiate. This inestimable tonic, by promoting digestion, assimilation and secretion, touches the three keynotes upon which the harmony of all the bodily organs depends, and the result is that fresh stores of vitality are diffused through the system, of which the nerves receive their due proportionment, and grow tranquil as they gather strength.

Highly Concentrated, in order to do the work effectually, is the Compound Lung Syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg.

That Cough and Lung syrup of Dr. A. J. Flagg's is prepared by a regular practicing physician who has used it for fifteen years. Its great sale is but a just tribute to it.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tieb25

Pleasant to take, is what most people like and this is found in Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup and yet it does the work every time.

Your Lungs are affected! Use Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and perfect health and a sound constitution established. Dyspepsia, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, loss of appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from the effects of "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it forms perfect and permanent cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of drugs, crude and fully ingredients. These Pellets are smaller by larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required within use them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. Regulate the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Clouded feeling about Stomach, Dark of Blood in Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is unusual, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Are now and impair the property of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, itchy, watery, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, producing a snuffing, hawking, and spitting to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst case of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of treatment yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried from or and DIRECTLY ATTACK to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chancers or ulcerations of long standing, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. It is as pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 18, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a clergyman, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 192 pounds to 162 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. FOWLE & TOMPSON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To the PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-four pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled bloom-purifier. It promotes health, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by all Druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of the diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for female diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the most obstinate cases, felt that the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint one most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottles.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription proves a cure, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling Down, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Prostration, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not call this medicine a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections is the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of practicability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am inclined to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the numerous advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promised such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

A Mother of Soldiers.

Hon. N. C. Deering, who is a native of Denmark, Maine, and was for two years a member of the Legislature of that State, now represents the Fourth District of Iowa in Congress. Applying for the discharge of a soldier on the ground that his aged mother had furnished eleven sons as recruits for the Union army, the Secretary of War had the case looked up and furnishes the following unequalled record:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Feb. 11, 1879.

Hon. N. C. Deering, H. R.:

SIR—I have considered the petition of Mrs. Elizabeth Upright of Butler county, Iowa, praying the discharge from the military service of her son, N. M. Merchant, Battery B, Fourth Artillery, which petition was presented by you and is concurred in by numerous citizens. The discharge of this soldier is asked by the petitioner, who says she is seventy-two years old, on the ground that she had ten sons in the Union army during the rebellion, including one employed as a teamster, and that the one above named, her eleventh and youngest son, has served for five years in the regular army. She furnishes the names of her sons and a statement of the organizations in which they served.

The papers having been referred to the Adjutant General for an examination of the records with a view to verifying her statements, that officer reports that they are true in every particular.

1. G. W. Merchant was a private, Co. C, 74th Illinois Volunteers, afterwards a lieutenant and honorably discharged Sept. 26, 1865.

2. Abel L. Merchant was a private, Co. C, 15th Illinois Volunteers, and died in the service.

3. De Witt C. Merchant was a private in the last-named company, and was killed in action July 22, 1864.

4. Enoch Merchant was corporal, Co. F, 156th Illinois Volunteers, and honorably discharged Sept. 20, 1865.

5. David O. Merchant was a private, Co. C, 74th Illinois Volunteers, and honorably discharged June 10, 1865.

6. Silas B. Merchant was a private, Co. G, 44th Illinois Volunteers, promoted to 1st lieutenant, and resigned Sept. 25, 1864.

7. Atlo J. Merchant was a private in the last-named company and honorably discharged September 22, 1875.

8. Lewis H. Merchant was a private in Co. G, 45th Illinois Volunteers, and honorably discharged September 26, 1864.

9. Aaron Merchant was a private in Co. G, 15th Wisconsin Volunteers, and was killed at Island No. 10, December 26, 1862, by the accidental discharge of a cannon.

10. James B. Merchant, teamster, in the employ of the Quartermaster's Department.

11. Norman M. Merchant enlisted March 3, 1873, as a private, Co. B, 6th United States Cavalry (regular,) and was discharged March 11, 1878, by reason of expiration of term of service. He again enlisted May 4, 1878, and was assigned to Battery B, 4th Artillery, and is now in that service. The discharge of this soldier will be ordered in accordance with his mother's request. Discharges from the army as a matter of favor are not granted except in extraordinary cases, but this is, in my opinion, such a case. Indeed, I doubt whether another like it can be found upon record, but if another can be found who gave ten sons to the service of our country during the war, she may confidently ask and expect to receive similar favorable consideration.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant. GEO. W. MCCRARY, Secretary of War.

Chinese Slavery.

The Chinese are, as is well-known, in the habit of selling their women in their own country, and they continue the pleasant custom, though not openly, after immigration to our shores. Women are so plentiful in the Celestial Empire as to be constantly in excess of the demand; the market is, therefore, regularly glutted, and the ordinary article brings nothing; indeed, cannot in many instances, be given away. The contrary is true here, because John, on quitting his native land, leaves his saffron sister behind as a needless incumbrance; but he often regrets it after arrival, owing to the feminine scarcity, and the consequent demand at very fair prices. Ah Chew, a commercial Mongolian in San Francisco, is anxious to get rid of his wife—the reason he assigns is his inability to keep an unproductive luxury on hand—and declares that he will sell her for $350 to anybody, unless some of her relatives promptly furnish that amount. A Chinese woman will not command such a figure for any honest purpose, and the unfortunate creature, fearing the fate she is threatened with, has appealed to an American family to buy her, promising to render domestic service for the advance. It is said that the Chinese sell their wives in every town and city on the Pacific slope (their own race being the purchasers) where they have gained a foothold, as soon as they grow tired of them, or want money. In some cases it is reported that they hypothecate their women, paying a certain rate per day for the accommodation, and the lender keeping the petticoated collateral until redeemed. Only the young and comparatively good-looking can be pawned, as the capitalists know that no other kind will be ransomed. Many of the California newspapers are justly clamoring for the abolition of this Chinese slavery.—New York Times.

The Railroad Telegraph Company.

The Butler amendment to the army appropriation bill it is believed will really call into existence a powerful rival to the Western Union Telegraph Co. The principal railroads are organized, and will give the privilege of telegraphing to a company that will probably bear some such name as "The United States Railway Telegraph Company." The statement that very few of the roads own telegraph facilities is hardly true. Most of the roads own poles at least, and some of them own both the poles and wires used by the Western Union. The Baltimore & Ohio owns the whole equipment, while the Pennsylvania railroad owns a line of poles to Chicago, and a number of wires. As soon as the bill has become a law the new company will be started.

News and Notes.

Sam Cohen, the "detective" who is charged by Cook with getting him to swear falsely against Joseph B. Buzzell, and John J. Conway, another detective, have been arrested in Massachusetts on a charge of conspiring to wreck a railroad train.

The steam-collier Rattlesnake, from Philadelphia for Boston, is believed to have gone down off Long Island Friday night, with all hands.

Last Friday afternoon, at Jamaica, L. I., Sam Johnson (colored), 52 years old, bit off the fingers and fatally beat Edward Siney, his employer. Johnson is six feet three inches tall. Twenty-five years ago he murdered his mistress, and underwent twenty years' imprisonment therefor. He was so strong he could handle a steer without any tackle whatever. He became exceedingly ugly by spells, and would knock a horse down with his naked fist at such times. He was arrested Saturday evening after being pitchforked out of his hiding place.

C. R. Murray, cashier of the Montreal Exchange bank, who has absconded, is a defaulter to the extent of $20,000. The bank holds a guarantee bond of an insurance company for $10,000. Speculation in stocks, which have depreciated considerably, is the cause.

Ten young women and seven men were baptized in Papakating creek, near Deckertown, N. J., Sunday, the ice being broken for the occasion. The women bore the shock more courageously than the men. One young fellow had to take the water three times before he was finished, and the minister had to request the boys on shore to stop laughing.

The faculty of Trinity college at Hartford, Conn., having suspended eight students for disobeying an order of the faculty regarding the celebration of Washington's birthday, the entire body of students have resolved to absent themselves from all college exercises until the suspended students are restored.

At Chambersburg, Pa., Monday, a railway car, containing about twenty-five passengers, fell over an embankment about six feet high. Fifteen or eighteen persons were injured.

The trial of Frank Bassett for the murder of Frank Weinbecker was commenced at Bridgeport, Conn., on Monday. Mrs. Alexander, already convicted of participating in the same murder, will be one of the principal witnesses for the State.

In one of the Brooklyn docks night has been turned into day by the electric light, for the purpose of enabling a small army of workmen to repair one of the largest European steamers. Hitherto work of this character by night has been impossible.

The schooner C. B. Paine, of Eastport, Me., has been wrecked near the life-saving station at Centre Moriches, Long Island, her crew having previously suffered terribly. With the exception of the mate the crew were stricken down with yellow fever two days out from Hayti, and for twenty-seven days the little craft, with her afflicted crew, was completely at the mercy of the waves. The sick men were rescued by the life-saving crew, and are now being carefully nursed at the station, but it is feared that some of them will die.

Rev. Dr. Fulton has been expelled from the Baptist conference of New York.

New Hampshire Items.

The new Universalist church in Kingston will be dedicated on Wednesday, March 5th.

On Saturday Job Clay of Barrington was arrested by Sheriff Dustin of that town, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon his brother, Joseph Clay, and a younger Clay, son of the latter, the day previous, and in default of bail was committed to jail at Dover. The instrument used was a knife, inflicting serious injury upon the elder Clay in the abdomen, but to what extent has not yet been determined by the physician, and several days will elapse before the exact condition of his wounds will be developed. The young man's wounds are in the same locality, but slight.

War against the high passenger tariff has begun. A petition to the Legislature is being circulated and receiving many signatures, to reduce the railroad passenger fares in New Hampshire to two cents per mile, as in New York. The petition alleges that the fares are unreasonable, excessive and extortionate on all the roads, especially the Boston, Concord and Montreal, being seven cents per mile in many instances—for example, between Bath and Woodville. The parties in charge of the petition say they are determined to press the matter next June before the Legislature, and if they fail there they propose to "saddle Blackstone." The statute penalty for charging unreasonable fares is $500.

Political.

The newspapers of all parties, except on the Pacific coast, are almost unanimous in declaring the Chinese bill an unwise and uncalled-for act of legislation. Not a single journal of any prominence sustains the action of Congress. This fact will probably convince presidential aspirants that it is not, after all, a politic move to conciliate the Pacific coast and disgust the rest of the country.

If there is any one thing which the democrats favor more than another it is local self-government, but the democratic House of Indiana has passed a bill vesting the power of appointing the police of Indianapolis in the governor of the State, the reason being that Indianapolis is a strongly republican city.

The natural tendency of democracy is well illustrated in Mr. Kearney's constitutional convention, which is still deliberating in California. An article in the proposed constitution affirming that the people of that State are "a part of the American nation," and that the State has no right to secede, was voted down with derision. Is California making ready to follow the Chinese?"

In the United States Circuit Court at Baltimore, Monday, Martin Burns, a democratic judge of elections, was fined five dollars and costs, with imprisonment for twelve months, for obstructing the supervisor of elections.

About the only man who went to Florida for either party and escaped being fooled by anybody seems to have been William E. Chandler. The cipher hunt has demonstrated, what the democrats would have saved themselves trouble by discovering at the outset, that neither of the Chandlers "was born yesterday."—N. Y. Tribune.

Naval Matters.

The supply ship Guard, which arrived at this station some time ago from a South American port, and has since been lying at the navy yard with closed hatches, was on Tuesday hauled under the shears for the purpose of taking out the stores.

Asst. Paymaster C. I. Lewis is ordered to temporary duty at this navy yard.

Passed Assistant Engineer Sydney L. Smith, now at this station, has been ordered to hold himself in readiness for duty on board the U. S. S. Kearsarge, now preparing for sea service at this navy yard.

While the U. S. S. Powhatan was at St. Thomas a race was rowed between crews from the Powhatan and the Italian man-of-war Christoforo Colombo, in eight-oared gigs, distance two miles, for a purse of $150. The Americans won.

The Tourjee European Excursion.

We learn from the Boston papers that Dr. Tourjee is filling his summer excursion party very rapidly, and that the list is likely to be closed much earlier than it was last year, when over one hundred late applicants were disappointed.

—A natural washing machine has just been discovered in Tulare county, California. A boiling spring was found by a fellow with an ingenious turn of mind, and he at once secured a water right, constructed a clothes-wringer to be run by a water-wheel at one side of the spring, where it boils over into another of clear cold water, into which he placed a sack of blue indigo. The ranchers of the settlement throw their clothes into the water, which has a whirling motion, and are drawn to out of sight. In about five minutes they come to the surface, float to the wringer, and are run into the other spring, where they are rinsed by passing through another wringer. In less than thirty minutes the washing is done.

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetic reform, and the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses Graham Wheat Meal would take the bogus article knowingly in competition.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. (10)

THE CITY.

To-day is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent.

Mr. William W. Henderson, formerly of this city but now in business in New London, Conn., is spending a few days with his friends here.

The schooner Emily A. Staples, of this port, is hauled up in Boston alongside of the Old Colony railroad wharf, near the South Boston bridge.

The schooner Clara E. Simpson, Capt. Talpey—a pretty boat and a wide-awake skipper—chartered by C. L. Brown & Co., is now ready for sea, with a cargo of 4000 barrels of apples and 500 barrels of potatoes.

The Music hall audience of Monday evening was not the best paying audience ever in the hall, though very near it. The "Pinafore" spectators paid $516 for seats; Rignold, as Henry V., drew $560 from the people's pockets.

A young son of Capt. Raymond, living on Bow street, received a kick in the groin while at play with another boy last Friday, and is now lying at the point of death in consequence of the injury. There is no probability of his recovery.

Mr. Arthur A. Waite will give a "chalk talk" lecture at Music hall this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the interest of dumb animals, birds and flowers. Teacher and scholars from the day and Sunday schools are especially invited.

The Rockingham course of entertainments closes to-night with a lecture by Theodore Tilton, acknowledged to be one of the most brilliant and pleasing orators on the modern platform. Lecturers of his reputation rarely appear here—in fact, they are rare everywhere—and the opportunity to hear him should not be neglected. See advertisement.

Old "Uncle Tom," on incidents in whose slave life Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe founded her famous book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will appear in Music hall next Sunday evening. He is now a Methodist preacher, and is nearly a hundred years old. The New York Herald says "he is an exceeding whimsical man," and "his lectures are more than interesting."

C. C. Copeland, proprietor of the Howard house at Lowell, Mass., has notified Sheriff Kent that Isaiah Cook, arrested at Newmarket last week for swindling, is wanted by him on a similar charge. It appears that Cook went to the hotel and represented himself to be D. Jones of Boston, an apple merchant. After remaining at the hotel some time he suddenly left for parts unknown, owing quite a bill. He is also wanted in Worcester, Mass., on like charges, and appears to be a wholesale swindler and scamp.

THE VICINITY.

A tallow factory in Saco, belonging to James Foss, was burned Monday night.

Timothy Dame of Eliot has been appointed a justice of the peace by Gov. Garcelon of Maine.

Miss Merrill, who has been teaching school in Greenland, gives an exhibition with her school at academy hall in that town this evening, the exercises consisting of recitations, tableaux, singing, etc.

Mr. George A. Frost, son of O. A. Frost, formerly landlord of the City hotel in this city and now of the Atlantic house, Wells beach, died at the Eastman house, North Conway, early last week, expiring without a moment's warning. Mr. Frost was a member of the Masonic lodge at Wells, Me. The funeral services were held at Great Falls.

At a recent meeting of the Literary Union of Stratham a fine silver pitcher and salver were presented to Rev. A. B. Peabody, the presentation address being made by Mr. James H. Diman, president of the union, and a suitable reply by Rev. Mr. Peabody. Since his return from Europe Mr. Peabody has favored the union with lectures on his travels, and this presentation was in recognition of them.

Dr. Hussey of Biddeford, who joined the greenbackers and was so prominent as to be made one of the city committee, has resigned, and declares his purpose to act again with the republicans. Thus far the democrats alone have profited by the greenback movement, and as for "reform" he thinks it but mockery when those who declare so loud for it vote to give the State printing to the highest bidder because he is a democrat.

At the auction sale of materials saved from the wreck of schooner Torpedo, at Rye beach on Monday, Messrs. Rider & Cotton of this city bought 700 boxes of herring, and Gifford & Thompson of Boston, the schooner's consignees, bought 1300 boxes. These were taken off the vessel before she became a wreck, and were in good condition; the remainder, 8000 boxes, were strewn along the beach and rendered worthless. The rigging and other gear saved was not sold.

On Wednesday night of last week a man giving his name as Harry Francis, of Boston, and claiming to have been travelling with a minstrel troupe which disbanded in this city, arrived at Exeter, cold, hungery, destitute of money, and thinly clad. He did not dare ask for food or lodging, and one of the constables learning the circumstances entertained the traveller over night, and through the severe storm of the next day and night, and then advised him to depart as soon as the roads were sufficiently broken out to allow of pedestrianism over them. We have not learned of any minstrel troupe being disbanded in this city lately.

At a late trial in the supreme court at Exeter much valuable time was lost in showing the jury a plan of a lot of land, and when the judge made his charge he alluded to the case, and said that he thought a large blackboard would be a valuable addition to the court room, and he wished the county commissioners, if any there were in the room, would make a note of the same. Acting upon this request the commissioners have caused a good-sized black-board to be placed on the wall of the room, back of the witness stand, and now the jury can study plans used in cases without being subject to so much inconvenience as formerly, and what is still more important, time and expense will be saved to the court.

The fifteenth anniversary of the Unitarian church of Dover was observed on Sunday last. Feb. 18th, 1829, the church was dedicated, and the first minister, Dr. Samuel K. Lothrop, ordained. Since the organization the church has had eight settled ministers, all of whom are living. Dr. Lothrop was expected to be present on Sunday, but was prevented by illness and cold weather. Rev. Charles A. Allen, the present minister, preached a historic sermon, and read letters from five former ministers. Only one of the original members was able to be present at the celebration—Enoch H. Nutter, who, although seventy-eight years old, walks a long distance to church every Sunday, regardless of the weather. The society, once among the largest and wealthiest in the city, was divided by the liberal preaching of Francis E. Abbot, minister ten years ago; although not as large as formerly, it is gradually increasing.

THE CHARITY CONCERT.

The entertainment in aid of the Children's Home was an excellent one, and the audience quite large. Reinewald & Taylor's orchestra, who generously volunteered their services, opened the concert with the "Zampa" overture, and played it brilliantly and pleasingly; they also had the first number on the second part of the programme. Miss Edith Wendell's singing, and Miss Mary W. Caldwell's recitation and readings, were what was expected of these popular favorites; and Mr. James M. Tracy shew himself not only a remarkably brilliant pianist but a very pleasing one as well. Miss Lillian Chandler, the young lady violinist, is really astonishing, executing passages of unusual difficulty with precision and apparent ease, bringing out full, round, rich tones, and playing with much expression. Besides, it was worth paying something to see this young girl's unaffected bearing on the stage. Her sister, Miss Lucie Chandler, accompanied her on the piano; Mr. E. A. Tilton accompanied Miss Wendell. The affair was a success as an entertainment, and we hope netted something handsome for the Children's Home. There was one fault about the concert—the programme was a trifle too long.

FEMALE VOTERS.

In every school district in the State (excepting in Manchester, Nashua, Portsmouth and Dover, in which cities the school committees are not chosen directly by the people,) women can this year vote on all questions pertaining to schools, under the following act passed at the last session of the legislature:

Any person, male or female, but in all other respects except sex qualified to vote in town affairs, may vote at any school district meeting in the district in which such person has resided and had a home one month next preceding such meeting.

The questions on which women may vote are the choice of a certain number of the prudential committee, or of the board of education, as the case may be; the acceptance of the annual report of the existing school committee in regard to the receipt and disbursement of the school funds; the appropriation to be made for the next year; special appropriations for special objects; and whatever other questions the local interests of the schools may suggest. For the past seven years it has been lawful for women to serve upon school committees; and in more than twenty towns their names are already found upon such lists. Now, for the first time, they are permitted to assist in choosing these officers; not only may they be elected, but they may themselves elect. The women of the State have a right to have their names on the check-lists of their several towns, and their political activity at the approaching town meetings will be keenly watched.

A canvass of the females over twenty-one years of age has been made in the village district of Rochester, to give them the opportunity of voting at the coming school meeting. The check-list, which has been printed, contains the names of nearly seven hundred women.

The names of many ladies appear on the check-list of Exeter, as posted; and we presume the same is true of the other towns, though we have as yet no record of the fact.

"THRIFTY REFORMERS."

Under the above heading the Manchester Mirror of Saturday last has the following:

The officers and members of the Manchester Reform club, who have been measuring the tracks left here by Mr. Palmer, the eloquent apostle of gospel temperance, and Mr. Ardron, the sweet singer of cold water epics, are coming to the conclusion that they do not exactly correspond with the boots which those gentlemen advertised to wear when they came here. As we are informed by men prominent in the club, upon the advent of Messrs. Palmer and Ardron here, they proposed to hold, as they afterwards did, a series of meetings under the auspices of the club, and when the question of their compensation came up, declared that they cared little about that, for they labored for their fellowmen in the good cause without hope of pecuniary reward, trusting in the Lord to supply their needs. When they had been here a week it was thought only fair to give them a benefit, and this was done Sunday night. The proceeds, about $75, Mr. Palmer pocketed. A collection was also taken up each evening. The amount of this is not known as Mr. Palmer was his own cashier, but it is known that on one night the contributions amounted to twenty dollars, and, as the meetings were continued three weeks, it is supposed that at least $200 must have been realized from this source. Having provided in this way for the preacher and singer, the club thought it would provide for itself, and appointed a committee of ten ladies to solicit contributions. This committee raised about $100 for the club, but Mr. Palmer ordered the ladies to pay it over to him and they did so. Meantime Hon. L. W. Clark had raised among the lawyers another hundred dollars, and this went into Palmer's pocket. Then there was a grand closing rally at which an admission was charged. The proceeds were about $150, and this also went to pay the pair who "worked trusting in the Lord," making about $700 that went into their hands. Out of the receipts Mr. Palmer paid $114 for warming and lighting the hall nineteen nights, and this was all. The janitor, as the pair was leaving, went to them and asked for his pay, and was told that twelve dollars had been left in Mr. Clatur's hands for him. This proved to be not so. When they went from here they said they were going to Suncook and should be down to see their Manchester friends in a few days, but the next heard of them they were in Ohio.

The Mr. Palmer referred to is the one who some weeks ago conducted a series of "gospel temperance meetings," in this city, and for refusing to puff whom right along the CHRONICLE was repeatedly reproved by the Times, which just then was the gospel temperance organ.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Feb. 21st.

To-day the funeral services of Mrs. Emily Brown, wife of Mr. Joseph Brown, were held at her late residence, Rev. Mr. Haines of North Hampton officiating. Despite the storm the funeral was largely attended. The deceased was a member of the Congregational church, and much respected.

During the blinding snow storm of Thursday the schooner Torpedo, (of whose wreck you have already given an account,) while running off Stony beach struck on the narrows among the breakers. The vessel was first seen in the breakers by Mr. Albion R. Philbrick, who went to the schooner in his boat, and boarded her. She swung off and grounded on the beach at the "old field," near the narrows leading to Rye ledge, where she thumped to pieces on the rocks; had she gone ashore on the point her crew would probably have been all lost. The men were thoroughly wetted in getting ashore, and their clothing frozen; they were cared for at the life-saving station. The station men got their apparatus over to the wreck, and assisted in saving the rigging and other gear of the vessel, and what of the cargo could be removed; the crew saved part of their personal effects.

Mr. D. Woodbury Dalton, the mail carrier from Rye beach to North Hampton depot, takes mail matter to and from Chesley's store at the "Four Corners," which is a great convenience to residents in that vicinity; a post-office at the corners would be a good thing.

The fishermen here complain much of the injury done the fishing off the beach by so many schooners trawling; some law should be passed by the legislature to protect our fishing interests. SCRIBE.

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

Peace and Goodwill can only be felt when you are well. Don't get sick when you can cure that slight cold by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

An Opinion of Gen. Early of Virginia.

In reply to an inquiry suggested by a newspaper article, Gen. J. A. Early, of Virginia, whose reputation as a legal disputant is second only to his military record, says:

"I know that by terms of its charter, The Louisiana State Lottery Company is bound to pay, and does annually pay, into the State Treasury $40,000, which is appropriated to one of the noblest charities in America—the Charity Hospital in New Orleans. I found the Company operating under that charter, which has the force of a contract, and under the Constitution of the United States it cannot be interfered with in the prosecution of its business until its charter expires by its own limitation."

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents.

Don't Dry Up your cough, but cure it root and branch by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Shesrar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. ttsb25

Ere 'tis too late and that cough has become galloping consumption, cleanse your lungs by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, New York, is a big House, and it takes a great many people to fill it. In order to do the latter, and to please everybody, the Hotel is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European $1.00, and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices is conducted by the Hotel.

Why Cough Nights? You can stop it with Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

have occured in this country during the last three or four years, but none more wonderful than the Revolutions in Color, produced among the Heads of the People, by

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

The history of the success of great discoveries affords no parallel to the triumphs ever competition and prejudice, accomplished by this powerful yet harmless vegetable agent, which instantaneously changes any obnoxious color of the hair into a black or brown as magnificent as any that heaven ever bestowed upon the head of man or woman. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No 83 William St., New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. tmch15

The Rich California Banker.

When it became known that one of the richest California bankers had left the Pacific Coast and transferred his base of operations to the New York Stock Exchange, all the shrewd financiers watched his course with keen interest to see how he would succeed. The result has emphatically proved the wealthy banker's sagacity. Besides having a much wider and more promising field to operate in, he is known to have been in several stock combinations that paid immense profits. By the combination method of operating in stocks Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite orders of thousands of customers, in different sums, into one vast capital, and operate them as a mighty whole, dividing profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with great success in these pools. $25 would pay $100 profit. $500 would make $5,000 or 10 per cent. on the stock during the past month. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) gives "two unerring rules for success," and full particulars, so that any one can operate in stocks, and make money. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York.

Making Friends at Home.

Is it possible for a friend to "just make himself at home" in the house, as we so often invite and enjoin him to do? Something depends, no doubt, on the friend, but more, we think, on the home. If the guest be incapable of forgetting his own home, and given to contrasting unfavorably everything that is unlike it in others; or if he be one of the unadaptive sort—a human "old cat," who is never at ease when out of his accustomed haunts; or if he (more frequently, perhaps, that is she!) only goes about among friends to be "entertained;" in such case you can't well make them at home—nor avoid wishing them there!

On the other hand, if you desert the pleasant family quarters and plant your friend amid the unseen fineries of the stiff "best room;" if you keep the children on dress parade, and break up all your wonted good time; if you palpably make a decided difference in the family fare, as if your friend came to learn the qualifications of your cook or to judge of your ability to "keep a hotel;" if, in a word, your everyday domestic life is so broken up that having a guest implies a complete change in the internal arrangements and economies of the household, he can not, if a sensible and sensative person, feel himself "at home," for he will perceive that you are not.

Think what being "at home" means to yourself, and try and let your guest have something of that feeling. You require a certain liberty and an atmosphere of naturalness for your contentment; the knowledge that you are not making any undue work or worry, and a sort of slipper-and-dressing-gown freedom of deportment for your comfort. You don't want your down-sitting and up-rising too much planned out for you. You expect to be courteous and agreeable and punctual, and to practice the rest of the household virtues as much as in you lies, but you don't want to talk at a mark all the time nor to have everything give way for your entertainment.

There is not a better rule of politeness and hospitality in the world than the rule called "golden." The trouble is that we keep it too much for ethical or "great moral" questions, instead of turning it to use in the every-day affairs of life. We can best enable our friends to make themselves at home by keeping it homelike for them.—Golden Rule.

Advice to Consumptives.

The celebrated physician, Dr. Paul Memeyer, gives the following valuable suggestion to persons suffering from lung affections: "The patient must with scrupulous conscientiousness instst upon breathing fresh, pure air, and must remember that the air of closed rooms is always more or less bad. " " " No man, however uncleanly, would drink muddy, or dirty water. A party which occupies a room for hours, breathing the same air, might be compared to a party of bathers drinking the water in which they bathe. The patient must keep the window of his bedroom open. Night air is fresh air without daylight. In close, crowded rooms, the patient suffering from lung complaints breathes consumptively." By taking these precautions and using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, fully one-half of the cases of lung complaints would be cured in six months. For cough and irritation of the lungs do not always indicate the presence of consumption although it may result in that disease, and if consumption has already become deeply seated in the system, this is the most efficient course of treatment that can be pursued outside of any institution that provides special facilities for the treatment of this disease. Dr. Pierce's celebrated Invalids' Hotel is such an institution. Send stamp for descriptive pamphlet containing also a complete treatise upon consumption, explaining its causes, nature, and the best methods of treating it, together with valuable hints concerning diet, clothing, exercise, etc., for consumptives. Address Faculty of Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE

GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the form of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and cured many physicians pronounced the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of clean, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without distress to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulder, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Heated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in common wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stoppage, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear throat, alterations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total destruction of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged glands, lassitude, cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or by the nasal syringe, applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which a liquid medication can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the membranes or cavities communicating therewith, in which crusts and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. ☞ These Reprints are not selections; they give the originals in full, and at about one-third the price of the English Editions.

No publications can compare with the leading British Periodicals—above-named, reprinted by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. In respect to fidelity of research, accuracy of statement, and purity of style, they are without any equal. They keep pace with our own thought, discover research, experiment, and achievement, whether in religion, science, literature, or art. The ablest writers fill their pages with most interesting reviews of history, and with an intelligent narration of the great events of the day.

POSTAGE.

This item of expense, now borne by the publishers, is equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent on the cost to subscribers in former years.

CLUBS.

A discount of twenty per cent will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent, to one address, for $12.80, four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $48, and so on.

PREMIUMS.

New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1879 may have, without charge, the numbers for the last quarter of 1878 of such periodicals as they may subscribe for.

Or, instead, new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above periodicals, may have one of the "Four Reviews" for 1878; subscribers to all five may have two of the "Four Reviews," or one set of Blackwood's Magazine for 1878.

Neither premiums to subscribers nor discount to clubs can be allowed, unless the money is remitted direct to the publishers. No premiums given to Clubs.

To secure premiums it will be necessary to make early application, as the stock available for that purpose is limited.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 195 pounds to 192 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGGETT & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following reports from the lady whose Allan's Anti-Fat (Ladies' Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is in unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for the cure of

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. Its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a fond husband, I do not hesitate to say of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a PERFECT GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked such wonders by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Premature Confinement, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exhibit this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singlemess of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in Dr. THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have no hesitancy in saying that possesses special merit and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can cheerfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

VOICES OF THE NIGHT.

When bed-time comes, and curtains fall,
And round I go the doors to lock,
Ere lamps go out my wife doth call,
"Remember, dear, to wind the clock."

When boots are off, and for the day
All irksome cares seem put to rout,
I hear wife's voice from dreamland say,
"Be sure you put the kitten out."

When stretched between the sheets I lie,
And heavy lids have ceased to wink,
From trundle-bed there comes a cry,
"I want a drink!" "I want a drink!"

Advice to Consumptives.

The celebrated physician, Dr. Paul Memeyer, gives the following valuable suggestion to persons suffering from lung affections: "The patient must with scrupulous conscientiousness insist upon breathing fresh, pure air, and must remember that the air of closed rooms is always more or less bad.

* * * * * *

No man, however uncleanly, would drink muddy, or dirty water. A party which occupies a room for hours, breathing the same air, might be compared to a party of bathers drinking the water in which they bathe. The patient must keep the window of his bedroom open. Night air is fresh air without daylight. In close, crowded rooms, the patient suffering from lung complaints breathes consumptively." By taking these precautions and using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, fully one-half of the cases of lung complaints would be cured in six months. For cough and irritation of the lungs do not always indicate the presence of consumption although it may result in that disease, and if consumption has already become deeply seated in the system, this is the most efficient course of treatment that can be pursued outside of any institution that provides special facilities for the treatment of this disease. Dr. Pierce's celebrated Invalids' Hotel is such an institution. Send stamp for descriptive pamphlet containing also a complete treatise upon consumption, explaining its causes, nature, and the best methods of treating it, together with valuable hints concerning diet, clothing, exercise, etc., for consumptives. Address Faculty of Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

—A Spanish proverb:—"A kiss without a moustache is like an egg without salt."

—Philosophy—A Yankee paper, which has been studying human nature, says: "To owe is human, to pay up is divine."

—John G. Saxe, who has been in delicate health, is now confined in his room in Brooklyn, suffering, it is said, from chronic melancholia. His spirits are so deeply clouded, his nerves so depressed, that he refuses to see any of his friends, and there seems to be no prospect of release from his impenetrable, overwhelming gloom. Mr. Saxe is well known to the public as a humorous poet and lecturer. If he lives, he will be sixty-three the coming June.

—A birthday party has been given for a pet skye terrier in New York. His idiotic mistress sent out fifty invitations, and the darling "received" his companions in arms standing on a sky-blue satin cushion, with a diamond locket fastened to the sky-blue ribbon tied around his august throat. Great decorum was preserved until lunch was served, and then some truly "sweet pets" lifted up their small voices in howls and yells of delight. What next?

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1879.

News and Notes.

Sell Howell, general southern passenger agent of the Piedmont Air Line railway, was shot and instantly killed in New Orleans, Feb. 25th, by A. T. Wimberly, a merchant, of Coffeeville, Miss. Ed. Howell, a brother of the deceased, then shot Wimberly in the back, wounding him dangerously. About a dozen shots were fired, and one bystander was wounded.

Hon. N. G. White, president of the Boston & Maine railroad, is at the Riggs house in Washington.

The sound steamers now leave New York at five o'clock P. M.

At the Congregational church in Greene, N. Y., on the evening of Feb. 19th, Rev. William Ritchie, pastor of a Presbyterian church in New York city, was married to Miss Jennie Grant; H. H. Scott, a boot and shoe dealer of New York city, was married to Miss Flora Grant; and Rev. Smith Ford, pastor of the Baptist church at Greene, was married to Miss Mary Grant—the three brides being sisters.

The sixth annual commencement of the Boston University School of Design will be held in Tremont Temple, Boston, on Wednesday, March 5th, at three o'clock P. M. The public generally are invited to attend.

The trial of John H. Snow, formerly first officer of the Boston barque C. O. Whitmore, for the murder of James R. Ellwood, second mate on board that vessel, commenced Monday morning, Feb. 24th, in the U. S. Circuit Court at San Francisco. Thomas Peabody, master of the C. O. Whitmore at the time of the death of Ellwood, who is under indictment in Boston for the same offence as Snow, was present. According to the stories first told, and never yet contradicted, young Ellwood was murdered by a long continued course of the most devilish inhumanity on the part of the two men now under arrest for the crime.

From Portland, Oregon, comes information that the settlers on the Lower Wressey, Idaho, recently organized a scouting party to hunt down a band of Indians that has been marauding since the main body of savages was captured by Gen. Howard last summer. The Indian camp was found near Payette river, and attacked at night, nearly every one in it being killed; thirty-six dead bodies were found after the slaughter was over, and only two or three of the redskins are known to have escaped.

Mrs. Agerson, who had a fall in her residence at Portland, Me., a few weeks ago, and broke her hip, died Feb. 22d. She was over eighty years of age. Prudence Hillman, over eighty years old, residing on Portland street, Portland, fell out of bed to the floor, Feb. 20th, injuring herself internally so that she died on the 24th.

Daniel Mahanna of Beckett, Mass., aged seventy years, left his home for Pittsfield on the 17th of February. He was found dead in a brook near Beckett depot on the 20th. He probably fell from a train on his return, while intoxicated, and rolled down the bank.

Nahum Aldrich of Belchertown, Mass., aged seventy years, drowned himself Feb. 25th by holding his head in a pail of cold water.

A timid youth of Chicopee, Mass., aged twenty-two years, met a blushing dame of fourteen on Saturday morning and by Sunday night their acquaintance had ripened into an engagement, and on Monday they were married.

The southern cities troubled with the yellow fever last year declare that they will avert a second run of it by a thorough cleaning up of streets and sewers "before the hot weather sets in." Winter, however, is nearly over, and but little has yet been done.

Rev. Dr. Conrad of Philadelphia, editor of the Lutheran Observer, has become insane.

D. H. Montgomery, a member of the firm of S. B. Montgomery & Co., of Starkville, Miss., absconded a few days since with several thousand dollars, including $6000 of the county funds, $1000 borrowed of two widows, and other smaller amounts. He was accompanied by a dashing belle of Starkville. Montgomery is highly connected, a prominent member of the Baptist church, and leaves a devoted wife and two children.

David Pender, alias "David the Kid," who snatched a diamond ear ring from Mrs. Frederick DeBary, was arraigned for that crime before a New York court, Feb. 24th, convicted, and sentenced to twenty years in State prison. He got $18 as his share of the money received for the stolen jewel. John Flynn, who hired Pender to do the deed, was then placed on trial.

Nellie Saunders was found Tuesday night, the 25th inst., in a terrible condition at the residence of a once respectable citizen of Newport, R. I., who had her there for vile purposes. The officers were obliged to get a physician's advice before removing her in a back to the police station. She had been under the influence of liquor for thirteen days, and during that time had scarcely eaten anything. The family of the man who had her in his power left him several years ago because of his dissolute habits.

The legislative investigating committee of Missouri has reported, giving the amount of State Treasurer Gates' deficit at $343,000. They say that Burns of St. Joseph secured the election of Gates for the sole purpose of controlling the deposits, which he has done, and in fact is State treasurer. Burns, it is stated, has made $91,000 since Gates has been in office, and has controlled everything. The committee recommended that Treasurer Gates be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and the House appointed five managers to conduct the impeachment before the State Senate.

Information has been received by cable from Sydney, New South Wales, dated Feb. 20th, advising that Henry W. Peabody, of the firm of Henry W. Peabody & Co. of Boston, has been duly appointed a commissioner for New England to represent the International Exhibition to be held at Sydney next August. Manufacturers who intend to send their goods to this exhibition should communicate with Messrs. Peabody & Co. without delay.

Some malicious person broke into the house of Mrs. A. O. Willard at Holyoke, Mass., on a recent Sunday night, and destroyed several hundred dollars' worth of property, among which were three oil paintings, one of them being a portrait of Mrs. Willard's little boy who died several years ago, very highly valued by the owner. The villain cut large pieces from the pictures, and burnt them. A seal-skin cloak and muff and a woolen cloak belonging to a friend visiting at the house, and a new silk dress that had never been worn, were also among the things destroyed by mutilation with a pair of shears. Nothing was stolen.

The steam collier Rattlesnake did not go down off Long island, as reported, as she arrived at Boston all right on Monday, Feb. 24th, and sailed again Tuesday evening.

The people of the south need to be industrious in the full meaning of the word, and to learn thrift and economy as they are practised by the northern people. Our able bodied males must depend less on tobacco and whiskey and more on the sweat of their brows, and our young women must encourage this by turning their lily-white hands to anything they can possibly do, and let up the least bit on fashion if it stands in the way.—Vicksburg, (Miss.) Herald.

New Hampshire Items.

The manufacturing interests in Manchester show a marked improvement. All the corporations are running full time, with large orders ahead.

A $2000 debt of the St. Paul Methodist church in Manchester has been raised.

Col. George L. Ordway and William B. Tebbetts of Concord have gone to Leadville, Colorado, to open a law office.

Henry Young, an insane person of Pittsfield, nearly killed his wife on Tuesday forenoon, Feb. 25th, with a stick of wood, making many severe wounds. Her condition is critical.

Ex-Gov. Cheney and wife have recently returned from a visit to Washington.

Mrs. Hill, widow of the late Isaac Hill of Concord, was ninety years of age Feb. 14th.

Political.

The federal supervisor law which the democrats in Congress are so determined to repeal, was the result of the gigantic frauds by which Tweed and Tilden carried New York in 1868. A careful investigation showed that at that election Tweed's gang stuffed 51,000 fraudulent votes into the boxes, and in this way overcame the 40,000 republican majority in the State.

The Richmond (Va.) State, democratic, thinks the democrats in Congress are very unwise in attempting to repeal the federal election law. It tells them that their excessive anxiety to repeal the law prior to the Presidential contest will be construed as indicating "an intention of fraud to carry the elections."

The Bounding Banning was badly used up by Gen. Garfield in the House of Representatives on Tuesday of this week. On the previous day Banning had made some grandiloquent remarks about democratic majorities and republican frauds, when Garfield suggested that Banning's majority was principally in the penitentiary. On Tuesday Banning replied, asserting Garfield's statement to be false in all particulars; Garfield then took the floor, and gave the details of the sworn testimony taken on the trial of Eph Holland and his ballot-box stuffers in Cincinnati, showing that the grossest frauds were perpetrated and that many hundreds of votes were cast for Banning by imported gangs of Baltimore and New York roughs.

The Alabama legislature elected a colored chaplain, which shows that when there is any praying to be done the democrats naturally resort to a black republican.

The Tribune, in its partiality for Mr. Marble, awards him the distinction of being "the chief hypocrite of the whole tribe of corporateers." The day may come, however, when the Tribune will do the claims of Mr. Tilden justice.—New York Star, (dem.)

If Tilden is as great an ignoramus as he claims to be, in not knowing what Pelton, Weed and Marble were doing in the business of buying the presidency, then it is fortunate that he did not get what he wanted, for some one might have come along and stolen the presidential chair with him in it. In that case the nation would have suffered the irreparable loss of a valuable chair.—Albany Times, (dem.)

Laurevs, Paris, and M'me Cehm, Chicago.

A CARD.—TONY DENIER confidently calls special attention to the aggregation of Pantomimic and Specialty Stars, selected by him for his present tour, as being in every respect decidedly superior to any similar organization ever placed before the American public. The names alone of the 27 actual members of the troupe are sufficient to establish the fact without puffery or gush accompanying the simple list. Mr. Denier cannot afford to jeopardize his hard-earned and enviable reputation with the American public, by giving an inferior entertainment, and when he asserts that this is the BEST COMPANY he ever controlled, he is willing to stake his professional reputation on the truth of the assertion. Come and see for yourself.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Alum in the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30.

The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

The City Guards appeared in their new uniform for the first time on Wednesday evening, for drill in their armory.

The trawls belonging to the schooners Anabel and Ev. Nichols have been badly cut on the fishing grounds lately by the crew of some other vessel, and more than once.

Mr. George White, route agent for Haverly's Minstrels, was in town on Wednesday, the 26th inst., making arrangements for the appearance of that celebrated troupe at Music hall on Monday evening, March 17th.

The young son of Capt. Raymond, who was injured by a kick from a playmate some days ago, died on Wednesday evening at about half-past six o'clock. We are assured that a rumor which was circulated Wednesday afternoon, to the effect that the lads were quarrelling when the fatal injury was given, is unfounded, young Raymond stating that it was received in play.

Congressman Jones has sent to some of his friends bound copies of the Congressional Directory, 3d session 45th Congress. As Mr. Jones declined a re-election the compliment of his donation made at this time cannot possibly be misconstrued. The directory is a convenient publication. It is compiled by Maj. Ben. Perley Poore, clerk of printing records, and is full of information in regard to the officials of Congress and the executive departments of the government.

Two owners of horses have reported to City Marshal Entwistle that a dog, said to belong to a man named Canty, is in the habit of jumping at horses' heads, and biting their noses; and on Wednesday forenoon the brute attacked Mr. Andrew McKenney's horse as he was standing on Market square, biting his nose so that it bled for some time. A dose of buckshot injected through the vicious cur's ribs with a shot-gun would no doubt have a tendency to make him less dangerous—and some such remedy no doubt the city marshal will adopt, if the nuisance is not promptly suppressed.

Rev. James DeNormandie will give the concluding lecture of the course at Miss Morgan's school, Friday evening, Feb. 28th, at 8 o'clock; subject, "Thomas Jefferson and American republicanism." The lecture is new, and one upon which much time and research has been bestowed. Mr. DeNormandie's well-known faculty of exhausting a subject, and getting at bottom facts, is only equalled by his power of stimulating his listeners with an earnest desire for more. We would remind those who have tickets to use them—and those who have not can be supplied with evening tickets at Myers' bookstore.

In another column will be found Tony Denier's announcement of the appearance at Music hall of "Humpty Dumpty" next Monday evening. The Chicago Times says of this company and piece that "the pantomime is full of fun, and is one of the best, in all its details, that we have ever seen. George Fox and Humpty Dumpty never, in their brightest days, did anything better than on Monday night, with a clown who has established his title to the name of Grimaldi. Then the tricks are, in the main, entirely new and original. There are a few selections of the best of the clown's practical jokes as Fox was in the habit of exhibiting them, but the most of them are fresh and exhilarating, and always found responsive spectators in all parts of the theatre ready to recognize them in expressive tones. Grimaldi, the clown, varies his efforts in the pantomime with wonderful evolutions on the stilts. Altogether the performance with all its varied and amusing adjuncts, is the best play of pantomime humor that we have had for many days."

THE VICINITY.

Col. A. H. Young, accompanied by Col. Samuel C. Fisher, has gone to Washington to assist in the closing ceremonies of the Forty-fifth Congress.

The Universalist society at Dover propose to build a church during the coming summer. They now hold their services in Eagle hall, which is a reconstruction of their old house of worship, sold by them some years since. They have a very eligible lot, on the corner of Franklin and Hurd streets, and intend to erect a handsome building of sufficient capacity for their purpose.

Mr. Irving Seavey's blacksmith shop at Cape Neddick was burned on the 21st inst., Mr. Seavey saving his tools. The building was partially insured.

One of Rochester's oldest citizens awoke from a sleep the other night to find himself vigorously slaughtering pie in the cellar. This was his first attempt at somnambulism.

Farmers' meetings are to be held by the State Board of Agriculture at the town hall in Newington on Friday afternoon and evening of next week, if favorable weather; if not, on the following Monday.

The greenbackers of Biddeford on Saturday nominated Capt. A. W. Leavitt for mayor; but on Monday evening there was a fusion caucus of greenbackers and democrats, when James A. Strout was nominated.

The Dover Enquirer says: "One of the reformed men in this city, who signed the pledge about three years ago, has since that time earned and laid up about $1000. This is but one instance of the good done by this reform."

It was announced by the pastor of the Baptist church in Exeter from his pulpit on Sunday, the 23d inst., that the effort to raise $4000 toward clearing off the debt of the church had been completely successful, pledges having been made to cover that amount, and even more. It was stated that the spirit with which this work had been prosecuted was most cheering, and the church and society were congratulated on their success and their present hopeful outlook.

MORE WRECKS.

Rye beach is getting to be quite as noted for wrecks as it has long been during the summer as a watering place. Some months ago the schooner Caroline Knight, of Rockland, Me., bound from Boston for Rockland with a cargo of fire-brick, went ashore on the rocks at Straw's point, but was subsequently gotten off and taken to her hailing port, where she is now undergoing repairs.

On Thursday, Feb. 20th, the schooner Torpedo, of and from Lubec, Me., for Boston, with a cargo of smoked herring, went ashore near the narrows during a snow-storm, and with most of her cargo became a total loss.

Now we have to report two more wrecks, the Rival, Capt. Smith, of 53 88 tons register, and the Northern Star, Capt. Cole, of 56.16 tons register, both of Gloucester, Mass., which went ashore at about eleven o'clock on the evening of Feb. 25th, the Rival having on board at the time 25,000 lbs. of fish, and the Northern Star 13,000 lbs.

The two vessels were running for this harbor from the bay fishing grounds, and keeping as sharp a lookout for danger ahead as was possible through the blinding snowstorm, when the Rival struck on Ragged neck, and was followed in less than ten minutes by the Northern Star, which went ashore on Varrell's point, within hailing distance of the other schooner. A light was seen ashore (in a building used by the life-saving men) and was mistaken for Whale's-back. The Northern Star before she struck was hailed from the Rival with the information that the latter was ashore, and went about in an endeavor to stand to sea again, but before she could gather way she too went on. The Rival became a total wreck, her crew losing their clothing and fishing gear, and her dories being badly smashed. The Northern Star was on Wednesday evening reported to be lying in a good position, with only one hole in her bottom and her fore-foot split, and it was expected she would be saved if the weather should be favorable; her fare of fish was hauled to this city in teams, and purchased by Mr. John Dixon, and her fishing gear and the men's clothing, etc., were all gotten safely on shore.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Feb. 24th.

The warrant for town meeting was posted Saturday, and contains but four articles to be acted on, so that it would seem as though one half day ought to suffice for doing all the business that will come before the meeting. The first article is to choose a moderator; the second, to choose all necessary town officers, including a town treasurer—which is something new for this town, one of the selectmen usually acting in that capacity. The third is to raise money for support of the schools, poor, repairs of highways and bridges, etc.; and the fourth, to see if the town will pay the sum due Dr. Warren Parsons for vaccinnating in 1876.

Last week was a good week for storms, winds, and snow drifts. From the first of the week to the last it was much more comfortable to stay in the house than it was to be out of doors, but in order to keep the roads open it was necessary for almost every able-bodied man to be out most of the time, shoveling snow. On Saturday morning the roads were pretty much all full and it took nearly all day to make them passable. From the Center to the depot was about as bad as could be, and in district No. 2 there was hardly an inch of ground, on the mile and a half they have to look after, but what had to be shoveled out. The roads have not been as bad for years. Mr. Sigston's lecture, Mr. Lord's entertainment and Frank E. Chesley's party, all announced to come off at the town hall, had to be abandoned or postponed.

Notwithstanding the horrible state of the travelling the churches were fairly attended on Sunday. At the Congregational church Rev. Mr. Moore, from Shirley, Mass., preached, and appeared to give general satisfaction.

That portion of the cargo of the late schooner Torpedo which was saved, and other relics which had not entirely disappeared, were sold at auction near the place where she went ashore, on Monday afternoon. The crew have been at the life-saving station since the disaster, but will probably realize enough from the sale to go home. It seemed kind of mean for parties to sneak around the scene of the wreck digging in the snow for boxes of herring which came ashore, and if finding anything taking them away. It is reported that quite a party from Little River came over on Sunday and engaged in this work, and arrived back in the vicinity of the Little River meeting house with their plunder just in time to hear the last hymn sung. That's about the way the story was told the writer,—hoping all the same that our neighbors can deny the truth of it.

George S. Walker, the well-known driver of Mr. S. C. Berry's grocery and bread cart, had the misfortune to get upset one day last week, and as eggs constitute a portion of his load some idea can be formed of the state of his outward appearance until a change of apparel was made. Aside from that and the loss consequent, no great damage was experienced.

On dit, a pound party at Rev. Ira S. Jones', the Christian minister, Tuesday night. Likewise the young folks' party at the town hall on Thursday evening; and Mr. Jed E. Lord with his readings on Friday.

There are 336 names on the check lists, which were posted to-day, at the post-office and Col. T. J. Parson's store. It was the supervisors who did it this time, instead of the selectmen.

"SCRIBE" is respectfully informed that nearly every person within a mile of the Centre heard the "suspected earthquake," and can verify what the writer of this said about it if he desires farther particulars; or perhaps "Kim," of the Exeter News-Letter, can give him some information. At least he mentioned it in one of his letters not many weeks since.

Since writing the above, two additional articles have been added to the warrant calling the town meeting. One, "to fix the tariff for use of the town hall;" and the other, "to see if the town will vote to have the town accounts printed."

NAT.

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine for February, has been republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., No. 41 Barclay Street, N. Y. "John Caldigate" is not yet finished. In this number we have the account of the trial, and the continued firmness of the young wife. "The Medium of the Last Century" ends in a tragic manner, the heroine being killed by lightning. Under the title "Two Ladies" we find charming accounts of the lives of Mrs. Jameson and Fanny Kemble. Though widely different in many respects, there were points of resemblance in both the maiden and married lives of these women, and as they were friends and moved in the same society, it is all the more pleasant to meet them together in these pages. The article on "Magazine Writers" is really an autobiography of Blackwood, "the parent of all magazines," which is now in its sixty-second year. It started forth in life under the guidance of Mr. Wm. Blackwood, strengthened and supported by Wilson, Lockhart, and many others equally well known, and "its pages have always been the reflection of the literary genius and lustre of the times." Besides the political article, there is an essay on "Domestic Service," describing the relations that formerly existed between master and man, and those of the present day. The periodicals reprinted by The Leonard Scott Publishing Co. are as follows: The London Quarterly, Edinburgh, Westminster, and British Quarterly Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine. Price, $4 a year for any one, or only $1 for all, and the postage is prepaid by the publishers.

A Lesson of Self-Help.

Widow Mary Holbrook, who died in Holbrook, Mass., a few days since, was, in many respects, a most remarkable woman. She had twenty-one children, of whom only the three younger are now living. Mrs. Holbrook never weighed over one hundred pounds in her prime, and for some six months before her death she was estimated to weigh not over thirty pounds. In her seventy-fifth year she began knitting tidies to beguile the time, and soon had collected over one hundred of the dainty articles of household adornment. One day her son wrapped up half a dozen of the tidies and took them to Boston, where a sale was readily made at Whitney's, corner of Winter and Tremont streets. The old lady's stock was soon exhausted, and orders poured in much faster than she could fill them. So she engaged several old ladies in the vicinity to do the coarser part of the work, filling in the finer parts with her own hands. In this way, from her seventy-fifth to her ninetieth year—fifteen years—she had netted six thousand dollars from the sale of her tidies, upon which fully one-half the work was done with her own hands. How many ladies over whose silver hairs so many winters have kindly passed can show such a record of almost wonderful vigor and perseverance, we wonder?—Braintree Observer.

—"Sportive winds"—Holding yarn for your sweetheart to "reel" off.

—No true work since the world began was ever wasted; no true life since the world began has ever failed.

—This was Robert Stephenson's remark to the man who used to bother him about perpetual motion: "If you will take yourself up by the waistband of your breeches and carry yourself around the room, I will consider the matter."

—The Congregationalist thinks the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals should arrest the walking mania. It is, according to that paper, worse than merely senseless, it is wicked, when some miserable victim of greed or misdirected enthusiasm is allowed to stumble and stagger with swollen feet and gasping lips, around a track, in order to walk a given number of miles in so many hours or portions of hours.

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. feb25

Ere 'tis too late and that cough has become galloping consumption, cleanse your lungs by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 25 cents.

The Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, New York, is a big House, and it takes a great many people to fill it. In order to do the latter, and to please everybody, the Hotel is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European $1.00, and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices is conducted by the Hotel.

Why Cough Nights? You can sooth it with Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Lucretia Mott.

One of the women whom Mr. Joseph Cook arraigns by implication as involved "in a scheme for the immoral use of the mails," has just passed her eighty-sixth year. She was an abolitionist when Garrison was a child, and bore an honorable part in the anti-slavery struggle from first to last. She has been a minister of the Society of Friends (one of the purest religious bodies the world has ever seen) for sixty years. She is now President of the Pennsylvania Peace Society, and identified with every movement for the elevation of her sex. Her labors among the poor in Philadelphia have won for her the warm regard of the whole community. She has reared a large family of children, and now in her old age is loved and revered by many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and is the centre of a social circle which, in point of moral refinement, is the equal of any other in our wide country. That this remarkable woman, honored and beloved by many of the most eminent people in Europe as well as America, should be aspersed, even by remotest implication, as a patron of obscenity, is a proof of the recklessness of speech induced by religious bigotry.

Then there is Lydia Maria Child, now seventy-seven years of age, whose name was illustrious in literature before Mr. Cook was born, and whose long life has been marked by self-sacrificing devotion to every work for the moral enlightenment and elevation of mankind! She also is included among those whom the "Boston lecturer" accuses of being "national lepers and moral cancer planters." Such defamation is simply infamous.—Orange (N. J.) Journal.

—In France a party of editors have been hunting wild boars. Happy country! Here the editors are hunted by tame bores.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must force
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.
TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Enlarged Glands, Tumors, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Lung, or Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to the Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their searching purpose. Nor does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in clumsy powders or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes produce, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, acrid, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stoppage, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, mucous, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total destruction of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, stifling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which liquid medication can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the nasal passages, including the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 192 pounds to 192 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, I used bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat and reduced my four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLDITZ & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLUMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing me full two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlets on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation, I have no hesitancy in positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, deeply rooted as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficacious remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single trial, that I will pay the price of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a WRITTEN WARRANTY (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty before which, as by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire more evidence on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats fully on those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does its every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affection s the confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to preserve with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.

THEO. P. BOGERT.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

Mr. Palmleaf's Proposal.

White and glistening, like a mammoth bridal veil, the December sun lay over all the New Hampshire hills; dark and delicate, like the tracery of lace-work, the leafless woods held up their boughs against the dazzling winter sky—and Reverend Peter Palmleaf, studying over an embryo sermon in his own especial sanctum, glanced up where a blackbird was whistling in the casement, and thought to himself what a lovely world the Lord had made.

When, all of a sudden a shrill voice called through the entry:

"Peter, the horse is ready!"

"What horse?" said Mr. Palmleaf.

"Our horse, to-be-sure!" said Miss Paulina, his sister.

"What for?" demanded the parson, staring through his near-sighted spectacles at the door.

"To take you to Mr. Darrow's."

"Why am I going to Mr. Darrow's?" further questioned the man of theology.

"Well, I never!" said Miss Paulina, bouncing into the study with a yellow pocket handkerchief tied around her head, and her sleeves rolled in a business-like fashion up to her elbows. "Peter, you grow more moony and absent-minded every day of your life! Have you forgotten our discussion at the breakfast-table? Why, you're going to Mr. Darrow's after a girl, to-be-sure!"

"A—girl!" repeated the young minister, dreamily, rubbing his forehead. "Oh, I do recall something of the conversation. A hired girl."

"Yes," nodded the lady, briskly. "She's going to leave Mr. Darrow's this morning, because the family is so large, and work so heavy. She can't find that fault with our establishment, I guess. Ask her how much wages she wants, and how old she is, and ask her whether she has any followers—a follower is the one thing I can't tolerate, tell her—and be sure you bring her back, and her bundle. I must have some person to help me before cousin Philinda's folks come from the city."

"But suppose she won't come?" said the young minister, dubiously, fitting on the fingers of his gloves.

"Then you must make her come," said Miss Paulina, hurriedly retreating to look after a certain kettle which was noisily boiling over at the back of the house.

And thus, charged with his mission, Reverend Peter Palmleaf got into the one-horse cutter and jingled merrily away.

Mr. Darrow's farm-house nestled under a hill, in the protecting shadow of a cluster of evergreens, with a green fence in front of it, a red barn at the rear, and a perfect colony of dove-houses at the sunny southern angle; and Mr. Darrow himself, a ruddy-faced, elderly man, with a fringe of white whiskers around his chin, was shoveling away the pearly masses of snow in front of his door.

"Eh?" said Mr. Darrow, leaning on the handle of his spade, as the bells jingled up in front of his gate, and then stopped. "How! Why, it's the minister! Good-morning Mr. Palmleaf—good-morning! That there Sunday sermon of yours was a masterpeice. Me and Squire Sneaux—"

"Yes," said Mr. Palmleaf, leisurely alighting, and tying the horse to the post. "But I have called on business this morning."

For Mr. Palmleaf was emphatically a man of one idea, and for the time being the "hired girl" had chased all the theology out of head.

"Eh!" said Mr. Darrow; "business?"

"I've come after a young woman," said the minister.

Mr. Darrow dropped his spade in the middle of a snow-bank.

"Do you mean Dolly?" he said.

"If that's her name—yes," asserted the minister, solemnly.

"You don't mean that—it's to be an engagement?" cried Mr. Darrow.

"Well, yes—that is, if we suit each other," said Mr. Palmleaf, mildly.

"Je-rusalem!" said Mr. Darrow, who had always heard that Mr. Palmleaf, like most men of genius, was an "eccentric," but had never realized it before. "Have you spoken to her?"

"Certainly not!" answered Mr. Palmleaf. "Of course, I shouldn't think of such a thing without seeing you first."

"Very straightforward of you, I'm sure," said the farmer. "But, of course, I can have no objection, if Dolly herself is suited. Though," and he smote one red-mitted hand upon his knee, "now I come to think of it, you've never seen Dolly!"

"No!" said the minister, serenely. "But that need make no diff-rence."

"Je-rusalem!" again uttered the farmer. "It wasn't the way I used to look at things when I was a young man."

"Tastes differ," said Mr. Palmleaf, a little impatient at this lengthened discussion. "Can I see the young woman?"

"Oh, of course you can see her," said Mr. Darrow. "She's in the dairy, skimming milk. Dolly! Dolly!" raising his voice to a wild bellow. "Here's the Reverend Mr. Palmleaf wants to see you! There's the door, just to the left, sir."

And, in his near-sighted way, the minister stumbled into Farmer Darrow's dairy, where a rosy-cheeked girl, with jet-black hair, brushed away from a low, olive-dark brow, and eyes like pools of sherry wine, was skimming the cream from multitudinous milk-pans into a huge stone pot.

"Young woman," said Mr. Palmleaf, turning his spectacles upon her amazed face, "do you want to engage yourself?"

"Sir?" said Dolly, her spoon coming to an abrupt standstill, amid the wrinkly and leather-like folds of the cream on a particular pan.

"In other words," explained Mr. Palm-lest, "do you want a good home?"

"Indeed, sir, I never thought of such a thing!" said Dolly, all in a flurry.

"How old are you?" questioned Mr. Palmleaf.

"I am eighteen," said Dolly, in some confusion.

"Have you any followers?"

"Sir?" fluttered Dolly.

"Beaux, I mean," elaborately explained the clergyman.

"Of course I haven't," said Dolly, half inclined to laugh, half to be angry.

"Then I think you'll suit me," said Mr. Palmleaf; "or, rather, my sister. Our family is not large; the wash is light, and Paulina is a most considerate mistress. Get your bundle."

"My—what?" said Dolly, in bewilderment.

"Your clothes. I am to take you back with me immediately," said Mr. Palmleaf. "Paulina expects company. It is essential that we obtain help at once."

Dolly Darrow looked up with cheeks crimsoned like any rose, eyes full of deep brown sparkles, and around which danced a perfect galaxy of dimples.

"Wait a minute, please," said she.

"Certainly," said Mr. Palmleaf.

And he sat down on a wooden stool in the corner, and fell to meditating on the "thirdly" of his uncompleted sermon, while Dolly sped up the stairs, three steps at a time.

"Father," cried she, flying into the presence of her parents, "the minister has mistaken me for Bridget!"

"Eh?" said Mr. Darrow.

"You don't tell me!" said Mrs. Darrow.

"And he wants to hire me," said Dolly, with eyes gleaming with fun. "And I'm going! Quick—where's my hat, and my shawl, and muffers?"

Mrs. Darrow rose up in all the majesty of her black silk gown and gold watch-chain.

"Dorothy Darrow," said she, "you're never going to hire out as a servant!"

"Yes, I am," said Dolly. "It's better than private theatricals. He's so nice and absent-minded, and Miss Paulina is a jewel! Oh, do make haste, or he'll be tired of waiting."

And Dolly succeeded in carrying her point. Fifteen minutes later she got into the cutter, with a big bundle, which Mr. Palmleaf stowed snugly under the seat, and the minister drove home with secret exultation.

Miss Paulina was in the kitchen, frying sausages for dinner, when Dorothy Darrow walked in, with cheeks like carnations, hair blown over her face, and the bundle under her arm.

"Here I am, Miss Palmleaf," said she. "The hired help, at your service!"

Miss Paulina stared.

"Why, it's Dorothy," said she. "And I sent Peter after—"

"Yes, I know," said Dolly, brightly. "But Bridget was gone, and he mistook me for her, and he has engaged me to work here. And, oh, Miss Paulina, please don't undeceive him. Because I am a smart little housekeeper, and I can help you just as much as any Irish girl could. Just give me a trial, that's all."

Miss Paulina had a shrewd appreciation of a joke; her hard features relaxed with a smile, as she stood looking down at the radiant little brunette.

"Well," said she, "I don't mind if I do."

For one month Dorothy Darrow officiated as hired girl at the parsonage. Then she came to the clergyman one day:

"Mr. Palmleaf," said she, "I am going to leave the place!"

Mr. Palmleaf looked up in amazement and dismay.

"I hope, Dolly," said he, "that neither I nor my sister have unwittingly offended you?"

"No!" said Dolly, patting her little foot on the staring green leaves in the study-carpet; "but oh, Mr. Palmleaf, I have done so wrong, and I do earnestly beg your pardon!"

"Dolly!" cried out the Reverend Peter, in mild surprise.

"Because you are so good and true," sobbed the girl; "and I am not a hired girl, and I only came here for a joke, and I can't bear to think I'm de-de-deceiving you!"

And Dolly began to cry piteously, behind the corner of her apron.

"You came here for a joke, eh?" said the minister.

"Y-yes!" confessed Dolly, behind her apron.

"Well," then said the minister, gently drawing her toward him, "suppose you stay in earnest?"

"Sir?" faltered Dolly.

"My dear," said Mr. Palmleaf, "I have got used to having you around, and I should miss you terribly if you should leave us. Do you think I am too old to think of a blooming young wife like you?"

"Not a bit!" cried Dolly, indignantly.

"Oh!—you!"

"Do you like me a little bit?"

"A great deal," said Dolly, laughing and blushing.

"Then you will stay with me always?"

And Dolly promised that she would.

Everybody wondered how so bashful a man as Reverend Mr. Palmleaf ever mustered courage for a proposal; but nobody knew that the "engagement" began for a joke and turned out in sober earnest.

Disastrous Wreck.

The schooner David H. Tolck went ashore at Barnegat, N. J., on the morning of Feb. 26th, and her crew of eleven persons, including a woman and child, took to the rigging. The crew of life-saving station No. 19 attempted during the forenoon to board the vessel in a surf boat, but were driven back by a heavy sea, and they then, with the assistance of the crew of station No. 18, rigged up the breeches buoy, in which one man and the child were brought ashore, but in an exhausted condition. The crew of No. 17 started for the wreck at four o'clock a. m., and after their arrival four of the vessel's crew were landed in a helpless condition, making the number saved six. Two, while being drawn ashore in the breeches buoy, were drowned. The captain's wife died in the rigging, and one man was washed overboard at noon. Four lines were shot out to the vessel, but could not be hauled in by the crew, owing to the strong current up the beach. The surf-boat was tried twice without success, and the keeper of station No. 19 was thrown overboard and badly hurt. The rest of the vessel's company were left on board for the night, it being impossible to do anything more. On Thursday, the 27th, crew of station No. 19 succeeded in reaching the wreck in a surf boat, and took ashore the bodies of Capt. Sawyer and his wife, Ida Sawyer; the bodies of the three drowned seamen had been washed away during the night.

News and Notes.

Major A. M. Hutchens and Mr. Thomas McNatt, of Inka, Tenn., were murdered Feb. 25th by highwaymen while on their way home from the town with $1700 in gold which Hutchens had just drawn from the express office.

A lady at City Point, South Boston, recently presented her husband with twins for the fourth time.

Texas groans over the number of its thieves, murderers and scoundrels. There are now in the State, it is said, an average of four murders per diem, while the government is so weak that it does not try to protect its own witnesses on the stand. Lately a State's witness in a murder case was knocked down and stabbed in the streets of Palestine by half a dozen friends of the murderer. In other counties the shooting and assassination of State's witnesses is now of almost weekly occurrence. Great fault is found with the inefficiency of Governor Roberts' administration. It started out by revoking all rewards for the apprehension of murderers offered by its predecessor, and openly declared that it is not its policy to spend any money to bring back into Texas fugitives from justice.

A terrible gale prevailed on the southern coast of Europe on Wednesday, Feb. 26th. A large part of Venice was inundated, and the Italian coast was strewn with wrecks. The British steamship Silistria was wrecked at Salerno, and eighteen lives were lost. An unknown barque was wrecked at Corunna, Spain, and twenty-two persons were drowned.

A Florida bank was robbed of $3500, Feb. 26th, by a thief calling the President into the street while the money-drawer was being rifled.

Salisbury, Vt., has just had a lawsuit wherein the plaintiff claimed twenty-five cents and was awarded thirteen.

Political.

Augusta, Me., is to have a greenback organ. Chase, editor of the late lamented Tribune of Bangor, is to edit the new paper. The Bangor Tribune was only less "thin" and flat than the Granite State, the New Hampshire greenback organ that once existed.

Mr. Tilden's partial excuse for Pelton's Baltimore transaction, that he was trying to redeem what really belonged to his uncle, falls to the ground before the report of the democratic sub-committee which went to South Carolina after Congress met in December, 1876. That committee, composed of Milton Sayler, Josiah G. Abbott and William Lawrence, the latter being the only republican, made this report to the country by telegraph as soon as they had concluded their labors: "The sub-committee of the committee delegated by the House of Representatives to inquire into the election of Presidential electors in South Carolina, and report the same for a fair understanding by the people, after a careful examination of the returns from all precincts in the State, find that all Hayes and Wheeler electors have a fair majority on the face of the returns." This report, which had passed out of the public mind, is reproduced by the Boston Advertiser as a strong corroboration of Dr. Dunn's statement that the board could only vote for Tilden by voting contrary to the truth. It also ends the slanderous talk about their being bought to vote for Hayes because they were not bought to vote for Tilden.

—The Rev. Solomon G. Jasper, who discovered that the world was flat, now advances this proposition: That to every action there is always an equal reaction. The tension of a rope is the same throughout, and tends as much to pull back the mule at one end as to pull forward the canal-boat at the other end.

—The king of Siam has a body-guard of female warriors. It is composed of 400 girls, chosen from among the strongest and most handsome of all the ladies in the land. At the age of thirteen they enter the service, and remain in it till they are twenty-five, when they pass into the reserve. Their weapon is the lance.

—Women's Words has this paragraph on skilled labor: "After all, it don't so much signify what you do, as that you do it well. The value of skilled labor is estimated on a democratic basis nowadays. President Eliot of Harvard University, the cook in the Parker House restaurant, and Mary L. Booth, editor of Harper's Bazar, each receive $4000 per year."

—Boston has a citizen, known, at least by sight, to pretty much every body, who has an unfortunate way of displaying his ignorance. He is a "society" man in a small way, and loves dearly to lug in a word or two of French now and then. Being asked the other evening how his daughter, who had been ill, was getting on, he answered, "Oh, passee, passee."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a new premium more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than solemius, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Alum or the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum meal dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb. Cream of Tartar over 30.

The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetic reform, and the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should no be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but nine out three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. THE CITY.

The treasurer of the Children's Home acknowledges the receipt of five dollars from an unknown friend.

Rev. Mr. DeNormandie gives the concluding lecture in the course at Miss Morgan's school this evening; subject, "Thomas Jefferson."

Hon. Frank Jones has recently purchased a pair of bay colts at Washington, which he will send home next week with his carriage horses, by rail.

The Weekly says the "notorious Isaiah Cook, whom all the papers have credited as a native of Portsmouth, formerly lived here, but was born elsewhere, and we are glad of it."

On Monday evening one of the best and most amusing pantomimic entertainments ever presented in this city will be given at Music hall, unless the merits of Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty show are greatly exaggerated by the papers. See advertisement.

Rev. Thomas Henson (Uncle Tom) will tell the story of his life in Music hall on Sunday evening. Master William H. Lee, the boy soprano, only twelve years of age, Mrs. W. S. Ames of Boston, soprano, and Mr. Frank Gilder, pianist, will appear. A small admission fee will be charged. See advertisement.

Ensign William Winder, U. S. N., of this city, attached to the Vandalia at Boston, has been granted a leave of absence with permission to visit foreign shores. On Saturday, in company with Frank Goodwin, Esq., of Cambridge, son of Ex Gov. Goodwin of this city, he sails for a European trip. Mr. Goodwin's health has been somewhat impaired of late.

THE VICINITY.

Hon. Thomas E. Sawyer, of Dover, died Thursday morning, aged eighty-one years.

Chase's woolen mills, at York, which have been suspended for the past six months, are to start up immediately.

Simon H. Milliken, of Saco, who was for thirty-three years station agent of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad in that town, resigning about five years since, died Feb. 24th, aged fifty-eight years.

John Landers of Biddeford threatened to kill his wife, for which he was brought up before the municipal court, and sentenced to sixty days in jail, with the alternative of leaving the town. Landers chose the latter, and left town—returning next day.

The next boating season on the Saco river promises to be lively; quite a number of shells will be put on, one being already finished. The racing of punts, wherries and working boats on the Saco last summer has given a great impetus to this manly and healthful sport.

During the snowstorm and blow of Feb. 25th the schooner Fannie Reed struck on Old Prince ledge, at the entrance to Cape Porpoise harbor, Me., and was totally wrecked. On the evening of the same day the schooner Carrie E. Nunan went ashore on Goose rocks, and became a total loss. Both crews were saved. The Fannie Reed was of about twenty-two tons register, and the Carrie D. Nunan of thirty; both were owned at Cape Porpoise.

The Saco Water Power Machine Shop will immediately commence work upon a large contract that will oblige the works to run to their utmost capacity, employing their entire force of five hundred men. This is the first time they have been able to do so for the past five years, owing to the dullness of the times. This is a very encouraging indication of the general revival of business. Two hundred tons of pig iron have arrived in Saco within the past three weeks, and two hundred tons more are on the way, all purchased since Jan. 1st, to be used in work already ordered.

Rumor has it that a young man came near committing suicide Sunday evening, because his wife insisted on going to meeting, which would possibly keep him at home, for he was anxious to go himself. The young man had got a little confused as between Adventism and Universalism, which may account for his course. When he found his wife was going to church it is said he declared his purpose to commit suicide and started for the river, followed at a safe distance by his friends. When he arrived at the river bank his friends stepped up and took him home.—Biddeford Times.

The fishing schooner Rival, wrecked at Rye beach on the evening of Feb. 25th, was owned by Sylvanus Smith of Gloucester, Mass., valued at $1410, and insured $1234. The Northern Star, stranded at the same time, is owned by Joseph O. Proctor, Jr., of Gloucester, valued at $1581, and insured $1055.

John L. Platts of Dover brought suit in the supreme court against that city to recover $823 for services in superintending the construction of the Central street bridge at Dover. Mr. Platts testified for himself that he was one of Dover's board of aldermen at the time it was decided to build the bridge, and was chosen as one of the committee to receive proposals and make contracts; did so, was alderman at that time, and chosen on the building committee; at the close of his official year he was not re-elected, but remained on the building committee; the service he claimed pay for was given after the expiration of his official term, from the 1st of January till the bridge was completed. The jury decided that Mr. Platts was not employed by the city, that he did not at the time he rendered his services understand that he was to receive any pay therefor, and that the said services were worth "not anything" to the city anyway.

The Biddeford Times says that on Monday of this week the morning train from Boston over the Eastern railroad was about starting from Kennebunk, when "a train hand discovered that the great iron yoke on which all the springs of the mail-car rest, and which supports the trucks, had broken off as clean as if cut by a knife, and the long end had fallen down to within an inch or so of the ground. A great chain was procured, and jack-screws, and the car braced up, but the strain was too much for the chain, and snapped it. Another chain was procured, and, with the aid of the broken one, the car was sufficiently fixed to allow it to proceed. Had it not been for the lucky discovery, the first slight obstacle the broken yoke encountered might have caused a sad loss of life." A Tuesday morning train for Boston from the eastward met with a slight accident about one mile this side of Kennebunk depot. A spring on the rear end of a passenger car broke, tipping the car on one side, causing some excitement among the passengers, who thought the car was going over the high embankment at that place. The train was stopped and the spring removed, when the train proceeded at a moderate speed, after half an hour's delay.

THE ROCKINGHAM COURSE.

The concluding entertainment of this course, on Wednesday evening of this week, was worthy of the high expectations entertained. Mr. Tilton was listened to by an intelligent and appreciative audience. The eloquent lecturer and his hearers seemed to be fully in accord, and after the close of his lecture Mr. Tilton expressed his delight at appearing before an assemblage where the uninterrupted attention and earnest countenances shew a thorough interest in the subject under discussion.

We are glad to know that, with our excellent hall accommodations, we can have a course of winter entertainments worthy of the support of our citizens. The various representations have been all that were promised, and the liberal provision made for the entertainment of the people has, we are glad to note, been correspondingly encouraged. Such a result might have been expected when we consider how much in the way of varied attraction was offered. We are more than pleased over the success of this course, and to Capt. F. W. Hilton, who projected it and carried it through, with so much credit to himself and satisfaction to the public, we make grateful acknowledgment.

[Communicated.]

EXPLANATORY.

The Times disposes of Mr. Tracy so brusquely that persons unacquainted with the peculiar conditions surrounding Tuesday evening's concert will naturally form an incorrect estimate of that gentleman and his ability. Coming, as he did, at a merely nominal remuneration, to assist one of our charities, he is entitled to receive at the hands of a brother musician such a defence as will at least remove from his name any suspicion of incompetency. I have known Mr. Tracy thirty years, and do not, therefore, speak as of a stranger. I think I violate no confidence in repeating his statement made to me just before the concert. It was to this effect:

He has never been able to adapt himself to any public audience—that is to say, a large audience in a public hall. For the day preceding he is unable to eat or sleep, and in many instances this nervous derangement has amounted to downright illness. His delight is, however, to play for a "room-full" of friends, and he expressed a desire for such a privilege in this city at some future time.

I was well aware of Mr. Tracy's studious habits when a lad, and his subsequent success as a student in the leading German cities is an old story with his friends. He has been for nine years a teacher in the Boston Conservatory, and his classic recitals have had a large following.

I cannot speak critically of Tuesday's performance, my situation in the wings being a very bad position from which to form a judgment. I do not consider the Times' criticism as intentionally rude, but simply a record of the impression received by the writer, who, of course, was unaware of the peculiar circumstances above-mentioned.

I have yet to find the first educated and experienced musician who can approach the footlights without a feeling of trepidation, and a profound sense of his or her utter unworthiness. On the occasion referred to this sensation was shown by the whole party, with the exception of the writer hereof, whose exemption from the uncomfortable feeling may be traced to a lack of education and experience, or to the fact that his nervous sensibilities were so obtuse that the grinding out of one or two simple accompaniments was insufficient to arouse them.

Nathaniel Whitehouse of Tuftonboro' Corner, almost ninety-three years old, has this winter chopped and hauled with his team his summer supply of wood. He takes care of ten head of cattle.

In a recent speech before the reform club at Concord, Judge W. L. Foster said that two-thirds of the crimes were caused by intemperance; the business of the courts was largely made up of litigation resulting from disagreements engendered by drink. He had learned by personal experience that lager and other "mild beverages" ought to be avoided. It is a very cheering fact to see such men come forward and give the weight of their personal example and influence towards making a sober people.

Ezra W. Bartlett, a wealthy citizen of Manchester, aged sixty-six years, died instantly on the evening of Feb. 25th, while taking part in a Methodist prayer meeting, his death being caused by the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain. He leaves a widow, son and daughter.

Conundrum: How could it have happened?"

—A tramp called at the house of a Salem (Mass.) clergyman last week and asked for money, at the same time presenting a paper representing that the bearer was "a poor widow woman with four small children, and no other resource but charity," etc., etc. The good pastor inquired of the fellow if he was a widow. The reply was: "Is that what it says? He writ it wrong again!" and walked off.

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

Lively Stock Operations.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall Street, and many successful turns are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skillful management, thus securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at end of 30 days. J. Jones, of Boston, made $747.30 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this Combination or Co-opera tive Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent on the stock; $100 would return $900, or 9 per cent during the month, and so on, according to the market. The new circular contains "two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. city.

GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ringworm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of clean, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the general economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Are you not paying for the properties of these Pellets? They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, blind, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, flashes in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried higher up and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SARTRI, DOOLITTLE & SARTRI, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POTTER & PLUMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is the best remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity and on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of female disease peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most speedy and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this astonishing specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. A last, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, should it not be the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the reasonable expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are some of those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion, or Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its virtue in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists and patients is unanimous in this respect, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel that the position the RADICAL CURE has attained and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to send you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc.,

THEO. P. BOGERT.

LABOR AND REST.

Without labor there's no rest,
Nor pleasure without pain;
Life is truest, life is best
That strives for what we gain.

Day is battle, night is peace;
Sunshine follows showers;
We rest from labor, but our lease
Is given for toiling hours.

Give us then a little leisure,
Bid our tasks suspend awhile,—
Not too much, for sweetest pleasure
Will not long our souls beguile.

The Poplar as a Lightning Conductor.

A fresh proof that the upper part of trees, especially of poplars, is an excellent conductor of electricity (which only rends or shatters the wood when it finds a passage in the trunk) is afforded by Nature in an account of the effects of lightning on an aspen (Populus tremula), situate in the wood near the chateau of Crans, on the shore of the lake of Geneva. The lightning chooses by preference the poplar as a conductor to reach the ground, and case under consideration is a striking one, as the tree was surrounded by other kinds, particularly firs, taller than it. Two great branches, of eighteen and twenty inches in diameter, which surmount it, were struck by lightning, and led it to the ground without having received the least apparent injury, while the trunk below them was absolutely shattered. Other recent observations prove the preference of lightning for trees situated near the streams or reservoirs of water, so that the best conductor for a house is a lofty tree, a poplar especially, situated between the house and a well, a pond or a neighboring stream.—The Farm.

—An appreciative and industrious critic assures us that a solo was "so soft and sweet that it seemed a linking of time to eternity, and whose links were forged on the silver anvils of concord with hammers of gold."

—"They tell me Leadville is pretty high up," remarked a Denverite to a visitor from the carbonate field. "High up!" ejaculated the other; "well, I should say. The air is so thin that you've got to fan it to a corner to get a square breath. Why, I live sorter in a valley, but many a time I went home at night I had to push a cloud from the front door to get in."

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This stirring cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of all useless matter thrown off by the system, which is therefore purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1879.

An Important Discovery.

The Trinity House of London—the lighthouse board of the United Kingdom—have found their recent experiments with a new gas for the purpose of lighting buoys, which are now useless after dark, so successful that they are having a number of buoys constructed after the new plan. The peculiarity of the new gas is that a buoy full of it in a compressed state will keep a light burning for some months without need of replenishing. A lantern has been constructed in which the light is protected from spray at whatever angle it is placed. One of the lanterns, arranged on a buoy, was exposed off Trinity House wharf to the action of water from a fire engine, and it was found impossible to extinguish the light. The value of this discovery or invention to commerce can hardly be over-estimated, for it will enable sunken rocks in exposed situations where they could not hitherto be lighted, to be turned from perils into actual aids to navigation.

News and Notes.

The Boston & Albany railroad, which has the shabbiest passenger station of any railroad in Boston, wishes to use the station of the Boston & Providence, which is the station par excellence of the country. A bad crossing at grade would be avoided, but the Providence directors do not incline to the project. Boston has too many passenger stations. They should be consolidated. Next to New York there is more inconvenience in getting from one station to another by the traveller through Boston than in any other place in the country. There is but little regard paid to the accommodation of through travel by the Boston roads, many of whose hours for the departure of trains seem to be arranged as if every one should be governed by the notions of the hub, instead of the convenience of those living at the rims.

At Lynn, Mass., Thursday afternoon, some laborers found a trunk in the river, and on opening it discovered the mutilated remains of a young woman. An autopsy showed that her death was caused by an abortion. The body, which was not identified, was evidently that of a person unused to hard work. The nose had been cut off to prevent identification.

The Trinity college "rebellion" is ended. The students have surrendered. They have adopted a resolution in which they acknowledge their disobedience. The faculty, in turn, have declared their satisfaction with this acknowledgment, and pronounce the offence condoned. The boys that were dismissed have been reinstated, and peace prevails.

An altercation occurred in the Senate lobby Wednesday night between Donn Piatt and William McGarrahan, which, though of short duration, resulted in Piatt's being badly pummelled about the head and face. The altercation grew out of personal allusions to McGarrahan, published editorially in the Sunday Capital.

The Tribune gives some figures from which it appears that the total of Chinese arriving in the six months ending with last December was 1,965, while the number leaving the country for home was 4,646; in fact that more than double as many Chinese are leaving as are coming.

On Thursday forenoon, at North Andover, Mass., George Rextraw, in a drunken frenzy, struck his daughter, Mrs. Smith, with a poker, knocking her senseless. Immediately after he delivered the blow he fell to the floor a corpse. The daughter was insensible for many hours but it is thought she will recover.

The trial of Myron Buel, at Cooperstown, N. Y., for the ravishment and murder of Catharine Mary Richards, at Plainfield, June 26th, 1878, closed on Thursday. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. They were unanimous on the first ballot. The girl was only fourteen years of age, and Buel, who worked for her father, was an unsuccessful suitor for her hand.

Mr. Andrew Whiting of North Brookfield, Mass., died recently while sitting in his chair. His sister Louise, while other members of the family were attending the burial, also died suddenly in her chair. Their father and mother both died suddenly some years since.

The manufacturing property of the Atlantic Delaine Company in Providence was sold at auction Thursday for $300,000. Providence parties were the purchasers. The property cost over $2,000,000.

Advices from Samoa state that Gen. Bartlett was informed Jan. 23d that with regard to fixing his status with the government nothing would be done definitely until after the treaty with Germany was concluded, which was then being negotiated with the German consul. There were two German men-of-war in port, the Ariadne and Albatross. Another (the Bismarck) was expected within a month. If the treaty fails, Capt. Von Werner will most likely proclaim war against Samoa. He will have at his disposal three men-of-war and 600 men. Meantime American interests are in jeopardy. There is no man-of-war belonging to our nation within a thousand miles.

About five acres of land over the Pennsylvania Coal Company's No. 7 shaft at Pittston, Pa., caved in on Thursday. The company suffers serious loss, as it is said the coal under the fall will never be gotten out owing to the treacherous condition of the roof. A large brick school-house near the scene was totally wrecked. There was no loss of life.

Ship Adriatic was wrecked near Dunkirk on the 16th ult., and forty-two persons were drowned.

Prince Krapatskine, Governor of Cheskoff, Russia, was shot shot by an unknown assassin while returning home from a ball on the night of the 21st ult., and died of his wounds.

Charles W. Angell, the defaulter, pleaded guilty on Thursday in the criminal court at Chicago, and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

The price of iron in Philadelphia has advanced fifty cents a ton within a week. A number of Pennsylvania mills have orders for railroad iron, sheet and bar iron, and heavy machinery, for several months ahead. When the iron interest prospers all trades start up.

John Miller, of Memphis, Tenn., was assassinated at his country house near Stanton on Wednesday, by some person who fired a shotgun at him from the woods when he appeared at his door.

The American and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, composed of colored men, have sent a communication to President Hayes relative to the Chinese bill, saying they recognized in said bill the same spirit which for so many years oppressed 4,000,000 people in this country.

At Hannibal, Mo., a much-talked-of duel between E. C. Bennett, editor of the Courier, and Joseph Howard, editor of the Tipper-Herald, terminated ignominiously. The parties and seconds met Wednesday afternoon, one mile from the town, in a secluded spot. Howard's party being called on to name weapons unrolled an old mat containing base ball bats, saying, "Here are the weapons; take your choice." The Bennett party left in disgust, saying the weapons were not recognized by the code. That night the two parties met, and after a few remarks had a knock-down and were arrested.

The sloop Kailpye, Capt. Bruce, from Cold Spring harbor, Feb. 19th, with oysters for Norwalk, was caught in an ice-floe the same night ten miles from Norwalk island, was carried into the sound, and floated about helpless until Saturday night, Feb. 22d, when a steam tug succeeded in reaching her off Stratford shoal. Capt. Bruce and Richard Ghenung, who accompanied him, had only frozen oysters to eat for three days. Both had their hands and feet badly frozen.

The champion boat race for the belt and a gold medal between Tricket and Laycock at Australia was won by the latter. The former subsequently challenged Laycock to another contest for £200.

An English writer on finance naively records his opinion that "bankruptcy should be made more disagreeable for the bankrupt than it is." Perhaps if it were made as "disagreeable" for the bankrupt as it now is for his creditors, there would be fewer bankrupts.

New Hampshire Items.

Herbert T. Connor of Manchester has accepted the challenge of George Ripley of Boston to walk fifty miles in some hall in Manchester for $250 and the proceeds, and has deposited $100 with Col. John B. Clarke, editor of the Mirror.

The published report that Gov. Prescott has decided not to commute the sentence of Pinkham, the New Durham murderer, the date of whose execution is March 14th, is not true. The governor authorizes the statement that he has not yet come to a conclusion in the case.

Political.

Hon. Frank Jones has presented in the House of Representatives the petition of Grange No. 37 of this State for the passage of the Reagan inter-State commerce bill.

Senator Hamlin checkmated Mr. Hayes on the Bangor collectorship on Thursday. Hannibal always knew what good generalship could effect.

Speaker Randall has been whitewashed, as the democrats call it, by the republican representatives.

The Nashua Gazette wants the federal election laws repealed, because under their operation "nineteen democrats have been sentenced in Baltimore by Judge Bond to terms of imprisonment of from one to six months," and the Washington Post is determined that they shall be repealed, because, as it frankly says, "if they are not, several democrats who have been declared elected members of the next House, will be in the State prison before Congress meets."

The great Prophet of Fun, the Chesterfield of Pantomimic Clowns, with a National Reputation co-extensive with that of the late lamented G. L. FOX, and a European reputation attained by no other Clown.

The Scenic Tricks painted expressly by those eminent artists, Matt Morgan and Wm. Voeltin. The Surprising and Intricate Transformations by the Master Machinist, Harry Carter. The Mechanical Bourre and Extensive Pantomime Properties by R. J. Cutler, J. O. Williams and Dan. McCarthy. The Elegant and Expensive Wardrobe by Mons. W. Lauraya, Paris, and M'me Cohm, Chicago.

A CARD.—TONY DENIER confidently calls special attention to the aggregation of Pantomimic and Specialty Stars, selected by him for his present tour, as being in every respect decidedly superior to any similar organization ever placed before the American public. The names alone of the 27 actual members of the troupe are sufficient to establish the fact without puffery or gush accompanying the simple list. Mr. Denier cannot afford to jeopardize his hard-earned and enviable reputation with the American public, by giving an inferior entertainment, and when he asserts that this is the BEST COMPANY he ever controlled, he is willing to stake his professional reputation on the truth of the assertion. Come and see for yourself.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics, formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from this it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

See the notice in another column of situations a copyist or bookkeeper wanted, by a young lady.

The schooner Mary S. Hontvet arrived on Wednesday night from Georges with 32,000 lbs. of fish, and sailed Thursday on another trip.

Portsmouth Grange will hold a special meeting Wednesday evening, March 5th, and celebrate their anniversary Thursday evening, March 6th.

The Journal says that Gilmore's band, with the celebrated soprano, Miss Isabel Stowe, and Levy the great cornetist, will probably appear in this city soon in concert.

Two young fellows were taken out of the meeting at the Methodist church on Thursday evening by the police, for disturbing the services, but were let off on their promise of good behavior.

Congressman Jones is one of the commissioners upon the proposed ventilation of the Hall of the House of Representatives at Washington. New Hampshire furnishes a new Hall of the House, after the fourth of March.

It is reported that a gentleman connected with a firm which does an extensive business in fish, is endeavoring to have a lighthouse erected on one of the lower wharves for the benefit of amateur pilots who attempt to bring vessels up the river in heavy weather by night.

A dealer in fruit informs us that a barrel will contain about 330 average apples or potatoes. At this rate the schooner Clara E. Simpson, which sailed on Friday, took out something like a million and a half apples and potatoes, having on board 4000 barrels of the former and 500 barrels of the latter.

The steamer James Sampson is now making two trips daily between Kittery and this city, and will continue to do so until March 16th. She more than pays her way now, we are informed, and will undoubtedly do much better by-and-bye. Hope she will, for her running is a convenience to many persons.

Messrs. Henry A. Yeaton and Charles H. Hayes on Saturday finished loading the schooner William A. Morrill, Capt. Kelley, with 1100 bbls. of apples for Baltimore; and at noon the same parties commenced loading the schooner Jamestown, Capt. Terhune, with 2200 barrels of apples, also for Baltimore.

Capt. Frank P. Coleman of Newington, who commanded the schooner Hattie Lewis last season, has taken charge of the schooner Emily A. Staples, which has wintered at Boston. The Emily A. Staples leaves immediately for Philadelphia, to bring a cargo of pressed brick to this port for Hon. Frank Jones' new building on the National house site.

Tony Denier and his Humpty Dumpty troupe will appear at Music hall next Monday evening, introducing for the first time in this city the famous facial artist Grimaldi (Mr. Geo. H. Adams) who is said to be without exception the greatest trick clown in America. He is young, active, quick in all his movements, and a good gymnast, with a face capable of much expression. This is one of the best chances of the season to enjoy a good laugh.

Lieut. Comdr. Chas. F. Blake, U. S. N., whose death occurred last month, was a native of Massachusetts, and entered the naval service in 1859. He was commissioned as lieut. commander in July, 1866, and finished his last sea service in 1869. Subsequently, by reason of ill-health, he was placed on the retired list under the act of 1861, and had of late resided at the west. He married the daughter of Alexander H. Ladd of this city, and was a gentleman highly esteemed by his friends in the service as well as in social life.

The Philadelphia Press says: "Mr. Gilder's brilliant piano-forte solos produced the usual enthusiasm, and each was re-demanded. This accomplished performer becomes more and more a favorite with concert audiences. Master William H. Lee is undoubtedly the most distinguished and accomplished boy-soprano at present known in this country. The purity and power of his voice, together with his remarkable facility of execution, (embracing a correct and brilliant trill,) stamps him as a musical wonder of the first rank." Master Lee and Mr. Gilder are both to appear at the "Uncle Tom" entertainment in Music hall on Sunday evening; Mrs. W. S. Ames of Boston will also appear.

THE VICINITY.

Seventy-eight business firms in Biddeford have petitioned Superintendent Furbur to restore the early morning train to Boston on the Boston & Maine road.

The Kennebunk Star of last Friday says the new barque Furness Abbey, Capt. Libby, was to leave Kennebunkport at once for New York, as she must report there by March 6th.

Winnicut Lodge, No. 92, A. F. & A. M., of Greenland, celebrated its anniversary on Thursday evening by a supper and speeches. Rev. Mr. Ruland presided, ably assisted by Dr. Wm. O. Junkins and W. M. Edgar S. Taft.

Boatswain Francis Butland, U. S. N., of Kennebunk, who received orders on the 22d ult. to report to Rear Adm. Rodgers at Callao, Peru, and left for that port on the 25th, had only been at home two weeks from a three years cruise.

Hon. Thomas E. Sawyer of Dover, who died in that city on Thursday, was one of its most prominent citizens; he was the second mayor of Dover, a while candidate for governor, a representative for eleven years, for a long time chairman of the school committee, and, held other offices under the United States and State governments.

The Exeter Gazette says: "The other afternoon a canary bird escaped from a house in town and flew out-of-doors. That night was the coldest we have yet had this winter, but in the morning birdie was seen sitting in a tree singing as merrily as he could, considering the state of the weather. It was soon captured and placed in warmer quarters."

The schooner Fanny Reed, of Cape Porpoise, before reported as totally wrecked on Old Prince ledge at the entrance to Cape Porpoise harbor during the snowstorm of the 25th ult., was gotten off the ledge by the crew on the morning of the 26th, and towed alongside a wharf, full of water; she has lost her rudder, and it is estimated that it will cost $300 to repair her.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, on Thursday evening:

The report of receipts and expenditures for the year 1878, as prepared by the city clerk, was accepted.

The vote passed at the last meeting, authorizing a committee to advertise for proposals for building a bridge and tide-gates at the outlet of the south millpond, in accordance with plans submitted by Ald. Norton, was reconsidered.

A new set of plans for the same work was introduced by Alderman Hadley, and referred to the committee on streets, roads and bridges, to have specifications prepared for estimates for building.

The application of J. D. Goodrich to collect the vital statistics was accepted.

The report of the committee appointed to confer with Mr. B. F. Webster in regard to the award for land taken in laying out the road around the south millpond, recommending that the sum of three hundred dollars be paid, was accepted and adopted.

SUPREME COURT.

Foster, J.

In case Michael Benson of Malden, Mass., against Amos Tilton of East Kingston, action on a mortgage of real estate situated in East Kingston, given by defendant for one-half interest in an ice business located at Malden, Mass., the jury gave a verdict for the defendant. Stickney and Hatch for plaintiff; Marston and Eastman for defendant.

Charles W. Martin of Haverhill, Mass., vs. Levi G. Towle of Exeter; action brought to recover damages for injuries received at Hampton beach by the overturning of the barge "Flying Trapeze" in the summer of 1876. At a previous trial of this case the jury did not agree. Bartlett of Haverhill and Wiggin of Exeter for plaintiff; Marston and Leavitt for defendant.

Ames Jerome Burbeck, of Newton, was divorced from Lizzie J. Burbeck.

The court will take up no more jury cases after this week, but will come in to close up the docket.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

The closing lecture in the course at Miss Morgan's school was given on Friday evening by Rev. James DeNormandie, who took as his subject "Thomas Jefferson and American republicanism," treating it with the thoroughness of research and careful thought he bestows on every subject he takes up, and delivering a scholarly lecture to a deeply interested audience, many of whom no doubt learned more of the early political history of our country from this lecture than they had learned in all their lives before. He commenced by saying that "All-healing time enables us to look calmly and with discrimination upon persons and views which have filled the former days with bitter strife and blind prejudice." We give a brief abstract of Mr. DeNormandie's lecture, though no abstract can do even scanty justice to it:

The contrast which existed a century ago between society in Virginia and in New England was sketched by the lecturer, the plantation settlements situated at long distances from each other, the mansion of the planter and the hut-cabin of the slave, the traditional respect for aristocracy brought across the ocean by the Virginian settlers, who naturally expected to establish an aristocracy in the new world— which aristocracy they were to be—the pomp with which they visited and received each other, being briefly referred to. The religion was the established church of England; now and then there was a clergyman who honored his vocation, but they generally fell into the idle and dissipated habits of the planters, and became mere "hangers-on" of the wealthiest houses. The parson was often president, of the jockey club and weighed the riders and trained the horses for the race; was noted for his skill in cards; and at the end of dinner, or following a race or a christening, could equal any one in the midnight debauch; yet parishes were afraid to dismiss such leaders, lest they should be compelled to go without divine services altogether. Matters grew so bad that the Bishop of London was appealed to, to know at what point intoxication became a scandal in a minister, and the reply came from a solemn conclave that if a clergyman sat an hour or more with a company drinking strong drink, and took the cup every time it passed, or took off his clothing to fight anybody, or was seen reeling, vomiting or talking vociferously, it was conduct unbecoming a minister! Such were the Episcopal clergy of Virginia, at the time the Puritan clergy of New England were among the most scholarly pure men who since apostolic days have entered the church. The planters of Virginia, though well-dressed, lavish in their hospitality, and haughty in the extreme, were neither educated nor refined, nor were they gentlemen. It was in the midst of such society as this that Jefferson was born.

The different institutions in which young Jefferson studied, and his instructors, were briefly mentioned by the lecturer, who ascribed Jefferson's escape from the vices of the government officials and from the idle and luxurious habits of the planters to his early-acquired habits of studious industry; his vigorous health was maintained by horseback riding and hunting, and his only amusement was the violin. His success as a lawyer, and his courtship and marriage, were glanced at; and then was reached his glorious record as a patriot.

While there was a strong desire for the release of the colonies from the arbitrary impositions of England, during the earlier period of their resistance, no one wanted to cast off her rule. Jefferson expressed the most cordial love for a union with Great Britain, but declared that rather than submit to the oppression of Parliament he would cease to exist. But resistance to arbitrary rule soon ripened into a determination to break away from the mother country. Jefferson took his seat in Congress in 1775, and was chairman of the committee to draft a declaration of independence. His services during the revolution as governor of Virginia, and then as minister to France, were briefly mentioned; and then the difficulties and perils of the reconstruction period, from Washington's accession to the Presidency to Jefferson's leaving it at the end of his second term, were vividly portrayed.

The nation was divided into two great parties: the federal party, whose distinguishing feature was not a federation of States, included most of the officers and soldiers of the revolution, all those whose ideal was the English government, most of the mercantile community, holders of and speculators in government stocks, and the personal admirers of Washington; and the republican party, which held more to the rights of each State than to the power of the whole, included all who were jealous of encroachments of the general government on the States, those who hated England, the enthusiastic supporters of civil and religious liberty, and Jefferson's personal friends. The contest between these parties was carried on with a heat compared to which party spirit during the late war was frigid and decorous, and the terms in which partisans of either side alluded to the other were worthy the fishwives of Billingsgate. The federalists elected Washington for two terms, and John Adams for one, the latter being defeated by Jefferson, the republican candidate, on his second trial for the presidential chair. Referring to the increase in the number of federal judges at the last moment by the Adams administration, the speaker said "it belongs to John Adams to have set the first and meanest example of party machination, and bitterly has the country rued the inauguration of so unprincipled and desperate a measure."

When Jefferson assumed office he found all the subordinate positions filled by bitter opponents of republicanism, and an immense pressure was brought to bear by his party to induce him to remove them; he did remove those appointed by Adams after the result of the election was known; all guilty of misconduct, and all who had interfered with the election, probably fifty in all; but there was nothing like the shovelling out of office and scrambling into it which characterizes a modern change of administration. He refused to appoint a distant kinsman to office—in this also differing from some later Presidents.

The leanings of a large and influential class toward measures which should foster an hereditary aristocracy and secure a "strong government," during Jefferson's time, and his sturdy and efficient opposition to them; his studied disregard for all ceremonies which savored of anything regal or aristocratic, while neglecting nothing demanded by the highest refinement, and making no concessions to coarseness and vulgarity, or the assumptions of equality without the conditions of equality; his universal politeness; his early recognition that slavery was a giant wrong and could not always exist, and his endeavors to curtail the institution, while himself a slaveholder; his ideas regarding paper money and free trade; his great fund of general information; his devotion to the widest civil and religious liberty, and his vast services in securing them to the people; his reconciliation with John Adams, and his death and Adams' on the same day, July 4th, 1826, the fiftieth anniversary of the nation's birth—were all referred to at greater or less length, the lecturer closing with the statement that just what Jefferson's life stood for was "civil liberty, religious freedom, and education as the basis of both."

The lecture was listened to with earnest attention by a fine audience, which seemed to appreciate the happy efforts of the lecturer in his interesting sketch of this great American statesman.

Mr. Waite will preach at the Advent church at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow, at the North church at three o'clock, and at the Methodist at 7:30.

THE CONCORD FIGHT.

The lawyers rub their hands in pleasant anticipation of liberal fees in the court in the case of Colonel John H. Pearson against the railroad companies of the Merrimack valley, while the long-unemployed lobby hopes for a protracted legislative tussle, which shall leave on the field of battle a goodly share of spoils. Singularly enough, two of Mr. Pearson's counsel are to be prominent members of the next House of Representatives, when doubtless the proposition to set a limit to the number of railroad corporations of diverse interests which one man may manage will come before the General Court, and when, as the father of the newly-born infant whose cries aroused him in the night put it, there will be "music in the heir."

Lively Stock Operations.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall Street, and many successful turns are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skillful management, thus securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at end of 30 days. J. Jones, of Boston, made $747.30 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this Combination or Co-opera tive Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent on the stock; $100 would return $900, or 9 per cent during the month, and so on, according to the market. The new circular contains "two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. city.

Charming Birds.

We learn from a correspondent that there resides in the vicinity of Harrisburg, an out-of-the-way place, in Hancock county, about three miles west of Mount Blanchard, a very remarkable child only five years old, who seems to have the power to charm birds at will. Her mother first noticed this strange fascination that the child possesses about a year ago. The little girl was out playing in the door-yard among a bevy of snow-birds, and when she would speak to them they would come and light upon her, twittering with the utmost glee. On taking them in her hands and stroking them, the birds, instead of trying to get away from their fair captor seemed to be highly pleased, and when let loose would fly away a short distance, and immediately return to the child again. She took several of them into the house to show her mother, who, thinking that she might hurt them, took the birds and put them out doors, but no sooner was the door opened than the birds flew into the room and lit upon the girl's head and began to chirp. The birds remained about the place all winter, flying to the little girl whenever the door was opened. The parents of this remarkable child became alarmed, believing that this strange power was an ill omen, and that she must dreaded visitor, death, was about to visit their home. But death did not come, and during last summer the child has had numerous pets from the birds. The child handles the birds so gently that a humming-bird once in hand, does not fail to return. This winter a bevy of birds have kept her company, and she plays with them for hours at the time. Every morning the birds fly to her window and leave only when the sun sinks in the west.

There is nothing peculiar about the child's personal appearance except her wonderful magnetic eyes, which sparkle like diamonds. The parents of this little girl are poor, superstitous people, and have been reticent about the matter until lately, fearing that some great calamity was about to befall them.—Forest (Ohio) Review.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ring Worm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, and Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to the Head, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are compressed and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, offensive breath, scabs in nares, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The mild remedy may be snuffed, or blown applied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and THOROUGHLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, and directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from a simple Scrofula to a confirmed Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Loaded Skin, in short, all diseases caused by foul blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ecze Rash, Boils, Tumors, Swellings, Scrofulous Sores and Scrofulous, White Swellings, Fever-sores, Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness," in much cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced, but as a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it is the best medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it also cures the disease that produces the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chalk, cruds, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Sunsdice, Sick-headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the virtues of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these Pellets are by druggists, the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, heat, pain, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, itching in nostrils, sneezing, snuffing and hawking to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, altered voice, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, deafness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any one at a time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The worst cases usually may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried forward into the remotest recesses to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

CAPE ANN, Feb. 23, 1878.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my friends were convinced and so much influenced that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a decided case of Bronchitis. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by Consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, after using the bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The scorcs across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease which had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I saw such a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and I hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted in most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months suffered with a bonny lame shoulder, also by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury, I obtained one of your Collins' Voltaic Plasters and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cure, without the least benefit, as I had previously recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, which, to my great surprise, relieved my lame shoulder, and I have been able to do a good deal of work, without the least pain or inconvenience, whereas before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them invaluable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours, respectfully, FRANCIS HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 27, 1877.

These are medical or protective appliances that are found to gradual and effective in relieving Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of providing serious relief in these organs.

HONOR.

Losses on losses, fast they came;
Men said: "There's left him but his name;
But that is free from blot or blame."

Despairing, bowed with care and dread,
As if he heard, he raised his head,

SUSPICION.

The Romance of a Life.

How Miss Genevieve Ward met Her Husband—Dastardly Conduct of the Russian Count—The Chivalrous Czar—Death of the Poltroon Husband.

The following interesting incident in the career of Miss Genevieve Ward, the tragedienne, who appears in Music hall with Jarrett & Palmer's Booth's Theatre Company in Jane Shore, the Outcast, on Saturday evening, the 8th, is one from real life, and is related by the Toronto Globe:

A few years ago, it appears, Miss Ward, then a reigning belle in New York city, met at an evening party a young Russian Count, who was smitten by the charms of the accomplished girl, and, with the impetuosity of youth, that very night asked from her parents the previlege of paying her court. The Count was very popular in metropolitan Society, and Miss Ward felt flattered by his preference, while her lady friends envied her rare good fortune in securing so desirable a suitor. Her parents were wealthy, and the family had long been an influential one, the maternal grandfather of the fair Genevieve, a retired merchant, Gideon Lee, having occupied the position of chief magistrate of the great city.

By many the nobleman was congratulated upon having won the hand of the original and prettiest lass in town, and it was generally agreed that the alliance gave the advantage to neither party. Day after day following the first meeting of the twain, the nobleman was a regular visitor to the house of Col. Ward, and after the lapse of a reasonable period he came away flushed with success—he had won his heart's idol, and the time of their union was fixed upon. The wedding was a notable affair, being witnessed by the wealth, fashion and culture of Gotham's metropolis, and long after the event it was the current topic of conversation in the higher circles of society.

A year lapsed. The ardent lover was transformed into a prosaic husband—respectful, but cold and indifferent. Another year, and the gay young bride was a deserted and humiliated woman.

Her pride, however, soon asserted itself, and she determined to leave the cause of her early treatment. With the pluck characteristic of her nationality she buckled on her armor and went forth to battle for her honor and her rights, and to punish the cause of her misery. She learned that her unfaithful husband had gone to Europe, and was probably at St. Petersburg. Armed with letters of introduction to Governor Seymour, the American Minister to Russia, she accompanied by her father set sail across the Atlantic, and in the course of time arrived at the city where her fugitive husband was frolicking in fancied security. She at once proceeded to the house of the American Embassy, presented her letters, and an early day was decided upon for the coveted audience with the Czar. When the Emperor heard the story of her wrongs, his indignation knew no bounds. He bade the lady be of good cheer, and said he would right her if she would be patient, and set the same day of the following week for her to again visit the palace.

To the very moment the lady presented herself, and what was her astonishment to behold there also the object of her revenge! There sat the husband, and soon the monarch entered the chamber, and, in the kindest tones, asked the wife to repeat her tale. She did so, and then, turning to the Count, the Czar demanded to know what excuse he had for his behavior. The fellow acknowledged the truth of the relation made by Miss Ward, and excused himself on the flimsy ground that they were married by other than a Greek priest.

"Ah! indeed," exclaimed the Emperor, "I can soon remedy that;" and he ordered an attendant to call in his father confessor.

"Now, sir," demanded the monarch, addressing the astonished Count, "stand up! And you, Madame, (turning to Miss Ward,) be pleased also to rise, and join hands with this man."

The couple once more stood together as the principals in a marriage ceremony, this time performed by a Greek priest, that no cavil on the part of the Count might obtain. At its conclusion the Emperor congratulated the wife upon her victory, and she departed on the arm of her father, her honor redeemed and her heart lighted up by the lifting of a burden that made her life almost too wearisome to bear.

It is not known what transpired in the chamber after Miss Ward's departure, but it is more than probable the count did not relish his conversation with the Czar; for though a degree of mystery enshrouded the future movements of the poltroon, he seems to have become involved in political intrigues, for which he earned banishment to Siberia. Thence have come at intervals reports of his death, differing widely in the accounts which they gave of his exit. Indeed, so varied have been the circumstances said to be attendant upon his death, that each reader may, for herself or himself, conjure up a death-bed scene that harmonizes with justice, poetical or practical as may be preferred.

With such a bitter experience it is not to be wondered at that Miss Ward has not again ventured to sail upon the matrimonial sea, but has found express-ion for her goodness of heart, which all who know her, or who have come in contact with her, feel, in being a solace to the declining years of a father who bears without abuse the grand old name of gentleman.

Portsmouth Chronicle

MONDAY, MARCH 3, 1879.

A Candle Lecture from the Democratic Organ.

The new editor of the People and Patriot gently cracks his whip over Frank Jones. The organ of the democracy does not like to see any of the leaders travel outside the harness. The paper says:

Congressman Morse of Massachusetts, although elected as a democrat, is not always reliable. He has an aggravating way of voting with the republicans at times, which is far from satisfactory to his party friends. A democrat acceptable to republicans is not the kind of democrat to put in office.

The editor ought to know that sometimes such men put themselves into office. With a candidate of the usual Boston democratic stamp in the Morse district, there would to-day have been a republican incumbent. Mr. Morse, as also Mr. Jones, has always been found upon political questions in full accord with the democratic party. There have been questions of non-political importance, relating solely to the business welfare of the country, where the greater number of the democratic Representatives, whether by caucus behests or from a natural instinct or ignorance of its bearing, have been, as the sequel proved, on the wrong side of the question—being caught fool, just as some of the leaders of the party in the late campaign were by the greenback craze—whence they quickly emerged after the sober second thought.

The fact is that the democratic party of New Hampshire has become tired of its Burkes and Binghams, who lead only to defeat, and looks to such men as Jones and Salloway for future guidance to success. The rank and file see that men endowed with practical common sense can achieve in a political contest far greater results than follow the counsels of ponderous politicians who oppose everything, however practical in legislation, because it, perchance, contains a new idea or a fresh proposition required by the progress of events, while they themselves have not sufficiently advanced to appreciate it.

The republicans are magnanimous enough while opposing a democrat at the polls to acknowledge his ability and discretion in the halls of legislation, and if democrats are to be rapped over the knuckles by the State organ for thus being "acceptable to the republicans," the democracy in New Hampshire will be kept so conveniently small in the future that the republicans will not again be likely to have an opportunity either to criticise or commend a democratic Representative in Congress from the Granite State.

A Disgrace Averted.

President Hayes on Saturday vetoed the disgraceful anti-Chinese bill, and the veto was sustained by the House.

News and Notes.

The house of J. M. Lunsford at Nelsonville, Ohio, was burned Friday. Mr. Lunsford and six of his children, who were asleep, were smothered or burned to death. Only his wife and one child escaped. At Monticello, Iowa, on the same day, the house of J. P. Conlson was burned, and three children, left alone by their mother while she visited a neighbor's, were burned to death.

The "Chinatown" quarter of Virginia City, Nevada, was in commotion Thursday over an abducted China woman. Officers who went to rescue her were fired on by the Chinese with shot guns. They returned the fire with revolvers, and dispersed the Chinese. The woman who was taken by the police was married Friday afternoon. The couple asked to be allowed to spend the honeymoon in the county jail, as they fear being killed. Considerable excitement prevailed. The Chinese again attacked in the evening the officers who went after the woman's clothes.

Myron A. Buell, convicted at Cooperstown, N. Y., last week, of the outrage and murder of Catharine M. Richards, was sentenced to be hanged on Friday, April 18th.

Dr. Joseph C. Yale of Franklin, Mass., has been bound over in $10,000 for inducing a younger brother to burn his father's store. The fire was soon extinguished, but the young brother confesses that Joseph planned it, but got safely home before it was done. The object was to get their father to build a handsomer store.

Ella A. Mills, a young woman of Johnson, Vt., twenty-nine years of age, has saved $2100 by working thirteen years in a Manchester (N. H.) mill, and the other day she lifted a $1300 mortage on her father's farm and gave him a life lease of the property.

In the recent convention of fish cultivators in New York, a Mr. Gill of Washington was appropriately placed upon the executive committee.

A singular case is that of Michael Donovan of Danbury, Conn. His wife made the charge that he had outraged his ten-years-old step-daughter, and he was bound over to the Superior Court for trial. Now the wife states that there was no foundation for the charge, and she trumped it up in order to have him arrested and made to stop drinking, and the case has been withdrawn.

The Brazilian subsidy amendment of the post-office bill was defeated in the House of Representatives by a vote of 159 to 89. Messrs. Briggs and Jones voted against the subsidy; Mr. Blair voted for it. There's so much saved—at the spigot.

New Hampshire Items.

Eben Leathers, of Barrington, recently had his name changed to Rutherford B. Hayes, by the probate judge of Strafford county.

The United States Senate passed the bill to grant a pension to Abigail S. Tilton, widow of Benj. Stevens, late of Gilmanton, who was a soldier in Capt. McConnell's company in Gen. Stark's brigade in the war of the Revolution. The widow remarried, but subsequently became again a widow. Senators Wadleigh and Rollins had hard work to get the bill up in the haste of business in the late hours of the session.

In 1870 there were 67,046 dwellings in the State, and 72,144 families. The census of 1880 will probably show quite a large increase.

The total value of cotton goods manufactured in this State in 1878 was $30,588,500, of woolen goods $9,222,000 and of boots and shoes $11,706,000, and of lumber $6,174,900. The grand total of all manufactures was over $96,000,000.

Mrs. Joseph Allen, of Peterboro, was seriously injured last week while coasting. She was capsized, and before she could regain her feet another sled struck her in the side and legs, resulting in serious bodily injuries.

Naval Affairs.

The British Army and Navy Gazette, speaking of the U. S. S. Constitution, says that at the time of her stranding she "strange to say, did not even appear to have her lead going, and thus got into shoal water when she thought she was in mid-channel."

The unexecuted sentence of Pay Inspector J. N. Carpenter, as mitigated by the President August 29th, 1876, has been remitted.

Capt. Clark H. Wells has been appointed president, and Comdr. R. D. Evans and Lieut. Comdr. H. C. Taylor members, of a board to examine and report upon a system of signals proposed by Commo. J. C. Beaumont.

The Secretary of the Navy has invited proposals for raising the wreck of the U. S. S. Huron, to be received until March 20th.

Norfolk, Va., advices of Feb. 27th contain the following: The Marion is to be placed in the dry dock and thoroughly overhauled and repaired. She is not now expected before the 12th of March. The training ship Portsmouth will sail for Washington on the 10th of March.

—Cheer up, everybody. We only want to raise $177,396 and the Old South is saved! The ball netted about $1200, so about 140 more of 'em will set the old ranch free! Grand right and left!—Boston Post.

—The owner of a steam saw mill in Nevada was until lately a member of the Methodist church, from which he was expelled, as he says, to gratify the personal spite of the pastor. He resolved to hold religious services of his own, and, to make them effective, he obtained a powerful calliope, and attached it to the steam boiler of the mill. On Sundays the voice of the Methodist preacher is drowned by the sound of the calliope as it screeches "The Sweet By-and-By," and other Moody and Sankey tunes. The clergyman has applied to a justice court for relief, but the magistrate rules that the use of the calliope on Sundays for sacred music is legal. The question has been carried to a higher court.

—A grim story of life in a lighthouse comes from the Burmah coast, and is printed in the Rangoon Times. A telegram having announced that the light of the Alguada Reef was not visible, a steamer was dispatched to ascertain the cause. The captain on landing discovered two of the men in the lighthouse dead, while a third was lying in a precarious state. The keeper stated that signals of distress such as "I want immediate help" and "Man dying" had been exhibited by him for about twenty days. As a last resort, all his signals having failed to attract attention, he darkened the lights on the Bassein side, feeling certain that this step would not fail to attract attention to the lighthouse. And so, with the dead and the dying, he watched for relief, which came at last.

TONY DENIER

The great Prophet of Fun, the Chesterfield of Pantomimic Clowns, with a National Reputation co-extensive with that of the late lamented G. L. FOX, and a European reputation attained by no other Clown.

The Scenic Tricks painted expressly by those eminent artists, Matt Morgan and Wm. Voetlin. The Surprising and Intricate Transformations by the Master Machinist, Harry Carter. The Mechanical Bourre and Extensive Pantomime Properties by R. J. Cutler, J. G. Williams and Dan. McCarthy. The Elegant and Expensive Wardrobe by Mons. W. Laurays, Paris, and M'me Oehm, Chicago.

A CARD.—TONY DENIER confidently calls special attention to the aggregation of Pantomimic and Specialty Stars, selected by him for his present tour, as being in every respect decidedly superior to any similar organization ever placed before the American public. The names alone of the 27 actual members of the troupe are sufficient to establish the fact without puffery or gush accompanying the simple list. Mr. Denier cannot afford to jeopardize his hard-earned and enviable reputation with the American public, by giving an inferior entertainment, and when he asserts that this is the BEST COMPANY he ever controlled, he is willing to stake his professional reputation on the truth of the assertion. Come and see for yourself.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 20. a lb., Cr am of Tartar over 30. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110-

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

E. G. PIERCE, Jr., P. M.

THE CITY.

A boy about thirteen years old was picked up on the street by the police, Saturday night, in a drunken condition.

A large crowd gathered on Richards avenue, Saturday afternoon, to see a race between two horses for $75 a side. One horse is owned by Mr. E. S. Fay, and was driven by Mr. Hussey; the other, owned and driven by Mr. Henry R. Stoddard, won the race and money.

The steamer James Sampson makes seven trips daily between this city and Kittery, instead of two, as inadvertently stated in the CHRONICLE of Saturday morning. She also makes two evening trips each way, to accommodate persons attending entertainments or meetings, and will keep them up until the 16th inst.

Mr. Joslyn of this city attempted to walk twenty-five miles in four and a half hours in a hall at Newmarket one evening last week, but left the track at the end of the twenty-third mile, having used up four hours and twenty-eight minutes of his time. His quickest mile was the sixteenth, which he walked in ten minutes and twenty-three seconds. The hall is small, and so was the attendance of spectators.

THE VICINITY.

The Newmarket Advertiser reports rumors of the advent of a "waterproof man" in that town.

Father T. J. McDonald, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church at Newmarket, lies seriously ill of an affection of the brain.

The Dirigo brass band of Kittery will give a minstrel entertainment at Trefethen's hall in that town on Tuesday evening.

An Exeter paper says that James Marden of Portsmouth will attempt to walk one hundred miles in twenty-five hours at the town hall in Exeter commencing on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. O! for the opening of the base ball season!

The late financial complication of the Methodist society at Newmarket has been adjusted satisfactorily to the creditors, and all danger of the society losing its new church has been averted. The debt has been reduced from $18,000 to $2500 within two years through the exertions of the pastor, Rev. H. Dorr.

The statement made in some quarters that Mr. Albion R. Philbrick of Rye took off in his boat the crew of the schooner Torpedo, recently wrecked at the beach, is incorrect. The crew landed in their own boats; Mr. Philbrick, after they landed, merely went off to the schooner with one of her men, in one of the vessel's boats.

William H. Young, of Barrington, was badly if not fatally injured in Dover on Friday by a runaway accident. He was riding in a pung loaded with butter and eggs for the Dover market, when some part of the harness gave out and let the pung hit the horse's heels, causing the animal to run; Mr. Young was dashed against a wall over which the horse jumped, and received bad bruises about the head, an ugly wound in the side, and a broken hip.

The winter term of the west school in Rye, which has been in charge of Mr. Nathan R. Goss of that town, an experienced teacher, closed on Friday, a large number of the parents and friends of the pupils being present. The recitations were very interesting, and the scholars showed that they made good progress in their studies during the term. At the close of the exercises brief remarks were made by Mr. John O. Drake and others. A union exhibition by all the schools of the town, at the town hall, is talked of as to be held at an early day.

On Thursday evening of last week a "young folks' party" came off in Rye town hall, under the management of Messrs. Frank E Chesley and Otis Garland. About a hundred young gentlemen and ladies assembled, and after a time very pleasantly spent in singing and social amusements, repaired to the banquet hall where an excellent and abundant collation was served, after which there was dancing in the main hall until the small hours, to music by Mr. A. Johnson. The participants voted the time a jolly one, and the gathering a success in every particular.

HUMPTY DUMPTY.

Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe played in Biddeford on Thursday evening last, and the Times of that city says: "It was a first rate show. Grimaldi made an excellent clown, and was very active and sprightly. He kept the audience in the best of spirits. * * The second act, or variety part of the entertainment, was good. Venus and Adonis on skates, and on the velocipede and bicycle, were first rate. Charles Diamond danced and played on the harp at the same time, and in this he did remarkably well. Miss Moulton's exercise with the Indian clubs was a fine portrayal of physical culture. The entertainment as a whole gave very general satisfaction." Humpty Dumpty will appear at Music hall this evening. See advertisement.

THE DANCING PARTY.

Mrs. Monroe's juvenile party of dancers gave a novel and pretty exhibition in Congress hall on Saturday afternoon. The programme commenced with a grand march, which was done in a manner that showed the little participants to be well trained. The heel-and-toe polka followed, and then the lancers quadrille, both of which were well done, the latter especially so, the changes being performed to perfection. The "Fairy dance" was a novelty to most of the audience; it consisted of a graceful and pretty waltz by six little nymphs around a minature house of gossamer build, placed in the centre of the hall—the house of the fairy. At a given signal the miniature castle suddenly dissolved, disclosing a pretty little fairy who condescendingly waltzed with each of those who had invoked her presence. The ease and grace with which the little ones performed their several parts were warmly applauded. The intermission was made cheerful by the presence of Mr. Robeck, who dispensed a plentiful supply of cake and ice-cream. The polka quadrille, the minuet, (a rarely pretty dance,) and the "Beware polka," were nicely done, and the whole affair was a success, proving Mrs. Monroe to possess much ability as a teacher of those movements that contribute toward a refined grace of motion and ease in manners.

SUPREME COURT.

The trial of case No. 201, Charles W. Martin vs. Levi G. Towle, commenced on Friday afternoon, was not concluded on Saturday. The court will come in this afternoon, when the trial will be resumed.

The term will probably close on Wednesday, or after cases 198 and 199, Savings Bank for the County of Strafford and Eustace C. Fitz against John W. Gatchell, are disposed of.

The First Steam Train in America,

In 1831, was on the route between Albany and Schenectady. Of the excursionists who first tested it as a mode of conveyance, were Thurlow Weed, Ex-Governor Yates, James Alexander, President of a New York bank, "Old Hayes," (as he always called,) High Constable, Jacob Meggs, Sheriff, and John Thomson, the engineer, an Englishman. The engine was imported from England, and named the "John Bull;" the cylinder was 5 1-2 inches in diameter and 16 inches stroke; wheels 4 1-2 feet in diameter; the boiler had 30 copper tubes, 5 feet long and 4 inches in diameter; connecting rods worked on double cranks on front axle; weight of engine, 4 tons. The train consisted of an engine, tender, and two cars or coaches. The engine and tender were queer looking contrivances compared with those of the present day, and the cars were about the size and much resembled a modern hotel coach. As the distance was but seventeen miles, it would now be a jaunt of but a few minutes, yet it probably required a much longer time from being a first experiment.

In no section of the country on the western shores of the Atlantic, probably, did the introduction of "the iron-horse" produce such a revolution in the mode of travel as in the State of New York, stage-coaches being the only public conveyances, except a little of the slow mode of canal travel, on all the various routes to Saratoga, Trenton Falls, Niagara and various other summer resorts, as well as the ordinary communication at all seasons for the whole distance between Albany and Buffalo, and when the Hudson river was closed in winter, all the way from New York to Buffalo. The consequence was that as steam progressed on its way from the first starting point at Albany, hundreds who had been wont to derive their subsistence, in various ways, from stage-coach travel, were at once thrown out of employment. Some of the drivers took it very hard, and were not slow in denouncing the "innowater o' coach-men's privileges," as the elder Mr. Weller termed the iron-horse, so that it became a standing joke to ask one of them what he thought of the new mode of travel. One traveller at least of a former day can testify to the fact that, in a jaunt to Niagara by the several ways of rail, canal and stage-coach, when he asked the Jehu of a mail-stage over the Western Ridge Road from Rochester to Lockport, what his opinion was of the new invention for travelling that was soon to drive all others from the road, he received for reply: "I would like to sit in judgment upon a feller mean enough to invent a thing that is taking bread from so many people's mouths; such a scoundrel is mean enough to invent a machine for making shirts and darning stockings"—little foreseeing that a time would come, when such an article as the former would be in use in every household. The first conveyance by steam from the city of New York, was on the Harlem railroad through the Yorkville tunnel, cut for a distance of eight hundred feet through solid rock; the work was commenced at each end, and continued night and day, without cessation, until completed. Outside of New York city, and in its near vicinity, the first railroad was that to Paterson from Jersey City, now the commencement of the Erie Railroad. The cars were in sections, holding eight passengers, four on each of the two seats, who sat facing each other, consequently half of them were obliged to ride backward. When the windows were open, the pine cinders from the locomotive came in so plentifully, unless the passengers kept constantly brushing them away they were liable to have their garments burnt through to their skins. It would not have answered then to take a nap, or a victim on awaking would have found himself on fire in a dozen places. This is no exaggeration, as hundreds remember who can recall the time. If the strainer was placed upon the smoke-stack to remedy the evil, the engine was soon obliged to stop, as the fire would not draw. Passaic Falls, at Paterson, N. J., was then a delightful resort, before the water of the river was diverted to the extent it now is for manufacturing purposes. Easy of access as it was to New York, only fifteen miles distant, on Sunday the place was thronged with visitors, so that at the close of the day not only were the seats all filled but the roofs of the cars were covered with passengers, and the delightful time they had in fighting off the cinders can well be imagined; yet it made no difference, the same scene would be re-enacted on the Sunday following, as Sunday excursionists of large cities must jaunt somewhere on that day, if they have to go through fire and water to do it.

While the first railroad in this country was that referred to above, a railway for conveying the stone from the quarries at Quincy for the Bunker Hill monument at Charlestown, was in use two years before. A very primitive affair it was at first, though it may have been something better before the monument was completed; common bar iron resting upon stout plank set up edgewise in the ground, whatever foundation it may have had beneath, being all that was visible; yet it answered the needed purpose, and was regarded with the greatest curiosity by excursionists to Quincy to see its operation. A hotel was built upon the road near the quarries, to which was given the name of the Railway House, and having a coach running at various hours through the day to Boston in the pleasant seasons of the year, neither the coach nor the hotel lacked patronage, from its being one of the most popular resorts of its time, ere rail-cars made their appearance everywhere. A sad accident occurred there on a summer afternoon that came nigh causing much loss of human life, and very nigh a miracle it seemed that it did not do so. By some arrangement for the purpose, the heavy iron cars used for conveying the stone, in crossing a ravine where there was much of a descent, near the quarries, ran around a semi-circle; a loaded car in passing down on one side drawing up an empty one on the other in doing so. At the time referred to, four gentlemen came on an excursion of pleasure from the Tremont House in Boston, and taking a fancy for a ride on the car that went down the track, while on the way the chain broke that connected it with the other, when they met at the bottom of the curve, and both cars were thrown from the rails. The unfortunate passengers were found in a sadly mutilated condition, all of them with fractured limbs; and weeks elapsed before they were able to be removed to the city from the nearest hotel, some miles away, where they could be accommodated, to which they were conveyed after the accident.

Such are some of the reminiscences, and a few of the not agreeable experiences of early railroad travel on this side of the Atlantic. J. H. B.

—Franklin said that "One vice will bring up two children." But vice isn't a good thing to bring up children on.

—A minister who was speaking quite loud saw a woman leaving the church with a crying babe, and thereupon exclaimed: "Your baby don't disturb me, madam." "That isn't it, sir," she replied: "you disturb the baby." Of course every effect must have a cause.

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

Peace and Goodwill can only be felt when you are well. Don't get sick when you can cure that slight cold by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The Way Vanderbilt Succeeded.

When Commodore Vanderbilt was running steamboats, he beat all rivals by crowding on steam to the utmost, and even running down his enemy if necessary, to accomplish a triumph. When he went into railroading, he adopted a much shrewder and more successful way by uniting vast lines and their tributaries under his own management, thus capturing all rivals, by sharing with them the immense pool of profits that were made by his skillful manipulation. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., accomplish a much greater success in stock operations by their new Combination Method of dealing. By this system the orders of thousands of customers are pooled into one vast sum and co-operated under the most experienced management, thus giving to each shareholder all the benefits of large capital and best skill. Profits divided monthly. Any amount from $5 to $25,000 can be used with great success; $15 will make $75 profits; $80 would return $720 or 9 per cent. on the stock during the month, according to the market. The new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

Sundry Humbugs.

Swindles upon farmers are by no means confined to implements. A very successful one among the farmers in Pennsylvania has been worked out with goods for men's clothing. A nice-appearing traveling salesman in a stylish wagon, drives up. He is selling for so and so—as they must realize as quickly as possible; goods in patterns for suits, great coats, or whatever may be, are offered. The goods not to be paid for until made up by a tailor, and found satisfactory; samples are shown, sales made by sample, and the goods delivered. One of our correspondents was solicited to buy, but the seller would not dispose of the goods shown, as that was a sample. He soon after visited a neighbor, who had bought by sample, and found on opening his parcel, that he had cotton instead of woolen goods. The neighbor was of course indignant and told our correspondent that he should not pay for the article. Our correspondent questioned him, and learned that he had signed merely a receipt for the cloth. At the end of 30 days the purchaser received a note from the bank where he kept an account, stating that they had discounted his note for $21, and charged it to his account. The receipt for the goods was a note. Our friend asks us to warn the farmers of Pennsylvania against Hugh Anderson, the name in whose favor the note was given, and repeat our injunction to farmers, "to sign nothing, nothing, NOTHING."—Am. Agriculturist.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by thousands of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated at the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S for more for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 142 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without a special request or intimation of effect, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced my twelve pounds in five weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. WOLFE & PLUMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp."
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning genius of my medical career. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for the class of diseases, and not that only, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will fulfil every claim and exceed the expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapped around bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive or Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Dependency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not expect this medicine to "cure all," but it admirably fulfils a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in Dr. Pierce's COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

☞ These Reprints are not selections; they give the originals in full, and at about one-third the price of the English Editions.

No publications can compare with the leading British periodicals here named, reprinted by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. In respect to fidelity of research, accuracy of statement, and purity of style, they are without any equal. They keep pace with modern thought, discovery, experiment, and achievement, whether in religion, science, literature, or art. The ablest writers fill their pages with most interesting reviews of history, and with an intelligent narration of the great events of the day.

MORSE & ILSLEY,

NO. 13 PLEASANT STREET,—UP ONE FLIGHT.

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, Tetter, Eruption, Blotch, Blemish and Mild Form of Skin Disease, Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a complete constitutional renovation established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If your skin is sallow, your complexion has yellow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and bowels costive, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Lung Disease, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians prescribe it as the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and baby ingredients. These Pellets are smaller than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They act promptly and yet certainly in the regulation of the system, irrespective of the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Side and Back, Fever of the Stomach, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are single-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes acrid, thick, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eye, dropping in or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, accumulations of offensive matter, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc., etc. But few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The local remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and EFFECTIVELY APPLIED to all parts of the nasal passages, and the relief and cure of members or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucous from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I frequently consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head so that I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in two days. By using it as a garg le I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The sources across my ears disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I am seeking a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following the advice, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

LIBRARY LAMP.

ASK your dealer for this Lamp. If he will not supply you, write to us for it. It gives the light of twenty candles, or one third more than any other lamp of similar style (same size burner) in the world, the light being, also, steadier and every way more satisfactory.

"ONLY ME."

A little figure glided through the hall;
"Is that you, Pet?"—the words came tenderly;
A sob—suppressed to let the answer fall—
"It isn't Pet, mamm; it's only me."

The quivering baby lips!—they had not meant
To utter any word could pain or sting;
But to that mother-heart a strange pang went;
She heard, and stood like a convicted thing!

One instant, and a happy little face
Thrilled 'neath unwonted kisses rained above;
And from that moment, "Only Me" had place
And part with "Pet" in tender mother love.

—Caroline A. Mason.

Why Your Letter Don't Go.

Because you forgot to address it.

Because you forgot to stamp it.

Because you forgot to write the town or State on the envelope.

Because you didn't write the street and number plainly.

Because you didn't put three cents on the letter for every half ounce or fractional part thereof.

Because you used a once cancelled stamp.

Because you cut out an envelope stamp and pasted it on your letter.

Because you used internal revenue stamps instead of postage stamps.

Because you used patent medicine or proprietary stamps instead of postage stamps.

Because you used old, out of date stamps.

Because you used a foreign stamp.

Because you wrote the address so badly that no one could read it.

Because you wrote the address on top of the envelope and it was surely obliterated by the post office dating, receiving and cancelling stamps.

And because you put your letter in a blank envelope, and sealed it and forwarded it to—— the dead letter office, where thousands upon thousands of valuable letters are daily destroyed, because the people are either careless or ignorant of the postal laws.

—A Mobile steamboat captain, after refusing on seven different occasions, finally consented to allow a white mule to be shipped on his boat. On that trip the boat hit a snag, and hereafter any one wishing to send a white mule on that boat will have to buy the boat.

—A contemporary is mean enough to expose the profession in this shameful way: "An editor's wife never goes through her husband's other trousers pockets to strike a package of love-letters. Editors are not like the wicked, unfaithful men of the world; editors rarely have other trousers."

—"Poor Herbert. How I wish you did not have to slave so at that horrible store from morning till night!" said his wife, as, with a fond caress, she seated herself on her husband's knee and gently stroked the auburn locks from his sloping brow. And the grave, stern man of business understood her at once and answered, "Well, Susie, what is it—a bonnet or what? Go light on me, for money is scarcer than ever."

Democratic Witnesses.

Speaker Randall, of the national House of Representatives, and democrats generally, were roused to the highest pitch of virtuous indignation last week by charges of corruption preferred by Special Agent Williams in a letter to a Philadelphia paper; Williams was promptly denounced as a liar, several republican members of Congress patted Randall on the back and called him a good, honest fellow, and an investigating committee quickly reported that the persons making the charges against Randall were atrocious liars—which is undoubtedly true.

But these same persons—the ones instrumental in making the slanderous charges against Randall—were among the most active helpers of Glover and his investigating committee, in trying to find something injurious to leading republicans; some of them have been borne on the pay-rolls of the "democratic reform House;" and their reckless lies about republicans, though known to be such when uttered and instantly shown to be such by the republicans, have been handed from one end of the country to the other by the democratic press, under such headings as "Another republican scoundrel exposed." When they palpably lied about republicans their flimsiest statements were "incontrovertible;" when they lie about a democrat they are utterly unworthy of credence.

Circular

To the women of New Hampshire who are interested in education and the public good:

At the last session of our State Legislature, the following act was passed:

Any person, male or female, but in all other respects except sex, qualified to vote in town affairs, may vote at any school-district meeting in the district in which such person has resided and had a home one month next preceeding such meeting.

It will thus be seen that at the approaching school-district meetings, to be held in March in all the cities and towns throughout our State, except in Manchester, Nashua, Portsmouth, and Dover,—in which cities the charters provide for the election of school committees by a different method,—all American-born women of adult age, and all foreign-born women who have been naturalized, or who have been married to citizens of the United States, provided they have resided for six months previous in the town, and for one month previous in the district, are to be allowed a voice in determining every question that shall be submitted for consideration. These questions will be the choice of a certain number of the prudential committee or of the board of education, as the case may be, the acceptance of the annual report of the existing school committee in regard to the receipt and disbursement of the school funds, the appropriation to be made for the next year, special appropriations for special objects, and whatever other questions the local interests of the schools may suggest.

For the past seven years it has been lawful for women to serve upon school committees; and in more than twenty towns their names are already found upon such lists. Now, for the first time, they are permitted to assist in choosing the officers; not only may they be elected, but they themselves may elect.

It is hoped that this previlege,—or right, let us rather call it,—won by earnest champions of justice in Senate and House, may be fully appreciated by those upon whom it has been conferred. In five other States of the Union the same right is now exercised by women, viz.; in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Minnesota and Michigan; but they are all in the far west. Only one other State east of the Mississippi has been liberal enough to concede to mothers a voice in directing the public education of their children, and that is Michigan. The old Granite State, then, leads not only New England but all the Eastern and Middle States in this progressive measure,—a measure which every candid mind, however conservative in its general tone of thought, will acknowledge to be founded in right, and calculated to increase the efficiency of our public schools. Upon the intelligence and virtue of the rising generation the future of our republic must depend; and who such interested guardians of the minds and morals of their children as the mothers themselves?

It is therefore to the thoughful, public-spirited women of the State that we make our appeal. Not only for their own good but for that of the commonwealth we urge them to do their utmost to imbue the minds of those about them with an intelligent understanding of the new law, and to inspire them with an earnest purpose to exercise promptly the privilege it confers.

In behalf of the Concord Equal Rights Association.

News and Gossip.

Mr. Snow of Bath, Me., mate of barque C. O. Whitmore, who was on trial at San Francisco last week, charged with the murder of James H. Elwood, second mate of said vessel, was acquitted; it is said the cause of the man's death was clearly established as proceeding from disease and not from violence. The trial lasted six days. Captain Peabody and Mr. Snow will start this week for Boston, where the former will be tried on the same charge.

Harry Jennings of New York and Tom Thornton of Boston having advertised a dog fight to come off Saturday night, at New Orleans, were arrested and refused to give bail, and were sent to prison. They were released on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Spanish steamer Guillermo and the British steamer Istrian were in collision on Sunday off the Skerries, and the Spanish vessel was destroyed, most of her crew being saved by an Irish steamer.

Beaudry, who has been mayor of Montreal for two years, was on Saturday defeated for re-election by one hundred majority, after an exciting contest. His action at the time of the Orange and Ribbon trouble last July was what caused his defeat.

Frank Bassett was on Saturday found guilty of the murder of "Stuttering Jack" at Bridgeport, Conn., and sentenced to State prison for life.

At Ayer Junction, Mass., on Saturday, Henry B. Leland and Broomfield Leland of Westford, Mass., were arraigned, charged with the murder of Bushrod Washington Sampson, formerly of Whitefield, N. H., at Westford, in September, 1876. Broomfield was discharged and Henry was held for trial.

The town of Reno, Nevada, was almost wholly destroyed by fire on Sunday, the entire business part of the place and most of its dwellings being burned. Loss estimated at $1,000,000, with $150,000 insurance. Five persons are known to have been burned to death, and probably others were.

The revival in the locomotive building trade in Paterson, N. J., is very marked, and twenty-eight new engines have been shipped from the two shops in that city since January 1st.

New Hampshire Items.

William Brown of Littleton was instantly killed at Concord, Vt., on Saturday, while chopping, by a tree falling on him. His skull and neck were broken.

Mrs. Lydia Nichols of Kingston, eighty-five years old, fell down a flight of stairs a few days since, cutting a gash seven inches long on her head, breaking the bones of one hand and elbow, and otherwise injuring her. Her recovery is doubtful.

Mrs. Martha Boyd of Londonderry, in the last half of her 99th year, fell from her bed recently and broke her left hip. She had been in unusually good health, with the promise of reaching the age of a century, but probably this injury will prove fatal. She is the oldest person in Londonderry, her sister being the next.

Mrs. Van Dugee of Exeter died very suddenly of heart disease Saturday night. She saw a runaway team in which was her son pass her house, which so affected her that she died almost immediately.

James L. Eaton of Laconia, who was injured at the car shops there Saturday, died at eight o'clock the same night.

Mrs. Betty Payne died last week at Brentwood, in the same house and the same room in which she was born ninety-three years ago.

As Warren Chase of Plymouth was feeding his pigs on Saturday, while he was in the pen a large boar charged on him and knocked him down, at the same time inflicting a gash three inches long and about one inch deep in the calf of his leg, and another one higher up on the knee. The brute then turned to make another attack, and, had it not been for Mr. Chase's dog, would in all probability have killed him.

All but four of the depositors in the defunct Exeter savings bank have called for their dividends. The total amount not called for is $13.65.

Another box of fish eggs arrived from Maine last week for the State hatching house at Plymouth. They are of two varieties of trout—one the blue-backed species, peculiar to Rangeley lakes, upon which land-locked salmon and big trout are supposed to feed; the other our common trout.

Political.

Potter's report competely whitewashes Tilden.

On Thursday five county court judges in Virginia were indicted by the United States circuit court for the western district, for witholding from negroes the right to serve on juries. This aroused the ire of the F. F. V.'s and on Friday the Legislature adopted a resolution declaring it a usurpation of authority, and directing the attorney-general to investigate the matter.

The republican members of the House committee to investigate Mr. Cheney, the postal agent for New England, fully exonerate him from all the charges brought against him; they show that the witnesses against him were almost without exception men whom he had offended by either forcing them to do their duty or discharging them for not doing it; and that the man who charged him with selling an appointment as postmaster, though formerly a republican is now a democrat, and testified that he saw no harm in buying and selling offices or votes.

The public is getting to be confused as to whether it was Ben. Butler or Jeff. Davis who was President of the Confederates States. The current opinion of those who read the proceedings of Congress is that it was Butler.—Cincinnati Commercial.

—King Oscar of Sweden is about to circulate a reply to Pope Pius IX's attacks on Freemasonry. The King of Sweden has long been a distinguished Mason, and proposes to prove, by facts connected with the history of the craft, that the Pope's attacks are groundless, and need not be observed even by faithful Catholics. The publication will be further enlarged by a collection of King Oscar's principal addresses to Masons in various lodges in Sweden and Norway. The work will appear simultaneously in Swedish and German.

—The late Judge Cadwalader, who died in Philadelphia a few days ago, had a wealthy brother who for a long time took a commanding position in the business interest of Philadelphia. While the judge was on the bench of the supreme court one day, this brother appeared, and in a bluff, fraternal way said: "How are you, John? I have been summoned to act as grand juror." Said the judge: "When I am on the bench I am addressed as judge." "Don't be a d——d fool, John," said the business man. "Fine Mr. Cadwalader one hundred dollars," said the judge.—and he was fined.

—Herman Zellner obtained a divorce from his wife in San Francisco, and continued to hold the social position that he had gained by education, probity and wealth. The woman sank steadily in intemperance, which had been the cause of her previous misconduct. A week ago she went to Zellner and implored him to take her back. She had become a sot, and he told her that a reunion was entirely out of the question; but he gave her a little money, and said that, if she would reform, he would be glad to make an allowance for her support. She took the money, bought poison and killed herself.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Physicians pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cr am of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere.

WHEAT MEAL!

—OR—

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

Locke gave up at the close of the 20 h mile, on the plea of sickness."—Times.

The ship Elizabeth Hamilton, Capt. Hempstead, bound from Philadelphia for Trieste with a cargo of 257,582 gallons of refined petroleum, valued at $21,250, was abandoned at sea on the 12th of February, in latitude thirty-four north, longitude sixteen west; the crew were taken off by the steamer Lykens, from Marseilles, and landed at Delaware Breakwater. The Elizabeth Hamilton was built at Eliot in 1847, by Mr. Hanscom, for William Jones and William P. Jones of this city; at the time of her loss she was owned in New York. She was of 854 tons register.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. Reese Owen has been appointed postmaster at South Seabrook.

Mr Ira Brown, of Stratham, is to take charge of the Peirce farm at Greenland.

The post route bill as passed by the Senate on Monday establishes a post route between Exeter and Hampton.

The Congregational church at Kittery Point has recently been repaired, newly painted and blinded, and new cornices put on the north and south ends.

Belle Simpson of Newmarket, twelve years old, was shockingly burned about the face and hands on Sunday night while kindling a fire with kerosene.

A series of religious meetings under the auspices of the State Young Men's Christian Association will be commenced in Stratham on the 9th inst., and continue though four days; on the 11th—town-meeting day—services will be held in the evening only.

The wreck of the schooner Rival, at Rye beach, has been sold for $15. A contract has been made to take off the beach the schooner Northern Star, stranded at the same time as the Rival, for $150.

Mr. Robert H. Pickering, son of Mr. Ephraim Pickering of Newington, on Friday badly cut his foot while chopping wood; Dr. Junkins of Greenland dressed the wound, and no permanent injury is expected to result.

Prof. S. S. Smith has a dancing class of fifty persons at Hampton, the school being held in the town hall on Tuesday and Friday evenings. His dancing school in this city during the winter has been well patronized and popular.

"Prof." George E. Harrington of Great Falls, and Roland L. Eaton of Dover, have made a match for a foot race in Dover city hall, Harrington to run ten miles while Eaton is walking eight, the winner to have the stakes ($25 a side) and what remains of the money taken at the door after the expenses are paid.

It is said that the fishermen in the Newmarket neighborhood pay scant attention to the fish warden's circular prohibiting the taking of smelts or bass in any other way than with a single line and hook, and that nets and all sorts of gear for taking the fish have been used right along just the same as before.

The Dover Democrat says that Franklin McDuffee of Rochester got a patent in 1876, for a combined time and combination lock. One day recently a gentleman from New York, who had seen the patent at Washington, called on McDuffee and asked what he would sell his patent for, and was told $500. The New Yorker paid the money eagerly, and departed.

The winter term of the school at Newington closed Friday evening of last week, with an exhibition in the town hall, one of the principal features of which was a dialogue by the Misses Downing, daughters of Mr. Henry Downing. The teacher, Mr. Eugene Emery, was the recipient of a fine gold pen, presented by a little girl under the charge of Miss Lizzie Cole. Several gentlemen from Portsmouth were present, among them Messrs. Charles A. Shannon and Jere. Towle, the hall, which was built some years ago and is not large enough for the needs of the town, being crowded.

The conductor of the Pullman train, east, had a singular experience the other night. Passing through a car he noticed a passenger asleep and poked him in the leg, to awake him and get his ticket. The conductor pinched his leg. Still no signs. The conductor pinched harder. Still the slumberer dreamed on. The conductor then concluded to go through the car, collect the rest of the tickets, and make a job of this chap after he had finished the collection. Having returned, he seized the fellow by the leg and gave it a tremendous yank, when to his horror and surprise the leg—a wooden one—came off in his two hands. And then the conductor begged his friends not to give him away to those confounded newspaper fellows.—Biddeford Times.

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Mr. Waite, the evangelist, will preach every evening this week at the Methodist church, at half-past seven o'clock, and give a "chalk talk" in the vestry each evening at seven. Sunday will be the last day of Mr. Waite's ministrations in this city.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Waite preaches at York; and on Wednesday afternoon will hold a children's service at Franklin hall in this city.

On Thursday afternoon Mr. Waite will hold services at the navy yard village, on Friday afternoon at Rye, and on Saturday afternoon at Newcastle.

Inquiry meetings, led by the different clergymen of the city, are held each day at 2:30 o'clock P. M., in the Hanover street chapel.

HIGH HEELS vs. NATURE AND COMMON SENSE.

I attended Mrs. Monroe's exhibition on Saturday afternoon last, and was much pleased, as every one present must have been. It was a beautiful sight to watch so many bright, pretty and graceful little children, as they wound in and out of the figures of the dance, and they certainly did their teacher a great deal of credit.

But there was one thing which, as I looked on, gave me real pain instead of pleasure, and that was to see so many little girls balanced upon the high, slender heel, which it was said a while ago was going out of fashion, but to judge from what was seen there is as fashionable as ever. It is bad enough and foolish enough when ladies choose to cripple themselves by the use of these high heels; but to put them upon the delicate, easily-compressed feet of children, is positive cruelty. Do parents consider that to walk and dance in these things is enough to distort a child's foot for life, and to spoil for her forever the delight of a light, elastic, unwearied step?

Of course parents do not think, or they would never be so cruel. But let them look at any simple book of anatomy. Let them notice the beautiful, natural arch of the foot, and see the effect of this high, slender heel. "It makes the step insecure and shortens it; it prevents the proper developement of the muscles of the calf; it throws the weight unnaturally forward on the toes, and cramps them"—in short, it distorts and perverts the wisest and best provisions of nature, and tends to turn a free, elastic, bounding step into an uneasy, ungraceful hobble.

Mothers, think of this. Do not spoil so much of your child's future happiness and comfort, for the sake of a mere fashion; the fashion will pass away, but its effects will remain. Let your little ones be as nature made them, and they will be happier and better all their lives. M. A.

"JANE SHORE."

A genuine theatrical treat will be presented to the public on the evening of Saturday next, the 8th inst., when Jarret & Palmer's great combination of Genevieve Ward, supported by Milnes Levick and their own powerful company, will appear at Music hall in the historical play of "Jane Shore." The same famous snow scene and scenery used at the engagement at Booth's theatre will be used; also the same armor and costumes. In addition to Jane Shore, the great "cardinal scene" of Henry VIII. will be given. The company bring the entertainment complete, calcium lights and all. It will be remembered that Jarrett & Palmer secured Miss Ward as the greatest European attraction with which to open Booth's theatre last fall, and her arrival from England was greeted with ovations. Probably no historical play has ever been presented in this city in a better manner than this will be under this engagement.

AN INTERESTING STORY.

"Adrift on the black wild tide," by Chaplain James J. Kane, U. S. N., is received from J. B. Lippincott & Co., publishers, Philadelphia. It is a handsomely printed and bound little book of eighty pages, and was first published in Glasgow, Scotland, in October of last year. It is a vividly-written account of a strange incident in the writer's experience during the terrible yellow fever epidemic at Pensacola in the autumn of 1863, when and where Mr. Kane (then executive officer of a gunboat attached to the West Gulf Blockading Squadron, and also acting as volunteer chaplain among the seamen, and outside of the navy yard,) was taken down with the dread disease, and after being to all appearances dead, finally recovered. The first part of the narration is of a remarkable dream, in which subsequent events were plainly fore-shadowed; the latter part tells of the writer's illness and apparent death, his spiritual voyage down "the black wild tide," and his subsequent return to life. Mr. Kane "does not hold himself responsible for the correct view of any doctrinal point" incidentally mentioned in the book, and says that though the narrative may "savor somewhat of spiritualism," that is what he "especially wishes to avoid." The weird tale will be found fascinating in the extreme, to spiritualists and opponents of that belief; and in this vicinity, where Chaplain Kane has many friends, it will have many earnest and interested readers.

On one occasion, on a bet, he went to the jail of La Roquette, and from five hundred or more convicts a dozen were paraded in coverlets and hoods, so that only their eyes could be seen. He named each one as he passed.

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of blood, the chief element of our vitality. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but inoperative as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. feb25

Don't Dry Up your cough, but cure it root and branch by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Ere 'tis too late and that cough has become galloping consumption, cleanse your lungs by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents.

The Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, New York, is a big House, and it takes a great many people to fill it. In order to do the latter, and to please everybody, the Hotel is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European $1.00, and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices is conducted by the Hotel.

Why Cough Nights? You can stop it with Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Lively Stock Operations.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall street, and many successful firms are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skillful management, thus securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at end of 20 days. J. Jones, of Boston, made $747.30 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this Combination or Co-opera tive Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent on the stock; $100 would return $900, or 9 per cent during the month, and so on, according to the market. The new circular contains "Two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. city.

—A young Hungarian lady of noble family thought she was running away to Paris with a nobleman, but discovered after a while that he was only a valet.

—They do things with despatch in Texas. A man in a certain neighborhood, who had lost a valuable mare, received the following telegram: "Mare here. Come get her. Thief hung."

—Mary Nedly, a colored woman, was committed to jail in New York for twenty-nine days as a vagrant, after having been expelled from Talmage's Tabernacle for trying to tell her religious experiences. She was taken before a justice and promptly discharged. She went out of court smiling, saying, "Now, Mr. Tammige, ketch me in yer big church again!"

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offloaded by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and in just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drugstore for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 162 pounds, and there has a general improvement in health." A gentleman, Northampton, Mass., says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, Smith, Doolittle & Smith, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following statement from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled 'blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a medicine potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, stand; I am willing to place my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE (for conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single class of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery clears the Blood of all Impurities, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple. Pimply Eruptions, Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and coarse coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest blood-purifying agent of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of drastic purgatives, bulky inactive pills. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no disturbance is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Sides and Back, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Distressed feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensative influence. Medicines not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and hermetically in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. CATARRH SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, offensive. If the nostrils, in a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulceration, scabs from ulcers, voice nasal, recurrent sneezing, with offensive breath, or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be used, or relief applied by the use of Dr. Prince's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried, from one nostril, over the roof, to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge principally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but as his terms were so high I put off the inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effected this disease, as the I feel, would kill me. I showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharge. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The sorenes across my chest disappeared, the hoarsing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to contribute many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following the rules, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very painful side, called by my physicians Pleurisy, caused by a fall on a fence (injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the usual remedies), without cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and process almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household duties ever since without any care and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do any thing. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES BARNHAM.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and efficacious in relieving the Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs, as the Voltaic Plaster, and capable of preventing serious results from these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are shameful worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electricity or Voltaic Plates with a good Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Church Banking.

The deficit in the accounts of Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati, reaches the astounding sum of nearly four millions, the whole, or nearly the whole, of which is due to a class of poor depositors, and for which there is little or nothing to show. The archbishop's financial affairs were entirely in the hands of his brother, also a clergyman, and he had no knowledge of what was done with the money, which was, in a measure, forced upon him by depositors who had no faith in the honesty of bank officials. The Providence Journal says: "The management of the reverend banker was almost a miracle of incapacity and carelessness. He lent money without security, or without even memoranda, treating the funds of the depositors as if they were his own, building churches and supporting them at his own expense, and giving away large sums in charity. It is not charged that he or the archbishop have been guilty of the slightest dishonesty; on the contrary, they lived very ascetic lives, and gave away most of their own incomes, as well as the money of their depositors, in charity. Yet the ruin is as great as if they had been the most reckless of financial gamblers, and lived in the wildest luxury, and, in fact, it is greater, for the reason that any such course would have aroused suspicion and prevented such an aggregate of deposits, which have been made for forty years without a sign of distrust. The run at last did not begin in suspicion, but in the demand caused by the hard times, which compelled depositors to withdraw their earnings. Almost the first pressure brought down the fabric, and then for the first time the archbishop and his brother realized that they had been using money which they were expected to refund. They apparently thought that the stream would continually flow in and never run out. It is a striking example that men must be sure of capacity as well as honesty in those to whom they trust their earnings, and that religious faith need not also include financial trust."

"The Flurry in Stocks"

Always means an opportunity for some shrewd and lively operator to make a handsome profit. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have established the new combination system for operating in stocks, so that capital in any amount from $5 to $50,000 can be used profitably at any time that may suit the customer. By pooling the orders of thousands of patrons into one immense sum, and operating them as a mighty whole, under the most experienced skill, vast profits are made, which could be gained in no other way. These are divided pro rata among shareholders—monthly. An investment of $10 returns $50, or 5 per cent. on the stock. $100 pays $500, and so on, according to the market. J. M. Lyon, St. Louis, made over three hundred per cent. on an investment in October by the combination method. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success," and full information so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

—With the last two weeks two men have been killed by the explosion of whisky barrels. In both instances the barrels were empty. These fatal casualties teach the importance of keeping your barrel at least half full.—Norristown Herald.

—New York fashion notes: Large balls of jet face the new bonnets, and ribbons and strings are fringed with it. Rings and wide bracelets of black enamel are worn by ladies to make their hands and arms look fair. The fichus of embroidered cashmere so fashionable last year are shown again in new designs for spring wraps.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1879.

The Forty-Fifth Congress.

The Forty-fifth Congress on Tuesday did the best thing in its record—it ceased to exist.

The democrats secured the calling of an extra session of the Forty-sixth Congress by failing to pass the legislative and army appropriation bills. It is understood that the President will call the extra session for March 18th. The conservative democrats of the Senate, dreading the effect to their party of an extra session, at the last hour endeavored to get the last appropriation bills extended for six months, but without avail.

The House passed the yellow fever bill, and the arrears of pensions bill with the Senate amendments.

Representative Atkins claimed the final hour of the House's time to explain the causes of disagreement on the appropriation bills, and to charge the responsibility of the extra session of congress upon the republicans. Eugene Hale, in closing for the republicans, charged the responsibility for the session upon the democrats, and produced a bill to repeal the test oath passed by the republican Senate seventy-four days ago, which the democrats have never tried to take from the Speaker's table! Hale's speech was received with loud applause. Speaker Randall then delivered his farewell, and at twelve o'clock, the gavel falling, the 45th Congress was declared adjourned without day. It is to be hoped that the succeeding Congress will be a better one; worse it cannot be.

New Hampshire Democrats Complimented.

The Washington Post—good democratic authority—thus states it:

New Hampshire has sensibly postponed her annual political disturbance from March until November, which effectually prevents any further reliance upon the prospective result in the Granite State as an indication of the direction of the political tide. As a matter of fact, there never was any foundation for this belief. The radicals can always carry New Hampshire, when anything important depends upon their doing so, for the reason that the democrats are, with one exception, entirely devoid of enterprising leaders, and as a party are too lazy and spiritless to ever make a determined and aggressive fight.

Who is the honorable exception as to leadership, who is the only reliable Moses of the democracy, is perhaps easily ascertained. The Post is far more frank than complimentary concerning the democracy of the Granite State.

Maine Municipal Elections.

In the Maine municipal elections, Monday, the republicans were generally successful. The greenodemback candidate for mayor of Portland was elected, but the republicans have a working majority of the city councils. In Bath, Lewiston, Gardiner and Ellsworth, the republicans have the mayor and city government. In Rockland there was no choice of mayor; councils republican. In Auburn the republicans and hard-money democrats elected the mayor and a majority of the councils. In Bucksport the republicans had a hundred majority over the greenocrats; the question of maintaining the faith of the town in regard to railroad bonds entered largely into the contest, and the result is regarded as an indication of public integrity.

News and Notes.

The steamer Istrian, which collided with and sunk the Spanish steamer Guillermo off the Skerries, was towed to Liverpool much damaged. It is feared that five of the crew of the Guillermo were drowned, as they are not, as was expected, on board the steamer Magnel, which has arrived at Dublin.

Rev. Pardee Butler, who was placed astride a cottonwood log, his arms tied behind his back, and set adrift on the Missouri river by border ruffians, at Atchison, Kan., some twenty odd years ago, stepped into the Globe office in Atchison the other day, as though he had just escaped from the queer craft. It was his first visit to Atchison since his heroic fight against slavery.

Queer financiering is reported from Elpton, Vt., where A. W. Goss, assignee of James H. Batchelder, the Middlebury forger, recently sold $10,000 of the latter's unencumbered property for $500. Goss' attorney, J. M. Tripp of Middlebury, bid off the property, and suspicious persons hint at trickery.

Mrs. Patience Albro of Foster, R. I., has just died at the age of 102 years. She lived on the same farm seventy-five years.

A high life scandal promises to be ventilated at Newport, R. I., through the approaching trial of a divorce suit, brought by Gen. James Gallatin Lawrence, son of William Beach Lawrence, the well known international lawyer, against his wife Eva, daughter of Mrs. Gen. Taylor of Washington and niece of President Zachary Taylor, for adultery with Amede Van den Nest, secretary of the Belgian legation for many years. The parties have been prominent figures at Newport during the fashionable season in years past, but lately Mrs. Lawrence has been aboard, whence she returns to contest the suit against her and to file a cross bill. Van den Nest either resigned or was suspended from his position over a year ago, and has not since been seen in this country. The scandal has already caused a duel, which was fought in Europe and was bloodless.

The number of vessels belonging to or bound to or from ports in the United States, reported totally lost and missing during the month of February, was sixty-eight, of which thirty were wrecked, two burned, ten abandoned, one sunk by collision, six foundered, and nineteen are missing. The list comprises seven steamers, seven ships, twenty-three barques, four brigs and twenty-seven schooners, and their total value, exclusive of cargoes, is estimated at $1,623,000.

The deputy United States marshal for the sixth district of Kentucky levied upon a freight train in attachment of a suit on the Flemingsburg & Pound Gap railroad, and switched it off on a side track at Johnston Junction on Saturday night, placing a guard over the train. Monday morning a band of armed men came up from Flemingsburg, overpowered the guard, and took the train away.

C. C. Curtis, a clerk in Crump's shoe establishment in Richmond, Va., was fatally shot four times Monday morning by George Poindexter, for using improper language to a lady, Saturday.

F. A. Hayden, of Lenox, Mass., was arrested Sunday night at Barrington, Mass., on a charge of bigamy, it being alleged that he has three wives.

A mail robber was put through by lightning express at St. Louis last Saturday. William Power, a letter-carrier in the business part of the city, stole a letter containing $39, last December. He was arrested Saturday morning, confessed the crime, was taken before the United States district court, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, all within two hours.

Prof. Botkin of St. Petersburg asserts the presence in that city of the Astrachan plague.

Flynn, the New York scamp who hired David Pender to snatch the jewels from Mrs. DeBary's ears, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five years in State prison.

Shere Ali, Ameer of Afghanistan, has gone up—or down; he's dead, anyway.

One of the main complaints against the Chinese is the condition of squalor and filth in which they insist upon living, and the violation of all sanitary rules in their habitations, so as to threaten a pestilence to their neighbors and to perpetuate disease and degradation among themselves. It has been shown that a similar condition exists among the white population of New York, and that the inhabitants of the tenement houses, which greatly exceed in numbers the Chinese colony in San Francisco, live in a state of overcrowding, dirt and unhealthiness that more than rivals the heathen. More than this, they are uncleanly in their persons, which cannot be said of the Chinese, who practice frequent ablutions, and a comparison with an Italian colony, or in fact with the inhabitants of the tenement houses of all nationalities, would not be to the disadvantage of the Chinese in peace, in morality, in health or in intelligence. The clergymen of New York have united in preaching a crusade against the tenement-house system, and public sentiment is thoroughly aroused. It does not, however, follow the example of that on the Pacific coast and call for the banishment of anybody or the interference of the government in a case for which municipal negligence is responsible.

New Hampshire Items.

The house, nearly all the furniture, and a barn of James Radford of Wentworth were burned Monday afternoon. A cow and hog were also burned.

A despatch from Manchester, Tuesday evening, says: "Edward Ingalls, town treasurer of Candia, was robbed last night of $3700. It is reported that Mr. Ingalls was called out of his house during the night by strangers and gagged, after which the robbery was accomplished. Up to this time no further particulars are received."

Rev. Hall Harrison, master in St. Paul's school, Concord, and rector of St. Andrew's church, Hopkinton, will, on the first of May, change his residence to Ellicott City, Md., to be rector of St. John's parish.

A partial reduction of wages has recently taken place on the Newmarket corporation, amounting to about eight per cent

Springfield has had over fifty cases of diphtheria this winter, one-third of which proved fatal, the victims generally being children.

Mr. C. P. S. Wardwell, for many years a prominent needle manufacturer at Lake Village, died suddenly in Boston on Monday, at the age of fifty-five years.

Political.

The members of the House judiciary committee unanimously signed the report that the charges against Judge Blodgett, of Chicago were not worthy of further notice, accompanied by a resolution that all proceedings against him be laid on the table.

The Senate select committee have unanimously reported that Senator Stanley Matthews had no connection with real or supposed election frauds in Louisiana, but they regard his action in endeavoring to obtain office for Anderson as injurious to the public interests.

The greenbackers made a very poor showing on Monday at the municipal elections in Maine, compared to what they did last fall. It is evident that the greenback-inflation-repudiation craze is about played out, so far as that State is concerned.

It isn't the fault of the democrats that they must enter the next campaign with a burst gun as their chief weapon. The "fraud" cannon is all the artillery they have. The "reform" dodge is so thoroughly exposed that they dare not try it again, and all they can do is to ask the country to vindicate the innocence of the victim of his wicked partners.

There is nothing more beautiful in the somewhat debased politics of the present day than the calm spirit of resignation with which the western democrats are accepting another dose of Tilden. Four years ago they were much less resigned. They called him all sorts of names, and when he was nominated they took them all back with promptness and many wry faces. That experience taught them wisdom. Now they recognize the inevitable, and are making heroic efforts to say that, on the whole, they rather like it. Their docility should be imitated by the Tammany wing of the party.—Tribune.

Determined to keep in advance of all contemporaries, the Avalanche nominates Colonel Wm. T. Pelton, late of No. 15 Gramercy Park, New York, for president, and Colonel Manton Moses Marble, late of the Devil Knows Where, for vice-president of the republic of California, soon to be reared on the ruins of "Chinese cheap labor." Nominations closed.—Memphis Avalanche (dem.)

—"No quarantine can save us from the terrible 'Pinafore' epidemic that has swept through the North," says the Picayune of New Orleans.

—"Beautiful moonlight when I came in last night," said Sozzle, breaking the ominous silence at breakfast. "Yes," said Mrs. Sozzle blandly, from the other side of the table "but hardly light enough for you to open the front door with a boot hook, or hang the door mat on the hat tree."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream-of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cr am of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere.

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

A number of robins were seen and heard Monday morning, and on Tuesday morning they were quite numerous about the city. Last year they appeared about the 8th of March.

Mr. Waite will give a "chalk talk" in Franklin hall this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The body of the hall will be reserved for the schools. Subject, "The children of Joseph."

Ensign William Winder, U. S. N., of this city, and Frank Goodwin, Esq., of Cambridge, Mass., sailed from Boston for Queenstown and Liverpool on Tuesday in the Cunard steamer Samaria.

The Federal Fire Society will dine at the Rockingham house on Thursday. On Friday evening Mr. Samuel Barrett will be the host of the Mechanics' Fire Society at a supper at the Rockingham.

A chance to obtain rare curiosities from foreign countries at your own price, will be afforded at the auction sale to be holden at No. 29 Congress street, to commence Thursday evening. See advertisement.

THE VICINITY.

On Sunday forenoon the house and barn of Isaac Emmons, residing near the line between Biddeford and Kennebunkport, was burned to the ground. Part of the furniture was saved.

A concert by the Music hall quartette of this city will be given in the Congregational church at Rye on Tuesday evening, March 11th, for the benefit of the society. Miss Emma J. Flanders, soprano, will assist.

In Saco, Monday, the republicans reelected Mayor Clark by a majority of 199 over the demo-greenback candidate, and carried five wards out of seven. At Kennebunk all the republican candidates were elected; and at Kennebunkport a ticket bearing the names of republicans and hard-money democrats, but no greenbackers, was successful.

The schooner Northern Star, which went ashore at Varrell's point, Rye, on the night of the 25th of February, was towed off the beach by steamer Clara Bateman, Capt. Rand, on Tuesday morning at high water, and taken into Rye harbor. The schooner has sustained but little damage, and will sail for Gloucester as soon as she gets her fishing gear and ballast on board.

TEMPERANCE MUTUAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

The following officers have been chosen by the Temperance Mutual Relief Association, for the ensuing term:

President, Stephen W. Clarke;
Vice Presidents, Frank G. Thurston, George W. Randall;
Corresponding Secretary, Horace A. Martin;
Recording Secretary, Otis F. Philbrick;
Bookkeeper, Albert Stringer;
Asst. Bookkeeper, James S. Treat;
Trustees, James Sanborn, John E. Roberts, Daniel L. Randall, Elisha Tripp, Ezekiel Burns, William B. Colley, Alfred F. Craig.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

The jury in the case of Dr. Charles W. Hackett against the Eastern railroad on Monday afternoon brought in a verdict awarding the plaintiff damages in the sum of $39,501.81.

GENEVIEVE WARD AS JANE SHORE.

It is no ordinary dramatic treat that is to be enjoyed in Music hall, Saturday night, in the appearance of Genevieve Ward and Jarrett and Palmer's Company. The Albany, N. Y., Chronicle says:

Genevieve Ward's appearance in the Opera house last night proved no exception to the general rule, for a large, fashionable and cultivated audience witnessed her representation of "Jane Shore" with genuine pleasure. In all the varying scenes of the powerfully wrought play—when at the zenith of her power in the first act, crushed and humiliated in the second, doomed to a terrible penance in the third, the miserable plight she finds herself in at the fourth, until at last in the fifth her husband is reconciled to her, her child restored and the pleasures of home-life once more before her—it was "Jane Shore" the audience pitied, applauded, and wept over, and not Miss Genevieve Ward! Her Madonna-like face and beautiful profile could not be obliterated even when clothed in the rags of squalid poverty in the harrowing scenes of the fourth act, where the celebrated "snow scene" is introduced with such good effect. She was twice called before the curtain to acknowledge the enthusiastic plaudits of the audience.

THE "FURNESS ABBEY."

The dimensions of the new barque "Furness Abbey" are as follows: Length of keel 186 feet; length at measuring plane, 193 feet, 6 in.; length over all, 208 feet; extreme breadth, 36 feet; depth of hold, 22 ft., 4 in.; registered tonnage, 1083.06. She was built at Kennebunk, Me., by Capt. N. L. Thompson, under the supervision of Capt. Wm. Leavitt of Portland, surveyor for the Record of the Shipmasters' Association, and Capt. Geo. A. Preble of Bath, surveyor for the Bureau Veritas; that she is of the best materials and put together in the best manner is shown by her high rating, viz.: * A 1 for twelve years in the Record, and 3 | 3 A 1 | 1 for twelve years in the Bureau Veritas—the highest rating given to any vessel. Her model is of medium sharpness, and she is designed to sail well and carry a large cargo. She is chartered to load oil at Philadelphia for Japan, and will leave Kennebunkport for Philadelphia this week, probably Thursday. She has the highest rate of freight that has been paid for some time.

Her stores were furnished by N. F. Mathes & Co., of this city; the carpets, table and bed linen, etc., by Ayers & Locke; cabin furniture, mattresses, etc., by Fletcher & Tanton; ship chandlery, by Rider & Cotton; and the medicine chest was packed by Dr. Wm. R. Preston. The glass, crockery, cutlery and pantry fixtures were furnished by Abram French & Co., of Boston, and the camboose and galley fittings by F. D. Chase of Boston.

Capt. John G. Moses of this city is managing owner of the Furness Abbey, and Capt. Henry Libby her master.

THE SOUTH MILLPOND.

The winter is far spent, and the south millpond, instead of being effectually cleaned, is at present in a little better condition than ever before to create a pestilence on the advent of hot weather. The city fathers have done a good deal of talking on the subject; the old mill and tide-gates have been removed, thus making sure that the foul bed of the pond shall be exposed to the sun's action for a large part of every day; and—that's all.

Some time ago Mr. Norton introduced in the board of aldermen a plan for a new bridge and tide-gates at the outlet of the pond, which was adopted; this plan provided for a waterway twenty-five feet wide between the abutments, with tide-gates to retain the water in the pond when desired, and the space to be spanned by a bridge so constructed as to be easily floated out of place on a scow, so as to admit a dredging machine to the pond at any time. This plan may not be the cheapest and best one possible; but it is a plan, and if carried out properly would prove an effective one; and when the board of aldermen adopted it the citizens did begin to hope that something practical was to be done toward abating the nuisance which has been so loudly and justly complained of.

But at the last meeting of the board the vote of the previous meeting was overturned, and another plan adopted. The new plan contemplates leaving between the abutments of the bridge the stone pier now there, and which has a waterway of nine feet wide on each side, and the construction of gates to retain the water in the pond as in the former plan. But this plan, if carried out, will render it impossible to remove the filth from the bottom of the pond in any other way than with shovels and carts, for neither scow nor dredge can be taken into the pond; and when the time comes—and it will come—that the purifying work must be done, it will be a slow and probably a very costly job. To one citizen at least, the plan adopted at the last meeting of the city government seems very much like a patchwork job, whose initial cost may possibly be less than the other plan would demand, but which in the end will be both expensive and unsatisfactory.

The citizens care little whether one alderman's plan or another's is approved; but they do care, and have a right to demand, that the plan which promises the best results in the end be adopted, and at once. Both the plans referred to provide for the temporary abatement of the millpond nuisance during the coming summer, by keeping it smothered under a sheet of water; but the first plan looks to the effectual removal of the cause of the nuisance, which the last one does not seem to consider at all. The aldermen will do well to remember that the best plan is the cheapest, and that no partial remedy will be satisfactory. SCENTER.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, March 24th.

At the town hall on Friday evening last, Mr. Jed. E. Lord entertained a fair-sized audience with readings. All of his selections were excellent, and gave unbounded satisfaction to his listeners, while in his humorous pieces he fairly convulsed the house. Particularly was this the case in the selection from Mrs. Stowe's Old-Town Folks, entitled "Laughing in meeting," and also in the "Dutchman's remarks in a prayer-meeting." Rev. Mr. Jones is entitled to the thanks of all who were present, for such an enjoyable evening, as it was through his efforts that Mr. Lord was induced to appear in this town.

For other entertainments on the docket, —a school exhibition at the town hall is talked of, and something unique by the Congregational society before long.

The gathering of the young folks at the town hall on Thursday evening last was a very pleasant affair,—so those who attended say; about one hundred were present, and they must have had a good time, eating, playing, and perhaps flirting, for they did not go home to their mammas until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

The two vessels which came ashore near Rye harbor last week narrowly missed sailing directly into it, in which case there wouldn't have been the slightest difficulty in sailing out again, when they got ready to do so. It seems that the captains were a little out of their reckoning, for when they struck they thought they were on the "Western Sisters," near Whale's-back light. The Rival has about gone to pieces, but the Northern Star will be got off. A visit to the scene of the wrecks, the morning after, was well worth a few miles' ride over the snowdrifts; and it seemed too bad that an artist was not there to sketch the picture—the ocean and the Shoals in the distance, and the two vessels,—one off Ragged neck, with one side of her partly gone, masts broken, rolling almost over when the surf struck her, and when a wave larger than the others would come and dash completely over her decks—then back she would roll again, while the shrouds, which were all that seemed to hold her masts from going by the board, would seem to be strained to their utmost tension. The other schooner lay bow on, on the southern side of the harbor, near Capt. Varrell's house, and was not much injured. Hundred of white-winged gulls were flying overhead, while hundreds of others were floating on the sea; scores of people were on the shores, watching the wrecks, and two small boats were out on the angry waters, waiting, perhaps, for an opportunity to board the doomed craft. The owners of the vessels had just come down by rail from Gloucester, with the insurance agent, and were looking at their property and probably reckoning what their losses would be.

From one side of Rye harbor to the other is but a gunshot, and a good boat and a pair of oars will put one across in a few minutes; but if the route is via the highway, the traveller has to go a distance of nearly or quite five miles to land on the other side. If the projected boulevard, or whatever it is called, from Boar's Head to Odiorne's point along the shore, is ever completed, either a bridge or ferry at the harbor will be one of the sine qua nons, to make the thing a success. NAT.

SUPREME COURT.

Case Charles W. Martin vs. Levi G. Towle was given to the jury on Tuesday.

Singularly enough, Judge Foster has seemed disinclined to follow the custom practiced by so many judges of calling the docket when nothing else offers, but it takes the course of former days and is to be disposed of at the end of the term. The call of the docket is expected for to-day.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGON, D. C., Feb. 28th.

That was a pleasing incident in the House the other day, when Speaker Randall asked for a committee of investigation to vindicate his character from the assaults of a newspaper correspondent, and received not only a unanimous vote in his behalf, but a vindication at the hands of many of the republican members individually. Mr. Hale said emphatically, that he did not think any committee was needed to vindicate the Speaker, for all who knew him knew perfectly well that his character for integrity, public and private, was unassailable. Judge Kelley and others repeated substantially the same remarks, until finally the auditors signified their approval by applause, all of which must have been very gratifying to Mr. Randall, who, however objectionable he may be to some as a partisan leader, certainly stands high as a man and public officer.

The Senate spent about four hours in executive session, and confirmed a large number of executive nominations. But there was one case of rejection that was very significant. On the 4th inst. the name of E. T. Fox was sent in for reappointment as collector of the port of Bangor, Me. Shortly after that, Senator Hamlin made a brief speech in opposition to the New York nominations. On the 6th the name of Mr. Fox was withdrawn, and soon after the name of another person, unknown and unacquainted with the government service, was sent in. Mr. Fox is an honest, efficient officer, who takes little part in politics, and answers every requirement of the so-called civil service reform, and the case was aggravated by the President's having sent his name in and then withdrawn it right upon the heels of another personal controversy. Well, this case came up in the Senate yesterday, and the new appointee did not receive a single vote, which is a case of rejection I believe without precedent. What the President will do now is not known, but the universal judgment is that he made a grand mistake which can be repaired only by again nominating Mr. Fox. KNOX.

—A young man who has tried everything else and failed writes to the Vicksburg Herald to inquire, the requisites for a good reporter and gets for answer: "A bottle of whisky, a lead pencil, a cast-iron constitution, and a rhinoceros hide."

—Science says now that kissing on the lips must be abolished in the interest of health. Most potent, grave and reverend seigneurs, scholars and philosophers, there are moments you know nothing of, when a man don't care two cents for science, and when he is going to plant kisses where they belong, if the laws of health are ripped from Alpha to Bersheba.—Stillwater Lumberman.

—A minister in Madison, Wis., has been singularly converted. He was thrown from a wagon several months ago. He struck on his head, fracturing his skull, and for weeks his life was in danger. He has at last recovered perfect health, but his friends are surprised to observe that his orthodoxy has been unaccountably destroyed. He was a Baptist before the accident, now he is a Unitarian, with a touch of Spritualism, and has lost all belief in the doctrines that he used to preach.

—There is a woman in Kingston, N.Y., who got ahead of the lawyers eighteen years ago, and has kept her head. At that time her husband died, leaving a last will and testament. She quietly raised the corner of her apron and dropped that last will and testament into her pocket; and she kept her mouth closed. As the bulk of the property was given to her by the will, the good woman had nothing to gain by concealing the document. Why did she pocket it? Maybe because she was a woman.

A Visage Rivalling in Yellowness

That of a "heathen Chinee," if belonging to one of our race, can scarcely be described in attractive. But worse than this, it is the index of a disordered liver, of a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand, prompt, efficacious. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will expel the misdirected bile from the blood and divert it into the proper channel, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness, and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver, which must always exist when the skin and whites of the eyes assume this yellow hue. The pains through the right lower ribs, side and shoulder blade, the nausea, furred state of the tongue, and unpleasant breath which indicate liver complaint, in short all its disagreeable concomitants are soon remedied by this sovereign corrective, which in addition to its regulating properties is a superb invigorant, and a pure and agreeable medicinal stimulant, appetizer and nervine.

Lung Fever is hard to endure, but you have no excuse for having it, when you can cure your colds and coughs which will surely lead to it by using Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Faith Begets Hope.

The second Tuesday of March is the regular day for the drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company's Monthly Grand Distribution. The State has wisely in its charter protected its franchises against any invasion for twenty-five years from the date thereof (1868), and the revenue it derives therefrom is especially acceptable at this hour of its absolute financial distress.

Fifty Cents will do it! What? Why cure your cold or cough by using a bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The Value of Time.

As in a fire the loss greatly depends upon the time required for efficient aid to arrive, so the result of catarrh greatly depends upon the speedy use of efficient remedies. For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been the standard remedy. The positive cures it has effected are numbered by thousands. Each year has witnessed an increased sale. Its reputation is the result of superior merits. If the disease has extended to the throat or lungs, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used with the Catarrh Remedy. These two medicines will speedily cure the most stubborn case of catarrh. See Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work of over 900 pages. Price, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Take according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In addition to the testimonials published in pamphlet form, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a lady from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 172 pounds, and she is in perfect improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWERS & WEBSTER, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical careers. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the diseases for which it is recommended, I take it and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not profess to cure a "cure-all," but I do claim a admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough Blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and the effects of Mercury, or Enfeebling and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Fever-sores, Hip-joint Disease, Salt-rheum, Scaly or Rough skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Rash, Erysipelas, Blotches, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots upon face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are expressed. As a remedy for all cases of Liver Complaint, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and entire cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has proved its efficacy in the most decisive manner. Many eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of clean, crude, and bitter ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Dyspepsia, Foul Breath, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Inflammation, Costiveness, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In conjunction of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most satisfactory results. Sold by druggists.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated so much so as to be almost in danger of my choking to death. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused me the greatest pain in my throat and head. Mucus would collect so fast in my throat and head that I was almost choked to death. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharge. It stopped it completely in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to their usual size, and they have not troubled me since. The severe pains across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave was dispelled by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I saw such a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the records of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent aliists in my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

Temperance and Prohibition.

Rev. A. P. Peabody, D. D., President of Harvard University, has written a long letter to the Cambridge (Mass.) Tribune, from which we make extracts as follows:

No price can be named that would not be worth paying, could the land be purged of this vice [drunkeness.] The only question among the friends of their country and their race is as to the best methods of promoting this end, and we shall give in the sequel our reasons for believing that prohibitory legislation is not among these methods. * * * * We are not going to call in question the expediency of total abstinence, and the beneficent working of the pledge. But we do hold as worthy of the severest censure, and as fraught only with wrong and mischief, the assumption made by many workers in the temperance reform, that all who will not pronounce their shibboleth and stand upon their platform are enemies of the temperance cause, accessories to drunkenness and its concomitant vices, and recreants to the common weal. All this, and more, has been currently maintained; and we have often heard it publicly asserted, that the men who defend or tolerate the moderate use even of the lightest wines, are to be regarded as holding a moral position beneath that of the drunkard or the liquor vender.

Moreover, it is confidently maintained that, until this class of men shall be brought over to the ground occupied by those who monopolize the title of friends of temperance, the cause must remain stationary or decline. Now if the really temperate, but not wholly abstinent men, were more prudently self-indulgent sensualists, their conversion ought to be the foremost aim with the reformers. But many of them are sincere and active philanthropists, who would shrink from no sacrifice which they deemed it their duty to make. Many of them are men to whom total abstinence would be no sacrifice; who do not drink in a year as many glasses of wine as they spend hours in the effort to save drunkards from the ruin of their souls. Some of them are on religious grounds unwilling to denounce as utterly sinful and abominable a beverage, the use of which at least seems to have been approved and sanctioned by the Saviour. Some sincerely believe wine healthful and salutary when taken in moderation, and stronger liquors valuable for medicinal uses. Others think that the majority of men of moderate mental culture need and crave at certain seasons some physical restorative, stimulant or luxury; that this want will at all events satisfy itself somehow, and that its safest supply would be best ensured by encouraging the use of the least alcoholic wines and malt liquors, and seeking to arrest the consumption of stronger liquors. Others, again, hold that temperance as a virtue is of immeasurably higher worth than abstinence; that he who governs his appetites is much more of a man than he who pledges himself not to undertake the control of them; and that what society most needs is men who shall stand alone (or rather alone with God), shall know how to use all God's gifts without abusing any of them, and shall have for their conscience an interior sense of right, and not the substitute for it furnished by societies and combinations for reform. Now we do not say that all or any of these grounds are valid; but we do say that they are so numerously, strongly and respectably maintained as to be impregnable in the present condition of society. Meanwhile, it can hardly be asserted that the temperance cause has made any appreciable advance in the last thirty years. * *

Two of the great practical errors of the more active temperance reformers have been the concentration of wrath, denunciation and prohibitive effort upon the vendors of strong drink, and the exceeding leniency with which the crime of drunkenness has been treated.

The sale of intoxicating drinks in irrepressible, so long as they are wanted. Demand will create and ensure supply, unless peremptory laws of nature interpose their veto. If the open sale be prevented, the traffic will still go on in secret. If it be suppressed in shops, it will take refuge in kitchens and chambers. If it be driven out of some single town or precinct, and there be still drinkers left, they will find their way to the nearest place of sale, or will club their resources to purchase a supply in common. * * We doubt whether anything is gained by encouraging a clandestine traffic. Very few who have not acquired a perilous hankering for strong drink will resort for it to the places of its public sale; those who have this hankering will not be slow in ascertaining where their bane is hidden; and excess can hardly fail to run to greater extreme in cellars and garrets, out of the sight and hearing of the police, than where "hell is naked, and destruction hath no covering."

There are, however, secret drunkards who are completely cut off from their supply, when the usual places of sale are closed; and for their sake we would not have them closed. The effect is not to save them, but to drive them from bad to worse. Under such conditions there has been reported a sudden and portentous increase of the sale of opium, laudanum, morphine; and not only are these more speedily ruinous to body and mind than whiskey and brandy, but they are much more subtile and stubborn enemies for the reformer to deal with.

We have not a word of apology for the owners and keepers of bars and drinking shops, whether vulgar or genteel. They are feeding a most degrading vice, and they know what they are doing. But denunciation cannot drive them from their business; and if it did, they would but yield place to a still lower and more pernicious class of dealers. There is, however, a distinction which ought to be made in all reason and justice. There are men who sell wine, ale and brandy, without an conscious connection with drunkenness and its attendant vices. Their customers are, wholly or for the most part, temperate, if not abstinent men and women. They furnish such supplies as are demanded for use in the families that depend upon them. No good purpose is served by branding them with the obloquy which is abundantly due to those who knowingly look to drunkenness for their livelihood. Moreover, this description of business cannot be put down or checked by abuse. It has suffered but little disturbance, probably no actual interruption, at times when prohibitory laws have been ostensibly enforced. It will out, and not in bad general repute, as long as the domestic habits that sustain it remain unchanged.

It has not been sufficiently borne in mind that in this whole matter the causative sin is drunkenness, and the chief sinner is the drunkard. It is not the venders that make the drunkards, but the drunkards that make the venders. The men who knowingly sell strong drink to the intemperate are, no doubt, great sinners; but their customers are by far the greater sinners. The display of bottles and decanters is, indeed, a strong temptation in the hands of a well-skilled dealer; but the opportunity of high profits and great gain is a still stronger temptation, one to which a larger proportion of mankind are subject, and which is less easily resisted. There is no motive power from the outward world so intense in its efficacy, whether for good or evil, as a fixed and earnest demand for marketable commodities.

Our moral indignation then ought to be aimed at the demand. Our efforts at reform ought to have this for their point of attack. Drunkenness has been regarded, not with too much kindness, indeed, (for none claim our kindness so urgently as those who do not deserve it), but with far too much indulgence, often with a sympathy which merits no better name than maudlin, and with an undue readiness to extenuate its guilt. In its earlier stages it receives little censure; indeed, is oftener laughed at than rebuked. There is society calling itself good, in which the vapid mirth engendered by somewhat free drinking is received, not with disgust, but with flattery. There are circles of men, and some of both men and women, in which the lighter forms of intoxication are held blameless, are regarded on certain occasions as a matter of course, and are never called by the bad names which rightfully belong to them.

Then when one has been nursed into drunkenness, and the fact that he is a drunkard can be no longer concealed or disguised, all kinds of apologies are made for him. His immediate family blame society for having petted and caressed him into amiable foibles. His friends outside of the home-circle regard it as an inheritance, if not from his father, from an ancestry more or less remote, and if he has had an intemperate tenth cousin, this fact is sufficient to show that he was born with the fatal proclivity, and is but bearing the penalty of some far away progenitor's sin. The reformer lays all the evil at the gate of "those accursed rumsellers," though in fact the habit was fully established before he ever darkened their doors.

The law ought to recognize, as it does not yet, the guilt of drunkenness. There is no greater sin against society; for the drunkard is liable as a pauper to prey upon it, and as an unconscious criminal to commit the greatest outrages on the persons and property which it is bound to protect. Why should not this mother crime be treated with the severity reserved for many of its hateful progeny? A man has no right to be protected by society even in solitary drunkenness; for his vice cannot be so hidden that it shall not make its influence contaminating, bring misery upon his family, and endanger the community. We would have drunkenness whenever detected and proved, liable to ignominious punishment, no matter what may be the age, rank, or condition of the offender. We would have even the boy who is seen drunk for the first time arraigned at the police court, and sentenced for at least a day or two to the house of correction; and the confirmed drunkard ought to be kept within prison walls and on prison fare long enough for the alterative treatment to renovate his physical constitution, and to give him strength to remain sober.

Were drunkenness thus treated by society and by the law, its beginnings would be arrested. Boys and young men of decent families would be as little inclined to drink to excess as they now are to pick pockets. Were immoderate drinking visited with a tithe of the odium that rests on the drunkard's creature and victim, the rumseller, very few would be found bold and reckless enough to set foot on the steep declivity that leads to the drunkard's grave.

We cannot but believe that total abstinence would gain more adherents in this way than in any other; for prudent parents would regard abstinence as safer for their children than temperance, and wine—if not wholly excluded from domestic use—would take the only place which, if any, belongs to it, as an occasional refreshment for those who have the discretion to use it aright, or whose age or infirmity may seem to require it.

Portsmouth Chronicle

THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1879.

More Congress—Thanks to Democratic Partisanship.

The called session of the 46th Congress, made necessary by the action of the democrats in the last House in refusing to pass the needed appropriation bills, will meet at noon on the 18th inst. The only possible "national advantages" which can result from the reckless partisanship of the democrats in forcing an extra session, will be the getting control by the democrats of the Senate offices a few months sooner than they otherwise would do, and the possible election of the Kentucky Bourbon democrat Blackburn as Speaker of the House in place of Randall. Whether the business interests of the country will consider these "advantages" as an adequate offset to the derangement and depression of trade consequent on the uncertainty which all business men feel as to what Congress may do, time only will show. For the present, reckless democratic partisanship has carried its point.

News and Notes.

The Massachusetts Home Missionary Society has begun suit in Chicago against William J. Davis, its late financial agent, to recover $50,000 alleged to have been lost through questionable practices of Davis in placing loans.

W. H. Cox of Nashville, Tenn., a white man, was killed by two negroes named Steve Shields and Walter Davis, on the 4th inst. Shields had Cox indicted for committing rape on his wife, and when Cox found it out he went to Shields' house with the intention of killing him. He fired and wounded Davis in the thigh, when he was killed by the two. Cox killed a man at Nashville in 1869. Both negroes gave themselves up, and were discharged by the authorities.

A sixty-days "walking tournament" is now going on in New York city. Two women are engaged in a walk of 4000 quarter miles in as many quarter hours. A man is trying to walk 3000 half miles in 3000 half hours. Two men and a woman are engaged in a six days walk.

The government of Thessaly has telegraphed the Constantinople government that a band of 500 Greeks have crossed the frontier and destroyed the village of Kronlikionter.

Van Ness, a "walking man" in New York, not having received any gate-money during a long walk on which he is engaged, got drunk and shot his trainer and wounded another man, just to let them know he was not to be trifled with. He continued his walk and was not arrested, as the trainer was not killed.

Schooner Hattie N. Gove of Gloucester has been awarded $6000 salvage for accompanying ship Syren, from Honolulu for New Bedford, into Bermuda, Jan. 10th. The schooner was bound from Portland for Baltimore, and went out of her course to accommodate the disabled ship.

R. M. Martin, once a wealthy merchant, who gave $100,000 to churches in New York a few years ago, and who was a liberal contributor to the hospital expenses of the New England soldiers' rooms during the war, has been arrested in New York for stealing a shirt from a boarding house. Business misfortune, hard drinking and consequent debasement tell the fearful story.

Dr. William Eddy, son-in-law of N. P. Willis, ruined by drink, stepped into an Edinburg, Pa., bar-room the other day, fell to the floor, and died in half an hour from the effects of a dose of chloral. The example of Willis was not in the line of abstinence, and sad results followed.

The Vanderbilt will contest is ended. The Tribune says the termination was brought about by a compromise which involves also the pending suit of Cornelius Vanderbilt against Wm. H. Vanderbilt. Some of the evidence which the two plaintiffs, Mrs. La Bau and her brother, were prepared to submit in the event of a further contest of their claims, was told to Judge Rapallo, and on the latter's advice, negotiations and compromises followed. Cornelius J. Vanderbilt is to receive one million and his expenses in the suit in the supreme court, and Mrs. La Bau, now Mrs. Berger, a like amount and costs, and the will of the late Commodore Vanderbilt is to remain uncontested. It is understood all the other heirs have been satisfied, and that the numerous individual beneficiaries by memoranda left by the testator with Wm. H. Vanderbilt, will receive their full claims.

Charles P. Stickney, the Fall River defaulter, has been sentenced to five years in State prison.

Alfred Paraff, who, with his wife, formerly boarded at the City hotel in Providence, wore brilliant diamonds and spent money like water, is now in a dungeon in Chili, under a sentence of five years.

A despatch from Oregon says that Chief Moses has escaped from the Indian reservation, and it is feared that he will involve the country in a bloody war. The situation is one of great peril; and it is now thought that war with Moses and other tribes is inevitable.

Litolff's Musical World for March contains four new pieces of music for the piano, either one of which is worth more than the price of this number of the magazine. Published by Clemens Schultze, No. 40 Winter street, Boston; price twenty-five cents per number, or $2.50 per year.

The Library Magazine is one of the neatest and handiest in form of all the monthlies, and very much the cheapest; it gives from the pens of the ablest living writers a choice variety of articles, both timely and entertaining. Number two, just ready, contains articles by Gladstone, R. A. Proctor, Prof. Huxley, Bayne, Julia Kavanagh, M. Monod, Canon Curteis, and other writers less famous, but hardly less interesting. There are 128 pages, and the price is ten cents a number or one dollar a year. American Book Exchange, Publishers, 55 Beekman street, New York.

WHEAT MEAL!

—OR—

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

Miss Caroline Wendell had a fall at her residence on Pleasant street, on the 5th inst., and broke her arm.

Mrs. Monroe will be at Congress hall at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the 8th inst., to form a new class in dancing. All the new dances taught. Private lessons given at any hour, on application being made at the hall on Saturday afternoon.

The Portsmouth Brewing Co. have recently built a handsome and comfortable office for the transaction of their business on Bow street. The walls and ceiling are wainscoted with ash, and oiled, presenting a very neat apparance. The office furniture is all of the best modern pattern, and the company's counting-room is now a first-class one in every respect.

There was a fifty-mile walking match at Portland on Monday, the 3d inst., nine competitors entering, though only four completed the distance, the others falling out when they saw their chances were hopeless. Driscoll, who some weeks ago tramped around in Franklin hall in this city, was one of the four who walked the full distance, coming in third at the end.

In another part of this paper will be found somewhat copious extracts from an article on temperance, prohibition, etc., in the Tribune of Cambridge, Mass., written by Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody. His views on these important questions will be read with interest, and will furnish food for reflection even with those who differ in opinion from the learned writer.

May Fisk's English Blondes, (reinforced since they were here before by Mr. John Pendy, Mr. Sam Lang, Miss Jeffreys Werner, Miss Dolly Sharp, Miss Milly Mahretta—the "statue queen"—and Miss Beatrice Vernon, serio-comic vocalist,) will appear at Music hall Friday evening. They have had large audiences in other places, and will here we have no doubt. Tickets 50 and 35 cents; see advertisement.

On a recent warm day a young business man leaned back in a chair in his counting-room at the north end of Market street, and went to sleep. A friend coming in spoke to him, and receiving no answer gave the slumberer a gentle kick with a rubber boot, and ran out of the office without being seen. The startled sleeper sprang up, ran into a neighboring shop in a state of great excitement, and told a soul-harrowing tale of how some person had just shot at him—he saw the flash and heard the report, and the office was filled with the smell of gunpowder! It took some time to persuade the assaulted party that he had been shot at with a rubber boot, but we are informed that he was finally convinced, and then "set 'em up"—whatever that may mean.

THE VICINITY.

The Dover flute band and North Hampton drum corps are to give a ball in Dover on Thursday evening.

It is stated that the town officers of Wells have been arrested for transacting the town business the past year without having first taken the oath of office.

It is now rumored that the dead body found in a trunk in Lynn a few days since was of a Dover woman named Sanborn, who left there some three or four weeks ago under mysterious circumstances.

Mr. Robert White, of Newcastle, whose death is announced in another place, was a charter member of Piscataqua Lodge of Odd Fellows, of this city. The lodge will attend his funeral on Friday afternoon at half-past twelve o'clock.

The United States District Court comes in at Exeter this (Thursday) morning, for the trial of Charles W. Woodman, assignee in bankruptcy, vs. Warren Brown, postponed some time since by reason of the illness of Mr. Copeland. The session will be short.

Several of our prominent citizens, with a couple of engineers, were engaged yesterday in surveying the proposed line of new road from this city to Eliot, which is now sure to be built. Two routes are proposed of about equal distances, but one will require a shorter and cheaper bridge than the other over the river between New Hampshire and Maine. The snow is about all off on both lines, and there is no difficulty in making the surveys. Individuals in Eliot, York and Dover will take all the stock required to construct the bridge, and it is expected that the whole line will be completed the coming season.—Dover Democrat.

The Dirigo brass band of Kittery gave a minstrel entertainment in Trefethen's hall on the evening of the 4th inst. The show was attended by a large audience, the band clearing about $30; and so well was the entertainment received that it was repeated the following evening.

The school district meeting in Rochester was held on Saturday, the 1st inst. Many women were present to vote. According to the Dover Democrat's report the moderator elected was either a fool or not quite sober, and a disgracefully large proportion of the male voters were drunk—the upshot of the whole being that all the work done at the meeting will have to be done over again, it not having been done legally. Says the Democrat: "Our informant says that this meeting had within it, acting in the capacity of freemen and voting citizens, a good many who had imbibed heavily of strong potations such as make people intoxicated and noisy, and on the whole it was a most disorderly and ridiculous affair all through. The purpose of the leaders behind the scenes was most probably to bring odium upon this plan of women suffrage in school matters, whereas they only succeeding in bringing odium and disgrace upon themselves. No doubt they prevented a great many women from voting, because they would not mingle in such an unruly crowd."

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Regular meeting Wednesday evening, March 5th; present, the entire board.

The committee on salaries reported, recommending that the services of the writing master be dispensed with, and advising sundry reductions in other salaries, making a net saving of $1275. Report accepted, and laid over until next meeting.

The committee on mode of heating school houses reported, recommending that furnaces be placed in five school buildings. Accepted.

The subject of a teachers' convention to be held in October, was referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. Gardner and Vaughan.

The report of the committee on vacations was accepted.

The committee on grammar grade made a report, which was read and accepted.

N. H. S. P. C. A.

The secretary's report for the last month showed thirteen cases attended to, to-wit: Overloading horses or cattle, two; neglected and starving animals, two; insufficient shelter, two; beating horses, three; driving worn-out horse, one; dog fighting, two; horses found exposed, and blanketed by society' agent, two. Animals killed by order of the society, six.

Mrs. Pickering reported a donation of $50 to the permanent fund of the society, from a friend. A vote of thanks was tendered the donor for this gift.

It was voted that Mr. Goodall be invited to repeat his entertainment for the benefit of the society.

The committee on the distribution of literature reported the progress that had been made in introducing humane books and papers into the schools throughout the State.

Complaint was made that partridges were snared and sold at unlawful times of the year. The president and Mr. Upham were appointed a committee to investigate such sales.

VERY LIKE A WHALE.

Valentine Bagley, one of the crew of the fishing schooner George Washington, of Newburyport, on Tuesday, the 4th inst., caught on a trawl a cod-fish weighing one hundred and thirty-six and a quarter pounds! The schooner's trawls were set in the bay, and the big fish (with the rest of her fare) was sold to Randall & Caswell of this city.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

The repairs and alterations on the Lancaster are being pushed forward as fast as possible, under direction of Naval Constructor Wilson and in accordance with his plans, which have been approved by the department. Material alterations are to be made at the bow and stern; the latter will be made lighter, and have quarter galleries, and the bow will be fitted with a ram. The bowsprit will be fitted so as to be easily rigged inboard in action, so that the ram can be used. Her battery will be of eight-inch rifled guns, instead of smooth-bores as formerly; and the bow and stern ports will be so placed as to allow of guns being fired directly ahead or astern, on a line with the keel, if occasion requires. The larger portion of the timber being used in her frame has been stored on the yard over forty years; and instead of being gotten out in the old way by hewing, it is sawed out by Knowlton's bevel futtock saw, and sided by machine planers.

The supply ship Guard, which arrived here from South America in the early part of the winter, and laid up with closed hatches until recently for sanitary reasons, is now being discharged. It is said that efforts will be made to have her fitted for a receiving ship, to be kept at this station.

The Kearsarge, which is ordered to be fitted for sea, has been reported ready by the construction department; but some work yet remains to be done by the steam engineering department, her engines having required refitting to a great extent.

A board of survey, with Commander Robert F. Bradford as president, has been ordered to examine into the condition of the floating dock, to report to the department what repairs are needed, with estimates of the probable cost of the same.

SUPREME COURT.

WEDNESDAY, March 5; Foster, J.

In case No. 201, Martin vs. Towle, the jury on Wednesday morning after a session until four o'clock, were able to agree on a verdict, and on coming in at ten o'clock the verdict was returned—fifty dollars for the plaintiff. This amount was the precise sum which the plaintiff paid his physician, as was shown on the trial. A motion has been filed to set aside the verdict.

Savings Bank for County of Strafford vs. John W. Getchell. Suit brought to recover rent of store on Water street and a tenement on High street, Exeter, and a brick store which Mr. Getchell occupied and was bound by the occupancy to pay a reasonable rent. It was property originally owned by Joshua Getchell, and mortgaged by him to the bank; the mortgage was foreclosed, and the bank obtained possession May 1st, 1879; and the defendant, John W. Getchell, agreed to become a tenant of the bank, and to pay a reasonable rent. The property was transferred to Mr. Eustace C. Fitz, and though the suit is in the name of the bank the action is for the benefit of Mr. Fitz. The defence was that this is not the proper form of action, when the plaintiff in interest is not the bank. The counsel having reached an arrangement to transfer the law question, the case was taken from the jury. James M. Hurd of Portsmouth was foreman of the jury in this case. All jurors were then discharged from further attendance at this term.

Case No. 90, equity docket, Edward P. Kimball, assignee of the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank vs. Mary S. Norton and Emma Kidder. There are certain books of deposit in the bank, the deposits having been made by Mr. Benjamin Norton, deceased, in the ordinary course of business, under the usual conditions of deposit. Sept. 6th, 1869, Mr. Norton borrowed of the bank, gave his note for the sum borrowed, and pledged these books. The note was from time to time renewed, the books being left as collateral, until Sept. 12th, 1873, when a new note was given, with the books as collateral; and this note remains unpaid, with interest thereon. Mr. Norton also borrowed $100, and gave a book in Mary S. Norton's name, and this note is unpaid. Sept. 15th, he borrowed $50, again pledging the book (still in the bank's possession.) These books and promissory notes are among the assets of the bank; the deposits are not enough for the notes secured by the book of Emma Kidder, but are sufficient with the second book added. This is claimed to be Mrs. Norton's property, and the first book Mrs. Kidder's, and that Mr. Norton had no right thus to pledge the books, etc.

The answer alleges that Mrs. Norton asked her husband to make the deposits from funds accruing to her from a sale of certain estate in Rye devised from a relative. They did not before this bill know what the conditions of deposit were, and their attention was not called to the by-laws, etc., printed in small type, and the rule as to deposits. They are not informed how Mr. Norton became possessed of the books, and deny his right to pledge or any knowledge that he pledged them until long after it occurred. They demanded the books of Mr. Kimball to prove their claim against the bank, but he did not surrender them, but exhibited them to the commissioner to determine the claims of the depositors. The deposition of Mrs. Norton was read as the only piece of evidence, which shew that the books were brought home and locked up in her trunk; afterward she missed them, but did not know of the pledging, and did not consent to it. The defense was that the books were taken from Mrs. Norton without her knowledge or consent, and were not used for her benefit.

The facts were substantially agreed upon, and the questions of law in the case were submitted to the judge, as to whether the finding of the commission appointed to examine the bank's condition is not in the nature of a judgment in favor of Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Kidder. That the bank knew, notwithstanding the by-law, that this was not Mr. Norton's property, and should not have taken it as a pledge without the written consent of the depositors. The books were presented not for payment but for pledge, and the bank was to be put on enquiry as to his authority to pledge; and that this case does not come within the provisions of the by-laws on the contract of deposit.

Authorities on either side were presented. Decision reserved. Page for assignee; Hatch for Kidder and Norton.

No. 132, civil docket, Judge of Probate vs. John S. Conch, Sylvester S. Chamberlain and Henry Moore, was tried by the court. Action on probate bond of $6000. Bond was given by Conch as an administrator of North and Brown, late of Derry, and Chamberlain and Moore are sureties. The order for the suit is at request of a creditor who holds a note of over five hundred dollars against the estate, and upon which Mr. Conch was also liable. Stickney and Hatch for pliff.; Wiggin for Chamberlain and Moore; Bartlett for Conch.

No. 54, equity docket, Vena S. Hibbert vs. James W. Hibbert, was heard, and a divorce decreed. G. K. Bartlett for libellant.

The continued, equity and new dockets were called. The court intimated that the session would close on Friday.

Naval Affairs.

Commo. Shufeldt reported from Sierra Leone, under date of Jan. 31st, that the health of all on board the Ticonderoga continued good.

Chief Engineer John W. Moore is detached from the Washington navy yard, and ordered to duty as a member of the board of inspection.

Chief Engineer Wm. B. Brook is detached from duty on the board of inspection, and ordered to the Washington navy yard.

We are sorry to see in the Boston Herald's Washington dispatch that "Samuel S. Cox of New York, the greenback candidate for Speaker of the next House, was very drunk on the floor of the House Monday night. He also came up to the reporters' gallery, and when he found he could not get in he insulted the doorkeeper."

Mark Leathers, of Barrington, has had his name changed to Mark Stanton. It is said he was the last Leathers left in that town, or at least the last one to have his name on the checklist, all the others having had their names changed by the courts.

A Visage Rivalling in Yellowness

That of a "heathen Chinee," if belonging to one of our race, can scarcely be described as attractive. But worse than this, it is the index of a disordered liver, of a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand, prompt, efficacious. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will expel the misdirected bile from the blood and divert it into the proper channel, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness, and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver, which must always exist when the skin and whites of the eyes assume this yellow hue. The pains through the right lower ribs, side and shoulder blade, the nausea, furred state of the tongue, and unpleasant breath which indicate liver complaint, in short all its disagreeable concomitants are soon remedied by this sovereign corrective, which in addition to its regulating properties is a superb invigorant, and a pure and agreeable medicinal stimulant, appetizer and nervine.

Fifty Cents will do it! What? Why cure your cold or cough by using a bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The Value of Time.

As in a fire the loss greatly depends upon the time required for efficient aid to arrive, so the result of catarrh greatly depends upon the speedy use of efficient remedies. For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been the standard remedy. The positive cures it has effected are numbered by thousands. Each year has witnessed an increased sale. Its reputation is the result of superior merits. If the disease has extended to the throat or lungs, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used with the Catarrh Remedy. These two medicines will speedily cure the most stubborn case of catarrh. See Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work of over 900 pages. Price, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—Mr. Darwin, the celebrated naturalist and evolutionist, has just celebrated his 70th birthday.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence if derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week.
In places the remedy before the public is a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 152 pounds, and she is now in better health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special exercise or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The Sole Agents, Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Means Bros. & Pettingill, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETOR OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It did what it was said to do, and the effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-six pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these disease.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical cures. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, I am satisfied with all honest minds under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, and by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not cite this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all perversions of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of 900 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mercurial Poisons, are effectually eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-Rheum, Tetter, Scald-Head, or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of Liver Complaint only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and permanent cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has established the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold everywhere.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotched Complexion, Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Are does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, and throat, hoarse, difficult breathing, or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or injected by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. DR. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was troubled partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally called in an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve, and by the time my first dose served to clean my head as I had not known it to be for years, I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. I stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I saw even a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and wope to convince many that there is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case, and have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. "

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician a Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a severe injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and plasters, to no avail, I was induced to try your Collins' Voltaic Plaster. My physician recommended one of your Collins' Voltaic Plasters which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and sore ness in a few minutes, and I have since been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was entirely unable to do any thing. I consider them incalculable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours, respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

CALAIS, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. It is equally capable of preventing serious results from these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

MATERIALS.

Prints and jaconets devised in floral patterns are charming reproductions of what nature in her happiest moments has accomplished. But blossoms, buds and attendant leaves of green are a most always very small and cover the surface closely. In all wool, and silk and wool materials, the colors of course become subdued, and here we find the term damasse applied, while reaching yet higher types in all silk we come to those rich brocades which will constitute an important part of the handsomest spring costumes. Pekin stripes are also quite fashionable, and in various widths appear on all classes of goods. For general wear, very thin woolens are in quiet shades of gray or brown, while some of the most expensive have hairs lying flat all over the surface after the manner of India camel's hair, which during the winter was so highly esteemed. Thin gauzes are covered either with brocaded patterns disposed at random over the surface, or in stripes, or are heavily over-ridden by velvet bars or stripes.

MILLINERY.

The most elegant bonnets are of soft yellow Tuscan or chips, and are brought out in shapes which with crown of medium height, show a wide brim of equal dimension all round. This brim the milliner catches according to her fancy, and in consequence we find considerable variety. In general the brim flares over the forehead, but the flowers are not placed inside but outside, where they are used with much boldness. Most frequently they appear in heavy rows without foliage, but sometimes rich sprays are seen; nor are bouquets excluded. Full blown roses are in great favor, as well also as crysanthemums and poppies. Long ostrich plumes sweeps over these fancifully shaped bonnets, and oftentimes the trimming is of soft silk or satin on the bias disposed in folds, while on the inside a lining of dark velvet or a shirring of silk forms an effective contrast. Breton lace is in great favor in millinery, and is combined in all manner of ways. As for ribbons, my whole letter might be devoted to them and yet the description be incomplete. Suffice it to say that every possible variety of floral pattern appears, reaching in the more expensive styles to very elaborate brocades, while stripes, plaids and plain satin, moire or gros grain are in equal favor. Besides ribbons, we find materials in large variety brought out for millinery—gauze, brocades, stripes, plaids, and open work silks called guipures. Rough and ready straws for general wear are more uniform in shape, and while rising to a moderate height over the forehead, are pressed close to the head at the sides. Some are in bright mixtures of color—red, blue, yellow, etc., like the brighter varieties of mixed dress goods. English walking hats re-appear, as well also as turbans; both being variously modified.

COSTUMES.

Combinations costumes are in quite as much favor as they have ever been, and thus while fancifully devised materials appear in overwhelming variety, yet everywhere we see plain goods intended to be used in offset. Short costumes have of course taken firm hold. A charming suit in this style has a short skirt trimmed with double box plaits alternate with bands, and with this, the Zophee overskirt and Directoire jacket are combined. Brocade and satin are the materials used. A pretty house toilette of bronze velvet and damassee is made with Frida overskirt and Melanie basque, while another equally effective, and also with demi-trained skirt, is made Lamballe polonaise, very bouffant in the back, with basque trimmed in front to represent a Louis XVI. vest.

GLOVES.

In gloves, the handsomest novelty of the season is the Harris Paris kid lace top. This as the name shows, has a finishing of finest quality kid cut in imitation Valenciennes lace, which is about three inches wide on the outside of the arm, gradually sloping to the inside, where a small portion is left plain for the button. Prices commence at $1.75. The Harris Prevost side cut glove is much sought after for evening and full dress, while the Harris seamless, from three buttons at $2, is in all lengths, and holds a leading position as both elegant and durable. The Victoria and Donna Marie are excellent gloves at still lower prices.

CARPETS.

Housekeepers in the spring time are wide awake on the subject of carpets. Here we find Persian and Indian patterns very fashionable, as well also as Eastlake and Egyptian design. All new ideas find representation at the leading house of Sheppard Knapp, which rising conspicuous on 13th street and Sixth avenue is the chief business establishment of that portion of the city, now a resort which closely rivals Broadway. Devoted exclusively to carpetings, upholstery and curtains, the stock includes every variety. In the first line we find all styles of carpets, from Moquette to ingrain; in the two last, all goods from the simple and inexpensive to goods of the finest and richest texture. Out of town orders are filled with conscientious care, and have invariably given full satisfaction. Merchants would do well to send for circulars giving a description of the "Carpet Exhibitor," one of the most surprising inventions of the time. By means of it, carpets can be sold from the sample as readily as if a large stock were kept on hand, for the sample being placed within four mirrors standing on edge so as to form a rectangular box of moderate size, the result is a continuous stretch of carpeting covering a space larger than a large apartment, and the housekeeper is thus enabled to perceive precisely how her carpet will look when upon the floor.

LUCY CARTER.

NEW YORK, March 4th.

Portsmouth Chronicle

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1879.

A Warning.

In November last John Pendergrass, of Kingstree, S. C., wrote to the Washington Republican an account of how the election was conducted at that place by the democratic managers, and the researches of the Teller committee fully proved the truth of all that Pendergrass wrote. The South Carolina bull-dozers do not propose to allow their little games with tissue-ballots, etc., to be lightly spoken of, so they brought Pendergrass up before one of their courts, a democratic jury of course convicted him of libel, and he has been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at hard labor, or to pay a fine of $500 and the cost of prosecution. The Charleston News and Courier long ago boasted that the democrats had "all the election officers and the courts," and the fate of Pendergrass it is hoped will be a sufficient warning to republicans in the future not to tell unpleasant truths about democratic reformers.

Cyclopedia of Literature.

The new eight-volume "Acme Edition of Chamber's Cyclopedia of English Literature" is meeting with the largest sale which has probably ever been given to a work having only high literary merit and nothing of the sensational. A second edition of 5,000 copies of volume one is announced as nearly all sold within one month after the issue of the first edition.

Volume two, just ready, gives the history and epitome of our literature, from the "golden age" of Queen Elizabeth to 1700, giving in its 416 beautiful pages biographies of and choice selections from the writings of all noted authors of that period, including Lord Bacon, Sir Walter Raleigh, Burton, Bishop Hall, John Knox, Milton, Dryden, Jeremy Taylor, and others. The work is of such well-known excellence that every person of literary taste possesses or desires to possess some edition of it. This edition is complete in eight handy volumes, excellent in typography, paper and binding, revised to date, and sold at prices so low, that a common question which the publishers have to answer is, "whether the price is for each volume or for the entire work?" It is sold only to subscribers direct, the large discount usually given to dealers and agents being allowed to the subscriber instead. The publishers make special inducements to early purchasers, the eight volumes complete being sent prepaid to those who subscribe before March 15th, in paper, for $2.50, in cloth, $3.50, or in half morocco, gilt top, $5. Specimen pages are sent free on request, or a specimen volume for examination, with privilege of purchase of remainder, for nominal prices: in paper, 20 cents; cloth, 35 cents; half morocco, gilt top, 50 cents. American Book Exchange, Publishers, 55 Beekman St., New York.

News and Notes.

The alarming rumers of the spread of the plague in the east have caused the United States government to issue an order forbidding the importation of rags, furs, etc., from the infected regions or their immediate neighborhood.

A few years ago James F. Westgate, a merchant of Fall River, Mass., died, leaving with his housekeeper, Lydia B. Warren, a note for $15,000, payable to herself. The administrators of his estate were William Durfee and Mary Mason, who contested the payment of the note. It was carried before the supreme court, and argued last October. Judgment has been rendered in favor of the estate, although the general opinion was that the estate would be held liable for the note.

Annie Buckley, thirty-two years old, for some time housekeeper for J. A. French of Fall River, Mass., was found in the vegetable cellar on the 5th last. with her throat cut and a razor by her side. Supposed to be a case of suicide from low spirits.

By an explosion of nitro-glycerine at Dutch Gap, James river, Va., the government contractor for improving the gap was killed, and also the man in charge of the glycerine work, and a negro; and several negroes were injured. Over a hundred pounds of glycerine, in three pits, exploded.

By an explosion in a coal mine near Wakefield, Eng., Wednesday, nineteen persons were killed.

The British barque Star Queen, bound from Nagasaki, Japan, to Shanghai, has been totally wrecked, and the captain and twenty-one seamen drowned.

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has ferreted out a case of extreme cruelty and abuse in East Cambridge, of a sickly boy, named William Gallagher, by his stepmother, whereby his bowels were so much injured as to render it necessary to send him to the general hospital. The father (who consented to the abuse) and the stepmother have been sentenced to hard labor in the house of correction for eighteen months. Serves them right.

A young girl of respectable connections, named Rachel Cruickshank, committed suicide by poison, at her sister's residence in Montreal, Thursday night. She left a letter stating that she had been seduced by a young man of high standing, named Charles McCullough, and was overcome with shame.

A farmer who chews the "weed" sold a load of apples in Springfield, Mass., the other day, and rolled the proceeds up in a little wad and thrust it into his vest pocket. Presently he took a chew, but after grinding it awhile without the usual relish, discovered that he was chewing greenbacks. "I vum!" expressed the intensity of his feelings, and he went off to a bank, where he got eighty cents on a dollar for what there was left.

David O. Gibson and William P. Gibson, having pleaded guilty on several indictments for violating the pension laws and defrauding the government, have been sentenced at Louisville, Ky. The first named got five years in the penitentiary, the last $1000 fine and imprisonment until paid. Four more parties are in jail at Louisville awaiting trial for similar transactions. These persons constitute a gang which has operated in some of the mountain counties of Kentucky with such success for the past few years as to have obtained about $12,000.

In Coffee county, Tenn., on Saturday night, the 1st inst., six or eight masked men called at the cabin of an old negro named Abe Wootten, living eight miles from Manchester, and demanded admittance. He refused, and they set fire to the cabin. Finding that he and his family, a wife and four children, would be burned to death if they remained, the old man rushed out, was seized by the maskers, carried a hundred yards, and shot to death. His wife and children huddled near the dead body of the husband and father till morning.

While a New York police officer was standing on the corner of Canal and Forsyth streets in that city on Wednesday morning, he saw a nude woman walking slowly and deliberately in the middle of the street. Taking her to be a somnambulist he determined to lead her quietly to the police station. Accordingly he stepped into the middle of the street, and, as he confronted her, was startled by her death-like pallor, and fixed, glassy eyes. She did not seem to notice him, and walked straight forward. He rapped for assistance, and, taking hold of her, was about to lead her to the sidewalk, but she fell back into his arms. He lifted her to the curbstone and there found her dead. She proved to be a young woman named Mary Williams, and was twenty-four years of age.

A "Tolerably Safe" Bridge.

A newspaper controversy has been carried on for several months between Prof. George L. Vose of Bowdoin college and the King bridge company of Cleveland, Ohio, relative to the safety of the iron bridge built by that company between Brunswick and Topsham, Me., and resulted in the reference of the subject by the selectmen of the two towns to a commission, consisting of John F. Anderson, railroad commissioner; William A. Goodwin, city engineer of Portland; and Frederick H. Smith, engineer of the Baltimore bridge company. The commission made a careful examination of the bridge, and report the bridge at present tolerably safe for ordinary travel, but that it will be certainly crippled and probably destroyed by a close pack of people or cattle covering any one span. Strengthening by additional iron is recommended. The contractors are shown to have written their own specifications and then disregarded them, and to have made a profit of about fifty per cent on the actual outlay. "Tolerably safe" is good.

Rustic Chains.

A pretty method of making rustic chains to hang from porches, verandas, or garden arches, to support delicate creepers and vines, is much in vogue in Belgium. They are made by taking branches of trees of from one to two inches in diameter and sawing them into lengths of from three to six inches; then cutting willow rods of about the same length; splitting them and bending one half of one so as to form a semi-circle around the end of one of the larger sticks, and fastening it securely by bind nails. Through this loop the bent split willow rod to be fastened to the next bit of stick is passed before being nailed the second time; and so on until the chain is made as long as may be required. The kinds of wood which show to the best advantage in this work are those that have a rough bark, like the Norway spruce. These chains will form very graceful curves, and when covered with a balloon vine or maurandias or morning glories, will attract much attention.

—Wages that have not come down.—A clergyman recently aroused his sleepy audience by asserting in the most positive manner, that, notwithstanding the hard times, the wages of sin have not been cut down one iota.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cr. am of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110-

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

The entertainment in Music hall in aid of the Children's Home netted eighty dollars for that charity.

Portsmouth Grange celebrated its fifth anniversary on Thursday evening with a harvest supper and social good time generally.

Rev. C. B. Pitblado lectures in the Congress street Methodist at church Portland on the evening of the 12th inst.; subject, "Watches."

The fishing schooner Mary S. Hontvet, Hontvet master, arrived on Thursday morning from a trip to Georges, with a fare of about 65,000 lbs. of fish, mostly cod, the result of only two days' actual fishing. The Hontvet had disposed of her fares for four trips ahead, this being her second trip under the contract.

President Marden of the reform club on Thursday received a dispatch from Messrs. Booth and Smith, stating that on account of the illness of Mr. Booth the temperance campaign could not begin next Sunday evening in this city. This is a great disappointment, as unusual preparations had been made for the meeting.

Nathaniel B. Cornell of this city, who for several years has been express messenger for the United States and Canada express company on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, has at his own request been transferred to the route running from Plymouth to Lawrence. His former position has been taken by Frank Stevens of Manchester.

Two of the contestants in a recent walking match of fifty miles, at Portland, were Driscoll of that place and Charles G. Locke of this city, who some time ago walked a match in Franklin hall which was won by Locke. In the Portland match there were ten entries and four prizes; Driscoll came in third at the finish, and took third prize; Locke gave out on the 15th mile, being the first starter to leave the track.

The following is the report of the committee on vacations, accepted by the board of instruction at the last meeting: "The school-year shall be divided into three terms. The fall term shall commence on the Monday next preceeding September first, and close the week-day preceding Christmas. This term shall include a vacation of three days, viz.: Thanksgiving and the two days immediately following. The winter term shall commence the first week-day following January first, and continue until the first Saturday in April; vacation, one week. The spring term shall close on the Saturday nearest July first. The above shall include all of the regular vacations except Washington's birthday, Fast day and Memorial day."

The ninetieth anniversary supper of the Federal Fire Society was served at the Rockingham house on Thursday evening, Capt. Wm. L. Dwight being chairman and Jos. Hiller Foster, Esq., clerk. The custom on such occasions now is to have a much shorter bill of fare than was the case a year or two ago, putting the cost into the quality and preparation of the viands rather than into the quantity; and all who partook of the dinner provided by Capt. Hilton for the brethren of the Fire Society on Thursday, or who saw the tables before—or after—the dinner, will agree that the new plan is a most sensible one. Boiled salmon with shrimp sauce, boiled leg of Kentucky mutton with caper sauce, fillet of beef with mushrooms, galantine of turkey, decorated ham, sweetbreads larded, canvas-back duck, larded quail, lobster salad and the various et ceteras, made a handsome show and furnished ample and satisfying employment for the diners.

We find the following in an exchange: "Pocahontas is to have a monument. Up to the present time there has not been so much as a tablet by the tomb at Gravesend, England, where she lies, as certified by the following entry in the register: '1616, May 21, Rebecca Wrolfe, wyfe of Thomas Wrolfe, gent., a Virginia lady borne, was buried in the chancel.'" Several years ago the Piscataquaico Chowderheads erected a monument to the memory of Pocahontas on the southwest point of Gerrish's island, and it was unveiled with suitable ceremonies—poem, speeches, music, etc.; but the sculptor's work was destroyed by a party of vandals who subsequently went down river on a fishing excursion, and split up the monument to fry canners with. The point is however known as Point Pocahontas to this day.

On Thursday forenoon a walking match was commenced in Music hall, Boston, between Miss Bessie Krohn, a native of Denmark, and Miss May Belle Sherman, who has done some walking in this city. The match is to decide which of the two women can walk the greatest number of miles in sixty-four hours, and the contest will terminate on Saturday evening at half-past eleven o'clock.

Miss Mary Miller, at her studio in this city, has just finished a portrait in oil of Mrs. Wm. H. Brewster of Newburyport, of which the Weekly says: "we know full well it is an accurate likeness of an excellent lady." Miss Miller's portrait of Miss Bettie Denny of this city has received much commendation at Childs' art store in Boston.

Mrs. Monroe will be at Congress hall at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the 8th inst., to form a new class in dancing. All the new dances taught. Private lessons given at any hour, on application being made at the hall on Saturday afternoon.

THE VICINITY.

It is said that the national government has succeeded in getting a clear title to the Nubble, at York, and that a lighthouse will at once be erected there.

The pedestrian contest in the city hall at Dover, on Wednesday evening of this week, between Eaton of Dover and Harrington of Great Falls, for $25 a side, was won by Harrington, who ran ten miles in one hour and twenty minutes, Eaton walking eight miles in one hour and twenty-one minutes.

The Times of Thursday evening says: "There are reports that the dead body found in the Saugus river at Lynn last week may have some connection with the woman who suddenly disappeared from Rye one night recently, and whose whereabouts is a mystery." Alluding to this rumor a correspondent sends us the following: "Miss Melissa G—— of Rye disappeared from her home a month ago, since which time not the slightest trace of her has been discovered. She is twenty years old, six feet in height and rather stout; and as the body found in Lynn is that of a woman of a medium height and weighing less than a hundred pounds, no connection of the missing woman from Rye with that case is possible."

MAY FISK'S BLONDES,

Strongly reinforced since the troupe's former appearance in this city, will give an entertainment at Music hall this evening. There is no similar troupe now playing in the country, and it is claimed that this is a better one than any of its predecessors. There will be a large audience, if it is the Lenten season. Admission—parquet and balcony, 50 cents, gallery 25 cents.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, March 6; Batchelder, J.

Edward B. Stover and his son, John H. Stover, were arraigned for brawl and tumult, and both adjudged guilty, sentence being suspended during good behavior.

John H. Stover was then arraigned for an assault on his father, but on this complaint was discharged.

ORDER OF THE GOLDEN CROSS.

A Commandery of the United Order of the Golden Cross was instituted in this city on Wednesday, Feb. 5th, by Deputy Grand Commander Joseph H. Morgan of Lawrence, Mass. This is a beneficiary secret order, founded upon principles of morality, benevolence and temperance, and securing to its members a life insurance not exceeding two thousand dollars. Ladies are admitted to full membership and equal rights in the order, and have contributed largely to its success. In Lawrence there are three Commanderies, with a membership of five hundred. The officers of the Commandery established here are as follows:

S. C. Whittier, M. D., Past Noble Commander;
S. W. Clarke, Noble Commander;
Rev. E. M. Grant, Noble Vice Commander;
Rev. C. B. Pitblado, Worthy Prelate;
William P. Walker, Worthy Herald;
Charles H. Marston, Keeper of Records;
A. Coburn Hoyt, Financial Keeper of Records.
James Janvrin, Treasurer;
James Sanborn, Warder of the Inner Gate;
Alfred Stavers, Warder of the Outer Gate.

DRESS--MOTHERS.

The Journal and Times, through their correspondents "Inches" and "An Old Graduate," are stirring up the graduating-dress question. It is a waste of pen, ink and paper, though, as these friends of ours, who have thus early and zealously besought the public ear, will sooner or later learn. The custom of making graduating day an occasion for a display of fine clothes is a modern one, and has its origin in the habits and examples of the mothers themselves. "Like parent, like child," is the adage, and until the parents (especially the mothers) of our children place a higher estimate upon the mind than upon the attire of the body, we must expect the regretful annual exhibition of rivalry in the adornment of the person at high school exhibitions, or wherever conspicuousness is possible. So, dear friends, cease your scribbling, and do a little missionary work. Take a list of the girls of the fourth class in our High school; then call upon their respective mothers, use your arguments and eloquence upon them and save your otherwise wasted ammunition.

PARENT.

GENEVIEVE WARD AS JANE SHORE.

It is no ordinary dramatic treat that is to be enjoyed in Music hall, to-morrow night, in the appearance of Genevieve Ward and Jarrett and Palmer's Company. They have been playing in Albany for the past week, and the Chronicle of that city says:

Genevieve Ward's appearance in the Opera house last night proved no exception to the general rule, for a large, fashionable and cultivated audience witnessed her representation of "Jane Shore" with genuine pleasure. In all the varying scenes of the powerfully wrought play—when at the zenith of her power in the first act, crushed and humiliated in the second, doomed to a terrible penance in the third, the miserable plight she finds herself in at the fourth, until at last in the fifth her husband is reconciled to her, her child restored and the pleasures of home-life once more before her—it was "Jane Shore" the audience pitied, applauded, and wept over, and not Miss Genevieve Ward! Her Madonna-like face and beautiful profile could not be obliterated even when clothed in the rags of squalid poverty in the harrowing scenes of the fourth act, where the celebrated "snow scene" is introduced with such good effect. She was twice called before the curtain to acknowledge the enthusiastic plaudits of the audience.

A DENIAL.

The Boston Post says:

Rev. L. A. Palmer, gospel temperance revivalist, whose honesty was recently indirectly impugned by a Manchester paper in which city he had lately been laboring, writes from Quincy, Ill., denying most emphatically said insinuations. Instead of carrying away some $700 as a recompense for his three weeks' labors in that city, as the paper stated, he says that the total contributions were $510, with expenses of $261.70, leaving a balance of $248.30 as the sole remuneration received by him and Ardron, his assistant, for their work. Mr. Palmer expresses extreme regret at the unfounded reports which have gained currency, and challenges the closest investigation from any and every quarter.

This is the Mr. Palmer who conducted a series of gospel temperance meetings in this city; and for the good of the cause it is to hoped that the Mirror's statement will be proved "unfounded," as he claims it to be.

TEMP. MUTUAL RELIEF ASS'N.

The annual report of the association, submitted at the meeting on the evening of the 4th inst., shows that the number of members at the opening of the previous year was sixty-three; number initiated during the year, twenty; number honorably discharged, five; number stricken from the rolls for breaking the pledge, five; total membership at the close of the year, seventy-three. Funds in treasury, $132.49. No deaths have yet occurred in the association since its organization two years ago. The initiation fee is one dollar, and the dues twenty-five cents a month; a sick benefit of three dollars a week is paid for a period of ten weeks, and longer if decided necessary; on the death of a member each surviving member pays one dollar for the benefit of the deceased's family. Mr. Stephen W. Clarke, who has been president of the association since it was started, advised and requested the choice of another president, but the association went ahead and elected him notwithstanding.

Democratic "Reform" in Louisiana.

Gov. Nicholls of Louisiana contemplates retiring from the position of governor of that State, his principal reason being that he will not be made a party to the democratic plan of repudiating the State debt, which he regards as a sacred contract between the people of the State and its creditors, and not to be violated except at the expense of all honor and to the ruin of the State's credit and good name. Gov. Nicholls is too fastidious; he should know that repudiation is the favorite democratic method of paying debts, and that Tennessee, Virginia, and the Carolinas, all approve of it and are putting it in practice, and that several democratic cities of the south, after borrowing all the money their credit would enable them to get hold of, and spending it, have abandoned their charters to get rid of paying the borrowed money. It is just as proper for the democrats of Louisiana to repudiate the State debt as it will be for the democracy of the entire south to repudiate the national debt when they get entire control of the government, and won't hurt the credit of the State any more than the latter performance will hurt the credit of the nation—both will be ruined. When Nicholls assumed office, at the end of the "radical rule," there was $300,000 in the State treasury. At the present time there is not a cent, and the January interest on the State bonds is still unpaid. Gov. Kellogg found no difficulty in negotiating loans with the democratic bankers of New Orleans, but they will not loan the present democratic State government a dollar.

It is also intimated that Governor Nicholls feels that his party has abandoned him in his efforts to keep the pledges he made to the country when he entered the office. Murders are frequent and murderers go unpunished. Lawlessness, particularly in times of political excitement, is the rule. Gov. Nicholls finds himself powerless to prevent these irregularities, or to hold in check the element which has made the name of Louisiana a reproach.

—At the request of numerous poets and novelists, spring has been unavoidably postponed until next month.

—Mrs. Shoddy, who has just returned from Switzerland, says the ice glaciers are so called because they look like a piece of glass.

—It's funny, but a soft-palmed woman can pass a hot pie-plate to her neighbor at the table, with a smile as sweet as distilled honey, while a man, with a hand as horny as a crocodile's back, will drop it to the floor and howl around like a Sioux Indian at a scalp dance.—Puck.

—A new recipient of judicial honors in Alabama was reminded, after the argument in a case that was being tried before him was closed, that he should charge the jury, and rose and said: "Gentlemen of de jury, I charge you half a dollar apiece, and I say you must pay it before de case goes on."

A Visage Rivalling in Yellowness

That of a "heathen Chinee," of belonging to one of our race, can scarcely be described as attractive. But worse than this, it is the index of a disordered liver, or a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand, prompt, efficacious. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will expel the misdirected bile from the blood and divert it into the proper channel, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness, and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver, which must always exist when the skin and whites of the eyes assume this yellow hue. The pains through the right lower ribs, side and shoulder blade, the nausea, furred state of the tongue, and unpleasant breath which indicate liver complaint, in short all its disagreeable concomitants are soon remedied by this sovereign corrective, which in addition to its regulating properties is a superb invigorant, and a pure and agreeable medicinal stimulant, appetizer and nervine.

Fifty Cents will do it! What? Why cure your cold or cough by using a bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

An Income Without Care.

By the combination method of operating in stocks a handsome income can be secured without care. Capital in any amount, from $10 to $50,000 may be used with equal proportionate success. By this system Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., pool the orders of thousands of customers, of various sums, into one vast amount, and co-operate them under the most skillful management, dividing profits monthly. Each share-holder thus obtains all the advantages of the largest capital and experienced skill, and the percentage of profits is very great; $20 will pay $100 in 30 days; $250 will pay $1,525, or 7 1-2 per cent on the stock, and so on, as the market varies. P. D. Drake, Esq., publisher Rock Island (Ill.) Argus, made $104.15 on an investment of $20, in October. Hundreds of others are doing even better. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular has "two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and full information, so that any one can deal in stocks. All kinds of bonds and stocks wanted. New Government bonds supplied. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)
DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:
Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres.
JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LEONA B. SMITH, Treas.
NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.
CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.
LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.
NERVOUS DISEASES.—Debility, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.
NOT PECUNIARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Females' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).
SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Calculi (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, and without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-feet, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)
Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, dwelt it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has wrought cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exhibit this medicine as a "panacea," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all those diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in The Peoples' Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book of over 900 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats infinitely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and the effects of abuse, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish muddy spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Scrofula, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medicinal discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

"THE LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, regulative, nauseous pills, composed of chalk, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. And does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, excoriating nps, or obstruction of the nasal passages, relating in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, hoarseness, impaired voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total destruction of sense of smell, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, bronchitis, cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which nasal douching can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which lurks and multiplies the germ, or seed, from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, sore throat, pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of Dr. SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I feeling gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. The use of the remedy further reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The screens across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease which had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, caused by my original injury and strain, and for which I have tried many remedies and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without any permanent relief, I finally tried your recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and gladly and pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARDIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Coughs, Colds, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs, believing it capable of preventing serious results from these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Rubber or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5th.

All the appropriation bills before conference committees save the army and the legislative and executive, were ultimately agreed to, and with the bill reducing tax on tobacco and amending internal revenue laws; the census bill; bill to aid refunding national debt by authorizing the issue of small Treasury certificates; bill to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases; and bill providing for payment of arrears of pensions under the late act, received the President's signature. Several conference committees vainly tried to reconcile the difference in the two first named, to-wit: the repeal of the law authorizing the President to station troops at the polls under certain contingencies, and the repeal of the law creating Federal supervisors of elections. We are not yet sufficiently recovered from the confusion, rush and hurly-burly of the last week of the session to ascertain just in what shape several other measures of considerable public moment were left. As in the case of every expiring Congress within the last two decades, thousands of bills, public and private and relating to almost every conceivable subject, went over from lack of time. Many of them covered in jobs of every degree of magnitude, from a few hundred dollars up to many millions; some were undoubtedly designed for beneficent purposes. A large portion of the former are certain to be revived, and some of the latter may be.

The session just closed has a larger claim on the nation's gratitude for what it failed to do than for any work of positive legislation. Contrary to expectation it meddled little with finances, for which every one having the good of the country at heart is duly thankful. For it is the almost universal feeling of the country, as reflected by visitors here from every section, that financially our present situation is most gratifying, and that Mr. Sherman can manage our money affairs much better without than with any interference by Congress.

The little handful of greenbackers elected to the next (or rather the present) Congress have been making some loud talk of what they are about to do; but when they find themselves in the House, totally without experience and where they will find themselves antagonized at every turn by men of large legislative experience and of commanding natural endowments, those of them capable of such a mental process are likely to soon revise and cut down their previous estimate of their individual and combined importance.

How sharper than a serpent's tooth did the rumor of the veto of the river and harbor swindle pierce the average Congressman who relied for his re-election on the allowances contained in it to his district.

We have yet hardly had time to devote more than a passing thought to the President's veto of the Chinese immigration bill. Preoccupied as we have been with matters transpiring on Capitol Hill, we have hardly been moved from our approval by the anathemas hurled at the White House occupant from the Occident. Indeed, lapse of time only seems to make the voice of approval here more nearly unanimous. And if it was all to be done over again, it seems the impression that not a few of those who thought their home popularity sufficiently assured to risk a bid for the favor of the Pacific coast by voting for the bill in question have had their minds so thoroughly disabused by the unmistakable tone of dissent which greeted their vote, that they would look twice before taking another such leap in the dark.

Another matter which has come up through great tribulation from its lowly origin of obloquy, derision and reproach—has from the little cloud no bigger than a man's hand come to overspread all the firmament, and tured its revilers to advocates—is likely from this time on to occupy a higher niche in the esteem of the politician and publicist. I allude to the matter of woman suffrage. The old pioneers in the cause, the Anthonys, the Stantons, the Stowes, and many others who laid off their harness and went down to their graves many years ago—watered and nourished it into its vigorous growth in the teeth of an opposition that fought it with every weapon that ridicule and contempt could suggest. But it was reserved to Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood of this city to gather the first substantial fruits, to force men in authority to take a longer stride in the practical and full recognition of "woman's rights" than all those previously taken put together. And those knowing her best, rejoice at her personal success, whether sympathizing with woman suffrage or not.

No State represented in the American Congress sends here usually a bigger aggregate of practical statesmanship than Michigan. Leaving out all questions of politics, no name in the House is more familiar than that of Conger. The Wolverine State's other districts are represented by men of more than average ability. Though entering the House first and comparatively young with the 45th Congress, the representative from the 3d district, J. H. McGowan, at once took high rank with much older members. His work throughout has been more than creditable, and in view of the momentous interests involved, his speech on the bill to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious and infectious diseases was one of the best, most practical, of the session. "The Candia "Robbery."

The story told by Mr. Edward R. Ingalls, treasurer of the town of Candia, relative to his being gagged, bound, and robbed of $3700 of the town's money, was regarded as peculiar from the first. From his account it appeared that he kept $4,500 of the town's money in his house when there was a town safe only a short distance away; that he left $3,700 in an old secretary, while he carefully put $800 more under his pillow; that his watch, which he usually left on a shelf, was on this night in his vest; that thieves were able to break into the house, go through the secretary and do up a bundle of spoons without waking Mr. Ingalls or his wife, who were in the next room with the door open; that when they bored through the shed door to get in they put the augur (an old one belonging to Mr. Ingalls) through the panel far away from the bolt, and yet succeeded in reaching through the hole, an inch and a half in diameter, and drawing the bolt; that after securing the money they went to the barn and raised a racket so as to call out the man they had robbed so they could tie him; that nothing of the struggle which preceded his being tied to the ladder was heard by Mrs. Ingalls, who was a few feet away listening; that while the thieves went prepared with handcuffs they carried no tools, but had to hunt through the barn in the dark and find an old augur to bore into the house with; that in gagging Mr. Ingalls they simply put a scarf over his mouth and were accommodating enough to tie it in front; that they got out of the barn without leaving any doors open; that they wore no masks; that they left the spoons and watch, and that the horse with which they went away was furnished with bells which would naturally attract attention in a country town at that time of night;—all these and many other circumstances were regarded as being very queer, to say the least.

Now it is said that Mr. Ingalls is not so well off pecuniarily as has been reported, his farm and house being heavily mortgaged; and he has undoubtedly been pressed for money. One of the Candia selectmen says he owes the town $4735.-39; he has cash on hand, $1035.39, leaving a balance of $3700, the amount he claims to have been robbed of. He was appointed treasurer two years ago to fill a vacancy, giving bonds for the ensuing year; but it is said he was not reappointed, though he continued to act, which if true will throw the whole loss on the town. Ingalls has been prominent in religious and temperance matters.

News and Notes.

The trial of Jason P. Scribner for the murder of Sadie Mabel Scribner, his child, on the 11th of May, 1878, commenced at Augusta, Me., on the 6th inst. In making up the panel nineteen jurors were called, of whom six were excused, having formed an opinion and being still conscious of a bias, and one was challenged by the prisoner's counsel peremptorily. The defence is insanity, the homicide being admitted.

Thirteen of the Gloucester Georges fleet exposed to the gale of Feb. 20th are yet to arrive, viz: the schooners George B. Loring, Otis D. Dana, Jacob Bacon, John Dove, Morning Star, Lottie F. Babson, Mary Low, Joshua S. Sanborn, Clara F. Friend, Mary Carlisle, Sea Queen, Annie Linwood, and Annie Hooper. The last named five have been absent nearly five weeks, consequently are overdue, and are causing much anxiety. The owners of all are still hopeful. The vessels were well provisioned, and may have been blown off and in a disabled condition are slowly getting back to port. In addition is the schooner Maud and Effie, haddock catcher. No tidings have been received of her. She was last seen on Georges the day of the gale. Her chances are very slim. This gives fourteen vessels for whose safety there is great anxiety.

The report of the Reno court of inquiry gives a history of the events preceding and of the battle of Little Big Horn, more generally known as the Custer massacre, and as to the part taken therein by Major Reno's command. It says: The conduct of the officers throughout was excellent, and while the subordinates in some instances did more for the safety of the command by brilliant displays of courage than did Major Reno, there was nothing in his conduct which requires animadversion from this court. It is the conclusion that no further proceedings are necessary in this case, and it expresses this opinion in compliance with the concluding clause of the order convening the court. Gen. Sherman makes the following endorsement: "The findings of the court of inquiry in the case of Major Reno are approved, and the proceedings respectfully forwarded to the Honorable Secretary of War." The findings are also endorsed by the Secretary of War.

A singular and unfortunate event occurred Tuesday evening, March 4th, in a small hamlet on the shores of Lake George, the famous summer resort. Sidney M. Fray, the pastor of the village Presbyterian church, was displaying to his wife a revolver which he had purchased for protection, having been stopped on the country roads twice lately when returning from pastoral visits. While handling the weapon it was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck Mrs. Fray on the forehead. She fell back in a swoon from fright, and the blood flowed from the wound. Supposing that his young wife was killed, the sensitive minister became frantic, and, placing the revolver at his head, attempted to shoot himself. A servant maid, who hastened into the room on hearing the shots, found the couple prostrate and bleeding. Neither of them are seriously injured, the bullets in both cases glancing off and striking a mirror.

The Attica Ledger is authority for the statement that the tune "Whoa, Emma!" is taken, note for note, from an old church tune, which may be found on page 224 of a church music book called "The True Choir."

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Thomson of North Yarmouth, Me., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Tuesday evening, the 3d inst. All their children, eight in number, were present with their wives and children, and some of the latter with their children. With the exception of the two youngest daughters all the children came from distant States, and the aggregate distance of travel in coming from and returning to their several homes will sum up 76,538 miles.

Samuel Hunter, aged fifteen years, employed as a cart driver at the Bessemer steel works near Braddock's, Pa., was brutally murdered Wednesday evening. John Lawler and Martin Murray, with whom Hunter had quarrelled recently, have been arrested on suspicion.

Cornelius Houston, aged sixty-five years, disappeared from his residence in Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 26th. His body was found on the 4th inst., on the marsh near Sharpe's rifle factory. It is supposed that he wandered away and perished with cold.

Lovisa Bowen of Norwich, Conn., the young girl who was tried and escaped conviction for murdering young Muzzy, her lover, with a base ball bat, is now under religious conviction at a church revival.

Kepler's saw-mill at Sullivan, Ill., was blown to pieces on the 5th inst., and J. Baugher blown to fragments. Two other men were badly hurt.

John Scott was surprised at Philadelphia in the act of burglary early Thursday morning and pursued by Policeman Robert Cave, whom he stabbed, inflicting mortal wounds. Scott was subsequently arrested.

The wife of a laborer named Deaten has been arrested at Manchester, Ky., for breaking the skull of her step-daughter, then breaking the girl's neck by hoisting the body by a rope to a beam in an outhouse, and then carrying the body to a field for a vicious horse to kick.

A special train of English goods from Halifax collided with the Quebec express near Athol, N. S., Thursday morning. The engines of both trains and cars were badly wrecked, one man was killed and one fatally injured, and several others badly hurt.

Samuel M. Clarke of New York has sued his wife, Mary Adelaide Clarke, to recover $10,000, which he says she promised to pay him if he would marry her. In his complaint Mr. Clarke says he met his wife in 1872, when she was forty-five years old. She then had a married daughter, and had just been divorced from Adolph Berry, who is still living. Mr. Clarke was then but thirty-two. He married her and they travelled in Europe for two years. Her temper was unconquerable.

Hon. Elihu Burritt, "the learned blacksmith," died in New Britain, Conn., Thursday night.

New Hampshire Items.

At the recent session of the court of probate for Merrimac county, a list of inventories of estates was returned, among them being that of the late Onslow Stearns, real estate $117,200, personal estate, $298,798.24; and that of Mrs Betsey Whitehouse, late of Pembroke, real estate $10,950, personal estate $273,185.-19. These are said to be the largest estates ever entered upon the records of the court of that county.

The main driving wheel of the large mill of the Bartlett Land and Lumber Company at Upper Bartlett exploded Friday morning soon after the work started up, instantly killing John Clukey, the head fireman. Many others of the operatives had narrow escapes, as the wheel flew into hundreds of fragments.

Political.

There was a disgraceful row at the city election in Rondout, N. Y., on Tuesday, March 4th. A democratic mob took possession of the polls, and allowed no one but their friends to vote, notwithstanding which the ring that has for years been robbing the county was overthrown. A new election will have to be held for the city.

The greenbackers in Washington continue to shout aloud so as to impress Congress with their importance, and the democrats are beginning to count the number of democratic noses in the House. It is only another pawder-boat. At the worst, it will only be necessary for a few republicans to join with the supporters of Speaker Randall, who seems not only to have the strongest following, but to be the best available man. He is not an ideal Speaker, but in the last hours of the last session, he appears to have made a good fight against jobbery.

The constitutionality of the legal tender act, so far as it applies to the issuing of government notes in time of peace having quality of legal tender for private debts, is to be tested in the courts by S. B. Chittenden, M. C., and Gen. B. F. Butler.

Time Pieces for the Dark.

Apropos of illuminated watch faces and clock dails, to which attention has recently been directed, M. Recordon of Paris communicates the fact to one of our French exchanges that two years ago he took out a patent for and has since been manufacturing illuminated dials on an entirely different principle from those produced by the use of chemicals. His device is this: A Geissler tube containing a gas which gives a brilliant light is placed on the dial; a battery about the size of a thimble is attached as an ornament to the watch chain, and a miniature induction coil is also hidden in the latter. When it becomes desirable to consult the watch in the dark, a spring is pressed, the current passes into the coil, then into the Geissler tube, and illuminates the dial. The portable battery used for this purpose is that of Trouve, which, in a small compass, has considerable strength. Reduced to the size of a thimble, it is still sufficiently strong in its action to last a year. M. Recordon also applies the same priciple to the illumination of clock faces.—Scientific American.

Eccentric Old Covies.

There is a man fifty-three years old who has resided in Detroit ever since the first street car was started, and yet he has never entered a car. In rain and snow and heat he jogs along, meeting and being passed by horse cars, but nothing can drive him into becoming a passenger. When the present post-office building was erected the site displeased him, and he has never yet entered the building; in going up and down Michigan avenue he always walks on the south side. There is a man living in this city who for years kept two men and two women servants, and he has always insisted that the men should be black-haired, and the women red-haired. It is said that years ago he passed a black-haired man and a red-haired girl walking arm-in-arm, and during the next ten steps he picked up a wallet with a large sum of money in it which was never claimed. His good luck brought with it the whim that he now indulges. On Sixth street lives a middle-aged man who will not speak to a man wearing a stovepipe hat. Once, after sending for a doctor for his wife, he refused to let the physician enter because he had a silk hat on.—Detroit Free Press.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so far in further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Manufacturers of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

WHEAT MEAL!

—OR—

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

Gov. Prescott has commissioned Mr. Edwin A. Tilton a justice of the peace.

See advertisement of auction sale of curiosities this afternoon and evening, at store No. 26 Congress street.

Rev. Lyman Whiting, formerly pastor of the North church in this city, is now located at Charlestown, West Virginia.

Master Charles W. Gerrish received a gold medal at Smith's academy a few days since, for writing the best composition.

Any man "of speculative tendencies" who has a thousand dollars to invest, will find in another column a message addressed to him.

The Mechanics' Fire Society had their annual dinner on Friday evening, Mr. Samuel Barrett being the host. As the dinner was served at the Rockingham house of course it was first-class.

The steamer James Sampson brought over a thousand passengers across the river from Kittery to this city during the six days ending March 1st. A large part of this traffic was occasioned by interest in the revival meetings.

Hon. Frank Jones — Ex-Congressman Jones, now—has arrived at home from Washington. Guess he's glad to get clear of such a crowd as he's had to train with for the past four years. Mr. Jones and his family are well.

Messrs. Yeaton and Hayes, who are now loading the schooner Jamestown with 2200 barrels of apples for the Baltimore market, have also chartered the schooner Laura Robinson to take 1500 bbls. of apples to the same port.

Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows on Friday evening had another of the pleasant social reunions held by them monthly during the winter. The evening was very agreeably spent in amusements of various kinds, and supper was served in the banquet hall.

Hon. Albert R. Hatch, of this city, is a creditor of the town of Candia for $101 for professional services; and Mr. Ingalls, the "robbed" treasurer of the town, had been authorized by the selectmen of the town to pay Mr. Hatch's claim before the town's money was so mysteriously abducted.

Elder Arthur A. Waite, the evangelist, is receiving liberal contributions from some of our citizens for the purpose of procuring a tent, in which that gentleman will hold revival meetings here the coming summer. Nearly $200 has already been raised; $20 were given at the navy yard on Thursday for the object.

One of the belts connected with the rail-cutting machine at the Eastern railroad machine shop broke on Wednesday of this week, and as it was travelling around its course at the rate of three hundred times a minute there was some scattering in its vicinity when the breakage occurred. This machine requires an enormous power to do its work, and the men who run it would do well to take out insurance policies against accident.

The committee on the temperance revival have invited Rev. C. B. Pitblado to deliver a temperance address in Music Hall on Sunday evening, in place of Mr. Booth, who, as before stated, is prevented from coming on account of illness. His subject will be "The Fell Enchantress." The choir of sixty voices who have been in rehearsal for special duty during the campaign, will be present under the leadership of Dr. Goodall, and conduct a praise service about half an hour before the address, — commencing at seven o'clock. An admission of ten cents will be charged to defray expenses. Tickets can be procured at Joseph Pettigrew's and Sewell W. Webber's.

Mrs. Monroe will be at Congress hall at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the 8th inst., to form a new class in dancing. All the new dances taught. Private lessons given at any hour, on application being made at the hall on Saturday afternoon.

THE VICINITY.

The checklist of Hampton contains 401 names, among them being twenty-two Blakes, twenty-four Browns, twelve each of Godfrey's Hobbses, Moses and Perkinses, sixteen Towles and twenty six Lampreys.

The supervisors of checklists in Greenland held a session on Friday, but no person appeared before them.

An entertainment consisting of music, tableaux, pantomimes and a drama entitled "Once on a time," was given in Bartlett's hall at Eliot on the evening of the 5th inst., by the York cornet band, and was well patronized and appreciated.

Sheriff Kent has received a letter from Chief of Police Washburn of Worcester, Mass., telling him that Isaish Cook has many friends in that city who want to see him so much that they will send a special messenger for him as soon as he is at leisure.

Mr. Charles H. Trickey and others of Dover, with parties in New Bedford and on Cape Cod, have contracted with Goss & Sawyer of Bath, Me., for the building of a schooner of 350 tons burthen, work on which will be at once commenced. She will be commanded by Capt. Augustus Kelly, formerly in command of the schooner Laura Robinson.

The Exeter Gazette of Thursday says: "James Marden of Portsmouth commences his walk of one hundred miles in twenty-four hours at the town hall this evening at eight o'clock." He broke down at the end of the thirty-fifth mile. Our Portsmouth pedestrians seem to have rather hard luck when they attempt to astonish the natives of other places.

At the annual communication of Winnicut Lodge, No. 92, A. F. & A. M., of Greenland, held in that town on Thursday evening, the following officers were chosen; Edgar S. Taft, W. M.; William O. Junkins, S. W.; N. P. Ordway, J. W.; William H. L. Brackett, treasurer; J. C. Brackett, secretary; James Drew, S. D.; Frank D. Philbrook, J. D.; Charles E. Hodgdon, tyler; Herbert C. Taft, representative to Grand Lodge.

JANE SHORE.

Jane Shore was the wife of a London jeweller, and left him to become the mistress of Edward IV, king of England; after the latter's death she formed a connection with Lord Hastings, and died about 1525. She was a woman of remarkable beauty, ambitious, flattered around the court, and at length came to a sad end. Lord Hastings was in the way of Richard, Duke of Gloucester, afterward Richard III, and as Gloucester knew of the intimacy that had existed between Jane Shore and Edward, and also of her connection with Hastings, he bared his arm in a council, saying its deformity was owing to the spells and sorcery of the witch Jane Shore; and he secured her trial for witchcraft. In Pepys' collection is published "The woeful lamentations of Jane Shore, a goldsmith's wife in London, some time King Edward IV, his favorite." The story of Jane Shore is also told by Sir Thomas More in his history of Richard III.

The play founded on her history, and in which Miss Genevieve Ward and Jarrett & Palmer's dramatic company appear this evening at Music hall, is one of absorbing interest, and with Miss Ward as Jane Shore, and Mr. Milnes Levick as the wronged husband, has delighted immense audiences in the principal cities of the United States and the British Provinces.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, on Thursday evening:

Bills to amount of $1475.25 were ordered paid.

The mayor, as chairman of the board of instruction, made a report.

Coroner Whittier's bill in the Elizabeth Washington case, for $47.76, was referred to the committee on claims.

Alderman Norton stated in answer to an inquiry, that the street gas-lights, eighty-four in number, cost from $21 to $22 each per year.

James & Gerry asked an abatement of taxes; matter referred to committee to report.

One week further was granted the committee having the south millpond matter in charge, in which to report.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYANCES.

The following transfers of real estate in this vicinity have been left for record in the office of the register of deeds:

George B. Webster, of East Kingston, to Frank O. Towle, of South Hampton, land, $50.

THE WRECKS AT RYE.

The Gloucester, Mass., Advertiser contains the following card of thanks from the masters of the two vessels recently stranded on Rye beach, under date of Feb. 28th:

The subscribers tender their heartfelt thanks to the officers and crew of the Life-saving Station at Rye beach, for their timely efforts in assisting them on occasion of their shipwreck, Tuesday night. Everything was done for the comfort of ourselves and crews, and their timely services, were well appreciated.

EDWIN SMITH,
Master of schooner Rival.
SARGENT LANE,
Master of sch. Northern Star.

The schooner Northern Star sailed from Rye harbor for Gloucester on Wednesday, March 5th.

SUPREME COURT.

FRIDAY, March 7; Foster, J.

The court finally adjourned to-day, after a session of forty-six days, during which the docket has been very much reduced. There was no case of disagreement of a jury during the session.

RAYMOND.

No lyceum lectures, no debating club, no singing school at present, yet we have been favored since the cold season commenced with a variety of evening entertainments, which have drawn together good numbers for social intercourse and instruction. There have been two levees for good objects, one silver and two tin weddings. The jubilee singers from the south interested a large audience one evening; and on the evening of Feb. 19th the cantata of Ruth the Moabitess was performed by about thirty singers of this place and Manchester. This was largely attended and was witnessed with great interest. One of the tin weddings is to be noted particularly. It was that of Mr. Charles E. Wason and wife. It was held in the town hall. Great numbers were invited, and the hall was nearly filled. Aaron G. Whittier was master of the ceremonies. The singing was excellent. Rev. G. A. Perkins made a short address and offered prayer, and A. J. Shepard spoke. The gifts were valued at sixty dollars. Mr. Whittier made the presentation in behalf of the friends. Mr. Wason's response was very appropriate. An oyster supper was served. The following, prepared for the occasion by Rev. J. Fullonton, was read:

Go o'er the earth and 'tis a truth,
There are mighty works in Nature;
Vales, forests fine, mountains sublime,
Piled up by the Creator.

On seas as land there's much that's grand,
Commerce its arts applying;
Ships to and fro, they come and go,
And steamers almost flying.

Look anywhere and wonders rare,
Attract our fond attention;
They're all about the world throughout,
I need not them now mention.

But there's a sight most grandly bright,
It seems almost celestial;
But follow me and you shall see,
'Tis on this globe terrestrial.

But last 'tis time in verse and rhyme,
To give the wondrous showing;
'Tis husband, wife, close joined for life,
'Tis grand of this I'm knowing.

Ten years have flown since life's fair morn,
When wedlock ties firm bound them;
They pledged their love to faithful prove,
In love's strong bonds we find them.

His manly form and powerful arm,
Protects the one he's loving;
She, like a vine, round him will twine,
Fidelity thus proving.

Heaven bless them on till life's work's done,
And bless the child that's given;
Then when discharged, with hearts enlarged,
Enjoy the bliss of heaven.

REPORTER.

A Visage Rivalling in Yellowness

That of a "heathen Chinee," if belonging to one of our race, can scarcely be described as attractive. But worse than this, it is the index of a disordered liver, or a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand, prompt, efficacious. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will expel the misdirected bile from the blood and divert it into the proper channel, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness, and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver, which must always exist when the skin and whites of the eyes assume this yellow hue. The pains through the right lower ribs, side and shoulder blade, the nausea, furred state of the tongue, and unpleasant breath which indicate liver complaint, in short all its disagreeable concomitants are soon remedied by this sovereign corrective, which in addition to its regulating properties is a superb invigorant, and a pure and agreeable medicinal stimulant, appetizer and nervine.

Fifty Cents will do it? What? Why cure your cold or cough by using a bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

The Value of Time.

As in a fire the loss greatly depends upon the time required for efficient aid to arrive, so the result of catarrh greatly depends upon the speedy use of efficient remedies. For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been the standard remedy. The positive cures it has effected are numbered by thousands. Each year has witnessed an increased sale. Its reputation is the result of superior merits. If the disease has extended to the throat or lungs, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used with the Catarrh Remedy. These two medicines will speedily cure the most stubborn case of catarrh. See Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work of over 900 pages. Price, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—The other evening, at Lewiston, Me., while the Boston Museum company were playing "Pinafore," Miss Harold, who plays "Buttercup," was taken suddenly ill while the curtain was down between the acts. In consequence her part was assumed by Miss Sadie Martinot, in the second act. On the following evening, in Bangor, Miss Marie Wainwright was taken sick, and Miss Martinot was called upon to assume the part of "Josephine," which she did with credit.

—Dr. C. C. Blake, of Decatur, Ill., who knows all about the weather, the planets, etc., knocks the foundation out of the prediction that war, pestilence, famine, etc., would be consequent upon the perihelion passage of the four great planets, and shows further that the planets in question will not be at perihelion conjointly, on which latter hypothesis much of the predictions was based.

—When a woman burns her finger she cries a little over it, and keeps the burn in good condition to allow her husband when he comes home to get sympathy. A man in the same condition will stick his digit in his mouth, kick over the office stool, swear at the boy, and forget all about it. One is the effect of love, the other of business.—Toledo Commercial.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
Contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1873. WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. BUFFALO AND LONDON. CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000.
(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)
DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago selected several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:
Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres.
Geo. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.
NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.
CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.
LUNG DISEASES.—The skill of division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.
NO NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (80 pages, 10 cents in stamps).
SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Calculi (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-foot, Spinal Curvature, and other affections. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)
Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, during the past many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while advocating its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, sought to set as the climax or crowning grace of my medical career, this invaluable as a positive, sufficient medicinal remedy for this class of diseases, as I can test will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician upon the confidence that I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses for any of the ailments for which I recommend it. It will cost you not a cent more than other medicines. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has wrought cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Week Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Inguinal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats fully of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

New York Weekly Herald.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular newspaper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the Daily Herald, and is arranged in handy departments. The

Foreign News

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of American News

are given the Telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes

The Weekly Herald

the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

Political News

The Farm Department

of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, including all raising Cattle, Poultry, Grains, Trees, Vegetables, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well-edited department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home,

giving recipes for practical dishes, hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Every item of cooking or economy suggested in this department is practically tested by experts before publication. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents on the very latest fashions. The Home Department of the Weekly Herald will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper. The interests of

are looked after, and everything relating to mechanics and labor-saving is carefully recorded. There is a page devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandise, &c., &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially reported prices and conditions of

The Produce Market.

Sporting News at home and abroad, together with a Story every week, a Sermon by some eminent divine, Literary, Musical, Dramatic, Personal and Sea Notes. OBSTACLES TO MARRIAGE

Happy Relief to Young Men from the effects of errors and abuses in early life. Manhood restored. Impediments to marriage removed. New method of treatment. New and remarkable remedies. Books and circulars sent free in sealed envelopes. Address HOWARD ASSOCIATION, 128 N. Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. An Institution having a high reputation for honorable conduct and professional skill.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical associates to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been reincorporated and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:

HON. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres.
JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been added to the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms cange within the province of our specialty treatment.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic disorders peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), St. Vitus's Dance, Sciatica, Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.

NOT NECESSARILY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of treatment we can cure many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Cataract (Pearl in the Eye), Bladder, Urethra, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Deformities of the Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most efficient and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady to whom I fit any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Hesitation, Mental Aberration, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single class of peculiar ills, the most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not fail, it cannot, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for less years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could scarcely swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it in for years. I loosened gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I witnessed a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and wype to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained so relief or encouragement from any of them. * *

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many preparations and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatism, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS to me, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my business affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and will with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so general and effective in Sticking Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs, as this plaster, which is capable of preventing serious attacks of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plaster with a light Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

A Joint Discussion.

"I say," said one greenbacker to another on New Year's morning, "how does it look?"

"O, it's got to come," replied the other; "you'll hear something drop pretty soon."

"But they say they've got more gold than they need, and resumption isn't such a terrible thing to accomplish, after all."

"Eho! you weaken, eh? You go back on your party, do you? You join in with the money kings, eh? Nice talk for a greenback man. How much do you get—who pays you? Don't remember * * * and that 'obligation' very well, do you? I tell you this country has gone to thunder already, and you know it! What did Gen. Cary say? What did Moses W. Field say? What did they all say? You know what they said. Have you forgotten that millions of men, women and children are starving every day? Ain't they? Say they ain't, if you dare! Put up or shut up! Greenbacks worth 100 cents in gold now, are they? 'Money enough and good enough, 'eh? You a sworn greenbacker, and dare talk like that, you—"

"I speak as an honest man now, not as a politician."

"O, you do? Look at the gold gamblers and—"

"But their occupation is gone now."

"O, 'tis hey? Look at the enormous rate of interest and—"

"Plenty of money now for seven and eight per cent."

"Look at the—look at the—the mortgages—"

"Five mortgages being discharged now to where one is put on record."

"Who cares a (dash) for that—look at our—our taxes?"

"As neither of us have any taxes to pay we won't grumble about that—but I understand the reduction this year is very satisfactory to the property owners."

"You're a nice greenback man, you are; working for ten shillings a day, and—"

"Yes, ten shillings a day, and saving more money every week than I could when I was getting two dollars a day."

"Well, you'd better go over and join the republicans if that's the way you talk."

"Well, I have about come to that conclusion myself. When I find that everything has turned out just as has been advertised in the republican programme, and when I find, as I have found, that nearly every prediction of the leaders of the greenback party has proved false, I must confess that, as an honest man, having no axe to grind, I am to-day a stalwart republican."

"You're a fool!"

"Not quite—pretty near one—about three feet from one!"

Reader—be honest now—provided there was a fool in that small crowd of two, which one was it?—Detroit Post.

Success in the Stock Market.

Few people understand how large fortunes are amassed so rapidly in stock operations. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have just published "two unerring rules for success," and full details, so that any one can operate. Mailed free. Their new combination system of stocks is wonderfully profitable. By this method thousands of orders, in various sums, are pooled into one immense capital, and co-operated as a mighty whole, thus securing to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and best skill. Profits divided every 30 days. $15 would make $75 profit, $100 would return $1,000, or 10 per cent on the stock in the month, according to the market. A New York Fashion Editress and prominent newspaper correspondent, made over 375 per ct. profit on an investment, Oct. 5th, 1877. Many others are doing as well or better. Large or small amounts can be used with equal proportionate success by this system. All kinds of stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange, N. Y. City.

The Value of Time.

As in a fire the loss greatly depends upon the time required for efficient aid to arrive, so the result of catarrh greatly depends upon the speedy use of efficient remedies. For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been the standard remedy. The positive cures it has effected are numbered by thousands. Each year has witnessed an increased sale. Its reputation is the result of superior merits. If the disease has extended to the throat or lungs, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used with the Catarrh Remedy. These two medicines will speedily cure the most stubborn case of catarrh. See Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work of over 900 pages. Price, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

—In the bright lexicon of youth there's no such word as fail, but it is emblazoned in letters an inch long in the bright lexicon of the married man who has attempted to impress his wife with a sense of the beauty of another and younger woman.

—A decoration is very dear to the heart of a Frenchman, and he does not like to let his honors bloom in secret. Successful exhibitors at the recent Paris Exhibition have been exhibiting their orders of the Legion of Honor in their shop windows, and have been officially warned to withdraw them, under pain of expulsion from the Legion.

—A recent advertisement contains the following:—"If the gentleman who keeps the shoe store with a red head will return the umbrella of a young lady with whalebone ribs and an iron handle to the slate-roofed grocer's shop, he will hear of something to his advantage, as the same is a gift of a deceased mother now no more with the name engraved upon it."

Pelton's Endorsement of Tilden.

Remarking upon the late Nephew Pelton's reappearance from the graveyard, to again declare the absolute ignorance of Tilden-and-reform in the cipher-despatch business conducted from his house by his confidential secretary, the Providence Journal says: "The majority, that is to say, the democrats of the Potter committee, have formally declared that he, Pelton, was a corrupt man, and it is obvious to the meanest capacity that a person who would plan and attempt deliberately to purchase electoral votes would not hesitate, when found out, to lie about it. The word of Pelton in this behalf is of no more consequence than the chattering of a flock of English sparrows. There is this in it, however: Uncle Tilden has been hit by the finding of Potter and his democratic peers on his committee, and he deems it necessary that Pelton should continue to stultify himself, and write down his uncle a weak, doting old man, who placed his hopes, his ambitions, his highest aspirations, and all the money he had paid out, and his reputation, in the hands of an imbecile, whom he neither watched nor controlled. When Pelton swore to this, nobody believed it; his renewed assertions resting upon his bare word, will not improve his case."

News and Notes.

By a fire in Newburyport, Saturday morning, John Hale, an intemperate man forty-two years old, was burned up, two dwellings destroyed and a four-tenement house and other buildings injured. Loss $4000 or more; insured.

Three million bushels of wheat were sold at Chicago on Friday by Jim Keene's broker, on a forged order sent from New York by telegraph. The price fell from ninety-six cents a bushel to ninety-three.

M. Frank Paige, the Boston swindler, has been convicted of conspiracy to defraud.

May Belle Sherman won the sixty-four hours walking match in Boston, covering 168-1-2 miles to Bessie Krohn's 160.

Some scoundrel or gang of scoundrels last week made repeated attempts to destroy by fire the city of Columbia, Ohio. Night after night fires occurred, and between two and four o'clock Saturday morning eight stables were burned, and attempts were made to fire other buildings with rags saturated with coal oil. The numbers of city police and private watchmen have been largely increased.

Frederick Harriott, Clara Morris' husband, lately assaulted a man at Omaha at the bidding of his wife, who said that he had insulted her at San Francisco. It is claimed by the assaulted man's friends to be a case of mistaken identity.

A foolish young man in Lenox, Mass., taught his horse to kiss him. Monday of last week he was exhibiting the animal's accomplishments, when it seized his lower lip and tore it from the corner of his mouth down to his chin. The young man will never be so pretty again, but he will probably know enough to obtain what kisses he needs from a source less dangerous, if not more agreeable.

Education in Kentucky is not in a very encouraging condition. It is asserted that there are 90,000 men in the State who are unable to read and write, and that thirty-four counties in the State support the schools of the remaining seventy-six.

Three young white men, students in the university at Charlottesville, Va., amused themselves by knocking off the hats of some colored men. Finally one of them knocked off the hat of William Gilmore, a colored shoemaker, who immediately knocked the fellow down. This was more than chivalry could bear, so Gilmore was instantly shot dead. The assassin was arrested, and liberated on $500 bail.

The brig Helsen, at New York from Trieste with a cargo of rags, has been ordered into quarantine under the recent instructions of the government concerning vessels from the vicinity of the plague-stricken region.

It seems rather a pity, when the yellow-fever experience of last summer is remembered, and the possible terror of the Asiatic plague is considered, that the bills providing a national quarantine and a national health board failed. It is a little odd too, that they were killed by southern State-rights men, from whose section so lately came up to the north the cry for thousands of dollars' worth of help in their fever-plague. Their own part of the country would be pretty sure to suffer most from any imported disease,—so that the proposed legislation would have been largely for their own benefit.

Barnum is preparing to astonish the people the coming summer by a circus far exceeding in its appointments any show on earth yet witnessed.

The injunction against the city of Newport, R. I., paying for the $2800 British Admiralty ball, given last summer, is likely to be made perpetual by the supreme court, to whom it was referred; and as only $1200 can be raised by public subscription toward meeting the debt it is said that the members of the common council will be sued for the balance.

The city of Newburyport has issued twelve marriage licenses in the past two months, and recorded sixty-six burials.

Mrs. James E. Anthony of South Providence, R. I., has gone crazy from overwork in obtaining subscriptions to raise the debt of the Methodist church to which she belongs, and tried twice the other day to commit suicide.

The Providence Tool Company has temporarily stopped work on the Turkish arms contract, having used up the stock of steel in making 25,000 guns in place of those lost on the steamship John Bramsill.

Henry Wickson's six-year-old daughter was probably fatally scalded recently in a Newport, R. I., school-house, by the accidental turning on of a steam radiator faucet, near which she was warming herself, the steam rushing out in such a volume that one of the child's boots was filled with hot water. The father gave his time up to nursing the girl and lost his position, and it is said that he will sue the city school board for $3000 damages for allowing so dangerous a faucet to be used.

Judge Goodspeed of Pittston, Me., fined a men $13 the other day for swearing at a neighbor.

An old colored woman named Susan Norris has been arrested at Washington, charged with an ingenious fraud, by which she obtained $504 from the treasury department on a bogus pension claim. She and a woman named Phillis Washington had been drawing pensions of $8 per month each for a number of years, payable during widowhood only. They had always gone together to draw this, and the woman Norris thus knew when the other re-married and relinquished her claim some five years ago. In September last she took another woman to the office, who swore that she was Phillis Washington and had never married. Norris vouched for this, and a check was made out for the amount due. This was paid at the treasury, and the woman Norris was seen to take it from the other.

The assistant superintendent of the Chicago police has warned the dwellers in that city that there are among them bands of men engaged in drilling, who are well armed with improved guns, and whose avowed purpose is a raid against property, and the Times declares that there are at least 2,500 rifles in the hands of communists, among whom not a dozen natives of the country can be found, they being chiefly the most ignorant and brutal specimens from the old world.

The altar in the Roman Catholic cathedral on Fifth avenue, New York, will cost $250,000.

The poormaster in Lamont, Ill., keeps a bar-room, and it is charged that he encourages men to spend their money for his liquor by promising to help their families from the public treasury.

A Newfoundland young man, who suffered much from pain in the back, bandaged himself with flannel moistened with turpentine. Afterward, desiring to loosen the bandage, and having at hand nothing to cut the thread with which it was stitched, he lighted a match to burn it off, when the turpentine took fire and he was burned so severely that he died in a few hours.

The cruiser Zabiaka, recently built for Russia at Philadelphia, made a successful trial trip down the Delaware, on Thursday, and is said to be the fastest cruiser afloat.

New Hampshire Items.

The ladies of Keene took part, Saturday, in a caucus for the appointment of three candidates for members of the school board. Mrs. Horatio Colony, Mrs. Abby Bixford and George Tilden were nominated.

Miss Susan Baker, the tallest woman in Hopkinton, died Thursday, aged eighty years. After death her body measured six feet, two and one-half inches in length.

The sensation of last week in Nashua was the capture of Orrin W. Dix, a young man who stole a horse and sleigh, valued at $500, from Wilbur F. Wright in January, 1875. He was arrested at a farm house in East Chelmsford by Lowell and Nashua policemen, after a desperate resistance. He is now in jail in default of $1500 bonds.

Political.

A correspondent of a New York paper tells us that Gen. B. F. Butler, who is desirous of being elected governor of Massachusetts, has purchased a controlling interest in the Boston Advertiser. This, too, while Mr. Waters, the manager, is abroad. The Chandler interest was some time since sold out to the protectionist syndicate of Boston, who may now have been induced to unload at a profit. But why should not the general have an organ which the culture of Boston will read? True, the sentiments of the paper would undergo a change, but the world moves, and if Benjamin has captured the Advertiser we may yet see him governor of the time honored commonwealth.

The greenbackers carried the town of Stark, Me., at the election last week, by "a large majority." They voted not to raise any town, county, State or school tax. A greenbacker said, "Let the selectmen hire it!" and moved that the selectmen hire what money they need; the motion was seconded and it was declared a vote, although there was no article in the town warrant to see if the town would vote to authorize the selectmen to hire money. The selectmen will no doubt have lots of fun getting somebody to loan the money required.

Naval Matters.

The U. S. S. Enterprise arrived at Barcelona March 4th.

The United States steamers Lackawanna and Adams are at Panama.

—A joker said of a friend who married a seamstress, "He sued for her hand before marriage, and her hand sowed for him after."

—A young man, the son of a clergyman now dead, is victimizing New Jersey pastors by representing himself as a Bible dictionary agent, borrowing a few dollars until his stock arrives by next train, and disappearing for parts unknown. It is doubtful if in his dictionary there is any word bad enough to name him.

—A minister once told Wendell Phillips that if his business in life was to save the negroes, he ought to go South where they are and do it. "That is worth thinking of," replied Phillips; "and what is your business in life?" "To save men from hell," replied the minister. "Then go there and attend to your business," replied Mr. Phillips.

—Gideon Cook, a Calvin-Baptist preacher, well known a quarter of a century ago, was a man very eccentric in his speech, even to his last earthly moments. A few hours previous to his death his brother, also a preacher, came to his bedside and inquired: "Do you think you are dying, Gideon?" And the reply, sharp and quick, came: "Don't know—can't tell—never died yet!"

—"Now, children," said a Sunday school superintendent, who had been talking to his scholars about good people and bad people, "when I'm walking in the streets, I speak to some persons I meet, and I don't speak to others; and what's the reason?" He expected the reply would be, "Because some are good and others are bad;" but, to his discomfiture, the general shout was, "Because some are rich and others are poor."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.
☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health, at costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.
☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

WHEAT MEAL!
— OR —
Graham Flour.
When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal, (stated) from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

Elder Arthur A. Waite will remain in this city throughout the present week, continuing his labors the while.

The Mechanics' Association is indebted to Hon. Frank Jones for a large number of valuable public documents, received on Saturday.

St. Mary's Benevolent Society will celebrate St. Patrick's day, March 17th, by a grand banquet and literary exercises at Mechanics' hall in the evening.

The reform club has decided not to alter the wording of its constitution, by-laws or pledge; but the list of signers is being overhauled, and the backsliders weeded out.

The two front doors of the Kearsarge house will give place to a new entrance, to be made as soon as the weather permits, and which will materially add to the appearance of the building.

At auction in Boston on Saturday, Maine State 6s, 1889, sold at 118 3-4; Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad, 92 1-2; Concord railroad, 81 1-8; Great Falls Man. Co., 87 1-2; Concord city 6s, 1894, water loan, 109 3-4.

Mr. Booth, the temperance revivalist, being so seriously ill that his physician has prohibited his speaking for at least a month, of course the arranged-for revival in this city under the direction of Messrs. Booth and Smith is given up, or at least indefinitely postponed.

Tenny has recently painted from a photograph, taken several years ago, a portrait of the late Dr. John H. Boardman, which brings to our memory the pleasant countenance of that kind and genial gentleman, once so widely known and beloved by the citizens of Portsmouth.

The peanut stand having been abolished from the custom house corner, it is hoped that the aldermen will grapple with the mill-pond question. Longer delay in this important reform will compel a citizens' movement which will succeed the present city government, and perhaps accomplish something.

The Concord People informs us that "Father T. J. McDonald of St. Mary's Catholic church in Portsmouth lies seriously ill of an affection of the brain." Newmarket, we believe, is where the sick pastor lives. Father O'Callaghan, of St. Mary's church in this city, we are pleased to say is in the enjoyment of excellent health.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald last week interviewed the democratic Congressmen upon the Presidential nomination by the democracy in 1880. Mr. Frank Jones is reported to have "declined in strong language to express his alleged opinion." Several other leading democrats were in like manner discreet.

A VENERABLE CITIZEN GONE.

Dr. Adams Perry, the venerable botanic physician, died instantly and painlessly at twelve o'clock Sunday night, at his home on High street, of heart disease. He visited his patients on Sunday as usual, and was on the street in the evening.

BUY AT HOME.

"Don't go to Boston to buy carpets or dry goods, when you can purchase as cheaply at home," is the very sensible advice given in another column by Messrs. Ayers & Locke, at the head of their half-column advertisement of extra inducements offered by them in carpets, dry good, window shades and fixtures, etc. If goods can be procured of better quality —or at a much smaller price for the same quality—abroad than at home, the purchaser would do well to go abroad; but not otherwise. To "encourage your own" in all cases where your own deserves encouragement is but the part of common sense—not selfishness merely—and if practiced by the whole community would cause a vast difference for the better in local business of all kinds. Hardly any needed article but can be purchased as cheaply in this city as elsewhere, and the buyer has the additional advantage of dealing with a trader who is directly at hand to growl at in case anything should be wrong. Ayers & Locke, as dealers in carpets and dry goods, have an established reputation such as is not won in a brief period; and intending purchasers of anything in their line will do well to look over their immense and carefully selected stocks before going out of the city to buy.

SCREW LOOSE SOMEWHERE.

A very smart-appearing young fellow hailing as "George White, agent of Haverly's New Orleans Minstrels," was in this city on the 25th and 26th of February, and put up at the Rockingham house. He was quite as smart as he appeared, and was evidently posted as to the whole duty of an agent, attending to every detail; engaged Music hall for the evening of the 17th inst., procured the erection of a fine bill-board on the Congress street front of the old National house site, found out all about the license, place for sale of tickets, bill-poster, doorkeepers, etc., and placed a judiciously small number of "complimentaries" where they would be likely to do the most good—giving all those with whom he came in contact the impression that he was about the keenest advance agent they had ever met. On Saturday last Sheriff Kent received a telegram from J. H. Haverly, at St. Louis, Mo., stating that he has no company travelling in New England, and no agent. We are informed that when Mr. White advanced on some other place he left several unsettled bills behind; how this may be we do not know, but his hotel bill was paid. Haverly's minstrels are booked for Newburyport on the 15th inst., probably by the same agent.

JANE SHORE.

The attendance at Music hall Saturday evening, to witness the presentation of the drama of Jane Shore, was good—very much larger than we expected for a Saturday evening in Lent; the excellence of the entertainment offered deserved a crowded house, and the marked enthusiasm displayed by the audience was fairly earned. As might be supposed, the dramatist has taken some liberties wth history; he finally restores Mistress Shore to the bosom of her family, which history does not do. In the first act she appears as the sensitively proud favorite of Edward IV; in the second she returns to her husband as a penitent, grief-stricken wife and mother, and is repulsed; in the third she indignantly spurns the proposals of Richard, Duke of Gloucester, and is condemned to wonder the streets as one to whom none may dare offer shelter or food; in the fourth she appears as the famishing, despairing outcast, followed by the insults of the creatures of Gloucester, and repulsed from every door; and in the last, after being reduced to the verge of madness by starvation and sorrow, her child and husband are restored to her, and a full pardon granted by Richard. Miss Genevieve Ward carried the audience with her throughout; especially powerful she was in her interviews with the queen she had wronged, in her denunciation of the vile schemes of Gloucester, and in her pleading for her husband's forgiveness; and in the beautiful "snow-storm" act the spectators seemed to wholly forget the actress in the realistic sufferings of the woman. Miss Ward, and Mr. Milnes Levick, who ably filled the part of John Shore, were called before the curtain at the end of each act, the applause being something unusual. The story cannot be called a strong one, but the play is made a powerful one by Miss Ward and Mr. Levick, and their generally excellent support.

At the close of this drama a number of persons left the hall, supposing the entertainment over, thus losing one of the best pieces of acting ever seen here, the fourth act of Henry VIII being given, with Mr. Levick as Cardinal Wolsey. Mr. Charles G. Craig as the king, and Mr. Frank Little as Cromwell, both merited special mention; and nothing finer than Wolsey's interview with Cromwell after his downfall is likely to be soon seen upon Music hall stage.

Mr. C. H. Smith, of the Academy of Music, of Fall River, Mass., under whose management Jane Shore was produced, has given a number of entertainments here since the new hall was built, every one of which has been excellent; and his name as manager is accepted by our theatre-goers as a guaranty of a first-class performance.

COURT CALENDER.

U. S. District Court; Clark, J. In the case of Charles W. Woodman, assignee of Adna B. Lane, against Warren Brown, an action to recover the amount of certain monies paid to Mr. Brown by Lane just previous to the latter's bankruptcy, the jury on Thursday were unable to agree upon a verdict, and were discharged. It is stated that they stood eleven for the plaintiff and one for the defendant. Copeland for plff.; Hatch for deft.

Supreme Court for Strafford county, at Dover; Clark, J. The court on Saturday afternoon adjourned until May 29th. The jurors were discharged on Thursday. A referee term is to be held in this county.

In the case State vs. Boston & Maine railroad, for putting on top of a car a boy who had stolen a ride, which resulted in his being struck by an overhead bridge, the court dismissed the indictment for the reason that it was not found within one year from the time of the alleged killing. Copeland and Edgerly for the State; Hobbs for the railroad.

On Thursday afternoon Whitehouse and Pine of Great Falls, convicted of breaking and entering a flour store at Milton and stealing therefrom, were brought from jail into court and sentenced to four years imprisonment each in the State prison.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF EXETER.

Jeremiah L. Merrill, of Exeter, President of the National Granite State Bank, and a member of the firm of A. Merrill & Sons, died suddenly at his residence in Exeter on Saturday morning. Mr. Merrill had long been an invalid, and a constant sufferer from lung difficulty. At times he was confined to his house, but he never omitted his attention to the extensive business of his house, which had constantly large transactions in wool in Boston, New York and other cities; nor did he ever abate his watchful devotion to the interest of the banks. As a business man he was sagacious and far seeing. In his intercouse with his fellow men he was courteous and agreeable, and his vigor and indomitable will did much to maintain the high repute and continue the successful career of the house of which he was a most active and reliable co-partner. As a financier his judgment was sound, and his views of the most healthful character. His influence was exerted in behalf of progressive enterprise and judicious expenditures. The community in which he lived will mourn the loss of one of its liberal and beloved citizens, while the business circles in which he moved will miss one of the most intelligent, active and sagacious men that the State of New Hampshire has of late developed.

THE VICINITY.

The farm buildings of Henry Ridlon, in the suburbs of Saco, were destroyed by fire Friday night. Loss about $1200; insured $500.

Mr. Hiram Kelsey of Newmarket lost a horse recently through the giving away of the stable floor, the animal being strangled by its halter.

When a young lady at Greenland collects nine hundred and eighty thousand more second-hand postage-stamps, she will have achieved the important task of gathering a million and be entitled to expect five hundred dollars for her trouble.

The walking mania has struck Newmarket, and rages with great virulence. Lindell Hoyt of that town on Friday walked ten miles in one hour, forty-two minutes and thirty-three seconds, the time allowed him being one hour and fifty minutes.

On Friday forenoon Samuel W. Berry and John Smith of Biddeford started out on a gunning excursion. Smith had on a pair of snow-shoes, which caused him to tumble over a fence he attempted to climb over, and his gun was discharged by the fall, shattering the forefinger of his right hand so badly that it had to be amputated.

The Newmarket Advertiser says: "People complain of hard times, and yet we do not remember when Newmarket was so flooded with shows and various kinds of entertainments as this winter, and they have been unusually well attended, too. We have noticed that some of those who complained most have been those who found money to attend about everything that comes along." The same thing has been noticed all around.

The town meeting at Kennebunk, last week, appropriated $3,500 for roads and bridges, $3,400 for schools, $3,000 for supporting the poor, and $500 for the reduction of the town debt. The treasurer way authorized to borrow $3,000 to pay town notes, if needed. The town clerk's salary was fixed at $10, the treasurer's at $40, (a reduction of $10 from last year,) and the selectmen will each receive the sum of $50 as payment in full for their services.

The agents of the "Eureka Scythe Grinders" who have duped farmers into signing notes which the signers were led to believe were only receipts, have been at work in North Berwick, and some of the farmers have been taken in. Among others, Brackett Hall was called on and persuaded to sign what was represented as a "commission contract" for four dozen, but before the machines were received a friend saw the paper and showed Mr. Hall that he had signed an order that if fulfilled would oblige him to pay almost $200 outright. When the machines came to the depot Brackett let them stay there, and when the man came for his pay he was glad to get away without it.

The checklist of Newmarket bears 558 names, the Chapmans leading with seventeen representatives, and the Smiths coming next with fifteen. The selectmen's report for the year ending March 1st, 1879, shows that the tax assessed, —State, county, town and school—was $13,438; schoolhouse tax, $2,600. The liabilities of the town are $30,014.23, assets $2,452.74; net indebtedness $27,561.49—an increase of $467.02, owing to the fact that the amount received by the town from the State as its share of the railroad and savings bank taxes and literary fund was $208.76 less, and the county tax $827.54 more, than during the previous year. The amount expended for school purposes was $3,806.42.

—From recent pedestrian intelligence there is need of a song entitled "Tramp, tramp, the gals are marching!"—Boston Globe.

—Somebody notes the fact that there are other fields of ambition for young women than walking quarter-miles in quarter-hours, and points to the record of a Connecticut girl who achieved five divorces in five consecutive quarter years.

—Waltzing used to be described as the "poetry of motion," but it is anything but that as practised now. Indeed it would be difficult to imagine anything more ungraceful than the mixture of hugging and sliding now taught as "waltzing." The dancing teachers find it to their advantage to discover some new step every year, so that those whom they taught last season will have to come again just as the dressmakers find it to their advantage to invent new fashions every year, so that last year's dresses, though but little worn, will have to give place to new ones. But if the waltzing step must be changed, why can't it be changed for the better, occasionally?—N. Y. Evening Post.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

SAILED, March 8.

Sch Mary S Hontvet, Hontvet, Georges.

Capt Frank P Coleman, of Newington, leaves for Boston this morning to fit the schooner Emily A Staples for sea. The E A Staples is now lying at South Boston, hauled up. She will proceed to Philadelphia under a charter, under command of Capt Coleman, to load fifty-five thousand pressed brick to be used in the construction of Frank Jones' new National Block on Congress street.

A Visage Rivalling in Yellowness

That of a "heathen Chinee," if belonging to one of our race, can scarcely be described as attractive. But worse than this, it is the index of a disordered liver, of a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand, prompt, efficacious. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will expel the misdirected bile from the blood and divert it into the proper channel, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness, and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver, which must always exist when the skin and whites of the eyes assume this yellow hue. The pains through the right lower ribs, side and shoulder blade, the nausea, furred state of the tongue, and unpleasant breath which indicate liver complaint, in short all its disagreeable concomitants are soon remedied by this sovereign corrective, which in addition to its regulating properties is a superb invigorant, and a pure and agreeable medicinal stimulant, appetizer and nervine.

—Dancing is forbidden during Lent, but fish balls are allowable.

—A New York dealer in second-hand ball costumes has sent a dainty note to almost every prominent society lady in town, offering to purchase "the discarded costumes of the season just closed at prices that can not be ignored."

—The peach crop is ruined—that is to say, we suppose it is. Such a statement always goes around at this time of year, rain or no rain, and we might as well print the fact now as wait for somebody to say so. We know just as much about it as we should if we waited for advices from the west.—Boston Herald.

—Ole Bull is comfortably settled in a home at Madison, Wis., and, at the recent marriage, of a poor Norwegian there, he officiated in the capacity of orchestra, to the great delight of the happy pair, and the large company gathered by the announcement that this world-renowned performer was again to be heard in public.

—"Amanda, I wish you to put the large Bible in a prominent place on the centre table, and place three or four hymn books carelessly round on the sofas. I have advertised for a young man to board in a cheerful Christian family, and I tell you what, if you girls don't manage, either one of you, to rake him in, why, I'll never try anything again, for I'm tired out." —Andrews' Bazar.

—It pays to be careful. A farmer of Towanda, Pa., sold a load of hay a few days ago, agreeing to deliver it. The barn of the purchasers is in the rear of a marble yard. The farmer was told to drive in on the west side of the shop. He thought he could get in better on the east side, where a number of marble monuments were standing. The hay struck one of these monuments. It fell over against a second one. The second one crushed against a third. All three were broken. He received $7 for his hay. He will be called upon to pay $1,200 for delivering it, as that was the value of the monuments destroyed.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Scrofulous, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, compounded of drastic, purgating, or irritating ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotches, Feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or destruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. ☞ These Reprints are not selections; they give the originals in full, and at about one-third the price of the English Editions.

No publications can compare with the leading British Periodicals now-named, reprinted by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company. In respect to fidelity of research, accuracy of statement, and purity of style, they are without any equal. They keep pace with modern thought, discovery, experiment, and achievement, whether in religion, science, literature, or art. The ablest writers fill their pages with most interesting reviews of history, and with an intelligent narration of the great events of the day.

POSTAGE.
This item of expense, now borne by the publishers, is equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent on the cost to subscribers in former years.

CLUBS.
A discount of twenty per cent will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent, to one address, for $12.80, four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $48, and so on.

PREMIUMS.
New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1879 may have, without charge, the numbers for the last quarter of 1878 of such periodicals as they may subscribe for.

Or, instead, new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above periodicals, may have one of the "Four Reviews" for 1878; subscribers to all five may have two of the "Four Reviews," or one set of Blackwood's Magazine for 1878.

Neither premiums to subscribers nor discount to clubs can be allowed, unless the money is remitted direct to the publishers. No premiums given to Clubs.

To secure premiums it will be necessary to make early applications, as the stock available for that purpose is limited.

The circulation of this popular newspaper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the Daily Herald, and is arranged in handy departments. The

Foreign News

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of American News

are given the Telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes

The Weekly Herald

the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

Political News

The Farm Department

of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising Cattle, Poultry, Grains, Trees, Vegetables, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well-edited department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home,

giving recipes for practical dishes, hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Every item of cooking or economy suggested in this department is practically tested by experts before publication. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents on the very latest fashions. The Home Department of the Weekly Herald will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper. The interests of

are looked after, and everything relating to mechanics and labor-saving is carefully recorded. There is a page devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandise, &c., &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially reported prices and conditions of

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

BUFFALO AND LONDON

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary and Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers: Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. T. D. PIERCE, V. Pres. JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill, have been added to the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several departments.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES, Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert medical specialist.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system we can successfully treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent postpaid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents; postpaid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Spinal (Hip-joint in the Shoulder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Deformities, Crooked Spines, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent for receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, flagged it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who may try it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Menstruation, Irregularity, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Retroflexion, Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it will prove to be a singleness of purpose, being in most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription,

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, direct spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head actually split at times. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation, would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly.—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. I seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a purge I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The screens across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my scales of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have had a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hopes to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following that use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a chronic injury of a strain, and for which I used many preparations and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, I was induced to try and recommend one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and lameness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my usual business ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them inestimable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, Mrs. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLEANS, Mass., April 21, 1878.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in mitigating Lameness, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs, as COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER. Its virtues are unequaled by any other plaster, being the only one capable of preventing serious results from these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. FOR SALE by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Death of a Famous Scout.

There has died peacefully at the Soldiers' Home, one of those heroic spirits who, amid the clash of contending arms in a great war, helped to make the history of a nation. This man was Charles S. Bell, a journalist by profession, and scout and spy, in the union army. Any extended notice of the stirring events in which he took so large a share would be a thrilling narrative of the campaigns of Gens. Grant and Sherman, from the surrender of Vicksburg to the last drum roll at Appomattox.

Charles S. Bell was a man of admirable presence and fine physique. Entering the army in the first year of the war, when very young, his boldness, dash and indomitable courage soon attracted the attention of General Grant, whose trusted scout and spy he was until the close of the war. The tales told of his daring while thus employed trench so much on the marvellous as to come within the domain of fiction. He was known to enlist in the rebel army, don the grey uniform and serve in the ranks for months at a time, in order to obtain valuable information for his chief.

In the character of a rebel scout, in 1863, he had Gen. Chalmers, now in Congress from Mississippi into Gen. Hurlburt's lines, and in the fight which ensued the rebel general was shot in the face, the scar of which he bears to this day. In 1862, while serving in the Trans-Mississippi Department, he conducted a large detachment of the enemy across the river on the ice, ostensibly to surprise a union camp, but instead led them into a prepared ambuscade, where the entire force was captured. One officer, at the last moment, suspected the deception, but eye be could make his suspicions known the scout shot him down. He was taken prisoner in 1863, and his real character discovered; but while on his way to Richmond, heavily ironed, he leaped from the train, running at full speed, and made his escape.

An incident will further serve to show the nerve and daring of the man. While scouting within the line in Tennessee, after his last escape, he had hidden his blue uniform in a sycamore tree, and arrayed himself in confederate gray. Returning to secure his clothes, he had commenced to climb the tree when a confederate of gigantic stature arose from the bushes near by, and covering Bell with his pistol, demanded that he throw up his hands and surrender. The bold scout was equal to the emergency. Gazing fixedly up the valley—"There," said he, "comes a regiment of Yankee cavalry; its my turn now; you are my prisoner." The lieutenant turned his chance for a moment in the direction indicated, when, quick as lightning, Bell drew his revolver and shot him dead.

After the close of the war he wrote a series of romantic adventures, relating to his own experience, for the New York Ledger, and subsequently edited a small sheet devoted to brokers' interests and finance in Wall street, New York. His health breaking down, he came to the Home on the 17th of July last suffering from consumption. He went to Arkansas some weeks ago, hoping the change of climate would benefit him, but finding this unavailing he returned here soon after to die. Peace to his ashes. As far as known he has no relatives living save a brother, who is insane at the Soldiers' Home in Washington.—Dayton (Ohio) Journal.

The Value of Time.

As in a fire the loss greatly depends upon the time required for efficient aid to arrive, so the result of catarrh greatly depends upon the speedy use of efficient remedies. For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been the standard remedy. The positive cures it has effected are numbered by thousands. Each year has witnessed an increased sale. Its reputation is the result of superior merit. The disease has extended to the throat or lungs, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used with the Catarrh Remedy. These two medicines will speedily cure the most stubborn case of catarrh. See Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work of over 900 pages. Price, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

New Postal Schemes.

The clause in the post office appropriation bill which provides for the double postal card also provides for a letter-sheet envelope, which is to be stamped as envelopes are now stamped, and a double-letter envelope.

The double postal card is in size similar to the present one-cent card. It bears at both upper corners a one-cent stamp, and lines are drawn from the centre, sloping downwards to each lower corner, to be written upon. The writer of the card uses the right-hand side, and the receiver uses the left-hand side for his reply.

The double-letter envelope is stamped twice, and the sender uses the right and the receiver the left hand side in writing the address. At the back of this envelope is a double-gummed flap divided by a perforated line. The lower one is used for sealing by the sender, and the receiver uses his knife along the perforated line and has a new gummed flap ready for use.

The letter-sheet envelope is designed to do away with outer envelopes. Its patentee claims great merit for it for the reason that it often occurs that the date at which the writing has been mailed cannot be ascertained because the envelope has been lost. Here letter and envelope are one.

The new law does not direct the postmaster-general to issue these patented conveniences. It only allows him the discretion to do so. The post office department had nothing to do with having this clause inserted in the bill.

Good News—If True.

Gen. Melikoff telegraphs from St. Petersburg that the foreign physicians, at a meeting held in Wetlianka, have declared that the epidemic may be considered died out, as there have been no cases since the 9th of February; but as it is impossible to guarantee that it may not reappear, especially at Wetlianka, they recommend the continuance of certain precautions. The cordon around the government of Astrakhan, which the foreign physicians judged no longer necessary, has been withdrawn.

News and Notes.

Gen. Grant and party arrived at Calcutta on Monday.

Serious reverses for the British troops in Afghanistan are reported.

John Sharpless, an ex-policeman of New Orleans, was shot dead Saturday night. It is rumored that Sharpless, while intoxicated, insulted a lady, and was shot by her escort.

The pedestrian match between O'Leary, Ennis, Harriman and Rowell, commenced in New York at one o'clock Monday morning. Gilmore's Garden was crowded, and there was quite a riot among those who could not get in, the police being obliged to use their clubs freely to quell the disturbance.

The overland railroad train was blockaded at Summit station, Cal., Sunday, the snow being sixteen feet deep and still falling.

John P. M. Richards, of New York city, while reading in the second story of his home, Sunday evening, heard a noise on the first floor. Picking up a seven-barrelled revolver he descended the stairs, and saw two men in front of him. One ran into the front and one into the rear parlor. Richards fired at the latter four times, the last shot killing him instantly. Richards then turned on the other thief, and was about firing when he threw up his hands and surrendered.

Margaret Leary, housekeeper of the Ocean hotel, at Long Branch, was arrested Saturday, charged with setting fire to that hotel.

John R. Clay, a well-known broker at New Orleans, committed suicide Saturday by shooting himself with a pistol. Financial embarrassment was the cause.

Edward B. Burroughs, forty years of age, was struck in the head by a fragment of rock from a blast in the Rockport (Mass.) Granite Company's quarries on Saturday, and was instantly killed.

Gen. T. W. Sherman, U. S. A., is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Eight men were killed in a coal mine at Wakefield, Eng., Saturday, by the falling of the cage owing to the breaking of the hoisting rope.

Ship Turkish Empire, 1600 tons, West master, St. John to Dublin, with deals, went ashore on Big Duck, island of Grand Manan, Friday night. She was a total loss. The captain and six men were drowned. The pilot and seven men were saved. The ship was broken up.

Mrs. Page Gilbert of West Brookfield, Mass., was savagely assulted Friday evening by Miss Augusta Gilbert, an employe of the corset shop. Mrs. Gilbert's head was cut in several places, and she is in a very critical condition. Miss Gilbert has confessed the crime, and is now held by the authorities. Her motive is unknown. After doing the deed Miss Gilbert went to a drug store, said she had killed a woman and wished to buy poison to kill herself. Not obtaining it she went to the house of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Spooner, told her what she had done, and coolly called for a sponge and water to clean the blood off her hands and clothes.

Five persons were burned to death in East St. Louis, Mo., Sunday morning, by an incendiary fire, the doors of the place having been fastened outside by the incendiaries. John Borst, the husband of a woman who was burned, has been arrested, with Thomas Hammond and Andrew Marshall, as the guilty parties.

E. Solomon, a merchant of Humboldt, Tenn., is on trial at Memphis charged with having last January obtained $20,000 advances from Memphis merchants on cotton, which he agreed to ship within five days, and having before the time expired made assignment with $90,000 liabilities.

A stone weighing 270 tons has been quarried at the Sands quarry at Vinalhaven, Me. It is for the shaft of the monument to Gen. Wool, to be erected in New York.

Some twelve years ago Mrs. T. P. Shute of Stockton, Me., adopted a girl six years of age from the Children's Home at Boston. A few months later a Capt. Sylvester of Rockland adopted the child's sister, a girl eight years old, from the same institution. These two orphans have grown up to womanhood in towns a short distance apart without being aware of the whereabouts of each other. Lately, however, a dowry of $1100 fell to them from an uncle who died in Nova Scotia, and this led to their discovery and to their renewal of acquaintance.

The towns of Berkshire and Georgia in Franklin county, Mass., have elected women to the office of town clerk. Miss Leavens of Berkshire is a daughter of the former town clerk, and having assisted her father a great deal in the office she is entirely competent to discharge its duties. Mrs. Post of Georgia is the widow of the late town clerk, and is well qualified to fill the office. She was also chosen treasurer. The Randolph town meeting was visited by quite a number of young ladies in attendance upon the State normal school there, and they seemed much interested in the proceedings. No sooner was their presence observed than the men took off their hats, removed their pipes, and maintained the best of order.

Captain Wallace, of the steamship Glenlyon, from Shanghai via Suez Canal, gives some particulars of the insane actions of the captain of the ship Kentuckian, of Boston. The mate of the Glenlyon having boarded that vessel February 19th, forty miles Algiers, the captain was found with revolver in hand asserting the crew was in mutiny, and starving. He fired the revolver over the mate's head. Good order was found prevailing among the crew, but the captain was evidently out of his head. He said he was ninety days out from Treste for Southwest Pass, and offered £200 to be towed to Gibraltar. The offer was refused, but some provision he asked for was sent aboard. Later advices report that the Kentuckian put into Iviza March 3d, with Capt. Mosely dead.

The new United States sloop-of-war Galena will be launched at Norfolk on Thursday.

New Hampshire Items.

The commissioners appointed to enquire into the subject of the rights of everybody concerning the Winnepiseogee Lake Cotton & Woolen Manufacturing Co. will meet at Lake Village on the 14th of May, to hear parties interested. The governor has appointed as one of the commissioners a member of the legislature to which the report of the commission is to be made, which seems to have been indiscreet. Perhaps a member of the party in the minority might have been found by a little effort.

Manchester has 1336 boys and 1248 girls as pupils in the public schools; the average attendance is 2257.

We learn from a reliable source that a chosen committee of prominent democratic politicians of New Hampshire are negotiating with a distinguished gentleman of that party in an adjoining State, to take the editorial charge of a new-paper, to be established in Concord at an early day, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, and that a large force of canvassing agents will soon be in the field to solicit subscriptions for this unadulterated and hard-shell democratic organ, as it is reported it is to be. The capital, we think, is small for a new enterprise of this kind; still, it is a well-known fact that "large oaks from little acorns grow."—Concord Visitor.

A Vassar College Romance.

The faculty of Vassar college are rubbing their eyes in bewilderment over the discovery that one of their prettiest girls has eloped with a young man from New York city. Martha S. McDonald, petite and vivacious, entered the institution a year ago, and soon became a favorite with her companions. Not so with the faculty, however, for they saw in her the elements of mischief. She was full of pranks, and they disciplined her somewhat, but not so much as they might had her father not given $8000 to found a scholarship in the college. In the meantime Miss McDonald was clandestinely corresponding with and meeting in Poughkeepsie every Saturday, when the young ladies are permitted to leave the college to do their shopping, Mr. J. C. Spencer, Jr., a son of her father's partner in New York. Suddenly she was missing. With the assistance of two of her companions she had quietly packed her wardrobe, and as quietly stolen away to her betrothed, who is only eighteen years old, and who had a carriage waiting for her, and on her arrival they proceeded to the residence of Rev. Dr. Amendorf of the Second Reformed church in Poughkeepsie, and were made one. They then went to the Nelson house. The two young women who assisted Miss McDonald in making her escape from the college have been expelled from Vassar and sent home. The heads of the families of the bride and groom are well known in New York. They compose the firm of McDonald & Co., 532 Washington street, New York, the company being J. C. Spencer, the father of the groom. Mr. McDonald is the proprietor of the vinegar bitters, and is very wealthy. It is said the parents of the newly-married pair have become reconciled to their new relations.

—Michel Vicent, formerly famous in France and this country as the "iron man," died lately in San Francisco. His strength was enormous, one of his feats being to lift 800 pounds from the floor to his shoulder; but he too often raised a glass of liquor from a bar to his mouth, and finally died of intemperance.

—A Washington lawyer recently asked for the postponement of a case in which he was engaged on the ground that it was his wife's reception day, and that he wished to assits her. Judge Cartier answered that Washington people seemed to think of nothing but their social duties, and added: "I am unwilling to excuse lawyers from the rugged duties of life, to afford them an opportunity to participate in them. Go on with the case. Never mind the dress parade."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so far in addition, lasts longer and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Manufacturers announce the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cr. am of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. 110.

WHEAT MEAL!

— OR —

Graham Flour.

When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we cal made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, March 10; Batchelder, J.

Charles F. Langley, for drunkenness, was ordered to pay $9.90, which he did.

DR. ADAMS PERRY,

Whose sudden death from heart disease occurred about midnight last Sunday, was very extensively known, and few men will be missed more.

Dr. Perry was a native of Holliston, Mass., and was born July 4th, 1803. He moved to Portsmouth thirty-one years ago, and was the oldest physician in the city, both in practice and in years. Every physician who was in practice when he came here is dead, he having survived them all. He died at his post, with his harness on, having visited several of his patients during the day and evening on which he died.

He was one of the old anti-slavery men, and advocated those principles "when days were dark and friends were few;" when the republican party was formed he became one of its staunch supporters, and remained true to his convictions till death. He never would accept any political office, though frequently solicited so to do.

Dr. Perry had three wives, the last one surviving him. He was the father of seventeen children, ten of whom are now living.

At the time of his death he was President of the New Hampshire Botanic Medical Society. He was also a member of St. John's Lodge of Freemasons.

His funeral will take place at the North church on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

THE REFORM CLUB MEETING.

A large audience gathered in Music hall on Sunday evening, at the Reform Club meeting. Great preparations had been made for the reception of the celebrated temperance revivalists, Booth and Smith, but as already announced, sickness prevented their coming, and many were thus disappointed. The managers however succeeded in getting Messrs. Waite and Pitblado to do the talking, and Dr. E. B. Goodall with his chorus choir to lead the singing, and everything passed off successfully.

The meeting opened with a "chalk-talk" by Mr. Waite, who for thirty minutes with nimble fingers and a ready flow of language gave an excellent illustration of the evils of intemperance.

Prior to the commencement of the lecture of the evening, Dr. E. B. Goodall was made the recipient of a neat and pretty baton by the Reform Club as a token of the high esteem in which he is held by them as a leader of congregational singing. It was a complete surprise to the doctor, who was somewhat nonplussed at first, but soon rallied and went on with his duties as leader, wielding his new baton with grace, precision and vigor.

After the singing, Mr. Pitblade gave an excellent lecture, his subject being "The Fell Enchantress," to which no report can do justice. He styled moderation in drinking the "enchantress" that insidiously leads astray our young men, and followed up this thought in its many different avenues.

The finances of the club suffered no detriment by the failure of Booth and Smith to put in an appearance, as the proceeds of Sunday night paid all the bills, while the proprietors of Music hall courteously and generously released the club from its engagement of the hall for eight consecutive nights.

* * *

Dr. Goodall in a card "tenders his heartfelt thanks to the Portsmouth Reform Club for their kind remembrance in presenting him an elegant silver-tipped ebony baton. It was christened for temperance, and the very neat and happy presentation speech portrayed the power of music and song in the temperance work, particularly in that song of the people, 'We'll drink no more.'"

THE MILLPOND NUISANCE.

Mr. Editor:—The newspaper discussion of the south millpond business seems to be like a jog-handle, all on one side, nobody having as yet publicly advocated the "merits" of the plan which now stands as the one approved by the board of aldermen. But with all that has been written on the subject there is one point, and to me it seems a very important one, which has not yet been mentioned, viz: that under the plan which has met with so much opposition the filth in the pond's bed must be removed, if at all, when the flats are bare. If the putrid mud is so powerfully displeasing when undisturbed, what will the effect be when it comes to be stirred up by shovels, possibly under a broiling sun? On the other hand, if the plaff proposed by Alderman Norton, or at least introduced in the board by him, is carried out, the pond can be cleaned out at high water, by a dredge; and it needs no argument to show that the offensive smell stirred up would be trifling in this case compared to the former, as the water would suppress it to a considerable degree, and the lighter part of the sediment, which might be distributed through the water by the action of the dredge, would be carried to sea by the outgoing tide when the pond was allowed flowt o out on a cool day or night. The aldermanic advocates of a patched-up bridge, which will be worthless after it is finished, are respectfully requested to consider this hint from OLD NOSEY.

Mr. Editor:—Day by day as the ice disappears from the south pond, flats never before exposed are left bare to the action of the sun and winds; the ditch made last fall will prove effectual, and twenty acres of flats, instead of the comparatively small surface heretofore exposed, will exhale death-dealing malaria over our city. Had the tide-gates been left in place the evil so imminent could have been palliated or controlled, for a time; but now to delay action another day is to incur fearful risk, and those forcing it will incur fearful responsibility—and be held to it. Fancy twenty acres of the most disgusting filth left bare part of each day within half rifle-shot of Market square! and this because the board ordering away the protection, cannot agree upon the remedy! S. P. C. H.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

All the available force in the steam engineering department has been put at work on the Kearsarge.

The steam launch belonging to the storeship Guard is being repaired, and will be sent to Annapolis, Md., for use at the Naval Academy.

The boiler makers will soon commence work on a new boiler for the department of construction and repair, to be placed in the "head house" when completed.

The departments of construction and steam engineering are each allowed the same amount of money this month as last—the former $15,000, and the latter $5000.

The boiler of the Kearsarge will be tested to-day by steam pressure.

The rigging of the steamers Congress and Kansas has been stripped, and a portion of it will be used for the Lancaster.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, March 10th.

Elder Arthur A. Waite had a crowded house at the town hall on Friday afternoon of last week. It is not often that so many can be induced to leave their own firesides and brave the elements, as did so on that occasion; and that they were well repaid admits of not a doubt. Especially pleased were the children — although frightening them by drawing a picture of fire and brimstone, and spelling the name of the place right out loud and telling them that such would be their future abiding place if they were not good children, was not exactly the proper method to induce either children or older people to be good.

Rev. Ira S. Jones' parishioners gave him a pound party one night last week, and left behind them a good assortment of packages containing articles that won't go amiss with him. They also presented him with an elegant easy chair. Over a hundred persons were present, and the occasion was an enjoyable one to all concerned.

Capt. Hon. Varrell, with a crew of Rye boys, took the schooner Northern Star around to Gloucester on Wednesday last. They did it in just the right time, as the next day was decidedly stormy.

The democrats had quite a long-drawn-out caucus on Saturday evening. It seemed to be hard work to find anybody that they desired willing to run for selectmen, and so in the case of two of the candidates it took several ballotings before a choice was effected. As the two principal and leading greenbackers in town attended the caucus and took—certainly one of them—an active interest in it, it may be concluded that the greenback party is dead,—at least as far as Rye is concerned.

Why Hon. Frank Jones should have a grudge against anybody in town, enough to cause him to send half a ton or less of "agricultural reports" into it, is a conundrum. But he might have placed the burden of transportation and distribution where it belonged, and not have put the whole burden on the shoulders of the republican mail carrier and postmaster at the Center, and entirely ignored the democratic officials at the Beach post-office.

Great expectations are indulged in by our citizens on account of the concert by the Music hall quartette on Tuesday evening. NAT.

AN ANCIENT LANDMARK DISAPPEARING.

The old "Hart house" in Newington, situated at the "four corners" of the Newington and Gosling roads, on the farm of the late Richard Pickering, is being demolished. This is probably the oldest house in Newington, and it is stated that some parts of it are two hundred years old. It has always been noticeable for its peculiar style of architecture, and as one of the familiar sights on the road to Dover will be missed by the passers by the spot.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

As the town meeting of North Berwick was in session Monday forenoon, a part of the floor of Mechanics' hall, where it was held, gave away, and about fifty persons were precipitated to the floor below. No person was killed outright, but many were badly hurt, and some fatally.

Reuben Chadbourne had both legs broken; Thomas Ricker, shoulder and leg broken; Thomas E. Goodwin, ankle broken; George Varney, ribs broken; John Neal, George Neal and Henry S. Kidder, injured internally.

J. A. Hanson, Samuel Grover, S. Emery, Charles Cook, Frank Nutter, William Ricker, Edgar Weymouth, Herbert Johnson, Nicholas Willey, Chadbourne Boston, Nicholas Pinkham, Lindley Estes, Asa Chaney, Nathaniel Hurd and William Neal, were less seriously hurt.

Medical aid was immediately summoned from adjoining towns, and doctors went from Saco, Biddeford and Dover.

Monday evening's advices gave the number of wounded as twenty-seven, of whom six were reported dead.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Mr. Geo. Ober, from Beverly, Mass., on Monday assumed the duties of ticket agent at the Eastern railroad station in this city, succeeding Mr. Geo. F. Thompson, who is to be general travelling agent for the Eastern railroad. Mr. Thompson's extensive acquaintance with the travelling public will enable him to place the claims of the Eastern road for public patronage satisfactorily before the people. During his residence in Portsmouth he has gained many friends, who while they may regret that he will not permanently remain in our city, will be pleased that his services have been duly appreciated by the managers of the Eastern.

Lucius Tuttle, Esq., the general passenger agent of the Eastern railroad, has recently visited the White Mountain region to perfect arrangements for the resuming of travel to the mountains in connection with the Portland & Ogdensburg railroad. The travel to the mountains via North Conway and the White Mountain Notch increases yearly, as the attractions of this route are known and appreciated.

There is nothing to prevent the P. & O. and Eastern roads carrying a goodly share of the Vermont travel from the St. Johnsbury region, save the short-sighted policy of the Portland managers of that division of the Portland & Ogdensburg line. Once the connections were made direct at North Conway to and from the P. & O. for passengers bound to and from Boston; subsequently the managers at Portland thought every one coming through the Notch should visit the "natural seaport," and the connection with Boston over the P., G. F. & C. and Eastern roads was severed.

A proper developement of the capacities of the road, it would seem, is likely to ensue only upon affording passengers to and from northern Vermont the opportunity to reach Boston by the most direct route, through Portsmouth; and if the P. & O. is to earn its bonded interest it should increase its revenue by becoming part of a line between Vermont and Boston, instead of endeavoring to compel traffic to go to Portland. We trust the managers have seen the difference in results between the business done with close connection at North Conway and running the road without this advantage, and that in the future the through traffic will be correspondingly increased as facilities are permanently established.

No action was taken by the grand jury which reported in Boston on Saturday, upon the case of B. F. Patrick, late general passenger and ticket agent of the Eastern railroad, accused of embezzling $1500 of the company's funds; and it is rumored that no action will be taken hereafter, as the default has been made good to the road.

Hon. Josiah Minot of Concord has been elected president of the Northern railroad. Judge Minot has long been a director of this corporation, and of late years has been treasurer. He knows the extent and capacity of the property under his direction, and is by far the most suitable man that could be found to fill the presidency. As a sagacious, systematic and sound railroad man he has no superior in the country. The vacancy in the treasurership has been filled by the choice of Geo. A. Kittel of Boston, who likewise has been long connected with the road.

A Visage Rivalling in Yellowness

That of a "heathen Chinee," if belonging to one of our race, can scarcely be described as attractive. But worse than this, it is the index of a disordered liver, of a liver that needs arousing and regulating. The remedy is at hand, prompt, efficacious. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will compel the misdirected bile from the blood and divert it into the proper channel, open the bowels, remove the dyspeptic symptoms which invariably accompany biliousness, and counteract the rapidly developing tendency to dangerous congestion of the liver, which must always exist when the skin and whites of the eyes assume this yellow hue. The pains through the right lower ribs, side and shoulder blade, the nausea, furred state of the tongue, and unpleasant breath which indicate liver complaint, in short all its disagreeable concomitants are soon remedied by this sovereign corrective, which in addition to its regulating properties is a superb invigorant, and a pure and agreeable medicinal stimulant, appetizer and nervine.

Fifty Cents will do it! What? Why cure your cold or cough by using a bottle of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Political.

The New York Herald has interviewed the democratic members of the Forty-fifth Congress, on the Presidential question. Fifty-seven of the 127 members interviewed were outspoken against Tilden and he is the first choice of only nine and would be acceptable to only thirteen. Twelve want Thurman and he would be acceptable to eleven others. Twenty-eight spoke for Hendricks and ten others would be satisfied with him. Bayard would be acceptable to nineteen and is the first choice of ten. Forty-two expressed no choice. The main opposition to Tilden comes from the far west and south.

Justus Schwab, the New York lager beer seller and communist, is disturbing the commune element in that city, and steps are being taken to have him expelled from the organization. Charges have been preferred against him to the heads of the party in Cincinnati and Newark of slandering one fellow member, and of using "brutal violence" to two others. This will never do; the slanders and brutal violance of the commune must be directed against those unprincipled oppressers who persist in working honestly for a living, and refuse to spend all their earnings in the lager beer saloons.

The democratic legislature of Indiana having followed the example of the democratic Congress, and refused to make appropriations because its reckless partisan legislation was combatted by the republicans, has been convened in extra session by the old blue jeans breeches which do service as governor of that State.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians prounounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprs. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chaff, crude and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to the Head, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are unprovoked and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Patterson's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprs. HOWARD ASSOCIATION, 419 N. Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

An Institution having a high reputation for honorable conduct and professional skill. REMOVAL.

INCORPORATED JANUARY 1, 1878. CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago associated several medical gentlemen with himself in his, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary and Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers: Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres. JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our extensive practice.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of our skilled specialists.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Advisor" (1,000 pages, sent prepaid for $1.50) or "Invalids' Guide to Health" (Guide Book," 100 pages, 10 cents post-paid.

SURGICAL DISEASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Club Foot, Hip Joint Disease, Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Lateral Stricture in the Urethra, Gravel, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Tumors, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Medical as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this a natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the chiefest or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions with Pain, Unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it is invariably positive in the cure of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on those subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice, in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My breath became all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation upon them, but the request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the postnasal matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly—a deep hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early fatal by Consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I to GAN to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my coughing in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils to that they soon ceased to trouble me. The tormentor across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I witnessed a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during the period of six years past, and have, while following this case, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

COLLINS'

VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Having for many months past suffered with a very painful side, called by my physicians Pleurisy, accompanied by a dry cough, sharp darts at times, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the various chemical cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since, with little pain or ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them invaluable, and shall will pleasure recommend them to my afflicted friends in my specialty. MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN, Orland, Me., April 21, 1875.

There is no medical or proprietary appliance that will move so gratefully and effectively in Pleuritic Pain, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs, as the Plaster capable of preventing serious results to these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with Pure Gum Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8th.

The total of bills and joint resolutions introduced during the late session into the House was 6,826; into the Senate, 1936. The following are among those of most public importance which, with the army and legislative appropriation bills, failed of passage by one or the other, or by both of the two Houses, or which, if passed, failed to obtain the President's signature: Bill to regulate inter-State commerce; Geneva award bill; "steamboat bill;" postal savings bank bill; that to repeal specie resumption act, granting pensions to Mexican war survivors; sugar bill; that restricting Chinese emigration (by veto); bill to enforce eight hour law; to transfer Indian affairs to War Department; Mississippi levee bill; to extend time for completion of Northern Pacific R. R.; to regulate transportation of animals by rail; Brazilian mail subsidy; to devote proceeds of sale of public lands to educational purposes; authorizing railroad companies to construct and maintain telegraph lines for commercial purposes; to revise patent laws; besides hundreds of a private nature or which were only of local interest. Among the large number of interested spectators of the last hours of the session were the lobbyists, who grew more anxious as the hours flew by, and the prospect of favorable action upon jobs on whose success large contingent fees were based, grew beautifully less. I presume few outside the guild will shed many tears over their blighted hopes of easily acquired fortunes, though many of them are socially recognized as "good fellows." But it would be unjust to class all outsiders who were striving to influence the passage of different measures, in this category. Among them were not a few controlling or concerned in large business interests and who as a rule oppose government subsidies, who made an exception in favor of the Brazilian mail allowance because they believed it would be returned to us manyfold in the permanent extension of our commerce.

It is the prevailing belief that the greenbackers are deceiving themselves as to the controlling influence they are likely to exert in the organization of the next House, and I believe republican sentiment generally favors Randall as against any man outside their own party for Speaker.

I only express a very prevalent feeling when I declare that the south may likely regret in sack cloth and ashes the opposition of her Representatives in Congress to the proposition for a national quarantine system, before the coming of next autumn's frosts. To those remembering the terrible punishment suffered by the towns and country of the lower Mississippi so few months ago that the appalling details are recalled without an effort, their action seems inexplicable, to draw it mildly. In matters political something of the reasons which impel them to fight any seeming surrender of State rights can be understood, though the wisdom is sometimes doubted that leads to the sacrifice of so much practical comfort and utility in order that their devotion and allegiance to a mere dogma may not be questioned. But the matter of a national quarantine could hardly be tortured into the remotest connection with politics proper. And all the losses and annoyances which would grow out of the surveillance and interference with trade that may be presupposed from such a system of quarantine as was proposed would not amount to a tithe of the material losses by one such visitation as that of 1878, saying nothing of the fearful aggregate of suffering and loss of valuable life inseparable from it. Let us hope that the new men from that section in the 46th Congress will bring to the consideration of this subject practical and enlarged views commensurate to the vast and vital interests involved.

Despite the strong tendency of modern sentiment against the deification of the past as painted by contemporaneous historians and biographers, we all regret that Congress should have adjourned without some provision looking to the completion of the Washington monument, whose unfinished shaft has stood a reproach to the nation for a quarter of a century; but we have at last a generous appropriation ($250,000, I believe,) where with to begin a structure to accommodate the national museum. KNOX.

Municipal Elections in Maine.

The municipal elections in Maine on Monday of last week indicated that the greenback craze was about over, the republicans carrying by good majorities a number of places captured by the democ-greenbackers last year, and greatly reducing the fusion majorities in other towns.

On Monday of this week additional elections took place, with the same general result—large republican gains in nearly every place where the greenbackers showed strength last year.

In Bangor, carried by the fusionists at the previous election, the republicans elected their candidate for mayor by 146 majority over the greenodemback candidate, and carried four wards out of seven, giving them full control of the city government.

Last year the greenback fusion carried the town of Hampden by 211 majority; last Monday the republicans carried it by 75 majority.

Belfast was carried by the republicans and honest-money democrats, by 91 majority on mayor; both boards of the city councils were carried by the honest-money party, the rag-baby men electing but one alderman and two councilmen.

The city government of Augusta was secured by the republicans, who carried four wards out of seven; there was no choice of mayor, the republican candidate having 730 votes, the greenbacker 563, and the "citizen" 619.

Biddeford was carried by the fusionists by seven majority, and the combination carried four wards out of seven. The republican vote was about the same as last year, when there were three candidates for mayor in the field.

Another Murder in Maine.

At Oldtown, near Bangor, Me., Monday afternoon, Augustus McGowen, a wheelwright seventy years old, was found dead on the floor of a room attached to his shop, in which he had lived alone. The body was dressed; the throat was cut in two places, the frontal bone crushed in, and other severe wounds upon the head. There was nothing in the room disturbed, and a pocket-book, with some bills, was found in the dead man's pocket. An axe with blood upon it was found on a lounge on the opposite side of the room from the body. McGowen was last seen alive about nine o'clock Sunday night, and the indications are that he was attacked while reading at a small table.

Disastrous Flood in Hungary.

By the bursting of two dams or embankments protecting the city of Szegedin, Hungary, from the overflow of the Theiss river, many people were driven from the surrounding country into the city, on Monday. The village of Dorozsma, containing 400 houses, was destroyed, the inhabitants who escaped taking refuge in the hills. Szegedin is a city of 70,000 inhabitants, and is built upon a very low marsh on both sides of the Theiss river, and protected by levees; Monday evening 5000 men were at work on these levees, a state of seige having been proclaimed, and everybody who was summoned to work being compelled to obey on pain of instant death. It was stated that should the embankment yield, 80,000 people would be rendered homeless.

News and Notes.

The Lynn trunk mystery is a mystery still, the body of the unfortunate woman found in the trunk having not yet been identified.

Mrs. Arthur Dyson, for the murder of whose husband Charles Pease was recently hanged in England, was arrested in Cleveland, Ohio, on Sunday, for quarrelling and drunkenness in a beer saloon.

The new city government of Portland was installed Monday. Mayor Walker's address showed the total city debt to be $5,319,100. Deducting sinking funds, stocks and cash assets, the net debt is $3,867,689. The debt has been decreased during the year $151,150. This saving was accomplished by economy, without increasing taxation. There is no floating debt.

The Scientific American of this week contains an interesting article on ale brewing as conducted in one of the Albany breweries, with descriptive cuts showing the method by which the result of various processes in the art is obtained.

The British steamship Homer, which left Boston for Liverpool Dec. 17th, has not since been heard of, and is supposed to have foundered with all on board.

Wallace Ross, the well-known oarsman of St. John, N. B., on Monday beat Frank Emmett of Jarrow, England, over the Thames championship course, for £100 a side. Ross won with hardly an effort, by six or eight lengths.

Alexander Cavitt and Wm. Armstrong quarrelled at Galveston, Texas, Monday, about some corn; Cavitt shot Armstrong three times, killing him, and then fled. At Clarksville, Texas, Sunday night, two men named Dillard, with two friends, met Henry Jones and one or two of his friends, when both parties commenced firing with shot guns and pistols; Jones and one of the Dillards were killed, and several persons wounded. There is some thought of arresting some of the parties to the affair, unless they behave better in the future.

As an illustration of the improved business outlook the Cincinnati Commercial says: "The head of one of the largest firms of this city started west on an extensive collecting tour a few weeks ago, and returned much sooner than he anticipated with the cheerful report that he had not failed to collect every dollar for goods, and had not found a single 'bad debt' in the whole list of the firm's customers. The cash was paid on demand, and accompanied with fresh orders for the ensuing season. This may be an exceptional case, and partially due to the prudence of the house in extending credit. But the gentleman found it so much easier than heretofore to make collections that he attributes it as much to the improved financial condition of the country as to any other cause."

The wife of Joseph Hummel of Cincinnati, formerly of Boston, is reported as having inherited the sum of twenty-one million of dollars.

Rev. John Weiss, the well-known author, died in Boston on Sunday.

The "Life of William Cullen Bryant," by Prof. D. J. Hill, of Lewisburg University, will be published by Sheldon & Company in a few days. This is the second of the series of great American authors which Prof. Hill is preparing, the "Life of Irving" having been the first. The "Life of Bryant" will be a book of 250 pages, and will contain a steel-plate likeness of Bryant. It is the purpose of the author to make each volume a personal, literary, and anecdotal biography of one of our great authors, and the success which he attained in the "Life of Irving" has awakened high expectations of the series.

At the last term of court held in Somerset county, Me., Judge Virgin was led to believe that the welfare of society would be promoted if he made one two; or, in others words, if he divorced a man and wife who said their lives were not happy. The woman gave as a reason why she wished the bonds rent asunder that she loved some one else better than her husband, or rather that her husband was not her affinity. After the divorce was granted she was married to her affinity, and went to live with him. All went as merry as a marriage bell until the other day, when the new-found affinity got on his muscle and broke up the family crockery. Now another divorce is in order.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. H. M. Hart of Manchester was a passenger on board the barque Azorean, which sailed from Boston on Monday for Fayal.

Frank Smith of North Haverhill, bound for Boston in charge of a car on the stock train of the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad, Monday, was knocked from the top of the car by a bridge at Weirs, the blow crushing his skull, probably fatally.

A yard of four deer was found on Swett mountain in Bartlett recently. They were all killed.

The Concord Carriage company commenced March 1st, to work on full time, ten hours, with an increase of workmen in every branch.

S. A. Spofford, of Hopkinton, cut his foot off Saturday with an axe. A few days ago he received a scalp cut and was knocked down by an axe.

Stephen S. Chick, of Great Falls, high sheriff of Strafford county, has made all necessary arrangements to execute the law upon the New Durham murderer, John Q. Pinkham, on Friday next.

Political.

Camden, Me., elected a whole board of greenback town officers by a vote of three to one. The democrats made no nominations.

Gen. Frank Morey of Louisiana reports that hundreds of colored people are selling off everything they possess and emigrating to Kansas and other States, where they will feel secure in life and property.

At Ellsworth, Me., Monday, a staunch republican took a democratic ticket to look at, folded it up and put it in his vest pocket. Subsequently he did the same with a republican one. Arriving at the polls he took out one ticket and deposited it in the ballot box, and when he got home was horrified to find that he still had a republican ballot in his pocket.

An intellectual member of the Arkansas legislature has introduced a bill abbreviating the season of Lent from forty to twenty days. He explains that everything else has come down fifty per cent since the war, and there should be no discrimination in favor of Lent.

When President Lincoln was waited upon of a deputation of anti-temperance people, soon after the fall of Vicksburg, who labored to prove that General Grant "drank," Mr. Lincoln's reply was: "Gentlemen, if you can find out what brand of whiskey he uses, I should like to send a little to some of the other generals." Senator Chandler has often been accused of a like indulgence. But a little of his brand of whiskey, it will be agreed, seemed to be a good thing when Jefferson Davis is compared to George Washington on the floor of the Senate chamber. Unstimulated patriotism was not quite equal to the emergency.—Springfield Republican.

The Crowning Discovery.

All the "phones" of this phonetic age are surpassed in practical benefit to mankind, by the discovery of Allan's Anti-Fat, the great and only known remedy for obesity, or corpulency. It produces no weakness or injurious effect. Its action being simply confined to regulating digestion, and preventing an undue assimilation of the carbonaceous, or flesh-producing, elements of the food. Sold by druggists.

WHEAT MEAL!
— OR —
Graham Flour.
When Wheat is ground it becomes Wheat Meal; when it is bolted it becomes Wheat Flour. Dr. Graham, who lectured through the country forty years ago on dietetics formed the fraternity known as "Grahamites." He said that bolted Flour should not be eaten, but that bread ought to be made of Wheat Meal instead; from him it got the name of Graham Flour. All Graham Flour therefore ought to be Wheat Meal, but about three-quarters of it is what we call made up Graham, that is, artificially mixed Cheap Flour and Bran, and is in every way inferior to the genuine article. Hardly a person who uses the genuine Wheat Meal would take the bogus article except on compulsion.

THE CITY.

The Music hall quartette sang at Rye on Tuesday evening, in a church concert.

Mary Anderson is to appear at Music hall on the 24th, and Jim Myers on the 27th, of the present month.

Fishermen and others can procure oiled clothing of the best quality, and at reasonable prices, at Myers & Co.'s.

Hon. James W. Emery has been chosen president, and Woodward Emery a director, in the Caledonia Coal and Railway Company.

Mr. George W. Philbrick of this city has been appointed night operator for the Boston & Maine railroad at Dover, which duty he assumed Monday night.

Mr. Foster Shores of this city has accepted an engagement with the well known house of Geo. Wm. Ballou & Co., of Boston, a firm that is selling more bonds than any other banking house in the country.

"Five-cent counters" are not confined to the dry goods stores. Mercer Goodrich has one at his bookstore, though there are no tin pots nor iron spoons on it; he is selling mucilage at five cents a bottle, with brush complete.

St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M., will meet at the lodge room on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, to attend the funeral of the late Bro. Adams Perry. The fraternity generally are invited to join. PER ORDER.

Tuesday of this week was the quietest "second Tuesday in March" experienced in this city for many a year. We were wholly oblivious of the fact that it was election day until a gentleman from Rye brought us in the returns from that town.

Dr. Wm. R. Proston advertises fancy soaps, nursery and toilet articles, tooth brushes, etc., for sale low, and Lubin's perfumes at reduced prices. At his store can always be found a large and choice stock of such articles as are usually kept in drug stores, in addition to pure drugs and all the standard patent medicines; and when it comes to perfumery there is none in the market superior to the cologne made by Dr. Preston himself—though he does not mention this excellent article in his advertisement.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON SERVICE.

Rev. A. A. Waite has very kindly consented to give an account of his life and conversion, at Music hall next Sunday afternoon, commencing at 4:15 o'clock, all the proceeds to be appropriated to furnishing a mission hall for children's mission, temperance and seamen's services. Twelve hundred numbered tickets will be issued, and sold at ten cents each—on and after Thursday morning at Montgomery's, Myers' bookstore and Dr. Kimball's drug store. The hall doors will open at three o'clock. JAMES JANVRIN, Treas.

HEADSTONES FOR SOLDIERS' GRAVES.

The following is a circular sent to all the Grand Army posts from the Adjutant General's office, Headquarters G. A. R., in New York:

I. The following extract from a circular, issued by the War Department, is hereby promulgated for the information of those whom it may concern:

"It is probably generally remembered that some years ago (in 1873) Congress passed a law providing for the erection of durable headstones over the graves of soldiers of the Regular and Volunteer forces of the United States, whose remains are interred in the National Military Cemeteries. This law has been carried out, and the graves of the Nation's dead in these cemeteries are now permanently marked. At the instance of the War Department, Congress has recently authorized the erection of similar headstones over the graves of the Union Soldiers who are buried in private and village cemeteries. This will be done as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. In the meantime, the Quartermaster-General at Washington will at once proceed to collect the necessary information as to where these headstones are required. All persons having any knowledge of the burial places of soldiers in private cemeteries whose graves are not marked, are requested to communicate the fact to the Quartermaster-General. Similar information is desired from parties in charge of such cemeteries. Of course, it is not intended to furnish headstones for graves over which monuments have already been erected by relatives or friends of the deceased."

II. The Commander-in-Chief desires that the widest publicity shall be given to the above, and that Post Commanders endeavor to have the information and request contained therein published in their local newspapers.

Any one possessing information regarding unmarked soldiers' graves anywhere in this vicinity should at once report to the Grand Army Post in this city, giving such facts as are at hand regarding name, age, date of death, etc.

[Communicated.]

PESTILENCE.

During the summer of 1878, when the south was suffering from the fearful scourge, yellow fever, and the north was raising its thousands of dollars in various ways, for relief, we were constantly confronted with stories of "lack of precautionary measures" by the southern cities and towns, which caused some to say, "served them right." One paper published an account of the breaking in of a sewer in the central part of a town, and the authorities allowed it to remain an open sink of filth, and perhaps it so still remains, to produce or assist in producing like sorrows the coming season.

But what shall we say when we find enthrprising New England cities tolerating pestilence-breeding beds of nastiness in their very midst, simply because of carrying "jokes and jests" into the board of aldermen? Men worthy of holding positions of trust and honor should be above such things when acting in their official capacity, and act with that sobriety worthy of men. Are we to see this danger which appears to stare us in the face averted, or have we got to rise en masse and demonstrate popular indignation before our board of aldermen can comprehend that they have duties to perform above petty spleens and low jests? Warmer weather is coming and time is getting short, and what is to be done must be done at once. For it has been demonstrated during the past season that our harbor quarantine is not under our own control, and we know not what our neighbors in Kittery may do when ships from southern ports, possibly bearing pestilence and death, chose to sail up our river, or how much power we have to protect ourselves in that direction. Therefore let us defend ourselves as far as we can, by being clean. M.

Those of our citizens who are most earnestly interested in the removal of the millpond nuisance—and they include many of the heaviest tax-payers—very reasonably expected the board of aldermen at their regular meeting last Thursday evening would adopt some plan whereby something would be done in the matter.

For two years the late and present boards have wrestled with this question. Some eighteen months ago a committee was appointed from the board, to consider the subject and devise a plan to abate the evil. A meeting of the citizens was called by them, and was attended by some of the heaviest tax-payers; the matter was discussed, and the universal voice was that any feasible plan would have the general approval. A civil engineer was hired from Boston to inspect the ponds and make plans for obviating the trouble; these plans were made at a cost of nearly $400, and submitted to the board—but what has become of them? Certainly nothing has been done that the civil engineer advised.

The present board also appointed a committee, and they seem to have taken some decisive steps, and to be willing to proceed if allowed. The south millpond has been purchased, which gives the city absolute control, as it seemed necessary it should have. A plan and specifications were submitted to the board, and were adopted, although strongly opposed by some members, a part of whom left the room when the vote was taken, for the purpose of leaving no quorum. At the next meeting of the board the vote of the previous meeting was reconsidered, and another plan submitted—a plan that if carried out would afford a partial and temporary relief; the matter was taken from the hands of the first committee, who had given much time and personal attention to it, and handed to the committee on streets, roads and bridges, to prepare specifications and estimates for carrying out the new plan, and report at the next meeting of the board, on Thursday evening, the 6th inst.

The specified time arrived, but the specifications and estimates did not; there was no report ready; the committee wanted further time, which was granted. Of the aldermen who opposed the first plan only one was present, though others were around the city rooms during the evening. Why they absented themselves they best know; but if it was because they had found out that the new plan was almost universally disapproved of by the citizens, they had an easy way out of the trouble, viz.: to adopt and carry out the first plan, which the citizens almost universally approved, believing it would prove effectual.

Further playing with this important question will hardly be tolerated by the citizens, who are not so much interested in the personal enmities or political aspirations of individual aldermen as they are in having the whole board do something sensible in the way of abating the horrible nuisance of past summers. The municipal election is now held in August—good hot weather; and if the voters have to wade through the same stench as in past years to reach the voting places, they will be likely to remember to whom they are indebted for such a luxury. PUBLIUS.

RYE ELECTION.

At the town meeting in Rye, Tuesday afternoon, the following officers were elected:

Joseph W. Garland, moderator;
Oren S. Green, town clerk;
Benjamin B. Batchelder, Oren Drake and Charles D. Garland, selectmen;
David Jenness, treasurer.

All democrats, and elected by unanimous vote.

THE NORTH BERWICK ACCIDENT.

At the time of the accident about 500 people were in the hall, which is sixty feet long by thirty-five feet wide, the moderator's desk being in one end; the hall is in the second story of a wooden building 115 feet long, fifty-four feet wide and three stories high, erected three years ago, and owned by Knight Hall, & Co.; the lower floor was used as a carriage shop. The people were crowded around the moderator's desk, and that official had just announced the result of the first ballot to be "no choice," which occasioned some little commotion, when the first section of the flooring, about thirty-five feet long and twelve feet wide, gave way, having no suitable supports, precipitating 150 persons a distance of fourteen feet. No persons were killed outright, and none were reported dead up to Tuesday evening, though several of the wounded were not expected to recover.

THE VICINITY.

Last year's town officers of Newcastle were re-elected on Tuesday without opposition.

Elder Arthur A. Waite, the evangelist, lectures at Kittery on Wednesday. He will be at Eliot on Thursday and at Greenland on Friday.

Hon. Joshua G. Hall leaves for Washington on Saturday. During his absence his professional business will be attended to by Ex-Judge Jeremiah Smith, of Dover.

The Rochester Courier gives the names of sixteen ladies who have immortalized themselves by being the first to vote at a school meeting in this State. Of the number fourteen are unmarried.

The schooner Wm. Penn, recently on shore at Vineyard Haven, has been floated by aid of the revenue cutter Gallatin, and is to sail for St. George, Me., for through repairs. We suspect that this is the old schooner Wm. Penn formerly owned by the Dover Packet Co., and built at Dover many years ago; if so she is an aged craft.

Mail matter for Exeter from Hampton, Hampton Falls and Seabrook, reaches its destination via Portland. Mail matter from Exeter for Hampton and the other towns named goes to Boston first, and is thence forwarded over the Eastern railroad. The new mail route between Exeter and Hampton direct will do away with some of this circumlocutory work.

Not Symptoms, but the Disease.

It would seem to be a truth appreciable by all, and especially by professors of the healing art, that to remove the disease, not to alleviate its symptoms, should be the chief aim of medication. Yet in how many instances do we see this truth admitted in theory, ignored in practice. The reason that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is successful in so many cases, with which remedies previously tried were inadequate to cope, is attributable to the fact that it is a medicine which reaches and removes the causes of the various maladies to which it is adapted. Indigestion, fever and ague, liver complaint, gout, rheumatism, disorders of the bowels, urinary affections and other maladies are not palliated merely, but rooted out by it. It goes to the fountain head. It is really, not nominally, a radical remedy, and it endows the system with an amount of vigor which is its best protection against disease.

Great Joy over the fact that your cough can be thoroughly cured by Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup.

Why not make up your minds, at present, what Hotel you are going to stop at when you arrive in New York? The Grand Central, on Broadway, is now kept on both the American plan at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European plan at $1.00, and upwards, per day. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

Lungs cannot be made but can be saved by the use of Dr. A. J. Flagg's Cough and Lung Syrup if taken in time.

The Winners of Prizes in the French Exposition Lottery

Are thus described in the Paris correspondence of the New York Tribune: "A ticket porter has won the grand diamond baume; a young man who sells ladies' gloves at the Vieuxtemps, the locomotive; a girl employed in polishing pinchbeck rings, 25,000 francs worth of brilliants; an employee in the National, the fellow lot. So far there has not been a rich man or woman favored by fortune with a gross lot. All the water does not go to the river. It is well for people, weighdily handicapped by the circumstances of their birth, breeding and employment, to believe in luck as well as the saving power of merit." The scheme of the celebrated Louisiana State Lottery is far more attractive, as presented for the next drawing in another column.

"What are the Profits?

This is the absorbing point that is of chief interest in every business transaction. By the combination system of operating in stocks, Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite the orders of thousands of patrons, in various sums, into one immense amount, and operate them as a mighty whole, thus obtaining all the advantages of the largest capitalists and best skill. Profits are distributed pro rata among shareholders every month. In this way large gains are secured in short periods, and capital from $10 or $10,000 can be used with equal proportionate success. $20 will make $100 in 30 days. $150 will pay $1500 profit, or 10 per cent. on the stock, and so on according to the market. D. Stokes, of Troy, made $815.75 on an investment of $50. Many customers are doing better. The new circular has "two unerring rules for success," and full details so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the most loathsome Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons and the effects of bad Blood are eradicated, and vigorous healthand a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Tettermore, Ringworm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
